III. Office of Inspector General (OIG) (Significant matters)

1. Clinton email investigation. The Inspector General recently announced that his office has commenced an investigation of various aspects of the handling Clinton email investigation including:

- Allegations that Department or FBI policies or procedures were not followed in connection with, or in actions leading up to or related to, the FBI Director's public announcement on July 5, 2016, and the Director's letters to Congress on October 28 and November 6, 2016, and that certain underlying investigative decisions were based on improper considerations;
- Allegations that the FBI Deputy Director should have been recused from participating in certain investigative matters;
- Allegations that the Department's Assistant Attorney General for Legislative Affairs improperly disclosed non-public information to the Clinton campaign and/or should have been recused from participating in certain matters;
- Allegations that Department and FBI employees improperly disclosed non-public information; and
- Allegations that decisions regarding the timing of the FBI's release of certain Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) documents on October 30 and November 1, 2016, and the use of a Twitter account to publicize the release were influenced by improper considerations.

The IG has confirmed that his investigation will not examine the merits of the prosecutive decision with respect to the underlying matter.

Non-Responsive Record (per agreement)
