Mr. Terwilliger:

I represent several California municipalities and county sheriffs who reject the sanctuary city approach and the new "sanctuary state" laws that the California state legislature has passed or is considering.

They would like to speak with someone about how they might best work with the administration on some of these issues.

Might we be able to speak by phone?

Together for Autism:
Ensuring Acceptance and Accessibility

October 10, 2017

Mr. John Ashcroft & Mr. Michael Sullivan
Ashcroft Law Firm
1101 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington, DC 20004

Dear Mr. Ashcroft and Mr. Michael Sullivan

On behalf of the Embassy of the State of Qatar and Autism Speaks, I would like to personally invite you to support our inaugural Autism Gala themed “Together for Autism: Ensuring Acceptance and Accessibility” on November 8, 2017 at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts.

Qatar has a long and committed role in autism research and awareness campaigns, from Qatar’s Mission to the United Nations sponsoring the resolution to dedicate a World Autism Awareness Day to the Shafallah Center for Children with Special Needs, established to provide diagnoses, evaluations, training and developmental services for individuals with intellectual disabilities, with a focus on Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD).

“Together for Autism: Ensuring Acceptance and Accessibility” will highlight our partnership with Autism Speaks. Founded in 2005, Autism Speaks is a nonprofit organization that has worked diligently to support groundbreaking science, effective advocacy and extensive family services in the U.S. and around the world. Autism Speaks remains dedicated to promoting solutions, across the spectrum and throughout the lifespan, to increase understanding and acceptance of ASD. All proceeds of the gala will go to Autism Speaks to support their advocacy campaigns and research into causes and better interventions for autism and related conditions.

The Embassy of Qatar is extremely appreciative and honored of the close relationship it has with Ashcroft Law Firm, and we hope you will support the inauguration of the first year of our Autism Gala. A contribution of $10,000 will reserve a table of ten, which will include a pre-dinner reception, a dinner, an awards concert, and an after-party. Additionally, any further contributions will be attributed to Autism Speaks’ mission. I hope to see Ashcroft Law Firm represented at this pivotal event.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact the Embassy at 202-274-1614 or qautismgala@mofa.gov.qa.

Respectfully,

Meshal Hamad Al Thani
Ambassador
Embassy of the State of Qatar

Angela Timashenka Geiger

Matt my best to all. What a tragic event. The presence of the VP and AG will provide comfort to the victims and the community. If you make it back, even if late, feel free to reach out if you want to stop by but don't feel any obligation to do so. Today will be draining. Safe travels. I will likely be back in DC next Thursday or Friday and if you are around we can catch up. Best regards, Mike

Stewart-

As I mentioned in the staff meeting, Chris and I are hoping to meet with Stephen Boyd in the coming weeks regarding the Spokane Tribe Equitable Compensation Act (S. 995), that just passed as amended (removing the one-time back payment) through the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs. While it is not technically a settlement, Chairman Bishop in the House still requires us to go through his settlement steps with DOJ and DOI to make sure it is ok to be passed/signed into law (Bishop letter outlining requirements: https://naturalresources.house.gov/uploadedfiles/04.27.17_ltr_to_ag_sessions_and_secretary_zinke_re_indian_water_rights_s....pdf).

Chris and I are hoping to meet with the Assistant Attorney General to begin the edification and process to ensure that DOJ has the same response as the last Administration, that this is not their jurisdiction as it is not an active settlement claim, and so it is up to DOI. That has been DOJ's response the last couple of congresses.
