Dear Chairman Warner, Chair Durbin, Chairman Turner, and Chairman Jordan:

This report is submitted in accordance with section 406 of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978 (the Act), as amended.<sup>1</sup> It provides information regarding applications to use pen register and/or trap and trace (PR/TT) devices conducted pursuant to the Act during the period from January 1, 2024 through June 30, 2024.

During this reporting period, the Government filed zero applications with the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court (FISC) seeking authorization for the Federal Bureau of Investigation to use PR/TT devices.<sup>2</sup>

During this reporting period, the total number of persons targeted for PR/TT orders was between zero and 499.<sup>3</sup> The aggregate number of United States persons targeted for PR/TT orders was between zero and 499. Of these United States persons, the number of United States persons whose information was reviewed or accessed by a federal officer, employee, or agent was between zero and 499.

The Attorney General approved the use of zero PR/TT devices on an emergency basis pursuant to

<sup>2</sup> In keeping with the Department of Justice's historical reporting practice, the number of applications listed in this report refers to applications that were filed in signed, final form pursuant to Rule 9(b) of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court Rules of Procedure. A "denial" refers to a judge's formal denial of any such application; it does not include a proposed application submitted pursuant to Rule 9(a) of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court Rules of Procedure for which the government did not subsequently submit a signed, final application pursuant to Rule 9(b).

<sup>3</sup> The statistics reported in this paragraph are given in bands of 500 as directed by 50 U.S.C. § 1846(b)(6).
