ORDER MEMORIALIZING PREHEARING CONFERENCE

On August 3, 2022, the Court held a telephonic prehearing conference in the above-captioned matter pursuant to 28 C.F.R. § 68.13.¹

At the outset of the conference, the Court asked Respondent for its position on Complainant's filing entitled "Complaint Withdrawal Form," which the Court construed as a motion to withdraw the complaint in this matter. Next, the Court acknowledged that it had received the parties' Joint Stipulation of Dismissal with Prejudice on July 26, 2022. The Court directed Respondent to re-file the stipulation with a certificate of service as required by 28 C.F.R. § 68.6(a) no later than five business days after the prehearing conference. As a courtesy, the Court permitted Respondent to e-mail the filing to the Court. After Respondent's counsel confirmed that he would re-file the stipulation consistent with the Court's order, the Court adjourned the conference.
