

Case Update October 17, 2023

We write to provide you with an update regarding the potential for victims of the Pan Am Flight 103 bombing to remotely access proceedings in the case of United States v. Abu Agila Mohammed Mas'ud Kheir Al-Marimi. On October 13, 2023, the U.S. Department of Justice transmitted to Congress proposed legislation that, if passed, would provide statutory authority and would instruct the District Court overseeing the court case to provide victims of the Pan Am 103 bombing remote video and telephonic access to the proceedings.

A copy of the proposed legislation is available on the Department of Justice's Office of Legislative Affairs' website: Office of Legislative Affairs | Views Letters - 118th Congress \(justice.gov\). We note that Department of Justice personnel are constrained by federal statute in what we say about pending legislation, so we ask for your understanding that we may be limited in our ability to respond to any questions you may have about this proposed legislation.
