 20 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
 21 FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA

22 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

23 Plaintiff,

24 v.

1 JUNZO SUZUKI,

17 Defendant.

2:15-cr-00198-GMN-NJK

16 Binding Plea Agreement Pursuant to Fed. R.
 17 Crim. P. 11(c)(1)(C) for Defendant Junzo
 18 Suzuki

19 This plea agreement between Junzo Suzuki ("defendant") and the United States Department of 20 Justice, Criminal Division, Fraud Section, and the United States Attorney's Office for the District of 21 Nevada (together, the "United States") sets forth the parties' agreement regarding the criminal charges
 22 referenced herein and the applicable sentence, fine, restitution, and forfeiture in the above-captioned 23 case. This is a binding agreement pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C).

1 The United States and defendant agree that the offense level to which the parties stipulate is 2 correct and that a sentence of 60 months of imprisonment and a supervised release term of 3 years is 3 appropriate in this case. If the district court accepts the plea agreement, it will be obligated to accept
4 the parties' stipulated offense level and impose the agreed-upon sentence. This agreement binds only 5 defendant, the United States, and the district court, and does not bind the U.S. Probation Office or any 6 other federal, state, local, or foreign prosecuting, enforcement, administrative, or regulatory authorities.
7 This agreement does not prohibit the United States or any agency or third party from seeking any other
8 civil or administrative remedies, including administrative forfeiture or civil forfeiture in rem actions, 9 directly or indirectly, against defendant or defendant's property.

10 Defendant understands and agrees that this agreement is part of a "group plea deal" in which 11 the disposition of the case against defendant is tied to and conditioned on the disposition of the case
12 against his co-defendant, Paul Suzuki. Accordingly, defendant and the United States agree that this 13 agreement and the obligations it creates will not become binding on the United States and defendant 14 unless and until: (a) defendant executes this agreement and enters a guilty plea in accordance with this 15 agreement; and (b) Paul Suzuki executes his plea agreement with the United States and enters a guilty 16 plea in accordance with his agreement. Defendant acknowledges that defendant has discussed with 17 defendant's counsel, and carefully considered the possible advantages and disadvantages to defendant
18 of entering into this agreement as part of the group plea deal; defendant is entering into this agreement 19 as part of the group plea deal freely and voluntarily because defendant believes this agreement and the 20 group plea deal to be in defendant's best interests; and defendant is not entering into this agreement as 21 part of the group plea deal because of threats, coercion, or other undue influence by the United States
22 or by the other defendant who is part of the group plea deal, his counsel, or anyone acting on his behalf.

Defendant acknowledges that his counsel also represent Paul Suzuki in this case. Defendant has knowingly and voluntarily agreed to this joint representation and has knowingly and voluntarily waived any potential conflict of interest that may arise out of such joint representation.

I. DEFENDANT'S OBLIGATIONS

1. Defendant agrees to:

a. At the earliest opportunity requested by the United States and provided by the district court, appear and plead guilty to Count Eight of the superseding indictment in this case, which charges defendant with wire fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1343;

b. Stipulate to the facts agreed to in this agreement;

c. Abide by all agreements regarding sentencing contained in this agreement;

d. Not seek to withdraw defendant's guilty plea once it is entered;

e. Appear for all court appearances, surrender as ordered for service of sentence, obey all conditions of any bond, and obey any other ongoing court order in this matter;

f. Not commit any federal, state, or local crime;

g. Be truthful at all times with the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Offices and the district court;

h. Before and after sentencing, upon request by the district court, the United States Probation Office, provide accurate and complete financial information, submit sworn and/or give depositions under oath concerning defendant's assets and defendant's ability to provide the required disclosure, defendant agrees to provide any and all financial information requested by the U.S. Probation Office for preparation of the Presentence Report.

Defendant further agrees that, upon filing of this agreement, the United States is authorized to obtain defendant's credit report. Defendant will also complete a financial form provided by the United States, to include all supporting documentation, and return it to the United States within three (3) weeks from

1 entry of the plea. Defendant agrees that the district court may enter any order necessary to effectuate
2 or facilitate disclosure of defendant's financial information;

3 i. To facilitate payment of any fine, restitution, or assessment, surrender assets
4 defendant obtained directly or indirectly as a result of defendant's crimes. Defendant agrees to 5 voluntarily release funds and property under defendant's control or in which defendant has any property
6 interest, before and after sentencing, to pay any fine or restitution identified in this agreement, agreed 7 to by the parties, or ordered by the district court; and

8 j. The imposition of an in personam criminal forfeiture money judgment as set 9 forth in this plea agreement and Forfeiture Allegation Two of the superseding indictment.

10 II. THE UNITED STATES' OBLIGATIONS

11 2. The United States agrees to:

12 a. Stipulate to facts agreed to in this agreement;
13 b. Abide by all agreements regarding sentencing contained in this agreement; 14 c. At sentencing, provided that defendant demonstrates an acceptance of 15 responsibility for the offense up to and including the time of sentencing, recommend a two-level
16 reduction in the applicable sentencing guidelines offense level, pursuant to United States Sentencing 17 Guideline ("USSG") § 3E1.1, and move for an additional one-level reduction if available under that 18 section;

19 d. At sentencing, move to dismiss the remaining counts of the superseding 20 indictment as against defendant. Defendant agrees, however, that the district court may consider any 21 dismissed charges in determining the applicable sentencing guidelines range, the propriety and extent 22 of any departure from that range, and the sentence to be imposed; and

e. Not bring any additional charges against defendant arising out of the investigation related to this case in the District of Nevada and elsewhere, which culminated in this agreement and based on conduct known to the United States. However, the United States reserves the right to prosecute defendant for (a) any crime of violence as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 16; and (b) any criminal tax violations (including conspiracy to commit such violations chargeable under 18 U.S.C. § 371).

III. ELEMENTS OF THE OFFENSE

3. Count Eight: The elements of wire fraud under 18 U.S.C. § 1343 are as follows:

First: Defendant knowingly devised and intended to devise a scheme or plan to defraud, or a scheme or plan for obtaining money or property by means of false or fraudulent pretenses, representations, or promises;

Second: The statements made as part of the scheme were material; that is, they had a natural tendency to influence, or were capable of influencing, a person to part with money or property;

Third Defendant acted with intent to defraud; that is, the intent to deceive and cheat; and

Fourth Defendant used, or caused to be used, an interstate or foreign wire communication to carry out or attempt to carry out an essential part of the scheme.

¹⁰ See Ninth Circuit Model Criminal Jury Instruction 8.124 (2010 ed.) (last approved September 2020).

IV. CONSEQUENCES OF CONVICTION

4. Maximum Statutory Penalties: Defendant understands that the statutory maximum sentence the district court can impose for a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1343 as charged in Count Eight is: 20 years imprisonment; a three-year period of supervised release; a fine of $250,000 or twice the gross

1 gain or gross loss resulting from the offense, whichever is greatest; and a mandatory special assessment
2 of $100.

3 5. Restitution: Defendant understands that, under 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, defendant will be 4 required to pay full restitution to the victims of the offense to which defendant is pleading guilty.
5 Defendant agrees that, in return for the United States' compliance with its obligations under this 6 agreement, the district court may order restitution to persons other than the victims of the offense to 7 which defendant is pleading guilty and in amounts greater than those alleged in the count to which 8 defendant is pleading guilty. In particular, defendant agrees that the district court may order restitution
9 to any victim of any of the following for any losses suffered by that victim as a result: (a) any relevant
10 conduct, as defined in USSG § 1B1.3, in connection with the offense to which defendant is pleading 11 guilty; and (b) any counts dismissed and charges not prosecuted pursuant to this agreement as well as 12 all relevant conduct, as defined in USSG § 1B1.3, in connection with those counts and charges. The 13 parties agree that restitution is mandatory under 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, and that the parties will submit 14 sentencing memoranda to the district court as to each party's respective position as to the amount of 15 restitution that the district court should impose.

16 6. Criminal Forfeiture: Defendant understands that the district court will impose an in 17 personam criminal forfeiture money judgment.

18 7. Parole Abolished: Defendant acknowledges that defendant's prison sentence cannot be 19 shortened by early release on parole because parole has been abolished.

20 8. Supervised Release: Defendant understands that supervised release is a period of time 21 following imprisonment during which defendant will be subject to various restrictions and 22 requirements. Defendant understands that if defendant violates one or more of the conditions of any 23 supervised release imposed, defendant may be returned to prison for all or part of the term of supervised 24 release authorized by statute for the offense that resulted in the term of supervised release, which could

1 result in defendant serving a total term of imprisonment greater than the statutory maximum stated
2 above. The United States does not oppose defendant serving his term of supervised release in Japan,
3 but defers to the U.S. Probation Office and the Court.

4 9. Factors under 18 U.S.C. § 3553: Defendant understands that the district court must 5 consider the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) in determining defendant's sentence.

6 10. Potential Collateral Consequences of Conviction: Defendant understands that, by 7 pleading guilty, defendant may be giving up valuable government benefits and valuable civic rights,
8 such as the right to vote, the right to possess a firearm, the right to hold office, and the right to serve on 9 a jury. Defendant understands that once the district court accepts defendant's guilty plea, it will be a 10 federal felony for defendant to possess a firearm or ammunition. Defendant understands that the 11 conviction in this case may also subject defendant to various other collateral consequences, including 12 but not limited to revocation of probation, parole, or supervised release in another case and suspension
13 or revocation of a professional license. Defendant understands that unanticipated collateral 14 consequences will not serve as grounds to withdraw defendant's guilty plea.

15 11. Potential Removal/Deportation Consequences of Conviction: Defendant understands 16 that, if defendant is not a United States citizen, the felony conviction in this case may subject defendant 17 to removal, also known as deportation, which may, under some circumstances, be mandatory; denial of 18 citizenship; and denial of admission to the United States in the future. The district court cannot advise 19 defendant fully regarding the immigration consequences of the felony conviction in this case, but 20 defendant's counsel has advised him about the deportation risks of his guilty plea. Defendant 21 understands that unexpected immigration consequences will not serve as grounds to withdraw 22 defendant's guilty plea.

23
24

V. FACTUAL BASIS

12. Defendant admits that defendant is, in fact, guilty of the offense to which defendant is agreeing to plead guilty. Defendant acknowledges that if defendant elected to go to trial instead of pleading guilty, the United States could prove defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. Defendant further acknowledges that defendant's admissions and declarations of fact set forth below satisfy every element of the charged offense. Defendant waives any potential future claim that the facts defendant admitted below are insufficient to satisfy the elements of the charged offense. Defendant admits and declares under penalty of perjury that the facts set forth below are true and correct:

Defendant, Relevant Individuals, and Entities

At all times relevant to the superseding indictment:

- a. Defendant was a Japanese citizen residing in Tokyo, Japan.
- b. Co-defendant Paul Suzuki was a dual Japanese and United States citizen residing in Japan.
- c. Edwin Fujinaga (“Fujinaga”) was a United States citizen residing in Las Vegas.
- d. MRI International Inc. (“MRI”) was a Nevada-based limited-liability company that operated from Las Vegas, Nevada. Fujinaga owned and controlled MRI as its president and executive officer.
- e. MRI operated a service center located in Tokyo, Japan (the “Tokyo Service Center”), which was led by defendant and co-defendant Paul Suzuki. He handled MRI’s marketing efforts in Japan and the solicitation of investments from investors.

Overview of the Scheme and Artifice to Defraud

1 f. MRI, through defendant, co-defendant Paul Suzuki, Fujinaga, and others.
2 represented to investors that it was engaged in the business of purchasing medical accounts receivable
3 ("MARS"), that is, debts owed by recipients of medical services or products to the individuals or entities
4 that provided those services. MRI purported to generate a profit by purchasing MARS from medical 5 providers at a discounted rate, and then collecting on the accounts from the patients owing money.

6 g. MRI, through defendant, co-defendant Paul Suzuki, Fujinaga, and others.
7 promised investors that their money would be used exclusively for the purchase of MARS, and that 8 MRI's superior ability to factor MARS—that is, to collect more money on the MARS than it paid for 9 those MARS—enabled MRI to pay the returns it promised investors. Investors were promised returns
10 ranging from roughly 6% to over 10% depending on the duration (two, three, or five years), amount, 11 and denomination (yen or dollar) of their investments.

12 h. From at least 2006 through in and around April 2013, defendant, co-defendant 13 Paul Suzuki, and others at the Tokyo Service Center solicited at least hundreds of millions of dollars in 14 investments in MRI from thousands of investors who were almost exclusively based in Japan. To 15 induce investments in MRI, investors were provided with marketing materials and other documents that 16 promised investors that their investment with MRI was safe because: (1) an independent escrow agent
17 would ensure that investor money would only be used to purchase MARS, and (2) investors' money
18 would be kept in a certain type of bank account where the principal would be protected. Fujinaga
19 controlled exactly what MRI's investors were told by reviewing and approving most of the marketing
20 materials and legal documents that the investors received from the Tokyo Service Center.

21 i. In reality, however, MRI operated as a Ponzi scheme, in which new investor 22 money was used to pay existing investors their principal and interest due.

23 j. Before in and around April 2012, Fujinaga hid from defendant and co-defendant
24 Paul Suzuki that MRI operated as a Ponzi scheme. As such, before in and around April 2012, defendant and co-defendant Paul Suzuki unknowingly made materially false representations to MRI investors that their money would be used exclusively to purchase MARS.

k. In and around April 2012, however, Fujinaga expressly informed defendant and co-defendant Paul Suzuki that MRI was not using investor money for purchasing MARS, and instead was using new investor money to pay the principal and interest owed to prior investors. Moreover, at and around this same time, Fujinaga directed defendant and co-defendant Paul Suzuki to raise additional investor money to pay back existing investors.

I. Despite knowing that new investor money was being used to pay back existing investors—and not for purchasing MARS as was represented to the investors—defendant and co-defendant Paul Suzuki continued raising new investor money by falsely and fraudulently representing to MRI’s investors that MRI would only use money invested in MRI to purchase MARS.

m. Based on this and other related false and fraudulent representations, MRI's investors in Japan wired money to MRI in Las Vegas, Nevada.

n. From in and around April 2012 through in and around April 2013, defendant, co-defendant Paul Suzuki, Fujinaga, and others fraudulently induced over one-thousand investors to invest more than $141 million in MRI, which resulted in substantial financial hardship to at least 25 investor-victims.

o. For example, on or about April 26, 2012, investor H.H. wired approximately $367,242 from Shinsei Bank in Japan to an MRI bank account at Wells Fargo Bank in Las Vegas, Nevada ending in 9471.

p. Throughout the course of the criminal conduct described in this factual basis, defendant acted knowingly and with the intent to defraud together with co-defendant Paul Suzuki and Fujinaga. For the purpose of executing an essential part of the scheme, defendant, co-defendant Paul

1 Suzuki, Fujinaga, and others transmitted and caused to be transmitted electronic communications or 2 "wires" in foreign commerce.

3 VI. SENTENCING FACTORS

4 13. Discretionary Nature of Sentencing Guidelines: Defendant understands that in 5 determining defendant's sentence, the district court generally is required to calculate the applicable
 6 sentencing guidelines range and to consider that range, possible departures under the sentencing
 7 guidelines, and the other sentencing factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a). Defendant understands
 8 that the sentencing guidelines are advisory only, that defendant generally cannot have any expectation 9 of receiving a sentence within the calculated sentencing guidelines range, and that after considering the 10 sentencing guidelines and the other § 3553(a) factors, the district court would be free to exercise its 11 discretion to impose any sentence it finds appropriate up to the maximum set by statute for the crime
 12 of conviction. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C), however, if the district 13 court accepts this plea agreement, it will be obligated to follow the parties' stipulated offense level and 14 impose the agreed-upon sentence of a term of 60 months' imprisonment and 3 years' supervised release.

15 14. Offense Level Calculations: The parties stipulate to the following calculation of 16 defendant's offense level under the sentencing guidelines: agree that these stipulations will bind the 17 district court pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C) if it accepts this plea
 18 agreement; and agree that they will not seek to apply or advocate for the use of any other base offense 19 level or any other specific offense characteristics, enhancements, or reductions in calculating the 20 advisory guidelines range:

21 Base Offense Level [USSG § 2B1.1(a)(1)]:	7
22 Gain Is More Than $1,500,000, But Less 23 Than $3,500,000 [USSG § 2B1.1(b)(1)(I) & Note 3(B)]:	+16
24 Resulted in Substantial Financial Hardship 25 To 25 or More Victims [USSG § 2B1.1(b)(2)(C)]:	+6

Substantial Part of Fraud Scheme Committed From Outside of the U.S. [USSG § 2B1.1(b)(10)(B)]; +2

Adjusted Offense Level (Without Acceptance) 31

15. Reduction for Acceptance of Responsibility: Under USSG § 3E1.1(a), the United States will recommend that defendant receive a two-level downward adjustment for acceptance of responsibility unless defendant (a) fails to truthfully admit facts establishing a factual basis for the guilty plea when defendant enters the plea; (b) fails to truthfully admit facts establishing the amount of restitution owed when defendant enters the guilty plea; (c) fails to truthfully admit facts establishing the forfeiture allegations when defendant enters the guilty plea; (d) provides false or misleading information to the United States, the district court, or the U.S. Probation or Pretrial Services Offices; (e) denies involvement in the offense or provides conflicting statements regarding defendant's involvement or falsely denies or frivolously contests conduct relevant to the offense; (f) attempts to withdraw defendant's guilty plea; (g) commits or attempts to commit any crime; (h) fails to appear in court; or (i) violates the conditions of pretrial release.

Under USSG § 3E1.1(b), if the district court determines that defendant's total offense level before operation of § 3E1.1(a) is 16 or higher, and if the United States recommends a two-level downward adjustment pursuant to the preceding paragraph, the United States will move for an additional one-level downward adjustment for acceptance of responsibility before sentencing because defendant communicated defendant's decision to plead guilty in a timely manner that enabled the United States to avoid preparing for trial and to efficiently allocate its resources.

16. Criminal History Category: Defendant acknowledges that the district court may base defendant's sentence in part on defendant's criminal record or criminal history. The district court will determine defendant's criminal history category under the sentencing guidelines.

17. Additional Sentencing Information: The stipulated sentencing guidelines calculations are based on information now known to the parties. Defendant understands that both defendant and the

1 United States are free to (a) supplement the facts in this agreement by supplying relevant information
2 to the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Offices and the district court regarding the nature, scope,
3 and extent of defendant's criminal conduct and any aggravating or mitigating facts or circumstances;
4 and (b) correct any and all factual misstatements relating to the district court's sentencing guidelines
5 calculations and determination of sentence. While this paragraph permits both the United States and 6 defendant to submit full and complete factual information to the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services
7 Offices and the district court, even if that factual information may be viewed as inconsistent with the 8 facts agreed to in this agreement, this paragraph does not affect defendant's and the United States'
9 obligations not to contest the facts agreed to in this agreement. Good faith efforts to provide truthful
10 information or to correct factual misstatements shall not be grounds for defendant to withdraw
11 defendant's guilty plea.

12 Defendant acknowledges that the U.S. Probation Office may calculate the sentencing guidelines 13 differently and may rely on additional information it obtains through its investigation. Defendant also 14 acknowledges that the district court may rely on this and other additional information as it calculates 15 the sentencing guidelines range and makes other sentencing determinations, and the district court's 16 reliance on such information shall not be grounds for defendant to withdraw defendant's guilty plea.

17 VII. POSITIONS REGARDING SENTENCING

18 18. This is a binding plea agreement under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure
19 11(e)(1)(C). The parties will jointly recommend that the district court sentence defendant to a 20 60-month term of imprisonment. In the event that a sentence of 60 months is outside defendant's 21 sentencing guideline range as determined by the district court, the parties will jointly request a 22 downward variance to 60 months. In agreeing to this sentencing recommendation, the parties have 23 taken into consideration all of the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) and conclude that a sentence
24 of 60 months is a just and reasonable sentence given the particular facts of this case. The parties

1 understand and the defendant acknowledges that, if the district court accepts this binding plea
2 agreement, this stipulated 60-month sentence will be binding on the district court pursuant to Fed. R.
3 Crim. P. 11(c)(1)(A) and (C). Either party may withdraw from this plea agreement in the event that 4 the district court informs the parties that it rejects this binding plea agreement. See Fed. R. Crim. P.
5 11(c)(1)(5).

6 19. If the district court rejects this binding plea agreement, defendant is advised that (a) the 7 district court is not required to follow the plea agreement; (b) both defendant and the United States
8 have the opportunity to withdraw from the plea; and (c) if the plea is not withdrawn, the district court
9 may dispose of the case less favorably toward the defendant than the plea agreement contemplated, 10 pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(1)(A)-(C). Defendant acknowledges, if the district court rejects the 11 plea agreement and defendant chooses not to withdraw defendant's guilty plea, the district court does 12 not have to follow the recommendation of either party.

13 20. Notwithstanding its agreement to recommend a sentence as described above, the United 14 States reserves its right to defend any lawfully imposed sentence on appeal or in any post-conviction 15 litigation.

16 21. If defendant commits any act that results in the district court finding that defendant is 17 not entitled to a downward adjustment for acceptance of responsibility, the United States is entitled to 18 argue for any sentence it deems appropriate under 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a). In any such event, defendant
19 remains bound by the provisions of this agreement and shall not have the right to withdraw defendant's 20 guilty plea.

21 VIII. WAIVER OF CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS

22 22. Defendant understands that by pleading guilty, defendant gives up the following rights:
23 a. The right to persist in a plea of not guilty;
24 b. The right to a speedy and public trial by jury;

1 c. The right to be represented by counsel—and if necessary have the court appoint
2 counsel—at trial. Defendant understands, however, that, defendant retains the right to be represented
3 by counsel—and if necessary have the court appoint counsel—at every other stage of the proceeding;

4 d. The right to be presumed innocent and to have the burden of proof placed on the 5 United States to prove defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt;

6 e. The right to confront and cross-examine witnesses against defendant;

7 f. The right to testify and to present evidence in opposition to the charges, including 8 the right to compel the attendance of witnesses to testify;

9 g. The right not to be compelled to testify, and, if defendant chose not to testify or 10 present evidence, to have that choice not be used against defendant; and 11 h. The right to pursue any affirmative defenses, Fourth Amendment or Fifth 12 Amendment claims, and any other pretrial motions that have been filed or could be filed.

13 i. Having been fully advised by defendant's counsel regarding the requirements of 14 venue with respect to the offense to which defendant is pleading guilty, to the extent the offense to 15 which defendant is pleading guilty were committed, begun, or completed outside the District of Nevada,
16 defendant knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently waives, relinquishes, and gives up: (a) any right 17 that defendant might have to be prosecuted only in the district where the offense to which defendant is 18 pleading guilty was committed, begun, or completed; and (b) any defense, claim, or argument defendant
19 could raise or assert based upon lack of venue with respect to the offense to which defendant is pleading 20 guilty.

21 j. Having been fully advised by defendant's counsel regarding application of the 22 statute of limitations to the offense to which defendant is pleading guilty, defendant hereby knowingly, 23 voluntarily, and intelligently waives, relinquishes, and gives up: (a) any right that defendant might 24 have not to be prosecuted for the offense to which defendant is pleading guilty because of the expiration

1 of the statute of limitations for the offense prior to the filing of the superseding indictment alleging the 2 offense; and (b) any defense, claim, or argument defendant could raise or assert that prosecution of the 3 offense to which defendant is pleading guilty is barred by the expiration of the applicable statute of 4 limitations, pre-indictment delay, or any speedy trial violation.

5 IX. WAIVER OF APPELLATE RIGHTS

6 23. Waiver of Appellate Rights: Defendant knowingly and expressly waives: (a) the right to 7 appeal any sentence imposed if this plea agreement and binding 60-month stipulated sentence are 8 accepted and imposed by the district court; (b) the right to appeal the manner in which the district court
9 determined that sentence on the grounds set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3742; and (c) the right to appeal any 10 other aspect of the conviction, including but not limited to, the constitutionality of the statute of 11 conviction; any other aspect of the sentence; and any order of restitution or forfeiture.

12 24. Defendant reserves only the right to appeal any portion of the sentence that is above the 13 binding 60-month stipulated sentence and applicable Sentencing Guideline range as determined by the 14 district court.

15 25. Waiver of Post-Conviction Rights: Defendant also knowingly and expressly waives all 16 collateral challenges, including any claims under 28 U.S.C. § 2255, to defendant's conviction, sentence, 17 and the procedure by which the district court adjudicated guilt and imposed sentence, except non-18 waivable claims of ineffective assistance of counsel.

19 26. Preservation of Evidence: Defendant acknowledges that the United States and the 20 agencies investigating this case are not obligated or required to preserve any evidence obtained in the 21 investigation of this case.

22 FORFEITURE

23 27. Defendant knowingly and voluntarily:

24

1 a. Agrees to the district court imposing forfeiture of any property, real or personal,
2 which constitutes or is derived from proceeds traceable to a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1343, a specified
3 unlawful activity as defined in 18 U.S.C. §§ 1956(c)(7)(A) and 1961(1)(B), an in personam criminal 4 forfeiture money judgment including, but not limited to, at least an amount to be calculated pursuant to 5 the forfeiture statute in Forfeiture Allegation Two and Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(2)(C), not to be held 6 jointly and severally liable with any co-defendants, but with the total collected money judgment amount 7 between the co-defendants not to exceed that which the government is entitled to collect based on the 8 forfeiture statute(s);

9 b. Agrees the in personam criminal forfeiture money judgment amount complies
10 with Honeycutt v. United States, 137 S. Ct. 1626 (2017) and United States v. Thompson, 990 F.3d 680
11 (9th Cir. 2021);

12 c. Waives defendant's right to any criminal forfeiture proceedings of the in 13 personam criminal forfeiture money judgment and the substitution and forfeiture of defendant's other 14 assets;

15 d. Waives service of process of any and all documents filed in this action and any 16 proceedings concerning the in personam criminal forfeiture money judgment arising from the facts and 17 circumstances of this case and the substitution and forfeiture of defendant's other assets;

10 XI. RESULT OF WITHDRAWAL OF GUILTY PLEA OR VACATUR/REVERSAL/SET-ASIDE OF CONVICTION

11 28. Consequence of Withdrawal of Guilty Plea: Defendant agrees that if, after entering a 12 guilty plea pursuant to this agreement, defendant seeks to withdraw and succeeds in withdrawing 13 defendant's guilty plea on any basis other than the district court rejecting the binding plea agreement
 14 or a claim and finding that entry into this agreement was involuntary, then (a) the United States will be 15 relieved of all of its obligations under this agreement and (b) should the United States choose to pursue 16 any charge that was either dismissed or not filed as a result of this agreement, then (i) any applicable 17 statute of limitations will be tolled between the date of defendant's signing of this agreement and the 18 filing commencing any such action; and (ii) defendant waives and gives up all defenses based on the 19 statute of limitations, any claim of pre-indictment delay, or any speedy trial claim with respect to any 20 such action, except to the extent that such defenses existed as of the date of defendant's signing this 21 agreement.

22 29. Consequence of Vacatur, Reversal, or Set-aside: Defendant agrees that if defendant's 23 conviction is vacated, reversed, or set aside, both the United States and defendant will be released from 24 all their obligations under this agreement, except that, should the United States choose to pursue any

1 charge that was either dismissed or not filed as a result of this agreement, then (i) any applicable statute
2 of limitations will be tolled between the date of defendant's signing of this agreement and the filing
3 commencing any such action; and (ii) defendant waives and gives up all defenses based on the statute
4 of limitations, any claim of pre-indictment delay, or any speedy trial claim with respect to any such 5 action, except to the extent that such defenses existed as of the date of defendant's signing this 6 agreement.

7 XII. BREACH OF AGREEMENT

8 30. Defendant agrees that if, at any time after this agreement becomes effective, defendant 9 knowingly violates or fails to perform any of defendant's obligations under this agreement ("a breach").
10 the United States may declare this agreement breached. All of defendant's obligations are material, a 11 single breach of this agreement is sufficient for the United States to declare a breach, and defendant 12 shall not be deemed to have cured a breach without the express agreement of the United States in 13 writing. If the United States declares this agreement breached, and the district court finds such a breach 14 to have occurred, then: (a) if defendant has previously entered a guilty plea pursuant to this agreement, 15 defendant will remain bound by the provisions of this agreement and will not be able to withdraw the 16 guilty plea, and (b) the United States will be relieved of all its obligations under this agreement.

17 31. Following the district court's finding of a knowing breach of this agreement by 18 defendant, should the United States choose to pursue any charge that was either dismissed or not filed 19 as a result of this agreement, then:

20 a. Defendant agrees that any applicable statute of limitations is tolled between the 21 date of defendant's signing of this agreement and the filing commencing any such action.

22 b. Defendant waives and gives up all defenses based on the statute of limitations, 23 any claim of pre-indictment delay, or any speedy trial claim with respect to any such action, except to 24 the extent that such defenses existed as of the date of defendant's signing this agreement.

c. Defendant agrees that: (i) any statements made by defendant, under oath, at the guilty plea hearing (if such a hearing occurred prior to the breach); (ii) the agreed-to factual basis statement in this agreement; and (iii) any evidence derived from such statements, shall be admissible against defendant in any such action against defendant, and defendant waives and gives up any claim under the United States Constitution, any statute, Federal Rule of Evidence 410, Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(f), or any other federal rule, that the statements or any evidence derived from the statements should be suppressed or are inadmissible.

XIII. COURT AND UNITED STATES PROBATION AND PRETRIAL SERVICES OFFICE NOT PARTIES

32. Defendant understands that the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Offices are not parties to this agreement and need not accept any of the United States sentencing recommendations or the parties' agreements to facts or sentencing factors. Defendant understands that the district court is not a party to this agreement and is only bound by the parties' stipulated offense level and the parties' sentencing recommendation.

33. Defendant understands that both defendant and the United States are free to argue on appeal and collateral review that the district court's sentencing guidelines calculations and the sentence it chooses to impose are not error.

34. Defendant understands that, if the district court rejects the plea agreement and defendant chooses not to withdraw defendant's guilty plea, the district court may ignore any sentencing recommendation, find facts or reach conclusions different from those agreed to by the parties, or impose any sentence up to the maximum established by statute, and defendant will remain bound to fulfill all defendant's obligations under this agreement. Defendant understands that, if the district court rejects the plea agreement and defendant chooses not to withdraw defendant's guilty plea, no one—not the prosecutor, defendant's counsel, or the district court—can make a binding prediction or promise regarding the sentence defendant will receive, except that it will be within the statutory maximum.

XIV. ADDITIONAL ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

35. Defendant acknowledges that:

a. This agreement has been read to defendant in Japanese, the language defendant best understands, and defendant understands its terms and conditions.

b. Defendant had adequate time to discuss this case, the evidence, and this agreement with defendant's counsel.

c. Defendant carefully and thoroughly discussed all terms of this agreement with defendant's counsel

11 e. Defendant has discussed with defendant's counsel the following: the evidence;
12 defendant's rights; possible pretrial motions that might be filed; possible defenses that might be asserted
13 either prior to or at trial; the sentencing factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. 3553(a); the relevant sentencing 14 guidelines provisions; and consequences of entering into this agreement.

15 f. The representations contained in this agreement are true and correct, including 16 the factual basis for defendant's offense set forth in this agreement.

17 g. Defendant was not under the influence of any alcohol, drug, or medicine that 18 would impair defendant's ability to understand the agreement when defendant considered signing this 19 agreement and when defendant signed it.

20 36. Defendant understands that defendant alone decides whether to plead guilty or go to 21 trial, and acknowledges that defendant has decided to enter defendant's guilty plea knowing of the 22 charges brought against defendant, defendant's possible defenses, and the benefits and possible
23 detriments of proceeding to trial.

37. Defendant understands that no promises, understandings, or agreements other than those set forth in this agreement have been made or implied by defendant, defendant's counsel, or the United States, and no additional promises, agreements, or conditions shall have any force or effect unless set forth in writing and signed by all parties or confirmed on the record before the district court.

38. Defendant acknowledges that defendant decided to plead guilty voluntarily and that no one threatened, coerced, or forced defendant to enter into this agreement.

39. Defendant is satisfied with the representation of defendant's counsel. defendant has knowingly and voluntarily waived any potential conflict of interest that may arise out of such joint representation discussed above, and defendant is pleading guilty because defendant is guilty of the charges and chooses to take advantage of the promises set forth in this agreement and for no other reason.
