Good morning Peter and Rachael,

It appears I'll be crossing Penn. Ave. soon from the FBI to help with speechwriting at DOJ for the Great, thank you.

Note that for the 5pm meeting, we will have a TV and still camera for a pool spray at the top. Typically, they remain for any opening comments the AG makes to the group, then he says something to the effect of, "We'll pause for a moment to allow the members of the media to leave the room and then we'll continue our discussion." The cameras will quickly break down and leave. OPA will be with the media the entire time.

Do you have a point of contact at the WH for the swearing-in ceremony? I'd like to chat with them about the press aspect.

Thx,

Hi everyone,

AG Sessions had a great meeting with your bosses this evening. This was very productive, and the AG asked if you could try to find some way tomorrow to help echo the message from our readout that will go to reporters tonight in whatever means you see fit.

Here is the text of the readout, with some additional bullets that were also part of the discussion that could be helpful as you determine what and how to do something tomorrow.

Thx,

Peter

Readout paragraph:

The Attorney General later met with the senior officials from the Justice Department's law enforcement components, including FBI Director James Comey, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives Acting Director Thomas Brandon, U.S. Marshals Service Acting Director David Harlow and Drug Enforcement Administration Acting Administrator Chuck Rosenberg. They had a vigorous discussion about how to combat the rise in violent crime and prevent drug-related deaths. They expressed their shared commitment to strengthen law enforcement and save lives.

Additional Points:

They reaffirmed a commitment to the department's core law enforcement responsibilities while strengthening the relationship between the department and its law enforcement partners.

They shared a desire to protect the American people and save lives by refocusing the department's attention on aggressively prosecuting the violent criminals who have victimized too many innocent Americans and the drug traffickers who have destroyed too many American communities.
