Legal Ethics of Ending the Attorney-Client Relationship

Date: 05/02/2018 11:00 AM EDT

Duration: 1 Hour

Description:

Practical, Ethical Ways to "Break Up" With Your Client One of the simple truths of legal practice is that "the wrong" client is worse than no client. But ending the attorney-client relationship is a very sensitive matter. To avoid any carry-over hard feelings and to forestall any allegations of legal malpractice, use this streamlined legal ethics guide from experienced attorney faculty. Register today! Determine whether the attorney-client relationship exists. Recognize signs of a "doomed" attorney-client relationship, and when you must and/or should step down. Learn the proper way to communicate the end of your legal representation. Determine fees and protect confidentiality in unfinished cases. Who Should Attend This legal ethics briefing is designed for attorneys. It will also benefit in-house counsel, law office administrators, and paralegals. Course Content Do You Have an Attorney-Client Relationship? When Does an Attorney-Client Relationship Begin? When Must You/Should You Terminate a Representation? How to Ethically Say Goodbye and How to Protect Your Right to Get Paid Ongoing Duties to Former Clients, Including Document Retention Duty of Confidentiality in Interrupted Attorney-Client Relationships What to do if You Cannot Reach the Client to Communicate the End of the Relationship \n

A Proactive Approach to Cybersecurity: Latest Developments for Attorneys

Date: 05/03/2018 12:00 PM EDT

Duration: 1 Hour

Description:

Nick Akerman, nationally recognized for his expertise on computer crime and the protection of competitively sensitive information and computer data, covers cybersecurity issues from latest trends in data compliance to developments in federal and state laws and regulations. Description: Nick Akerman, a nationally recognized expert on computer crime and the protection of competitively sensitive information and computer data, covers latest trends and developments for all attorneys on cybersecurity. Topics include: The trend from reactive regulation to data compliance Requirements of an effective data compliance program Critical business functions to review to enhance cyber security Regulatory change management—new developments with the SEC, FINRA and the New York State Financial Services law Using criminal federal statutes—the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act and the Economic Espionage Act—to protect company data Presenter(s): Nick Akerman, Esq. is a partner in the New York office of Dorsey & Whitney LLP, where he represents clients in responding to government prosecutions and investigations and assists corporate clients in complex civil litigations. He is an expert on the criminal and civil applications of the Racketeer and Corrupt Organizations Statute (“RICO”), the Economic Espionage Act, the federal Securities Laws, the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (“FCPA”) and State Trade Secret and Restrictive Covenant Laws. He also is an expert on computer crime and the protection of competitively sensitive information and computer data. Prior to private practice, Mr. Akerman served as a federal prosecutor as well as a member of the Watergate prosecution team. He was an Assistant United States Attorney in the Southern District of New York, where he prosecuted a wide array of white collar criminal matters, including bank frauds, stock frauds, complex financial frauds, environmental and tax crimes and served as Assistant Special Watergate Prosecutor with the Watergate Special Prosecution Force under Archibald Cox and Leon Jaworski. Mr. Akerman appears regularly on MSNBC concerning topical national issues, including the FBI's ongoing investigation into alleged Russian tampering with the U.S. election, and speaks and writes regularly on protecting computer data and has been a featured quoted expert on national issues in such publications as the Washington Post , Newsweek , The Hill , Politico , and US News & World Report . His blog can be found at <http://computerfraud.us> . He has been listed as a "New York Super Lawyer," 2009 - 2017.

"I Never Metadata I Didn't Like"

Date: 05/22/2018 1:00 PM EDT

Duration: 1 Hour

Description:

Do you know what metadata is? Are you aware of the potential ethics pitfalls that exist when sending and receiving metadata? Join us for a discussion of ethics issues related to the sending and receiving metadata that is specifically tailored to the needs and concerns of local government attorneys. Presenter will address attorney duties under ABA model rules 1.1 and 1.6 (competence and confidentiality, respectively), as well as a variety of state bar legal ethics opinions such as Tex. Legal Ethics Opinion 665 regarding an attorney's duty to prevent the inadvertent transmission of metadata containing a client's confidential information.

Ethical Dangers for Lawyers Who Travel

Date: 06/13/2018 2:00 PM EDT

Duration: 1 Hour

Description:

TSA agents don't just cause us delays when we travel, they also create ethical dilemmas for lawyers when they search through our laptops at airport security checkpoints. Yup, that's happening...and there's a ethics opinion on it. Join the "CLE Performer, Stuart Teicher, Esq., as he explains the important issues that lawyers should consider when they fly. NYCBA Formal Op. 2017-5 and Rule 1.6 will be covered.

E-Discovery: Understanding the Cloud and its Impact on eDiscovery Litigation Issues

Date: 06/14/2018 12:00 PM EDT
Duration: 1 Hour

Description:

Cloud computing has become a cost-effective way for businesses to keep up with the latest technology. The Global Cyber Institute and Thomson Reuters CLE program provides attendees with valuable insight on the challenges and advantages of e-discovery and the cloud. During this CLE program, speakers will discuss the basic concepts of cloud computing and the unique e-discovery challenges the cloud presents. The program will also provide best practices for managing ESI in the cloud in a legally defensible manner and address some common litigation pitfalls. Key topics covered: 1. Overview of the basics of

Ethics & Cybersecurity: The Complicated Ethical Issues Concerning Data Breaches

Date: 06/15/2018 12:00 PM EDT

Duration: 1 Hour

Description:

Recently, it seems that the news has become inundated with companies and firms suffering data security breaches. The legal implications of such a breach are significant and the ethical implications for an attorney representing a client that has suffered such a breach are just as important. During this program, speakers will discuss the ethical considerations for attorneys responding to a data security breach and the appropriate role for attorneys in a company's efforts to deal with such a breach. Key topics include: 1. Overview of recent data breaches 2. The standards under which an attorney should advise a client regarding state and federal data-security breach statutes 3. The attorney's role and ethical obligations with respect to preservation of electronic and documentary evidence as part of a breach response 4. Discussion of ABA model rules: -

1.1 - 1.1, Cmt [8] -

1.6 - 1.6, Cmt [16], [18]

Additional program brief, Matthew Whitaker, OAG -- SSC, Room 6222, Main Justice
Good morning Matt,

We will need about 15 minutes for an additional program brief tomorrow morning at 10. Thank you so much!

The Special Security Center is in Room 6222 in Main Justice, 950 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20530. You will need to access our office via elevator bank # 5. If you come in Main at the 10th Street Gate and then come in the building entrance immediately to your right and walk down a short length of hall, this places you at the correct elevator bank. Once on the sixth floor, turn left out of the elevators and we are the first door on your right. Below are directions from the Visitor Center/Constitution Avenue Entrance, which is where the DOJ Shuttle drops off. Please give us a call if you need to reschedule. You may wish to minimize the number of electronic devices you bring with you, as all will need to be turned off and placed in our secure box. Thank you!
