Just to follow up on your question: It is DOJ's practice to have majority and minority staffs review in camera materials separately, but it happens sequentially with little time in between.

Hope this helps.

Hi Ryan. With thanks for your responses to our questions, I can now confirm that we have no objection to your sharing the report in camera with cleared committee staffers of the four committees you note below.

We're glad you're including the intel committee and, on the sequencing point, note that our own preference and practice would be to give staffers from both sides of the aisle access at the same time.

In any event, we'd appreciate an alert as to when you'll begin giving staffers sight of the doc. Please be in touch if you have any questions or anything else would be helpful. Thanks. (b)(3), (b)(6) per CIA

Here are the answers to your two questions:

- (1) The report will be made available for in camera review to the Senate Homeland Security and Government Affairs Committee, the Senate Finance Committee, the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and the Senate Judiciary Committee.
- (2) Both the majority and minority staffs of these committees will be able to review the report—majority staff first, and then the minority staff.

Let me know if you have any more questions. Adding (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) per for her awareness as well.

Pursuant to pending Hill committee requests, the AG would now like to make the report prepared by U.S. Attorney John Bash regarding unmasking requests by the prior administration's officials available for in camera review here at DOJ by appropriately cleared committee staff.

ODNI and NSA have no objection to that, but I wanted to make sure that your agencies have no objections as well, as I understand that you may have some equities in some of the information in the report. See below. We hope to make the report available sometime next week.

Ryan,

FBI and CIA did not receive the final report that you and ODNI have. However, they did receive a very late draft for classification marking purposes. They have equities in the document. Our contacts at both agencies are below.

We have outstanding requests from the Hill for documents, etc. relating to the investigation conducted by U.S. Attorney John Bash into the unmasking of names in intelligence reports by prior administration officials. The report is classified, and I understand that the DNI has a copy.

The AG would like to make the report available for appropriately cleared Hill committee staff to review here at DOJ in a SCIF. The report would not be released to the Hill.

Before doing that, however, we wanted to make sure that the IC had no objections. If you no longer have the report, please let me know, and I can send you a copy on the yellow network.

Yes, please move forward unless anyone on this chain raises an objection.

Guys, AG Barr approved in camera review by Grassley/Johnson staffs, as well as minority staffs, here at the Department of John Bash's classified report on unmasking by prior administration officials. ODNI, CIA, and FBI are aware and have consented. (AG Barr held off in making this report available prior to the election in keeping with his position to avoid disclosures regarding investigations that could affect the election.)

Thanks,

5:30 today would work. But I am working remotely today. I anticipate being in the office tomorrow, so if it makes sense to do this securely, pushing it off to tomorrow afternoon would make sense. Thanks, Brad.

Brad -- Are you able to join for this call? If so, would either 1:30pm ET or 5:30pm ET today work? Or let me know a good window tomorrow.
