18 DEFINITIONS

19 8. As used in this Indictment, the term "short sale"
20 refers to the sale of real estate property for an amount less
21 than the balance owed on the mortgage loan for the property. A
22 short sale often occurs when a borrower cannot pay the mortgage
23 loan on the borrower's property and the property is worth less 24 than the balance owed on the mortgage, but the borrower and 25 mortgage holder decide that selling the property at a loss is 26 better than foreclosure.

27 9. As used in this Indictment, the term "distressed homeowners" means homeowners who were having difficulty making

1 mortgage payments on, and who were facing foreclosure on, their 2 properties. The term "distressed properties" refers to the 3 properties of the distressed homeowners.

6 financial institution, the deposits of which were insured by the 7 Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"). Wells Fargo Home

21 B. THE OBJECTS OF THE CONSPIRACY

22 19. Beginning in or around January 2005, and continuing to 23 in or around August 6, 2014, within the Central District of 24 California and elsewhere, defendants DOROTHY MATSUBA, YOUNG
25 PARK, JANE MATSUBA, JAMIE MATSUBA, and THOMAS MATSUBA, together
26 with others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, knowingly
27 combined, conspired, and agreed to commit the following offenses
28 against the United States:

1 (a) wire fraud, that is to knowingly and with intent to 2 defraud, devise, and intend to devise, a scheme and artifice to 3 defraud, and to obtain money and property, by means of 4 materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and 5 promises, and to transmit and caused to be transmitted, through 6 the use of interstate wires, any writing, sign, signal, picture
7 or sound for the purpose of executing such scheme, in violation
8 of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343;

9 (b) to knowingly make false statements or reports in 10 connection with loan applications, including any modification,
11 extension, or deferment thereof, for the purpose of influencing 12 the actions of institutions the accounts of which were then
13 insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC")
14 and for the purpose of influencing the actions of mortgage
15 lending businesses, in violation of Title 18, United States
16 Code, Section 1014; and

17 (c) identity theft, that is to knowingly possess with 18 intent to use unlawfully and transfer unlawfully five or more
19 identification documents not issued lawfully for the defendants'
20 use, authentication features, and false identification
21 documents, namely, both real and false California driver's
22 licenses, social security cards, and authentication features
23 found therein and elsewhere, such identification documents,
24 false identification documents, and authentication features
25 which appeared to have been issued by and under the authority of 26 the United States, in violation of Title 18, United States Code,
27 Section 1028(a)(3).

1 C. THE MANNER AND MEANS OF THE CONSPIRACY

2 20. The objects of the conspiracy were to be carried out
3 and were carried out, in substance, as follows:

4 21. Through the OMS Companies, defendants DOROTHY MATSUBA,
5 YOUNG PARK, and other co-conspirators sought to identify 6 distressed homeowners.

7 22. Defendants DOROTHY MATSUBA, YOUNG PARK, and other co-
8 conspirators misrepresented to the distressed homeowners that 9 they would perform a short sale and thus avoid foreclosure on 10 the distressed properties. Based on those misrepresentations,
11 the distressed homeowners transferred title for the distressed
12 properties to trusts and companies the conspirators controlled.

13 23. Instead of performing short sales as represented,
14 defendants DOROTHY MATSUBA, YOUNG PARK, JANE MATSUBA, JAMIE
15 MATSUBA, THOMAS MATSUBA, and co-conspirators leased the 16 distressed properties to third parties and to other distressed
17 homeowners, collected the rent, and failed to make timely
18 mortgage payments on the distressed properties.

19 24. Defendants DOROTHY MATSUBA and YOUNG PARK arranged for 20 the OMS Companies to purchase identification documents, false
21 identification documents, and authentication features, including 22 California driver's licenses and social security cards, for the 23 purpose of using the identities to mislead the mortgage lenders
24 about the distressed properties.

25 25. In exchange for compensation, co-conspirators assisted 26 in the creation of false identification documents and 27 transmitted copies of those and other materials, including more
28 than five identification documents, false identification

1 documents, and authentication features therein and elsewhere, to 2 defendants DOROTHY MATSUBA and YOUNG PARK.

3 26. Both false and real identification documents purchased 4 were, or appeared to be, issued by and under the authority of 5 the California Department of Motor Vehicles, the United States'
6 Social Security Administration, and other such issuing
7 authorities, and defendants DOROTHY MATSUBA and YOUNG PARK knew
8 as much. Likewise, defendants THOMAS MATSUBA and JANE MATSUBA
9 were made aware that their co-conspirators and the OMS Companies
10 possessed the aforementioned materials, and thereafter,
11 knowingly and jointly possessed them.

12 27. To perpetuate the conspiracy, the conspirators also 13 engaged in various deceptive tactics designed to delay
14 foreclosure on the distressed properties so the conspirators
15 could continue collecting rent. These tactics included:

16 a. fabricating short sale purchase offers for the 17 distressed properties, including using stolen and fictitious
18 identities, and fictitious hardship letters, and submitting
19 those fabricated purchase offers, in most instances by wire, 20 that is, facsimile communication, in interstate commerce, to 21 financial institutions which acted as lenders and servicers;

22 b. falsifying financial and tax statements for the 23 distressed homeowners, including by forging the homeowners'
24 signatures, and submitting those documents, in most instances by 25 wire, that is, facsimile communication, in interstate commerce,
26 to financial institutions acting as lenders and servicers;

27 c. filing bankruptcy petitions for the distressed
28 homeowners, sometimes without their knowledge, including by

1 forging the distressed homeowners' signatures on the petitions
2 and giving notice of such filings to the financial institutions
3 acting as lenders and servicers;

4 d. filing fabricated and fictitious liens on the 5 distressed properties; and

6 e. obtaining mortgage loans in the names of stolen
7 identities for the purchase of distressed properties.

8 28. The conspirators caused payments to be made to 9 themselves and the OMS Companies from the proceeds of the 10 scheme, including tens of millions of dollars in rental income 11 from the distressed properties, collected at the expense of the 12 financial institutions and financially distressed homeowners.

13 29. As a result of such deceptive tactics, the 14 conspirators defrauded the distressed homeowners, in many cases 15 ruining their credit history, and financial institutions, which 16 were intentionally exposed to new and increased risk of loss and 17 increased administrative costs.

18 D. OVERT ACTS

19 30. In furtherance of the conspiracy and to accomplish its 20 objects, defendants DOROTHY MATSUBA, YOUNG PARK, JANE MATSUBA,
21 JAMIE MATSUBA, and THOMAS MATSUBA, and other co-conspirators
22 known and unknown to the Grand Jury, committed and willfully
