1 OPENING STATEMENT OF HON. RICHARD DURBIN, A U.S. SENATOR
2 FROM THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE

3

4 Chairman Durbin. This hearing will come to order.

5 Today, we have five judicial nominees, and one nominee to 6 the Department of Justice. Myrna Perez, nominated to the 7 Second Circuit. Judge Sarah Merriam, nominated to the 8 District of Connecticut. Judge Karen Williams, nominated
9 to the District of New Jersey. Two nominees to the D.C.
10 District Court: Jia Cobb and Judge Florence Pan. And Matt
11 Olsen, nominated to serve as Assistant AG for the Justice 12 Department's National Security Division. A number of our 13 colleagues will formally introduce the nominees, but I'd 14 like to make a few observations.

15 First, with these nominees, the Biden administration
16 and the Senate continue to bring diversity and professional 17 balance to the bench. Today's slate includes Myrna Perez, 18 who will be the first Latina to serve on the Second Circuit 19 since Justice Sonia Sotomayor. We will also hear from 20 Florence Pan, who will be the first Asian American woman to 21 serve on the D.C. District Court.

22 This slate also includes professional diversity. We 23 have two sitting federal magistrate judges, a judge of the 24 D.C. Superior Court, who was previously an assistant U.S.
25 Attorney, and a former D.C. public defender. And in Mr.

1 Olsen, we have an accomplished national security expert who 2 spent decades working to protect America from enemies, 3 foreign and domestic. We have a civil rights champion in 4 Ms. Perez, who has devoted her career to protecting and 5 defending America's right to vote. It is a fitting time
6 for her to join the bench, particularly after late rulings 7 by the Supreme Court. I won't go into detail here, in an 8 effort to make sure that we get to the nominees as quickly
9 as possible. But make no mistake, voting rights are a 10 major issue and will continue to be for some time.

11 I'm thankful for President Biden in putting forward 12 nominees like Ms. Perez, who have such extensive 13 experience. She has an impressive career as a litigator
14 and an advocate, and an incredible insight into the impacts 15 that restricted voting laws have on minorities. This type 16 of legal experience is underrepresented on the court, and 17 it's rare to see a voting rights attorney nominated to the 18 federal bench. This perspective will bring diversity to 19 our courts. Ms. Perez's record shows she's driven by her 20 dedication to serving others and the Constitution.

21 Before turning it over to Ranking Member Grassley, I'd 22 like to introduce two of the district court nominees.

23 Eleanor Holmes Norton was unable to make it this morning.
24 Jia Cobb and Judge Florence Pan, both nominated to the D.C.
25 Circuit District Court. Both of these nominees have her

1 support, and she submitted statements for the record.

2 I'm privileged to introduce Ms. Cobb this morning.
3 Not only is she an excellent nominee, but she is an 4 honorary Illinoian, having attended college at 5 Northwestern, and then clerked in Chicago for my friend, 6 Judge Diane Wood on the Seventh Circuit. After graduating 7 Harvard Law, clerking for Judge Wood, Ms. Cobb began her 8 career in D.C. as a public defender, representing indigent
9 defendants charged with criminal offenses. For the past 10 nine years, she has worked as a national civil -- at the 11 national civil rights firm Relman & Colfax, representing 12 plaintiffs in fair housing, disability rights, and 13 employment discrimination claims. Ms. Cobb's extensive 14 courtroom experience has undoubtedly prepared her for roles 15 that await her on the U.S. District Court for the District 16 of Columbia.

17 In the past 15 years, and this is remarkable -- anyone 18 who's practicing law today will know this -- Ms. Cobb has 19 tried more than 30 cases to verdict, both criminal and 20 civil. And during her six years as a public defender, she 21 handled more than 200 cases, and appeared in the court 22 almost daily. It's an incredible record, and I wish we 23 could look to that for every nominee who's coming before 24 us. Having represented both sides in the courtroom, I 25 understand -- she understands that she needs to be a voice

1 in our nation's court so that the law is applied even-2 handedly.

3 Next, I'll introduce Judge Florence Pan, also 4 nominated to the D.C. Court here in D.C. After graduating 5 summa cum laude with two bachelor's degrees from the 6 University of Pennsylvania, Judge Pan received her law 7 degree with distinction from Stanford, then clerked for 8 Judge Michael Mukasey, well known to this committee, on the 9 U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York, 10 and Judge Ralph Winter on the Second Circuit.

11 Before her appointment to the D.C. Superior Court, 12 Judge Pam spent her entire legal career in public service.
13 She was selected for the prestigious Bristow Fellowship in 14 the Office of the Solicitor General. She was an attorney 15 in the appellate section of the Criminal Division at the 16 Justice Department, and the senior advisor in the Treasury
17 Department. Finally, she served as assistant U.S. Attorney 18 for the District of Columbia for a decade, litigating local 19 and federal courts at the trial and appellate level.

20 In 2009, President Obama nominated her to serve on the 21 D.C. Superior Court. She was confirmed by a voice vote.
22 She was also nominated to the D.C. District Court by 23 President Obama, and favorably reported out of this 24 committee by a voice vote in 2016; however, the majority 25 leader at the time refused to hold a floor vote on her

1 nomination before the end of the 114th Congress. Upon 2 confirmation, Judge Pan will become the first Asian 3 American woman to serve on the District Court for the 4 District of Columbia.

5 With that, I turn to my colleague, Senator Grassley

1 STATEMENT OF HON. CHUCK GRASSLEY, A U.S. SENATOR FROM THE 2 STATE OF IOWA

4 Senator Grassley. Congratulations to all the 5 nominees. I'll start by addressing the nominee of Myrna
6 Perez for the Second Circuit, New York. Ms. Perez is a 7 civil rights lawyer, focused on voting rights. I think 8 it's good for the president to look beyond the usual talent
9 pools in picking judges. President Trump for example, 10 nominated a number of civil rights lawyers to the federal 11 bench. Judges like Kyle Duncan of Louisiana, Matt
12 Kacsmatyk in Texas, and Sarah Pitlyk in Missouri were all 13 civil rights lawyers for significant portions of their 14 careers.

15 Indeed, should Ms. Perez be confirmed to the Second 16 Circuit, she'll join two other civil rights lawyers of 17 color appointed by Trump: Michael Park and Steven Menashi.
18 Judge Park, of course, led the fight to end racial 19 discrimination in higher education, a fight that's 20 unfortunately still ongoing. Judge Menashi, among other 21 things, ended religious discrimination against historically 22 Black colleges at the Department of Education. I think 23 we've seen the court benefit from this diverse perspective, 24 and it all goes to show that civil rights can take many 25 forms.

1 Now that said, my Democratic colleagues all oppose
2 those Trump civil rights lawyers. Perhaps Democrats didn't 3 think that civil rights that they were fighting for. I
4 think the more charitable interpretation is that Democrats
5 disagreed with their judicial philosophy. Yes. They all 6 protected civil rights, but they also believed in 7 textualism and originalism. Ms. Perez seems to be of the 8 opposite of that. A prominent opponent of voter integrity
9 laws, Ms. Perez seems to be very committed to a living 10 Constitution. This obviously concerns me, and I hope to 11 discuss this issue with her today.

12 I'd also like add one more thing about Ms. Perez.
13 Last night, the committee received the supplement from her.
14 It was an article she wrote, which the progressive 15 Christian journal Sojourners had just published, entitled, 16 quote, "The GOP Campaign to Make Elections Less Free." Ms.
17 Perez says that this article was submitted before she was a 18 nominee, and that she did not see or approve the title of 19 the article before it was published. I expect to have a 20 number of written questions about this, but I would make a 21 few points:

22 First, given the content of the article and the 23 timeline of Ms. Perez' nomination, it's very unlikely that 24 Ms. Perez submitted this inflammatory article while under 25 consideration for this seat.

1 Second, while the authors typically don't choose their 2 titles, I have to imagine Ms. Perez could have gotten 3 Sojourners, which isn't The New Yorker or The Washington 4 Post, to accommodate a title change that wouldn't be an 5 insult to half of this committee. I'll also note that this 6 article's outrageous sub-title, quote, "Voters are Supposed 7 to Choose Their Politicians, Not the Other Way Around," was 8 written by Ms. Perez.

9 Third, regardless of when it was submitted, Ms. Perez 10 is bound by the Code of Conduct as a judicial nominee, and 11 it's hard to see how publishing this article as a nominee
12 is consistent with Canon V of the Code of Conduct.

13 As to the other nominees, Ms. Cobb seems to have 14 similar problems, having in the past called for 15 interpreting statutes based upon their social histories 16 other than their texts. And Judge Merriam seems to have 17 gotten -- had a highly partisan political career.

18 On the other hand, I remember Judge Pan from her last 19 time before the committee. She seems extremely well 20 qualified for this position, being well acquainted with the 21 challenges faced by the District of Columbia, both as a 22 prosecutor and a local judge.

23 Judge Williams also seems to be well qualified.

24 Lastly, we have Mr. Olsen. I think it's critical 25 important that the National Security Division focuses on

1 protecting us from the security threats and not focus on 2 domestic politics. I hope that Mr. Olsen agrees with me on 3 that.

4 Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

5 Chairman Durbin. Thank you very much, Senator
6 Grassley. We have some introductions. And I note my 7 colleague, Senator Booker is here, and I believe you are 8 prepared to introduce one of the nominees.

1 STATEMENT OF HON. CORY A. BOOKER, A U.S. SENATOR FROM THE 2 STATE OF NEW JERSEY

3

4 Senator Booker. I am, Mr. Chairman. I know you
5 always get very excited when there is a New Jersey nomine e.
6 Chairman Durbin. Always.

7 Senator Booker. Always. And as does Ranking Member 8 Grassley. I am excited. I think all of Ne Jersey is 9 especially excited, especially around the city of Camden, 10 New Jersey, that I have the opportunity to introduce one of 11 President Biden's nominees to serve as a district judge on 12 the United States District Court for the District of New 13 Jersey, Karen Williams.

14 Judge Williams is currently serving her second term as 15 a United States magistra e judge, where she has handled 16 thousands of cases and demonstrated her incredible skill as 17 a jurist, and her commitment to justice and law. She is, 18 in many ways through many eyes, a local hero. She is a 19 light to many in our community as someone who is showing 20 ho to conduct yourself with professional excellence, with 21 dignity, honor, and a deep empathy for all of humanity.

22 As part of her many duties, including handling both 23 criminal and civil cases, Judge Williams also presides over 24 the District of New Jersey's Re-Entry Court. Renew Camden, 25 which works to assist formerly incarcerated people with

1 their re-entry into the community is yet another testimony
2 that she is living what a great American author, another
3 African American woman, wrote that, "We are each other's 4 harvest. We are each other's business. We are each 5 other's magnitude and bond." Judge Williams recognizes the 6 bonds we have to each other that "love your neighbor" does 7 not have conditions. She lives a life of great magnitude.

8 Judge Williams is ready to serve as a federal judge.
9 She has experience. She has skill. She has 10 qualifications. She has empathy. And she has a life that 11 is a testimony to the qualities we want on the bench.

12 The American Bar Association just recently unanimously 13 rated her as well qualified to be a district judge. She 14 has also the full-throated support of the New Jersey Bar 15 Association, the Garden State Bar Association, and the 16 Association of the Federal Bar of New Jersey.

17 And when, God willing, she is confirmed, Judge 18 Williams will be the first Black woman to serve as a United 19 States District Court Judge in the Camden, New Jersey, 20 federal courthouse. She is a trailblazer and a history-21 maker, should she be confirmed.

22 I am grateful for her commitment to the law. I'm 23 grateful for her commitment to service. I am grateful for 24 her commitment to her fellow humans. And I urge my 25 colleagues to advance Judge Karen Williams's nomination to 1 serve as a federal judge.

2 I just want to take a moment, though, if I can. And I
3 know I'm stepping out of my lane here, but President 4 Biden's nominee to serve on the Second Circuit Court of 5 Appeals, Myrna Perez, is an extraordinary candidate. I
6 have read about her, and I just want to celebrate her 7 presence here. And I'm grateful that she is someone who 8 has been advocating, tirelessly and relentlessly for our 9 democracy's most sacred ideals, which are voting rights.
10 I'm excited about her nomination, and I will vote in favor 11 of her to be another federal circuit judge.

12 Chairman Durbin. Thank you very much, Senator Booker.
13 We are in a semi-awkward situation. This is the first time 14 that we are officially gathering in person instead of 15 Zooming in our comments, which was extraordinarily 16 convenient, but disjointed in its presentation. We're 17 trying to get everybody back in attendance. So some of the 18 members are on their way, I am told. It leaves me in a 19 situation where I could give a long speech, but I won't. I 20 hope my friend won't either. I don't think he will.

21 Senator Booker. Would you like me to say more about 22 Judge Williams?

23 [Laughter.]

24 Chairman Durbin. I think you've really done a fine 25 job.

1 Senator Booker. Thank you.

2 Chairman Durbin. Don't risk it. Senator Blumenthal
3 is on the way?

4 Okay. So there you are. To the rescue, Senator 5 Richard Blumenthal of Connecticut has arrived in time to

1 STATEMENT OF HON. RICHARD BLUMENTHAL, A U.S. SENATOR FROM 2 THE STATE OF CONNECTICUT

3

4 Senator Blumenthal. Thanks, Mr. Chairman. And thanks
5 for giving me this opportunity. I'm enormously honored and 6 proud to be introducing Sarah Merriam today. Sarah Merriam 7 is the lawyer we all want to grow up to be after we 8 graduate from Yale Law School, and I say that as a dad of a 9 daughter who has just graduated from Yale Law School, and 10 would do well to emulate her extraordinary career in the 11 law and in community service.

12 Senator Murphy and I recommended Judge Merriam to the 13 White House, and I am grateful to President Biden that he 14 has agreed with our recommendation.

15 She received her BA from Georgetown University in 16 1993, and her JD from Yale Law School in 2000.

17 I spent good deal of my career, several decades, as 18 a litigator in the federal courts, and I have a particular 19 allegiance to the values and ethos of the very highest 20 quality that we should be seeking, as well as diversity in 21 our federal judiciary. Judge Merriam fulfills those 22 qualifications, and expectations, and much, much more.

23 Her work in the courtroom began long before she joined 24 the bench. After graduating from Yale Law School, she 25 clerked for two federal judges, both I admire greatly:

1 Judge Alvin Thompson in the District of Connecticut, and 2 Judge Thomas Meskill on the Second Circuit. She was in 3 private practice. She became an assistant federal defender 4 in the District of Connecticut from 2007 until she took the 5 bench in 2015.

6 And I am really just thrilled that federal prosecutors 7 agree with Senator Murphy and myself. Their statement is 8 in the record. So do members of the private bar. Their 9 statements are in accord. And I will just say that Judge 10 Merriam really embodies the highest ideals and traditions
11 of our federal district court in Connecticut.

12 As a former United States Attorney and attorney 13 general for our state, I'm very proud to recommend her to 14 this committee.

15 And thank you, Mr. Chairman.

1 STATEMENT OF HON. CHRISTOPHER MURPHY, A U.S. SENATOR FROM

3

4 Senator Murphy. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman. I 5 know you have a busy agenda ahead of you, and a number of 6 our colleagues who want to introduce the nominees.

7 Let me just associate myself with the remarks of 8 Senator Blumenthal. I don't know that you're going to see 9 a nominee before this committee who has, I think, a more 10 important breadth of experience in the legal field than 11 Judge Merriam.

12 She has been an advocate for working people. She has 13 been a very capable lawyer in private practice, as 14 mentioned. She spent the bulk of her career as a federal 15 public defender, and now she has been a very well-regarded 16 federal magistrate, someone who comes to this hearing with 17 deep experience in the federal court system. So I think 18 her resume and her testimony will speak for itself.

19 I come to you today as someone who has known Judge
20 Merriam for 20 years, both professionally and personally.
21 I will tell you candidly that when I began my time in 22 public service, Sarah was someone that modeled just a 23 unique combination of joy, and compassion, hardheadedness, 24 common sense, that to me, caused me to choose to pursue a 25 life in the service of the people of Connecticut.

1 All of us, I think, have one or two of those people 2 that we were able to interact with early in our career that 3 inspired us to decide to pursue a life in public. And 4 Judge Merriam is one of those people for me.

5 And so from a very personal standpoint, I am 6 incredibly humbled to be able to stand here today and to 7 recommend my friend, to recommend one of Connecticut's 8 brightest legal minds to this committee.

9 Lastly, I'm just so glad that she's here with many of 10 her family members that others are watching from home. As 11 she will mention, they are a big part of the reason why she 12 is here today. They are all good and close friends of 13 mine. And so I welcome the extended Merriam family to this 14 meeting today.

15 So again, a busy meeting ahead of you. Very, very 16 pleased to add my words of introduction to those of Senator
17 Blumenthal.

18 Chairman Durbin. Thanks, Senator Murphy. Senator
19 Menendez?

25

1 STATEMENT OF HON. ROBERT MENENDEZ, A U.S SENATOR FROM THE

3

4 Senator Menendez. Well, thank you, Mr. Chairman, Mr.
5 Ranking Member, and distinguished members. It's my 6 pleasure to join my colleague, Senator Booker, a 7 distinguished member of this committee, to introduce Karen 8 Williams, an exceptionally qualified nominee for the U.S.
9 District Court for the District of New Jersey, where she 10 has served as a U.S. magistrate judge for more than a 11 decade.

12 If confirmed, she would be the first Senate confirmed 13 African American federal judge to sit in the District of 14 New Jersey's Camden Courthouse. Yet it is the breadth and 15 diversity of her experience in the field of law that makes 16 her such an incredibly strong nominee.

17 Originally from Long Island, Judge Williams attended 18 Penn State University on a track scholarship, and she's 19 never looked back. And started out her career as a wage 20 analyst at the New York University Medical Center. And 21 after her mother took a job managing labor relations for 22 the Golden Nugget Casino in Atlantic City, she relocated to 23 Egg Harbor Township, and earned her JD from Temple 24 University Beasley School of Law in Philadelphia, and she 25 has called South Jersey home ever since.

1 Prior to her appointment as a U.S magistrate judge, 2 she spent 17 years practicing employment and labor law at 3 the firm of Jasinski and Williams. There, she defended 4 workers' rights, negotiated collective bargaining 5 agreements between unions and local municipalities, and led 6 litigation before state and federal courts.

7 In 1998, Judge Williams successfully argued on behalf
8 of Atlantic City before the New Jersey Supreme Court in a 9 case that affirmed the local fire department's ability to 10 discipline a firefighter for hurling racial epithets at a 11 police officer.

12 Since her appointment as a U.S. magistrate judge in 13 2009, Judge Williams has displayed an unyielding commitment 14 to the fair administration of justice, to equal rights 15 under the law, to a deference to precedent, and to the 16 safety of our communities. Indeed, two of the most notable 17 cases she has presided over involve threats to public 18 safety. One case concerning an individual accused of 19 planning attacks on synagogues. And another involving a 20 defendant who advocated for rioting and looting during 21 protests against police brutality during the death of 22 George Floyd.

23 In addition, Judge Williams has also served as an 24 adjunct professor at Rowan University, where her classes on 25 law and justice have undoubtedly inspired many students to 1 pursue the legal profession.

2 Judge Williams may have been born in New York, but she 3 represents the best of New Jersey. I have complete 4 confidence in her judgment, her values, her intellect, and 5 her capacity to serve as a U.S. District Court Judge for 6 the District of New Jersey. And as you know, Mr. Chairman, 7 and I appreciate this committee and your leadership in 8 dealing with the emergency of judicial vacancies that exist
9 in New Jersey that have been declared a national emergency.
10 The committee has been moving through nominees. I urge the 11 committee's support for her nomination as well to help us 12 meet that challenge.

13 Chairman Durbin. Thanks, Senator Menendez. And I
14 might say to you and Senator Murphy. I know you have a 15 busy schedule, and if you would like to leave at this 16 point, it's perfectly acceptable.

17 We now turn to Senator Cardin from Maryland.

1 STATEMENT OF HON. BENJAMIN L. CARDIN, A U.S. SENATOR FROM 2 THE STATE OF MARYLAND

3

4 Senator Cardin. Thank you, Chairman Durbin, and 5 Ranking Member Grassley. Thank you for giving Senator Van 6 Hollen and I the opportunity to introduce a proud
7 Marylander, President Obama's nominee for -- President 8 Biden's nominee for assistant attorney general for National 9 Security Division.

10 Mr. Matt Olsen is a proud Marylander. He hails from 11 Kensington, which is also the home of our distinguished 12 senator, Senator Van Hollen, and we're very proud of his 13 appointment.

14 Matt Olsen has tremendous experience at the 15 intersection of law enforcement and intelligence community
16 at exactly the point where the National Security Division
17 straddles these two distinct government functions. Mr.
18 Olsen has nearly two decades of experience in a wide 19 variety of roles at the justice and intelligence community.

20 Mr. Olsen received his BA from the University of 21 Virginia, and his JD from Harvard Law School. He served as 22 a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Norma Holloway 23 Johnson, the first Black woman to serve on the D.C.
24 Circuit. Judge Holloway became Mr. Olsen's lifelong 25 mentor.

1 After completing his clerkship, he joined the Justice
2 Department's Civil Rights Division, where he enforced the 3 Voting Rights Act. He also joined the U.S. Attorney's 4 Office for the District of Columbia, where he supervised 5 the investigation and prosecution of domestic terrorism, 6 espionage, and export violation cases. Mr. Olsen has 7 prosecuted homicide cases, RICO cases, and drug and gang
8 related offenses. I understand that it was Mr. Olsen's 9 work as a U.S. Attorney that led him to serve as special 10 counsel to then FBI Director Mueller, where he supported 11 the FBI's national security and counterterrorism work.

12 After departing the U.S. Attorney's Office and the 13 FBI, Mr. Olsen helped create the National Security
14 Division, and served as one of its first officials as both 15 acting assistant attorney general and a deputy assistant 16 attorney general. He oversaw 125 career professionals, and 17 managed intelligence and surveillance operations and 18 oversight activities. In this role, he worked closely with 19 the intelligence community.

20 At the National Security Division, Mr. Olsen led the 21 Justice Department's participation in the interagency 22 Guantanamo Review Task Force created by President Obama to 23 evaluate the status of individuals detained at Gitmo Bay, 24 which as we all know, is an extremely difficult assignment.

25 In 2010, he was appointed as general counsel to the

1 National Security Agency, which is headquartered in Fort
2 Meade in Maryland. As NSA's chief legal officer, he played 3 a critical role in supporting the agency's operation 4 mission.

5 Mr. Chairman, I could go on and on. He has incredible 6 experience in the intelligence community, and justice, and 7 law enforcement. He has the whole package. I want to 8 thank him for his willingness to continue to serve the 9 public, and thank his family for their willingness to allow 10 him to continue. I'm very proud to recommend his 11 nomination to this committee, and I urge you to consider 12 his nomination.

13 Thank you, Mr. Chairman,
14 Chairman Durbin. Thanks Senator Cardin. Senator Van

4 Senator Van Hollen. Thank you, Chairman Durbin,

6 committee. I'm very proud to have the opportunity to also 7 join my colleague, Senator Cardin, in introducing the 8 president's nomination to serve as assistant attorney 9 general for national security at the Justice Department, 10 Matt Olsen. And I would like to also welcome his family:
11 his wife, Fern, and their three children, Elizabeth, Nate, 12 and Will, who are here today

13 President Biden has selected wisely in picking a 14 nominee who has the experience, the expertise, and the 15 sound judgment for this very important position. And he 16 has very wisely selected a Marylander as well.

17 I'm not going to cover all the details because Senator 18 Cardin went over his very distinguished career, but I would 19 point out that he has 20 years of experience in exactly the 20 relevant areas for the position for which he's been 21 nominated, national security, counterterrorism, and civil 22 rights.

23 I do want to highlight a couple of the areas where he 24 served, including the Department of Justice, first in the 25 Civil Rights Division, and then as acting assistant

1 secretary for national security, where Senator Cardin said
2 he helped establish the National Security Division at DOJ.

3 His service as general counsel at the National 4 Security Agency, covering issues like cybersecurity and 5 surveillance law will also prove very important in his new 6 position, if confirmed. In his most recent government 7 post, Mr. Olsen served as the director of the National 8 Counterterrorism Center, where he worked tirelessly at the 9 helm of the nation's efforts to combat terrorism at home 10 and abroad by integrating terrorism intelligence and 11 connecting the dots to deter, detect, and disrupt terrorist 12 plots. In short, his work has helped save American lives.

13 Each of these experiences prepare him very well for 14 the skills that he will need to serve in this role. And 15 there is no question in my mind, members of the committee, 16 that Matt Olsen is ready to take on the important 17 responsibilities as assistant AG for National Security.

18 I was delighted to see that just yesterday, 80 former 19 senior officials of the United States Department of 20 Justice, who have served under administrations of both 21 parties, wrote to this committee, expressing their, quote, 22 "unqualified and enthusiastic support for Mr. Olsen's 23 nomination."

24 On a personal note, I can testify to Matt Olsen's good 25 character, because I also know him as a good neighbor in

1 Kensington, Maryland. My wife, Katherine, and I frequently 2 encounter Matt, Fern, and their children, walking in the 3 neighborhood. And the only family who is not with them
4 today is their dog, Kenie, who is a playmate of our dog.

5 Chairman Durbin, Ranking Member Grassley, members of 6 this committee, I am absolutely confident that, if 7 confirmed, Matt Olsen will serve our country with honor and 8 distinction. And I urge you support his nomination for 9 this important post.

10 Chairman Durbin. Thank you very much, Senator Van 11 Hollen. And I thank both you and Senator Cardin. And of 12 course, you can go about your business if you wish. We'll 13 continue here.

14 We are going to pause momentarily, waiting for the 15 arrival of Senator Schumer, who's going to introduce the 16 nominee for the first panel. So if everyone would please 17 relax.

18 [Recess]

19 Chairman Durbin. Welcome, Senator Schumer. The floor 20 is yours.

1 STATEMENT OF HON. CHARLES E. SCHUMER, A U.S. SENATOR FROM 2 THE STATE OF NEW YORK

3
4 Senator Schumer. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. And I want
5 to thank you and my colleagues on the Senate Judiciary
6 Committee. It's always a pleasure to be back here where I 7 served many happy years. In fact, if you add up my time on 8 the House Judiciary Committee and the Senat Judiciary
9 Committee, it's 1982 to 2016. That's a lot of years. So 10 it's glad to be back.

11 And it's particularly glad to be back for the reason 12 I'm here today. It's my honor, my true honor, to introduce 13 a nominee to the committee for the Second Circuit of New 14 York, Myrna Perez, an experienced litigator, one of the 15 foremost election lawyers in the country whom I was so, so 16 proud to recommend to President Biden.

17 Myrna Perez's life is a quintessentially American 18 story. The daughter of Mexican immigrants, Myrna grew up 19 in San Antonio, not quite Brooklyn, where her dad served in 20 th Air Force, and her mom worked as a waitress and then at 21 the post office.

22 As she will tell you, her upbringing was steeped in 23 the immigrant experience of many first-generation
24 Americans. There was a constant struggle against racial, 25 social, and language barriers as the Perez family found its

1 place in America.

2 In fact, when Myrna was a kid, her aunt would take her 3 to the polls on Election Day. Even in her early years, she 4 saw first-hand to how cultural differences and byzantine 5 rules made it immensely difficult for Americans like her to 6 engage in the political process, foreshadowing a career 7 dedicated to the defense of voting rights and equal 8 representation for all Americans.

9 And make no mistake about it -- and it was no mistake, 10 rather, that she chose the legal profession as a means to 11 achieve that noble goal. Myrna's family will tell you the 12 story of how once, as a kid, she protested that her cousin 13 tried to keep a fish he caught that was technically below 14 the legal size for catch-and-keep. Do you remember what 15 kind of fish it was? A rout. A trout. We have those in 16 New York too.

17 It was the innate appreciation for the rule of law
18 that propelled Myrna through Yale, Harvard, and eventually 19 Columbia Law School. The first in her family to graduate 20 from college. I hear these stories, and it gives me such 21 faith in America. But such a strong desire to create 22 greater and more equal justice in this country. We have so 23 much potential. We have such a wonderful country; we just 24 have to live up to it. And with a nomination like this, we 25 are.

1 After two clerkships on the federal bench, Myrna
2 worked as a civil rights fellow in private practice before
3 joining the Brennan Center for Justice at NYU, of course 4 named after the great Justice Brennan. It was at the 5 Brennan Center that Myrna established a reputation as one 6 of the top voting rights and election lawyers in the entire 7 country. For the last 15 years, she's been involved in 8 election-related litigation. Everything from voter roll 9 purges, discriminatory voter ID laws, the voting rights of 10 formally incarcerated people, and protecting the ballot 11 from unlawful rejection.

12 My colleagues, the federal bench has long been 13 occupied by former prosecutors and corporate lawyers.
14 While many of these people, many of whom I proudly 15 recommended, have served admirably, it's past time that the 16 federal bench reflect more accurately the true depth, and 17 breadth, and talent that the legal profession has to offer.
18 It's about time that civil rights attorneys, federal 19 defenders, and voting rights experts like Myrna Perez join 20 the ranks. Especially now, when our democracy in many ways 21 is in peril, it's crucial that we elevate someone like Ms.
22 Perez to the bench. Someone we can trust to faithfully and 23 equally apply the law to preserve our great democracy.

24 But it's not only about her experience as a voting
25 rights litigator. After all, she's going to hear all kinds

1 of cases on the Second Circuit. What makes Ms. Perez so 2 qualified for this job is not merely her experience, but 3 her legal excellence. Just listen to what a few of her
4 colleagues have to say about her: "Brilliant," one fellow
5 attorney wrote, quite succinctly. "A force of nature," 6 another said. Another colleague rated her legal skills as 7 simply, quote, "off the charts."

8 I would add one additional note to the e well-deserved
9 praises: Ms. Perez will serve as the first Latina to sit 10 on the Second Circuit Court of Appeals since then Judge, 11 now Justice, Sonia Sotomayor, whom I had the great honor of 12 recommending to President Obama for a seat on the highest 13 court.

14 And let me just say, when I met Ms. Perez, she just 15 knocked my socks off. Y s. She was brilliant, amazing.
16 Yes. She had real compassion and depth of experience. And 17 she had a scintillating personality that I'm sure will help 18 her persuade fellow members of the Second Circuit to the 19 righteousness of the causes that she will follow. So, I 20 can think of no one, no one more fitting to carry on 21 Justice Sotomayor's legacy on the Second Circuit than Myrna 22 Perez. She's amazing. I'm so proud to nominate her. She 23 carries my highest, highest, highest recommendation.

24 Chairman Durbin. Thank you very much, Senator
25 Schumer. We appreciate your remarks.

1 And at this point, we're going to ask the staff to 2 prepare for the questioning of nominees. The first panel
3 will be -- Ms. Perez, who is seeking a spot on the circuit 4 court, will be before the committee.

5 And then the second panel will include the other
6 nominees.

7 Senator Schumer is working this like a high school
8 graduation.

9 [Laughter.]

10 Chairman Durbin. And he's attended many.

11 Senator Schumer. I've spoken at over 100 of them
12 virtually this year. Graduations.

13 Chairman Durbin. I'm sure virtuously too. Ms. Perez, 14 why don't we ask you to please stand to be sworn? Please 15 raise your right hand.

16 [Witness sworn]

17 Chairman Durbin. Thank you. Please proceed with your 18 opening remarks.

1 TESTIMONY OF MYRNA PEREZ, TO BE UNITED STATES CIRCUIT JUDGE 2 FOR THE SECOND CIRCUIT

3

4 Ms. Perez. Thank you, Chairman Durbin, Ranking Member 5 Grassley, and members of the committee for considering my 6 nomination today. Thank you, Senator Schumer and Senator 7 Gillibrand for your support, and Senator Schumer for your 8 kind words of introduction. I also want to thank President 9 Biden for this nomination. It is the honor of my 10 professional life.

11 I first want to thank my judges, the Honorable Anita 12 Brody of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and the 13 Honorable Julio Fuentes of the Third Circuit. While they 14 were appointed by presidents from different political 15 parties, they had a shared commitment for the rule of law 16 and impartial adjudication.

17 I want to thank my friends and colleagues. It is not 18 possible to enumerate the many ways in which you enrich me.
19 The support you have shown me has meant more than you know.

20 I want to thank my church family: Saint Matthews 21 Evangelical Lutheran Church, my extended church family of 22 Crossroads Prison Ministry, and Grace Van Vorst Episcopal 23 Church for all of their prayers. They availeth much.

24 In the hearing room is my cousin, Hector Perez, 25 standing in for my many wonderful cousins on the Perez and

1 Garza side of my family. And of course, I want to thank my 2 many aunts and uncles who played such a big part of my life
3 during my formative years. To my cousins, my aunts and my 4 uncles, my brother, my nieces and my nephews, thank you for 5 the love from afar.

6 My husband, Mark Muntzel is here. He is a devoted 7 father and a really good sport about going along with my 8 various community projects. Mark also gift d me with a 9 bonus family who welcomed me with open arms.

10 My parents, Myrna Perez and Victor Perez, Junior, came 11 in from Texas to be here today. They immigrated from 12 Mexico to the United States as children. And while I never 13 heard any complaints, I never heard the words
14 discrimination or poverty, even as a young child, I knew 15 that much of their life was very challenging and full of 16 hardships.

17 But to their credit, they never communicated anything 18 but gratefulness for what they had. They taught me to be 19 resilient. They taught me to be resourceful. They taught 20 me to be independent. They taught me to be self-reliant.
21 And they taught me to set high standards for myself, and to 22 work very hard to achieve them. But most importantly, they 23 taught me that on my worst day, I am still better off than 24 most of the world on their best.

25 And finally, in the room is my beloved son. He is my

1 greatest source of strength, joy, and inspiration.

2 Thank you so much, members, for giving me a moment to 3 thank all the people who got me here today. I look forward 4 to your questions.

5 [The prepared statement of Ms. Perez appears in the 6 appendix.]

7 / COMMITTEE INSERT

8 Chairman Durbin. Thank you very much, Ms. Perez. Let 9 me, before we go into a few questions, say a few words 10 about the disclosure yesterday of the article that was 11 published in Sojourners Magazine. Let me tell you that I 12 have taken a look at the standards of the committee, and 13 believe that you are in total compliance, both with the 14 letter and spirit of the rules and law.

15 You submitted to the committee and article, which had 16 been submitted for publication in May of this year, before 17 your nomination to the Second Circuit. And that article 18 was published online yesterday. We have the letter of 19 transmittal from you with the article in a timely fashion.

20 Question 12(a) of the Senate Judiciary Questionnaire
21 requires nominees to provide all published materials, 22 including materials published on the internet, to the 23 committee. The question does not, however, require 24 nominees to produce unpublished materials. So you complied 25 completely, as soon as it was published.

1 I might also say that I read it. And having read it,
2 some may take exception, I certainly believe they will. I
3 would gladly give your article as a speech from me
4 personally on the floor of the Senate any day of the week.
5 I agree with what you said to the letter. And I would also 6 say that it is factually correct in every aspect that I'm 7 aware of. So we may disagree on policy, that's the nature 8 of this United States Senate and our body politic. But in 9 terms of the article itself, as I said, I believe that it's 10 accurate and I would embrace it.

11 The only reference to the Republican Party was in the 12 title, and that, you said, was not your choice, but the 13 editor's choice. It speaks of issues in state legislatures 14 without any partisan identification on that.

15 But let's go further with this. You've worked with 16 the Brennan Center. And Senator Grassley raised a point 17 which is entirely valid. We raise this point all the time.
18 Do you come to this, really, awesome responsibility with a 19 bias?

20 You know, I think the world of Justice Brennan, and 21 what he did on the Supreme Court -- as a matter of fact, I 22 think there's a quote in here. Let me find it, because 23 it's worth remembering. There's a quote that said that 24 Justice Brennan was -- Justice William Brennan was probably 25 the most influential justice of the century. And the

1 source of that quote was Antonin Scalia. So Brennan 2 himself was a well-respected man, and I have turned to the 3 Brennan Center many times when there are questions of 4 policy that they have looked into.

5 What would you say of your own philosophy?
6 Textualist? Originalist? I don't know all the terminology
7 of the Constitution. Please, the floor is yours.

8 Ms. Perez. Certainly, Chairman Durbin Thank you so 9 much. I think the first place you start when examining the 10 Constitution or a statute is with the text. It is the most 11 probative example of how it should be interpreted. I think 12 if, on its face, the text is not clear, you would then look 13 to precedent. And if confirmed, I would be looking to 14 precedent both from the Supreme Court and the Second 15 Circuit. If that still doesn't answer the question, you 16 look to canons of construction. You perhaps approach a 17 legislative history, but there is more than 230 years of 18 jurisprudence in this country, and there is relevant and 19 probative jurisprudence on quite a number of issues. But 20 yo start with the text, sir.

21 Chairman Durbin. Members of the Senate and many 22 others swear allegiance to that Constitution. To defend 23 it, people have given their lives in defense of that 24 Constitution. And yet, I would say, in my own personal 25 opinion, as great a document as it is, and it is great, it

1 is not perfect. Its treatment of African Americans, women, 2 and others reflected the mores and standards when the 3 Constitution was written. So I would just say, and you
4 don't have to comment, that I am not a literalist when it 5 comes to characterizing African Americans as two-thirds of 6 a citizen or not including women in the right to vote.
7 That, to me, is a reflection of the times, and thank 8 goodness those times have changed.

9 Speak to me, if you will, though, about the right to 10 vote. That is the central issue that we're discussing in 11 so many aspects. A group of Texas legislators decided to 12 come to Washington so that they wouldn't make a quorum in 13 Texas over controversy involving the voting rights law.
14 People feel very intensely about it. Comment on that, if 15 you would.

16 Ms. Perez Senator, the right to vote keeps us free.
17 It protects us from tyranny. It is preservative of all 18 other rights. And as an advocate, I have been duty-bound 19 to ensure that the promises this Constitution makes about 20 being able to participate in your own self-governance is 21 actualized.

22 The position before you I seek is one of a different 23 role, one in which I would not be involved in questions of 24 policy, but merely evaluating the laws that were put before 25 me alongside the record that the parties put in. But the 1 fundamental core of what is great about our country, the 2 Constitution and the promises that it makes that we all

3 deserve a free, fair, and accessible vote, is something 4 that is timeless and something that is bipartisan.

5 Chairman Durbin. I know the answer to the question 6 I'm about to give is very simply a yes, but I'm going to 7 ask you if you would expound on the notion. Have we had 8 any difficulty in the history of this nation in providing 9 the right to vote to all Americans?

10 Ms. Perez. Yes, sir. There are times where we have 11 not lived up to the great ideals of the Constitution, and I
12 am very proud to say that we are improving on that, but it
13 requires vigilance, and it requires all of us Americans 14 being part of the "We the People," in order to make and 15 continue to make our union more perfect.

16 Chairman Durbin. Thank you. Senator Grassley.

17 Senator Grassley. Thank you, and congratulations on 18 your appointment. I want to talk generally about the 19 approach of this administration. So many names, not just 20 yours, but others that we've already dealt with, about 21 these nominees refusing to even admit that they have a 22 judicial philosophy, let alone talk about what their own
23 judicial philosophy is. Even Judge Gelpi, who literally 24 wrote a book on the Constitution didn't seem to want to 25 talk about it.

1 But I think you're uniquely suited to answer these 2 questions because you've spoken many times about the living 3 Constitution concept in connection with your work at the 4 Brennan Center. What does the living Constitution concept
5 mean to you? You obviously agree with a living
6 Constitution as a method of Constitutional interpretation.

7 Ms. Perez. Senator, Justice Brennan made famous and 8 popular the idea of a living Constitution. Obviously, I've 9 never spoken to him about what it meant or what his 10 interpretation meant. I do think, as a nominee, I believe, 11 and I'm comfortable saying, that the Constitution is an 12 enduring document. Its great values of incredibly 13 important things like equal justice under the law, liberty, 14 the right to free exercise, all of those important 15 attributes of the American experience are still relevant 16 and guiding us today. And if they continue to guide us, we 17 will continue to be the greatest country in the world.

18 Senator Grassley. Thank you for your willingness to 19 express that. Others haven't been quite that outcoming.

20 On May 27, 2021, you spoke on a virtual panel 21 entitled, "Voting Rights in America: Ensuring Fair and Full 22 Voting for All." During your introduction, you spoke about 23 Justice Brennan and his judicial philosophy. You also went 24 on to say, quote, "If you're one of these people who think 25 that we were at our best when our country was first founded

1 and didn't include women, or people of color, or people 2 without property in the electoral process, this is probably 3 not the conversation for you," end of quote. Who were you 4 describing in that description?

5 Ms. Perez. Senator, I do speak a lot, so I'm not 100
6 percent confident that I remember the conversation. If it 7 is the conversation I remember, I was getting a lot of 8 hostile, inappropriate comments in the chat and I was 9 worried that it was distracting the audience and 10 frustrating the organizers. And so I was trying to explain 11 to the audience members that I was asked to speak on a 12 particular topic, and I intended to speak on that topic as 13 opposed to engaging with nameless, anonymous people via 14 chat.

15 Senator Grassley. Okay. Let me follow up. Is it
16 your view that originalists think America was, quote-17 unquote, "at its best when people of color couldn't vote?"

18 Ms. Perez. Senator, I think labels that get thrown 19 around a lot, like originalist, are inchoate and constantly 20 shifting, and so they're too broad and they're not 21 particularly helpful in terms of answering questions.

22 I will say that I -- the people I have encountered 23 that call themselves originalists, I do believe that our 24 country that is inclusive is preferable than the 25 restrictions we saw when the country was first founded.

1 Senator Grassley. Can you name any originalists who 2 might hold that view?

3 Ms. Perez. I'm sorry?

4 Senator Grassley. Could you name any originalist who 5 might hold that view?

6 Ms. Perez. Who holds what view? The idea that the 7 country has improved when we can all include? We are all 8 inclusive.

9 Senator Grassley. Okay. Then, let me go on to my 10 last question. This deals with recusal. In your 11 questionnaire, you said you would recuse yourself in 12 matters which the Brennan Center was a party or represented 13 a party. Does this also include matters which you or the 14 Brennan Center advocated a policy position on? Let me 15 follow up that question with, you have spoken about New 16 York election laws and pending voting legislation in 17 Congress, and your positions on those bills are quite 18 clear. Can you comment today to recusing yourself from 19 litigation involving that legislation?

20 Ms. Perez. Senator, I am very comfortable committing 21 to consulting the Statute of 28 USC 455 for recusals, and 22 talking to the administrative office, and proceeding in 23 accordance with those dictates.

24 Senator Grassley. Thank you very much.

25 Ms. Perez. Thank you so much.

1 Chairman Durbin. Senator Whitehouse.

2 Senator Whitehouse. Thank you, Chairman. Welcome --

3 Ms. Perez. Good morning.

4 Senator Whitehouse. -- Ms. Perez. I am delighted 5 that you are here, and I look forward to supporting your 6 confirmation.

7 I want to ask you a question regarding the Voting 8 Rights Act. There has been some criticism of your 9 nomination that you have dwelt unduly on issues of race
10 with respect to the Voting Rights Act. Could you let us 11 know why, with respect to the voting rights law, that is 12 actually a necessary thing to consider?

13 Ms. Perez. Thank you Senator. For the past 15 years
14 or so, I have been an advocate on behalf of an organization 15 and on behalf of clients who seek a free, fair, and 16 accessible vote. As a civil rights litigator, I am duty-17 bound to be hyper-sensitive and attuned to issues of 18 disparity and racism, and to protect and guard against any 19 threats to a free, fair, and accessible vote. And as such, 20 I have been vigilant about monitoring, and watching, and 21 resourcing, and researching potential threats to a fair 22 vote.

23 Senator Whitehouse. And in fact, Section 2 of the 24 Voting Rights Act makes it actionable to deny or abridge 25 the right of any citizen of the United States to vote on 1 account of race or color, does it not?

2 Ms. Perez. That is correct, sir.

3 Senator Whitehouse. So that's actually in --

4 Ms. Perez. Part of --

5 Senator Whitehouse. -- the law.

6 Ms. Perez. Part of my job, sir. Right now.

7 Senator Whitehouse. Part of your job. And it's a 8 part of your job because it's part of the law.

9 Ms. Perez. That is correct, sir.

10 Senator Whitehouse. Yeah. I'm actually, I think, 11 more to your side than to the originalist side with regards
12 to the Constitution. I like your use of the word enduring.
13 I think we do have an enduring Constitution, and we do have 14 principles in it that endure, but that have to adapt to 15 changing circumstances in society, whether it's new means 16 of communication, or new economic realities. And I think 17 too often, originalism is used as a device to try to impose 18 value judgments rather than principle.

19 I think it was William F. Buckley who, years ago, 20 said, "The purpose of conservatism is to stand athwart 21 history, yelling, 'Stop.'" And I don't think the 22 Constitution is designed that way. So I just want to say I
23 appreciate your perspective. I tend to share it. And I
24 think your use of the word enduring is a very appropriate 25 one. I don't know if you want to elaborate on that in any

1 respect, but thank you for saying that.

2 Ms. Perez. I would say, Senator, that I love the 3 Constitution. I love the principles it sets out. I love 4 that under the Constitution, we are all equal under the 5 law, that we all have a right to life, liberty, and the 6 pursuit of happiness. I love that we all have the right to 7 free exercise.

8 And I am entirely persuaded in the wisdom of the 9 frameworks it sets up. Things like the rule of law, 10 separation of powers, and an independent judiciary and 11 federalism. As part of those frameworks, it allows us as 12 Americans to live up to our ideals. So those frameworks 13 improve our values, and these values guide our framework.
14 And I think together, the country is getting stronger and 15 can get stronger.

16 Senator Whitehouse. In the context of frameworks, let 17 me ask a final question here that I ask of a great many of 18 the nominees who come before us, because in the framework
19 of the United States Constitution is the jury. Criminal 20 jury and the civil jury. And the importance of the jury 21 was something that was really evident to the founders. It 22 was part of the casus belli of the Revolution. It was 23 mentioned in our founding documents. And I think many 24 historians see it as a way for popular expression of 25 governance by local communities.

1 And so, it's been with some degree of distress and 2 dismay that I've watched jury trials more and more
3 evaporate in the federal system. A lot of it has to do 4 with Supreme Court decisions that have made it easier for 5 big and powerful interests to get out of cases before they, 6 in some cases, even have to properly answer discovery. In 7 other cases, it's been allowing big powerful interests to 8 divert people away from juries and into mandatory 9 arbitration, for instance, which is very often a rigged 10 game. Would you say a word about the historic role of the 11 jury, and whether you have any hesitation about protecting 12 and defending the institution of the jury, as contemplated 13 in the Constitution?

14 Ms. Perez. Senator, the jury is an important bedrock 15 position in our judicial system. Certainly, as an 16 appellate court judge, I would not be interacting with 17 juries, but I certainly would apply all the standards of 18 deference and reverence for the decisions issued by juries.

19 Chairman Durbin. Thanks, Senator Whitehouse. Senator
20 Tillis

21 Senator Tillis. I'll defer to Senator Kennedy.

22 Senator Kennedy. I'm sorry, Mr. Senator. No. You go
23 ahead. Well, that's very kind of you.

24 Chairman Durbin. I could ask you to do it jointly.

25 [Laughter.]

1 Senator Tillis. That gives us 10 minutes?

2 Senator Kennedy. Yeah. Really.

3 Chairman Durbin. But you have to fight over the 10 4 minutes.

5 Senator Kennedy. I'll try not to take my whole tim 6 here. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Counselor, how are you?
7 Good morning. Congratulations.

8 Ms. Perez. Thank you so much.

9 Senator Kennedy. Do you think the Constitution should 10 be used to create new rights?

11 Ms. Perez. Senator, I think the Constitution is an 12 enduring document, and that the --

13 Senator Kennedy. Yeah. I agree with you. It's been 14 around a long time. It's enduring. And I'm fond of it.
15 You love it. I'm fond of it too. But do you think it 16 ought to be used to create new rights?

17 Ms. Perez. Senator, I think it is constantly being 18 interpreted, and the Supreme Court has, through the 230 19 years of jurisprudence, has found rights in it.

20 Senator Kennedy. Yeah.

21 Ms. Perez. And if I am confirmed as an appellate 22 judge, I would faithfully apply Supreme Court precedent.

23 Senator Kennedy. Yeah. But are you going to use to 24 try to create new rights?

25 Ms. Perez. Senator, appellate court judges don't

1 create new rights. They take the record --

2 Senator Kennedy. Sure they do.

3 Ms. Perez. -- below them --

4 Senator Kennedy. Sure they do, Counselor. We've been 5 -- we both have been at this a long time. They do it all 6 the time. And then it goes up to the Supreme Court, and 7 the Supreme Court says yea or nay. Or sometimes they don't 8 say anything.

9 Let me ask you this, what barometer should we use to 10 decide whether a federal judge ought to create a new right, 11 or the people's elected representatives through a Congress
12 or a legislature? What's the standard you use there?

13 Ms. Perez. Senator, we have co-equal branches of 14 government. The legislature does the policymaking. The 15 judiciary --

16 Senator Kennedy. Yeah. But what's the standard -- 17 I'm sorry to interrupt you. But we had this problem in the 18 last administration, and we have it in this administration.
19 If you could just answer my question because five minutes
20 just goes like that. What standard do you use, personally, 21 to decide whether a new right ought to be created by a 22 federal judge or by the United States Congress, if it's a 23 federal right?

24 Ms. Perez. Senator, I would be applying precedent, 25 and precedent has standard --

1 Senator Kennedy. I stipulate that you're going to 2 apply precedent. I stipulate that. So let's take that off
3 the table. What standard should be used to determine 4 whether a new right ought to be created by a court, a 5 federal judge, unelected, appointed for life, or a United 6 States Congress?

7 Ms. Perez. Senator, appellate courts have standards
8 of review when looking toward lower court decisions, and I 9 would apply that standard --

10 Senator Kennedy. Come on, Counselor. You're not 11 answering my question. It's a real simple question, and 12 you're very smart, and you know what I'm asking. You 13 believe in a living Constitution. Okay. I get that.
14 That's a legitimate point of view.

15 You say you don't understand what an originalist is, 16 but I think -- I don't think you're being candid there.
17 But this is what my -- let me ask my question again. What 18 standard should be used to decide if you're going to create 19 a new right in the Constitution, whether that right ought 20 to be created by a federal judge or the people's elected 21 representative? Very simple.

22 Ms. Perez. Senator, the federal courts are of limited 23 jurisdiction. The appellate courts sit in between a 24 Supreme Court and --

25 Senator Kennedy. Okay. You're not going to answer

1 it. I get it. When you were at the Brennan Center --
2 you're still there. Right?

3 Ms. Perez. I am on leave, sir.

4 Senator Kennedy. Okay. But when you were there, did 5 you advocate federal courts to create new rights under the 6 Constitution?

7 Ms. Perez. No, sir.

8 Senator Kennedy. You never did?

9 Ms. Perez. No, sir.

10 Senator Kennedy. Okay. When you --

11 Ms. Perez. The right to vote is protected in the 12 Constitution, and it's protected --

13 Senator Kennedy. So you never asked for new rights.
14 You just said they're already there.

15 Ms. Perez. Yes, sir.

16 Senator Kennedy. Okay. How do you know a right's 17 already there if it's not explicit?

18 Ms. Perez. In the case of Boding --

19 Senator Kennedy. No. No. Just in general. If I 20 read your resume, and it's not -- something's on there -- 21 well, that's a bad example.

22 If you look at the Constitution, and it doesn't - 23 - let's just say -- let's say reparations. Okay. And it 24 doesn't talk about reparations. How do you know whether a 25 right should be granted if it's not there? That's what I

1 understand you to be saying with the living Constitution.

2 Ms. Perez. Senator, again, a case would not come 3 before an appellate court unless parties presented an 4 argument.

5 Senator Kennedy. I get that. I understand how a 6 lawsuit's tried. How -- let me ask you again, how do you
7 know if a right's not explicit in the U.S. Constitution 8 that it's really there? It's hiding. It's lurking, and we 9 just have never seen it.

10 Ms. Perez. Senator, in Marbury v. Madison, the 11 Supreme Court said that the Supreme Court interprets the 12 Constitution.

13 Senator Kennedy. Right.

14 Ms. Perez. I would look to precedent. I would look 15 to see if what --

16 Senator Kennedy. What if there's no precedent?

17 Ms. Perez. There's always some precedent. I --

18 Senator Kennedy. See, here's my problem, Counselor.
19 This is where I think you're headed. I think what you want 20 to do on the federal bench is advance a social agenda and 21 rewrite the Constitution every other Thursday to advance a 22 social agenda that you can't get by the voters through 23 their elected representatives.

24 Ms. Perez. Senator --

25 Senator Kennedy. Now that's a legitimate thing to be

1 for. This is America. You can believe what you want. But 2 you spent your whole career doing that. And it bothers me 3 that you're not defending that here, that you're dodging my 4 questions.

5 Ms. Perez. Senator --

6 Senator Kennedy. You're not the only nominee who's 7 done that. It happened under the prior administration. It 8 must be something in the water at the White House. But I'd 9 respect you a lot more if you just upfront said it.

10 Ms. Perez. Senator, I believe in the value of 11 precedent. I think it makes our system --

12 Senator Kennedy. So do I, but that's got nothing to 13 do with our discussion. We both know that. And I
14 understand that you've been advised to say precedent, 15 precedent, precedent. When in doubt. Is it raining
16 outside? Precedent. But it inhibits our ability to have a 17 rational discussion.

18 Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

19 Chairman Durbin. Do you want to complete your answer, 20 Ms. Perez?

21 Ms. Perez. I'm fine. Thank you.

22 Chairman Durbin. Thank you. Senator Tillis. I'm 23 sorry. Senator Coons.

24 Senator Coons. Thank you, Chairman Durbin. Great to 25 be with you, Ms. Perez. The committee received a number of 1 glowing letters in support of your nomination. I was 2 struck by one in particular, a letter that I reviewed 3 closely from Reverend Canon Dr. Allison DeFoor of the 4 Episcopal Diocese of Florida. Before his service as a 5 faith leader, Reverend DeFoor practiced law, serving as 6 county judge, a circuit judge, a prosecutor, a sheriff of 7 Monroe County, and a public defender. He also sought

8 elected offices for the Republican nominee or Lieutenant 9 Governor.

10 And he emphasized his heartfelt letter of support for 11 you, and I quote, "Myrna is, as a lawyer and individual, a 12 person of the highest integrity. She's thoughtful and 13 sound in her judgment and committed to principles of 14 justice that transcend politics. She embodies the true 15 meaning of public service and would be an exceptional 16 federal judge." He adds, "This is an informed opinion," 17 something many of us in the Senate would benefit from 18 adding on occasion, if it were true.

19 Given this informed opinion that I assume is rooted in 20 your close work together, I'd just be interested in 21 learning more about your work with the reverend, and former 22 judge, and sheriff on criminal justice issues. What 23 motivated you to engage in that work? And what lessons 24 have you taken from that work which you might apply in your 25 future service?

1 Ms. Perez. Certainly, sir. The Brennan Center takes 2 the position that all Americans who are living and working 3 in the community should be able to have the right to vote.
4 And I have been very fortunate to work with people from all 5 kinds of backgrounds to try and work in the legislative 6 branch, primarily to make that so.

7 Reverend Allison is one of the many different kinds of 8 people that I have worked with on this issue. There are a 9 quite a number, and I think it is really encouraging that 10 there are still some issues in which we can get bipartisan 11 support for.

12 Senator Coons. We've managed to get bipartisan 13 support for criminal justice reform, even on this 14 committee, with the leadership of our Chairman.

15 Ms. Perez, I was also struck that your work has 16 included extensive litigation experience, both at the 17 district and appellate level, and I'd like to give you a 18 chance to talk about your litigation experience, and its 19 relevance to your service, should you be confirmed in the 20 position for which you've been nominated. How would your 21 experience with complex litigation inform your service as a 22 judge, if confirmed?

23 Ms. Perez. I would give me a very strong appreciation 24 for what it is that district courts have to do. It would 25 make me be very faithful to the standards of review. It

1 would remind me every day that the parties are the masters
2 of their lawsuits. And it would also bring to me almost 3 two decades of experience, analyzing constitutional and 4 statutory claims, voluminous documents, a massive amount of 5 motions practice, and would allow me to make sure that I am 6 aware of exactly what it is that parties are doing when 7 they are arguing and prosecuting their cases.

8 Senator Coons. That's great. Thank you very much. I
9 appreciate your testimony before this committee today. No 10 further questions. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

11 Chairman Durbin. Thanks, Senator Coons. Senator
12 Tillis.

13 Senator Tillis. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Ms. Perez, 14 thank you for being here. Congratulations on the honor of 15 --

16 Ms. Perez. Thank you, sir.

17 Senator Tillis. -- being nominated, and to your 18 family.

19 Ms. Perez. Thank you.

20 Senator Tillis. And what's your son's name?

21 Ms. Perez. His name is Diego Isaias.

22 Senator Tillis. Welcome. I've got a quick -- just a 23 couple of quick questions. I was speaker of the house down 24 in North Carolina when we passed voter ID laws in the 25 state. And you know, I feel like -- it's difficult for me

1 to understand. I think we have different views about this.
2 But when we try to do everything we could to make sure that 3 anyone who wanted -- that needed an ID in order to vote,
4 that we would even pay for it. That we would make sure 5 that we gave people not only the opportunity to vote, but 6 fully participate in civil society.

7 When I went through the TSA, I had to present an ID.
8 When I checked into a hotel two weeks ago, I had to present
9 an ID. When I got prepped for my surgery about two months 10 ago for prostate cancer, I had to submit an ID to be 11 admitted into the hospital.

12 And it just seems to me that -- I'd like for us to get 13 to a point to understand that if we want every American to 14 fully participate in every aspect of society, that an ID is 15 a pretty important part of that. I'm not going to ask you.
16 I know where you are on it, so we'll agree to disagree on 17 that.

18 But I did want to ask you about something I think you 19 argued in -- there was a ballot harvesting case in the 20 Ninth District, down in North Carolina. And in that 21 particular case, it was a Republican candidate, so I 22 appreciate again, your consistency on the issue. But give 23 me an idea on a state like North Carolina, where ballot 24 harvesting is not allowed, why you think that that is a 25 suppression -- a voter suppression measure?

1 Ms. Perez. Certainly, Senator. I am happy to answer
2 your question. I would, again, recognize that if I am
3 confirmed, I would be taking on a different role, and you
4 are referencing work that I did as an advocate.

5 We examined the issue in North Carolina and found that 6 there was a disadvantage that was occurring because of the 7 illegal activity that happened there. And we responded --

8 Senator Tillis. For those whose ballots were 9 harvested?

10 Ms. Perez. Those whose ballots were tampered with and 11 thrown away. And as an advocate, I was duty-bound to call 12 that attention to the public to ensure that I could do 13 everything within my role, that those voting rights of the 14 impacted voters would be vindicated.

15 Senator Tillis. Do you -- just on a broader question.
16 Again, I understand the limits that you have because of 17 matters that may come before you. But wouldn't it also 18 follow, then, that the same rationale for saying that those 19 votes had been suppressed because they had been tampered 20 with opens up ballot harvesting to potential fraud?

21 Ms. Perez. Senator, the striking the balance between 22 how much restrictions you need to ensure fraud doesn't 23 happen is something that's better suited for the 24 legislature. If I am confirmed, I would merely be 25 evaluating the law and the precedent before me, as applied

1 to the facts and the record that the parties put before me.

2 Senator Tillis. Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Chair.

3 And congratulations, again, to the family, and the story of 4 your family. Thank you.

5 Ms. Perez. Thank you.

6 Chairman Durbin. Senator Hawley.

7 Senator Hawley. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Thank you, 8 Ms. Perez, for being here. Congratulations on your 9 nomination.

10 I just want to pick back up where Senator Tillis left 11 off when it comes to ballot harvesting. This is an issue
12 that the United States Supreme Court has recently taken up 13 in the Brnovich case. You've had quite a lot to say about 14 the Brnovich case. You've had quite a lot to say in quite 15 a number of the Supreme Court's precedents, which you will 16 be called upon to apply.

17 So I'd like to get your views on those. You seem to 18 be fine and perfectly willing to characterize Supreme Court 19 precedent, so I look forward to your testimony here under 20 oath. You said that the Brnovich case was a clear-cut 21 case. The Supreme Court ruled, and you actually 22 characterized that some of the arguments in the case made 23 by Brnovich and made by various amici in support of Arizona 24 as outrageous and harmful, including a brief filed by my 25 colleague, Senator Cruz. So I take it you think the 1 Brnovich case was wrongly decided?

2 Ms. Perez. Senator, my views on the Brnovich case are 3 immaterial because, if confirmed, I would be duty-bound to 4 apply it, and I would do so without reservation.

5 Senator Hawley. Oh, I think they're quite material to 6 get at your judicial philosophy. So let's try again. Do
7 you think the Brnovich case was wrongly decided? You said
8 that the case was clear-cut. The Supreme Court ruled 9 differently than you thought. So I take it you think it 10 was wrongly decided.

11 Ms. Perez. Senator, I would apply the precedent
12 without reservation.

13 Senator Hawley. Do you think the Brnovich case was 14 rightly decided?

15 Ms. Perez. Senator, I would apply the Brnovich case 16 without reservation. It is the law of the land. The 17 country that I care so much about depends upon stare 18 decisis and the application of precedent.

19 Senator Hawley. Well, that's not what I'm asking you.
20 I'm asking you about your comments on a Supreme Court case, 21 which you will, indeed, be duty-bound to apply. But I 22 think understanding your view on that case is relevant.

23 Let's try a different one. Shelby County. You said
24 that the Shelby County case gutted voting rights. So you 25 think that case was wrongly decided. Will you be able to 1 apply that case faithfully?

2 Ms. Perez. Without reservation.

3 Senator Hawley. Do you think that the Heller case was 4 wrongly decided?

5 Ms. Perez. Senator, Heller is the law of the land, as 6 is its application through the states of McDonald. I would 7 apply it without reservation.

8 Senator Hawley. Do you think Brown v. Board was 9 wrongly decided?

10 Ms. Perez. Senator, I would apply Brown v. Board
11 without reservation.

13 rightly decided?

14 Ms. Perez. Senator, I think there -- it was 15 rightfully decided, and it --

16 Senator Hawley. It was rightly decided. Shelby
17 County was wrongly decided, you say. But you won't say 18 about the Brnovich case. You won't say about Heller.
19 What's the line, here? How am I to adjudge how you are 20 going to apply the law if you won't be frank with the 21 committee about what you've said in the past and about your 22 own views now?

23 I mean, you've been an activist for quite some time.
24 You've commented on many laws. You've called voter ID 25 laws, like we have in my state of Missouri, which by the

1 way, the voters of my state passed directly. The voters
2 passed. You've criticized those as Jim Crow-type laws.
3 That's an extraordinary statement for a judge, someone who 4 wants to be a federal judge. Not an activist. Not a 5 constitutional lawyer. A federal judge. You've called the 6 precedent of the United States Supreme Court, you've talked 7 about them gutting voting rights. You've criticized them
8 in the harshest of terms. You've done this repeatedly.

9 So I think it's fair game to ask about your view of 10 precedent. So how are we going to know? I mean, let's 11 come back to the Heller case, the McDonald case, that 12 followed on from Heller. Was that rightly decided?

13 Ms. Perez. Senator, I would apply it without 14 reservation. And if I may say, I for the last 15 years, 15 have been an advocate when under our system requires 16 zealously pursuing the interests of my clients.

17 A judge plays a completely different role, and by 18 accepting this nomination, I am pledging to this body, to 19 the American public, before my God, that I would faithfully
20 discharge my duties under the Constitution, which require 21 me to put aside any personal policy viewpoints I have, and 22 examine what the matter is before me, and apply the 23 precedent of the Supreme Court and the Second Circuit. And 24 I do this without reservation. I am willing and able to 25 serve my country in this way.

1 Senator Hawley. Do you still think the Shelby County
2 case gutted voting rights?

3 Ms. Perez. Senator, as an academic, as a researcher,
4 as an advocate, I have done a number of research where I 5 have been able to lift out and identify instances in which 6 policies that passed that were not likely to have passed, 7 had it not been for Shelby County. But Shelby County is 8 the law of the land, and I would apply it without 9 reservation.

10 Senator Hawley. Let's talk just a little bit about 11 your broader judicial philosophy. You've been an advocate 12 of living constitutionalism. You said in 2021 that if you 13 were one of those people who think that we are at our best 14 when our country was first founded and didn't include 15 women, or people of color or people without property in 16 the electoral process, then this conversation about living 17 constitutionalism is probably not for you. I take that to 18 be a disparagement of originalism.

19 You've also said that the Constitution is not static 20 or frozen in time, but it has to evolve and be dynamic in 21 order to actualize its principles. So is this the judicial 22 philosophy you would follow in cases of first impression 23 when you don't have a controlling precedent on point and 24 you have to construe the Constitution, you would look to 25 dynamic and evolving principles?

1 Ms. Perez. Senator, I believe in the conversation
2 that you are speaking of, I was talking about Justice
3 Brennan's definition of a living Constitution --

4 Senator Hawley. What would be yours?

5 Ms. Perez. I believe that we have a Constitution that 6 is enduring. I think its great values are applicable, and 7 relevant, and can guide us today. I think they're 8 timeless. And I believe that they make our country strong.

9 Senator Hawley. Do you consider yourself a living 10 Constitutionalist?

11 Ms. Perez. I don't think those kinds of statements 12 are helpful in explaining the approach that I would take, 13 which would be first examining the text, then examining the 14 precedent. And if I needed to go beyond that, I would be 15 looking at the canons of construction, the legislative 16 history, the structure of what was at issue, and more 17 importantly, I would be bound by the record of the parties 18 that presented the case to me.

19 Senator Hawley. Well, my time has expired. So, thank 20 yo Mr Chairman, for your indulgence on this. I'll just 21 say that Ms. Perez, in conclusion, I want to echo Senator 22 Kennedy's remarks that I think given your very lengthy 23 record -- your very lengthy record of statements about 24 Supreme Court precedent, about many court precedents, I 25 think to come to this committee and refuse to answer

1 questions about those, to refuse to explain your 2 statements, to say you're not going to comment about 3 decisions. You have commented frequently about decisions.
4 I just think that, with all due respect, that's not candid.
5 I think it's frankly not transparent with this committee,
6 and I won't be able to support your nomination.

7 Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

8 Chairman Durbin. And I might add to my friend from 9 Missouri and others, it is not unprecedented. Trump 10 nominees came before this committee for four straight 11 years, and with the exception of Brown v. Board of 12 Education, which they acknowledged starting around 2019, 13 they refused to say to a person whether other cases were, 14 particularly recent cases, correctly decided.

15 It is a question of en asked by the other party in 16 this committee, and the answers you have given are ones
17 we've heard before. And I don't think it should come as a 18 surprise to my colleagues. Senator Padilla.

19 Senator Padilla. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. And I 20 appreciate the context and background. Ms. Perez, how are 21 you?

22 Ms. Perez. Great to see you, sir.

23 Senator Padilla. Great to see you. You have spent 24 virtually your entire career advocating for greater access 25 to the ballot and stronger protections for our fundamental

1 right to vote. In the course of that work, clearly you
2 have litigated cases in court. You've advocated for policy
3 changes in states around the country as well as right here 4 in Congress. And you and I have worked together in my 5 prior capacity as the chief elections officer for the State
6 of California, so I know how important advocacy on behalf
7 of the right to vote is. Simply put, we are a stronger 8 democracy when every eligible citizen is able to vote, 9 particularly free of harassment, intimidation, and without 10 any unnecessary obstacles or barriers.

11 I have sort of a bigger picture question in why voting 12 rights? Why have you decided to dedicate your career to 13 the defense of our right to vote, number one? And I think 14 more specifically, and for purposes of this committee, how 15 your views on policy, which we're entitled to have, but how 16 would they affect your rulings as a judge?

17 Ms. Perez. Thank you, Senator. I think the right to 18 vote keeps us free. I think it protects us from tyranny.
19 I think it is preservative of all other rights. And as an 20 advocate, I have been privileged to work alongside with all 21 sorts of Americans from all sorts of backgrounds to make 22 sure that our ability to govern ourselves is able to happen
23 because we all have a free, fair, and accessible vote.

24 With respect to policy, that is a role that is an 25 active part of my docket. But by accepting this

1 nomination, I am pledging to no longer participate in 2 policy disputes. And instead, I will impartially and 3 objectively review the law, apply it to the record before 4 me, and be faithful to the precedent both of the Supreme 5 Court and the Second Circuit.

6 Senator Padilla. Good. I appreciate that answer 7 And I thank you for your clarity. I thank you for your 8 commitment. And I thank you for your willingness to serve 9 in this capacity, should you be confirmed

10 I do have another question, and sadly, very timely.
11 At the end of the last election cycle, we saw the rule of 12 law tested when President Trump and his enablers filed over 13 60 post-election lawsuits. Not even counting those that 14 came prior to the election. 60 post-election lawsuits, 15 challenging the outcome of the election. Thankfully, court
16 after court rejected President Trump's frivolous 17 challenges.

18 But there is no question that the system was strained
19 by the former president's unfounded assault. As a voting 20 rights lawyer, you saw this abuse of our judiciary up 21 close. Can you speak to the importance of the rule of law 22 and how you believe that judges can help exemplify and 23 uplift it?

24 Ms. Perez. Thank you, Senator. The rule of law is a 25 foundational principle. It is all over the way that our

1 country works, in addition to things like an independent 2 judiciary and separation of powers. I think it's one of 3 the genius of our Constitution, and part of the reason why 4 I am very comfortable that I will be able to set aside my 5 past role as an advocate and accept the role of a judge, if 6 I am lucky enough to be confirmed, is because our system 7 requires an independent judiciary.

8 I know that when I'm a litigant in court, I want to be 9 able to go before a judge that allows me to make the 10 arguments, allows me to make the case, and sets aside 11 whatever personal viewpoints. Our system does not work 12 unless judges do that. I am ready to do that. The country
13 that I love so much depends upon it.

14 Senator Padilla. Thank you. Thank you for your 15 responses. And thank you, Mr. Chair.

16 Chairman Durbin. Thanks, Senator Padilla. Senator
17 Lee.

18 Senator Lee. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I'd like to 19 follow up on one of the questions that Senator Hawley 20 raised with you. Now, you said that you were referring, in 21 those discussions about a living Constitution, to Justice
22 Brennan's interpretive style. Is that correct?

23 Ms. Perez. That is what I believe the quote he was 24 referring to was referring to.

25 Senator Lee. Okay. Is this the quote in which you

1 said while you were discussing -- I think this was in a 2 panel of discussion just a couple of months ago that 3 Senator Hawley was asking about in which you said, "If 4 you're one of those people who think that we were at our 5 best when our country was first founded and didn't include 6 women, or people of color, or people without property in 7 the electoral process, this is probably not the 8 conversation for you." What I'd like to know, first, what 9 conversation is that? I want to understand the context?
10 What you mean? What conversation isn't for -- are you 11 characterizing people who believe in originalism as 12 believing that we were at our best as a country when we 13 didn't include women or people of color?

14 Ms. Perez. Senator Lee, as I indicated to Senator 15 Grassley, I do speak a lot. But if I remember that 16 conversation correctly, I was getting a lot of hostile and 17 inappropriate comments in the chat. And it was causing a 18 disruption to the organizers and the planners who seemed to 19 think that I would be engaging in some conversation with 20 them. And so, I was trying to set expectations for what 21 the conversation would be like.

22 Senator Lee. I understand that. It's good to know.
23 But I'd still like to know what you were referring to.

24 Ms. Perez. I was trying -- if again that was the 25 conversation that I recall, and I believe that it was, it

1 was me attempting to deescalate some people who believed 2 that that conversation was a source of a -- or was a 3 potential for a back-and-forth over chat, which I was not 4 going to let it devolve into.

5 Senator Lee. Okay. Do you believe that's a fair 6 characterization of originalists?

7 Ms. Perez. I do not believe that that is a fair 8 characterization of originalist. And I, again, if this is 9 the right conversation that I'm recalling was trying to 10 deescalate folks who were disrupting a conversation via 11 chat.

12 Senator Lee. Now in response to Senator Hawley's 13 questions a moment ago, you said you were referring -- when 14 referring to the living Constitution, you were referring to 15 Justice Brennan's approach to interpreting the 16 Constitution. And then you said that that would not 17 necessarily be your approach. Did I understand your 18 response to his question correctly?

19 Ms. Perez. Senator, I am not a judge. I don't have a 20 judicial philosophy yet. But my approach would be to first 21 look at the text, then look at precedent, look at the 22 canons of construction, and keep myself limited to what the 23 parties in the matter presented before me.

24 Senator Lee. Okay. Insofar as you were 25 characterizing Justice Brennan's approach to constitutional

1 interpretation, how would you characterize that approach
2 today? What is his approach? What was his approach?

3 Ms. Perez. Again, I've never spoken to Justice
4 Brennan. I didn't have the pleasure of meeting him.

5 Senator Lee. But you said a moment ago you were 6 trying to characterize his approach.

7 Ms. Perez. He has had quotes about the Constitution 8 not being static, as has Justice John Marshall, in 9 McCulloch v. Maryland. What I believe is true, and I 10 believe it's a truism, is that our Constitution is 11 enduring, that it has great values that are universal and 12 timeless, and that those values make our country stronger.
13 Values like freedom of religion. Values like liberty.
14 Values like equal justice under the law.

15 Senator Lee. Okay. So if you were confirmed, are you 16 saying you would not adopt a living Constitution approach?

17 Ms. Perez. Senator, if I'm confirmed, the first place
18 I would look when evaluating a constitution or a statute 19 would be at its text. That is the most probative offering 20 of what a piece of writing means. If required, I would 21 look to precedent from both the Supreme Court and the 22 Second Circuit. If that still didn't answer the question, 23 I would look to the canons of construction, the --

24 Senator Lee. Okay.

25 Ms. Perez. -- the structure --

1 Senator Lee. All right. I understand. Back in 2014,
2 you described new voter integrity laws, including, as I
3 understand it, voter ID laws, as representing, quote, "the 4 biggest voting rights rollback since the Jim Crow area."
5 Now personally, I think it's an insult to the brave
6 Americans who engaged in the Civil Rights Movement to draw 7 any comparison between the heinous, race-motivated
8 requirements imposed by the Democratic Party under the Ku
9 Klux Klan's influence, to compare those to today's 10 commonsense race-neutral and often bipartisan election 11 security measures, which according to some polls are 12 supported by a majority of African American voters. Do you 13 stand by that statement today, that voter ID laws are the 14 biggest voting rights rollback since the Jim Crow area?

15 Ms. Perez. Senator, I understand and very much 16 believe in the importance of election integrity. Elections 17 are how we resolve our political differences peacefully.

18 The Supreme Court has spoken and provided standards
19 for assessing voter ID in the Crawford case. If I am lucky 20 enough to be confirmed, I would be duty-bound to apply that 21 precedent to any case in controversy that came before me, 22 and I would do so without hesitation or reservation.

23 Senator Lee. I understand that. But I am asking 24 about a statement that you, in fact, made. Do you stand by 25 your statement that it's the biggest voting rights rollback

1 since the Jim Crow era?

2 Ms. Perez. Senator, if that is the statement that I
3 recall, it was occurring alongside a great number of pieces
4 of legislation across the country that, as an empirical 5 matter, looked different than what we had seen since 6 earlier times. And that was what the reference was to

7 Senator Lee. So you were not referring to voter ID 8 laws?

9 Ms. Perez. I -- again, if I remember correctly, it
10 was a wide array of laws that would have included voter ID
11 laws, because around the time period that you're talking 12 about, we saw a number of them introduced. But again, the 13 Supreme Court has said that, within certain confines, the 14 voter ID laws are acceptable. The Fifth Circuit en banc 15 also said that there are times when voter ID laws cross the 16 line.

17 If I am judge, I would be required to look at all 18 the relevant precedent and examine any law that was before 19 me to figure out if unlawful discrimination was present.

20 Senator Lee. Okay. I see my time's expired. I do 21 find it concerning that the witness still hasn't distanced 22 herself. I understand sometimes people say things and 23 later regret them. But she hasn't distanced herself from 24 statements made to that effect a few years ago, and I think 25 that's significant. Thank you.

1 Chairman Durbin. Thank you, Senator Lee. Senator
2 Cruz.

3 Senator Cruz. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Ms. Perez, as 4 I look at your career, I see the career of someone who has 5 been an activist, and I believe a radical activist. You
6 have waged litigation campaigns and opposed voter ID laws.
7 You have opposed voter integrity laws. You have opposed 8 prohibitions on ballot harvesting. You have advocated for 9 felons being able to vote. As I look at your record, year
10 after year after year of being an extreme partisan 11 advocate, I'm left with the very likely conclusion that if 12 you were confirmed to the bench, you would likewise be a 13 radical activist on the bench.

14 Voter ID laws, as Senator Lee just pointed out, you 15 described as the greatest rollback of voting rights in this 16 country. 80 of Americans support voter ID laws. 60
17 percent of African Americans support voter ID laws. Do you 18 believe voter ID laws are constitutional?

19 Ms. Perez. Senator Cruz, the Supreme Court has said 20 that there are no per se restrictions against voter ID
21 laws. In Crawford --

22 Senator Cruz. I asked what you believe. I was one of 23 the parties litigating in Crawford, so I'm very well 24 familiar with that case, and led a coalition of states 25 defending voter ID laws. And Justice Stephens wrote the

1 majority opinion, upholding Indiana's voter ID law. My 2 question to you is, do you believe voter ID laws are 3 constitutional?

4 Ms. Perez. Senator, I believe they are 5 constitutional. I believe that they can be constitutional 6 because the Supreme Court has said they can be 7 constitutional. And in Marbury v. Madison, the Supreme 8 Court gets to decide.

9 That is what our system depends on. We have a concept 10 of vertical stare decisis. We have rules of law. We have 11 precedent --

12 Senator Cruz. Ms. Perez, just a couple of months ago, 13 in March of 2021, you said that the voter ID laws that have 14 been passed were due to, I'm going to quote you to get your 15 words right, "anxiety over the browning of America. And 16 people having anxiety of the fact that certain folks in 17 power are not going to be able to stay in power." Do you 18 believe the 80 percent of Americans who support voter ID
19 laws and the 60 percent of African Americans who support 20 voter ID laws are doing so because they're concerned about 21 the browning of America?

22 Ms. Perez. Senator, that quote is clearly referring 23 to politicians. It's not referring to African Americans --

24 Senator Cruz. Which politicians here do you believe 25 are concerned about the browning of America?

1 Ms. Perez. Senator, that context was with respect to 2 state politicians. And --

3 Senator Cruz. So it's only state politicians.

4 Ms. Perez. Senator, that context that I'm on record
5 for were referring to state politicians.

6 Senator Cruz. All right. Well, let's talk about 7 politicians here, in this body. As you know, I filed an 8 amicus brief on behalf of 11 Senators in the Brnovich case.
9 You made a comment that the brief that I filed was 10 outrageous and harmful. Do you stand by that 11 characterization?

12 Ms. Perez. Senator, the Supreme Court, as you know,
13 issued its decision in the Brnovich case and struck down -- 14 I'm sorry, and upheld the restrictions on Arizona.
15 Brnovich is law --

16 Senator Cruz. Okay. I'd like you to answer my 17 question.

18 Ms. Perez. Brnovich --

19 Senator Cruz. Do you stand by the characterization 20 that the amicus brief that I filed on behalf of 11 Senators 21 was, quote, "outrageous and harmful"? That's how you 22 characterized it.

23 Ms. Perez. Senator, the Supreme Court has issued its 24 ruling on --

25 Senator Cruz. I'm going to try again. Do you stand

1 by your characterization? I'm not asking you what the 2 Supreme Court did. You described an amicus brief filed on 3 behalf of 11 Senators as outrageous and harmful. Do you 4 stand by what you said just a few months ago?

5 Ms. Perez. Senator, what I said as an advocate when 6 it was pending before the Court is not relevant to the 7 issue before you --

8 Senator Cruz. Do you stand by it or do you retract
9 it? You have a choice.

10 Ms. Perez. Senator, as an advocate, I pursued --

11 Senator Cruz. Okay. You're going to refuse to answer
12 me on that. I assume you also believe the Supreme Court 6-13 3 decision, agreeing with the position advocated in my 14 amicus brief, I assume you believe that decision was also 15 outrageous and harmful, because that's the language you 16 used.

17 Ms. Perez. Senator, the Brnovich case is the law of 18 the land. It has been settled.

19 Senator Cruz. So you're not going to answer that 20 either?

21 Ms. Perez. The law of the land has been settled.
22 What I am going to say, Senator, is that I am pledging to 23 apply precedent.

24 Senator Cruz. So at the time, you discussed the brief 25 filed by a number of senators on this committee as

1 outrageous and harmful. At that time, had you any 2 discussions with the Biden administration about being 3 nominated to be a judge?

4 Ms. Perez. I would need to remember the timing a 5 little bit. That --

6 Senator Cruz. When was the first discussion you had 7 with the Biden administration about being nominated to be a
8 judge?

9 Ms. Perez. I need to -- can -- I would need to 10 reference my Senate Judiciary Questionnaire because that's 11 where I recorded it. I don't have it committed to memory.

12 Senator Cruz. So you have advocated that felons 13 should be able to vote. Do you believe all felons should 14 vote?

15 Ms. Perez. Senator, my work in advocacy has been on 16 behalf of persons who are living and working in the 17 community.

18 Senator Cruz. Do you believe currently incarcerated 19 prisoners, in jail, should be allowed to vote?

20 Ms. Perez. Senator, I have been advocating on behalf 21 on people who are --

22 Senator Cruz. You're not answering my question.

23 Ms. Perez. Senator --

24 Senator Cruz. I didn't ask what you've advocated in 25 the past. I'm asking what you believe.

1 Ms. Perez. Senator, the Canons of Judicial Ethics
2 preclude me from answering that question because a 3 situation may come before me.

4 Senator Cruz. So let me ask you this. You have 5 advocated in favor of a living Constitution. And indeed, 6 as both Senator Hawley and Senator Lee asked you about, you 7 have disparaged those who believe in originalism as 8 essentially racist and bigots. How do you think you will 9 be able to serve with colleagues on the Court of Appeals if 10 you have disparaged their constitutional interpretation as 11 racist and bigoted?

12 And secondly, why is it that when you advocate a, 13 quote, "living Constitution," that somehow the livingness
14 of it always makes the Constitution agree with the policy
15 positions you happen to embrace? How is that consistent 16 with democracy, to have a judge able to implement whatever 17 policy positions you believe in?

18 Ms. Perez. Senator, we have had more than two dozen 19 amendments added to the Constitution since it was ratified 20 in 1788.

21 Senator Cruz. But that's not what a living 22 Constitution is.

23 Ms. Perez. Women --

24 Senator Cruz. A living Constitution means you as a 25 judge, if you're a judge, can change it to whatever you

1 want, and that the voters don't get to speak on it, isn't 2 that right?

3 Ms. Perez. Senator, women now have the right to vote.
4 African --

5 Senator Cruz. We passed an amendment for that.
6 That's a terrific victory, and it was done the right way
7 through an amendment. A living Constitution is judges 8 changing it. Why are judges changing the Constitution to 9 meet their policy preferences consistent with any respect 10 for the democratic process and the ability of voters to 11 decide policy issues?

12 Ms. Perez. Senator, it is clear that our great 13 Constitution is one that is enduring. It is clear with 14 things like Brown v. Board overruling Plessy v. Ferguson 15 that evolution happens.

16 It is also clear that our great Constitution
17 establishes separation of powers. There are bodies, like 18 this one, that engage in policymaking. There are judges 19 that review the cases and controversies that are put before 20 them.

21 I am pledging, by accepting this nomination, that I am 22 going to cease being an advocate, and I would impartially, 23 without reservation, objectively apply the law to the facts
24 of the case and controversy before me.

25 Senator Cruz. Well, your record is overwhelmingly to 1 the contrary.

2 Chairman Durbin. Thank you, Senator Cruz. Senator
3 Blumenthal.

4 Senator Blumenthal. Thanks, Mr. Chairman. The simple 5 fact of the matter is you haven't been a judge before, have 6 you?

7 Ms. Perez. That is correct, sir.

8 Senator Blumenthal. So when my colleague, Senator
9 Cruz, says your record is overwhelming to the contrary, I'm 10 not sure what he is referring to. You have been an 11 advocate, correct?

12 Ms. Perez. That is correct sir.

13 Senator Blumenthal. And tell me how you view the role 14 of advocate as being different from a jurist?

15 Ms. Perez. Thank y u. In the great genius of our 16 Constitution, people play different roles. Advocates
17 zealously argue on behalf of their clients in as many fora 18 as they can. I have had the privilege and pleasure of 19 doing that.

20 Judges take on a different role. They are limited in 21 what they have jurisdiction over. They are limited in the 22 cases that come before them. And they are limited to the 23 arguments what parties put before them. And they are 24 limited to binding precedent.

25 I believe that the most important thing a judge can

1 do, and must do, is in fact, duty-bound to do, is to 2 impartially and objectively apply existing precedent to the 3 facts and the record of the case before them.

4 Senator Blumenthal. As an advocate, you've had strong 5 beliefs, and you have strong values, and you've advocated 6 causes strongly. I take it, as a member of the Court of 7 Appeals for the Second Circuit, you would be able to put 8 those beliefs, and values, and positions as de, and look at 9 the law, specifically the Constitution and the statutes of 10 the United States of America, correct?

11 Ms. Perez. Not only would I be apable, sir, I must.
12 The country that I care so deeply about depends upon people 13 playing their roles. And I, if given the chance to serve 14 this country, would not betray its values of an independent 15 judiciary. I would faithfully, to the best of my ability, 16 uphold my duty under the constitution, which would be to 17 fairly and impartially evaluate the cases and controversies 18 before me.

19 Senator Blumenthal. And in fact, all of us who have 20 be n advocates, and I've argued cases in the Court of 21 Appeals that I expect you'll soon join, as well as the 22 District Court and United States Supreme Court, as well as 23 state courts in Connecticut, like you. As an advocate, you 24 don't want to be an objective, neutral, arbitrator. You 25 want to be on the side of your client, and your cause.

1 That's your record.

2 And if you were, in fact, acting as a judicial 3 official while being an advocate, you'd be betraying your 4 client and your cause, wouldn't you?

5 Ms. Perez. That is correct, sir.

6 Senator Blumenthal. So, when Senator Cruz tries to 7 argue you shouldn't be a judge because you were a good 8 advocate, in effect -- and I know he -- I think he 9 understands the point I'm making. Your record, in fact, 10 exemplifies your faithfulness to the role that you have 11 been playing as an advocate because our whole system is 12 designed to have fierce and ferocious advocacy on the basis 13 of the law and the facts. In fact, sometimes arguing that 14 courts should expand the law by an expansive 15 interpretation.

16 But whatever you have argued as a lawyer and an 17 advocate, you would have -- you accept the fact, in fact, I 18 sense you embrace it, that you would have a different role 19 as a member of the United States Court of Appeals for the 20 Second Circuit.

21 Ms. Perez. That is correct, sir.

22 Senator Blumenthal. Thank you.

23 Ms. Perez. Thank you, sir.

24 Senator Blumenthal. Thanks, Mr. Chairman.

25 Chairman Durbin. Thanks, Senator Blumenthal. Senator

1 Blackburn.

2 Senator Blackburn. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Welcome.

3 Ms. Perez. Good morning, Senator.

4 Senator Blackburn. And congratulations --

5 Ms. Perez. Thank you.

6 Senator Blackburn. -- to you. I just want to be sure

7 I'm understanding some of the comments --

8 Ms. Perez. Yes, ma'am.

9 Senator Blackburn. -- that you have made. And 10 basically, you're saying as you move to the role of a 11 judge, you would set aside all of your previous opinions?

12 Ms. Perez. They would not make its way to into any 13 courtroom that was sitting in.

14 Senator Blackburn. So basically, you're saying you 15 would erase all of this activism from your past?

16 Ms. Perez. What I'm saying, Senator, is that I would 17 apply the precedent of the Supreme Court --

18 Senator Blackburn. So you're going to say what you're 19 going to do is basically, when it comes to your philosophy 20 of the law and your philosophy of the governmental 21 structure, you are going to hit the reset button, and you 22 will be a neutral and blank slate. Is that what you're 23 telling us?

24 Ms. Perez. I will be an impartial and objective 25 adjudicator, limited to the subject matter and personal

1 jurisdiction of the case before me, and the arguments --

2 Senator Blackburn. Okay. Let's --

3 Ms. Perez. -- that the parties have put in front of 4 me.

5 Senator Blackburn. Let's do this, then. Let's go on 6 to the issue of voter ID. Because this is something that 7 causes not only me, but a lot of people in Tennessee who 8 are viewing your nomination, they're really unhappy about 9 your nomination. Because most Americans, as you've heard 10 from others today, they support voter ID laws. They also 11 support the fact that it is up to the state to tend to 12 this. And they're very concerned about where you would go.

13 And you know what? They really don't want activist 14 judges. What they want is someone who is going to be an 15 originalist, who is going to look at the text of the 16 Constitution and look at precedent. Things you've said 17 you're going to do, but the answers to your question do not 18 indicate that that is going to be what you're going to do.

19 I get this funny feeling that you're trying to hedge 20 us, that you've rehearsed your answers, that you're 21 spouting out what you think will not get you into trouble 22 so that you can go through the confirmation process. And 23 then do the happy dance and get on the court, and then go 24 back to your activist ways. That is what is coming across, 25 ma'am. That is what I'm perceiving.

1 So talk to me just a little bit about what your view
2 is of the elections clause. And then, do you agree that 3 the states have the right to conduct the elections in their 4 state in the manner that they see fit?

5 Ms. Perez. Senator, states play the primary role in 6 election administration.

7 Senator Blackburn. It is their prerogative, correct?

8 Ms. Perez. We have a system of federalism within 9 certain bounds, pursuant to the election clause and the 10 statutes of -- that this body has created. States play the 11 primary role in the administration of elections.

12 Senator Blackburn. So your previous work in election
13 law and voter ID would not preference any of the decisions 14 that you're going to make?

15 Ms. Perez. I would very strictly adhere to the 16 precedent of the Supreme Court --

17 Senator Blackburn. But you cannot give me a yes or no 18 to that?

19 Ms. Perez. Yes. I guess -- if you don't mind 20 rephrasing the question, I'd like to if I can.

21 Senator Blackburn. I said your prior work in election 22 law, that will not influence your decision-making in 23 election law, electoral cases.

24 Ms. Perez. If what you're asking, Senator, is whether 25 prior policy positions as an advocate --

1 Senator Blackburn. Your prior work. That's right.

2 Ms. Perez. My -- I am pledging to you that if I am 3 confirmed, that I will set aside any personal views I have 4 as to the merits of policy and apply the country's 5 precedent, which includes cases like Crawford, which as we 6 have indicated before, says that voter ID laws are not per 7 se unconstitutional, and I would apply Crawford and any 8 other relevant Supreme Court or Second Circ it precedent on 9 any matter involving a photo ID law that came before me.

10 Senator Blackburn. Okay. I'm going to send to you a 11 question for an answer in writing, be ause I will not have 12 enough time for you to give a fulsome answer. But it deals 13 with felon enfranchisement on voting and the positions that 14 you have taken in that previously. And you did not answer 15 Senator Cruz' question about felons having the right to 16 vote. And you were opposite of Governor DeSantis in having 17 them pay all their fines. So, I will send that question to 18 you in writing for a written answer.

19 And then, I'm also going to send to you a question 20 dealing with your qualifications.

21 Mr. Chairman, thank you. I yield back.

22 [The information appears in the appendix:]

23 / COMMITTEE INSERT

24 Chairman Durbin. Thank you, Senator Blackburn.

25 Senator Cotton.

1 Senator Cotton. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Ms. Perez,
2 I watched some of the hearing on television earlier. I 3 apologize I missed Senator Hawley's question because I was 4 on the floor voting. I was just wondering if you'd return
5 to some of the things he said. My crack staff gave me a 6 summary, but I assume it must be incorrect.

7 Was it your testimony that Brown v. Board was 8 correctly decided?

9 Ms. Perez. Yes.

10 Senator Cotton. Was it your testimony that you cannot 11 say whether Shelby County and Brnovich are correctly 12 decided?

13 Ms. Perez. Senator, here's an important distinction
14 that if you will give a moment of your time, I'd be happy 15 to explain, but that is accurate.

16 Senator Cotton. So was Roe v. Wade correctly decided?

17 Ms. Perez. Senator, it is the law of the land, and I 18 would apply it.

19 Senator Cotton. Was Lochner correctly decided?

20 Ms. Perez. Senator, it is not really the law of the 21 land anymore, but if I had been confirmed during that 22 period, I would have applied it.

23 Senator Cotton. Was Dred Scott correctly decided?

24 Ms. Perez. Senator, it is --

25 Senator Cotton. Surely, you can say Dred Scott was 1 incorrectly decided.

2 Ms. Perez. Senator, it was incorrectly decided.

3 Senator Cotton. So what's the distinguishing line of 4 cases you will say were correctly decided and cases you
5 won't say? Because it seems like you're willing to say 6 that they're correctly decided if you like them. But if 7 you don't like them, you can't comment on it.

8 Ms. Perez. Senator, I do appreciate the question, and 9 I think it is important, and I want to clarify this. As a 10 judicial nominee, I am bound by the code of ethics to 11 ensure that any prospective litigant before me knows that 12 they are getting an impartial and fair hearing where they 13 will not be pre-judged, where they will be given the 14 opportunity to present their case.

15 I think that it will not happen that a case of the 16 permissibility of de jure, segregation in schools, would 17 make its way before me. And as such, I am comfortable that 18 I would not be violating my code of ethics by commenting on 19 it. There are a handful --

20 Senator Cotton. Well, that --

21 Ms. Perez. -- of other cases that that may be true.
22 Loving is probably one of them. Marbury v. Madison.

23 Everything else, I would be very, very reluctant to give a 24 potential litigant the wrong impression that they will not 25 get a fair day in court.

1 Senator Cotton. What about abortion? That's a live 2 issue in the courts.

3 Ms. Perez. And I am not --

4 Senator Cotton. You're not going to say whether Roe 5 v. Wade was correctly decided.

6 Ms. Perez. That is correct.

7 Senator Cotton. Okay. Well, you've certainly had a 8 lot of harsh things to say in the past about cases like 9 Shelby and Brnovich, and some of the issues that were 10 adjudicated there. In fact, we just got notice last night 11 about this article that just was published that you wrote.
12 The title of it is, "The GOP Campaign to Make Elections 13 Less Free."

14 You noted in the letter you sent with the article that 15 you did not see or approve of the title before it was 16 published --

17 Ms. Perez. That is correct, Senator.

18 Senator Cotton. -- which I can understand. Authors
19 don't choose their own titles. I understand that. You 20 didn't say whether you agree with it. Do you believe that 21 GOP is campaigning to make elections less free?

22 Ms. Perez. Senator, the entire piece does not mention 23 any political party, and that is because I am an advocate 24 for the right to vote. And I would criticize any 25 politician who would impede that right, irrespective of 1 their political party.

2 Senator Cotton. Do you think requiring voter ID is an 3 impediment to vote and shouldn't be permitted?

4 Ms. Perez. Senator, the Supreme Court in Crawford
5 said that voter ID laws were not per se unconstitutional
6 However, a Fifth Circuit en banc said that a particular 7 voter ID law was illegal. This is a case-by-case inquiry 8 where we are fortunate enough to have precedent on, 9 precedent that I would apply faithfully and without 10 reservation.

11 Senator Cotton. Another -- I think Senator Durbin 12 said that this article sounded like a speech he would give 13 on the Senator floor. I agree. I don't think it proves 14 the point you may have been trying to prove though, Senator 15 Durbin. Ms. Perez, you live in the New York City area?

16 Ms. Perez. I live in Jersey City.

17 Senator Cotton. Okay. How did you get down here?

18 Ms. Perez. I took an Amtrak.

19 Senator Cotton. Okay. Did you have to show an ID to 20 get your ticket or get on the Amtrak?

21 Ms. Perez. I don't believe so, sir.

22 Senator Cotton. Okay. Last time you flew, did you 23 have to show an ID?

24 Ms. Perez. I did, sir.

25 Senator Cotton. Do you think that's an unfair

1 restriction on your ability to travel?

2 Ms. Perez. That is the policy, and I am a rule-
3 follower, and I'm happy to abide by it because I can.

4 Senator Cotton. Okay. If someone commits a murder, 5 do you think it's fair to call them a murderer?

6 Ms. Perez. If someone has been convicted --

7 Senator Cotton. Yeah. Convicted.

8 Ms. Perez. -- for murder --

9 Senator Cotton. Yes.

10 Ms. Perez. -- under -- yes.

11 Senator Cotton. If they commit rape, do you think 12 it's fair to call them a rapist?

13 Ms. Perez. Have they been convicted?

14 Senator Cotton. Yes.

15 Ms. Perez. Yes.

16 Senator Cotton. Convicted.

17 Ms. Perez. Yes.

18 Senator Cotton. So, if they commit a felony, do you 19 think it's fair to call them a felon?

20 Ms. Perez. I think that that is a bit different 21 because there's a temporal issue. And I think that there's 22 a raging policy debate on that.

23 Senator Cotton. Because in the past, you've said that 24 you don't like to use that word. In fact, you said, "I 25 don't use words like 'felons' to describe people. I mean,

1 we don't describe people by a mistake that they made."

2 Ms. Perez. I don't. I believe that every person is a 3 child of God, capable of being redeemed. And I never look 4 at anybody and see the worst thing that they've ever done.

5 Senator Cotton. But those convicted murders or 6 rapists get released from prison, often under misguided
7 policies. Do you think it's still fair to call them a 8 murderer or rapist?

9 Ms. Perez. Irrespective of what their label was, sir, 10 I would be on record as an advocate of trying to advocate 11 for their right to vote if the criminal justice system had 12 deemed them to be fit to be living amongst us.

13 Senator Cotton. All right. Thanks for your 14 testimony.

15 Chairman Durbin. Well, thank you very much, Ms.
16 Perez, for appearing before the committee. You may receive 17 some written questions, which we hope you will provide 18 timely answers to.

19 Ms. Perez. I will do so, sir. Thank you.

20 Chairman Durbin. Thank you very much. I'd like to 21 let the staff prepare for the second panel and ask them to 22 please step forward.

23 I'm going to ask Senator Coons to take over while I go 24 vote and return.

25 [Recess.]

1 Senator Coons. [Presiding]. Please be seated, if you
2 would. I look forward to hearing from our -- I'm sorry.
3 We're all just going to have to stand back up to take the 4 oath, so please don't be seated. I look forward to hearing 5 from our next five nominees.

6 Before making your opening statements, would the 7 nominees please stand to be sworn in?

8 [Witnesses sworn.]

9 Senator Coons. Thank you. Please be seated. And Ms.
10 Cobb, you may begin with your opening statement.

2 JUDGE FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

4 Ms. Cobb. Thank you so much, Senator Coons, and to 5 all the Senators here, to Chairman Durbin for that 6 wonderful introduction, to Ranking Member Grassley. I'd 7 also like to --

8 Senator Coons. Ms. Cobb, your mic, please. Your mic, 9 please. Sorry, Ms. Cobb.

10 Ms. Cobb. Thanks. That's much better. I'd also like 11 to thank Representative Norton for recommending me, and for 12 President Biden for nominating me.

13 I have been drawn to a career in the law for as long 14 as I can remember. My father's an attorney. I have such a 15 great respect for the role of our courts in our democracy 16 to interpret the laws.

17 And I do want to take some time to introduce family 18 members who I have here today. First, my parents, James 19 and Anita Cobb, who drove up from Michigan to be here with 20 me to support me, as they always do. Now that I'm a 21 parent, I understand the significant sacrifices that they 22 made to ensure that me and my sister had an education and 23 opportunity. I would not be here but for their support.

24 My sister, Jenna Cobb, is also here, who has been a 25 best friend and an enduring source of support and

1 encouragement. She is here with my brother-in-law, Keith 2 Farrugia, who has just been a wonderful addition to our 3 family.

4 I want to thank all of my friends and colleagues for 5 their support.

6 And then, last but not least, my son, Ricky, is here.
7 He is missing Slip 'N Slide day at camp to support me here
8 today. Everything that I do is to be an example for him.
9 I'm so thankful that he has an opportunity to have a first-10 row seat to see how our great democracy works.

11 I look forward to answering the questions today.
12 Thank you.

13 [The prepared statement of Ms. Cobb appears in the 14 appendix.]

15 / COMMITTEE INSERT

16 Senator Coons. Thank you so much, Ms. Cobb. And my 17 thanks to your family and to Ricky in particular. This 18 will be a riveting and hopefully painless session during 19 which your mother will answer some important questions.

20 Your Honor, Ms. Merriam, if you would please, proceed 21 with your opening statement.

1 TESTIMONY OF SARAH A.L. MERRIAM, TO BE UNITED STATES 2 CIRCUIT JUDGE FOR THE DISTRICT OF CONNECTICUT

3

4 Ms. Merriam. Thank you, Senator Coons. And thank you
5 to the committee for holding this hearing, and frankly, all 6 these hearings. I do want to thank President Biden for the 7 great honor of this nomination. And I want to thank both 8 Senators Blumenthal and Murphy for their support in this 9 process and for their very kind introductions.

10 Four of my favorite people are here with us today: my 11 mother, Anne; my stepfather, Michael; my best friend, Paul;
12 and one of my closest friends for over 30 years now, Jenny.
13 My father, Dwight; my little brothers, Jonathan and 14 Alexander, who are not so little anymore; and my baby
15 sister, Lucy, could not be here in person, but I'm 16 confident they're with us through the miracle of streaming 17 video.

18 There are many others I want to acknowledge who have 19 supported me both throughout this process and throughout my 20 career. My extended family, scores of aunts, and uncles, 21 and cousins all over the country, from Alaska, to Oregon, 22 to Colorado, to Virginia, to Massachusetts, and just about 23 everywhere in between. And I'm thinking especially of my 24 Uncle Ross, down in Florida today.

25 I am blessed with an incredible court family in the 1 District of Connecticut, which we believe to be the oldest 2 operating federal court in the country. My phenomenal 3 career clerk, Samantha; my term clerk, Annie; and my 4 courtroom deputy, Andrew, make everything work. And I

5 especially want to acknowledge my fellow magistrate judges 6 who serve our court and our country with such skill and 7 dedication.

8 And finally, my friends from every stage of my life 9 from New Haven, from New South, from the district, from 10 Edgewood School to law school, who have become like family 11 to me so much so that their kids call me auntie, and I love 12 them like my own.

13 So, I appreciate the opportunity to speak to you 14 today.

2 JUDGE FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

4 Ms. Pan. Thank you, Senator Coons. I want to thank 5 Chairman Durbin and Ranking Member Grassley for the 6 opportunity to appear at this hearing today. I want to 7 thank President Biden for the tremendous honor of this 8 nomination. And Congresswoman Eleanor Holm s Norton for 9 recommending me to the President. I also want to thank 10 Chairman Durbin for his kind introduction today.

11 I am the daughter of immigrants from China. My 12 parents, Wu Ching and Felicia came to the United States in 13 1961 to pursue graduate degrees in New York City. They 14 chose to remain here because they recognized that this 15 country offered the best opportunities for their children, 16 my sister Gloria and me.

17 Both of my parents became American citizens. After 18 naturalization ceremonies, each of them took an oath of 19 allegiance before a United States district judge. When 20 th y took those oaths, they never imagined that one of 21 their children might one day be nominated to assume a 22 position of such trust and responsibility. I think it's 23 fair to say that my presence before this committee is a 24 fulfillment of the hopes and dreams that my parents held 25 when they chose to make their lives here in the United

1 States.

2 My parents can't be here today, but they're watching 3 these proceedings from their home in Virginia with my 4 sister, Gloria. I want to thank them for the sacrifices 5 and the choices that they made which allowed me to become 6 the person that I am today.

7 With me in the hearing room are my wonderful husband, 8 Max Stier; our son, Zachary, who's 16, and probably will be 9 asking all the members of the committee for their 10 autographs after this hearing.

11 [Laughter.]

12 Ms. Pan. Also, I'm pleased to have with me, my 13 brother-in-law, John Neuffer. My younger son, Noah, who is 14 15, can't be here today because he's in Sewanee, Tennessee, 15 at the Sewanee Summer Music Festival.

16 I also want to acknowledge and thank other family
17 members who are supporting me from afar. My cousins, Pearl 18 Wong, Sanchez Chi, Stephanie Chi, and Debbie Wen are 19 watching from the great state of New Jersey, which is where 20 I grew up. And my in-laws, Serena Stier and Steven Burton, 21 are watching from the great state of Iowa.

22 Thank you, and I look forward to answering any 23 questions from the committee.

DRAFT DOCUMENT

1 TESTIMONY OF KAREN McGLASHAN WILLIAMS, TO BE UNITED STATES 2 DISTRICT JUDGE FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

3

4 Ms. Williams. Good morning. Thank you, Chairman
5 Durbin, Ranking Member Grassley, and -- I'm sorry. Senator 6 Coons for holding this hearing today and the honor of 7 appearing before this body.

8 Senator Booker, I believe our ancestor are indeed 9 smiling down on us this morning. Senator Menendez, thank 10 you for your ever so kind words.

11 I have many thanks -- many to thank for the journey 12 that finds me here today. My village is strong, and the 13 list is long, but I will be quick.

14 My family here with me. Jim, my husband of 32 years, 15 thank you for all that you do and all that you have done.
16 Our daughter, Danielle, who works in elementary education.
17 Our son, Justin, who works with Hope Scholars. My mother, 18 Millicent Tate, who transitioned from this life in 2004, 19 was the strongest, most resilient woman I have ever known, 20 and the first person to tell me that I was enough. And she 21 showed me and prepared me for the grind. My dad, Norman 22 Tate, who is here with me. The man brave enough to marry a 23 divorced mother of four, thank you for lighting a new path 24 for all of us.

25 Eton Carver White, also known as Uncle Jimmy, and his

1 family. Uncle Jimmy, thank you for your service to this 2 country and our family. My siblings, Michelle, Diane, 3 Patrick, and Julian, their spouses, and my nieces and 4 nephews. To the Lewis family and all of those born
5 McGlashan, all of the cousins who started out on West
6 Street in Jamaica, came through Brooklyn, and landed all 7 over this country. To my in-laws, Jackie, Bonnie, Judy, 8 Andre, Cathy, little Jimmy. My sis, Lisa, and her family.

9 To the sisterhood -- my sisterhood, known as Alpha 10 Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated, for its service to all 11 mankind and instilling that purpose in me. David Jasinski 12 for allowing me the room to develop as an attorney.
13 Finally, the District of New Jersey, my federal family. My 14 court family, my courthouse family, my chamber staff, 15 Nicole, Tiana, and Cara.

16 Shout-out to Camden. Shout-out to the seven 17 southernmost counties of New Jersey, especially Atlantic 18 County, where I put down my first legal roots.

19 My village is strong. My list is long. I appreciate 20 the patience of this body for allowing me this time.

21 [The prepared statement of Ms. Williams appears in the 22 appendix.]

23 / COMMITTEE INSERT

24 Senator Coons. Thank you. And finally, Mr. Olsen.

25

1 TESTIMONY OF MATTHEW G. OLSEN, TO BE AN ASSISTANT ATTORNEY 2 GENERAL, NATIONAL SECURITY DIVISION

3

4 Mr. Olsen. Thank you. Thank you, Senator Coons and 5 members of the committee. I am so honored to appear before 6 you today as the nominee to be the assistant attorney 7 general for National Security. I am grateful to the 8 President for his confidence in nominating me for this 9 position. And I would also like to thank Senator Cardin
10 and Senator Van Hollen for those very kind introductions.

11 I am joined here today by my family: my wife, Fern; my 12 three children, Elizabeth, Nate, and Will. I would not be 13 here without their love and support.

14 I would also just like to take a moment to remember my 15 parents, Myrna and Van. I was born in North Dakota. I 16 moved here as a young kid because my dad got a job with a 17 member of the House of Representatives from North Dakota.
18 We were going to move back to North Dakota in two years,
19 and we ended up staying here for my entire life. My mom 20 was a school nurse. Public service was the -- is the most 21 noble calling in my family.

22 Congress established the National Security Division
23 after 9/11 and charged it with carrying out the Department 24 of Justice's most important priority, and that is to 25 protect the nation from terrorism and other threats to our

1 national security by pursuing justice through law. The 2 threats we face today are diverse and complex. And the 3 National Security Division plays a vital role in protecting 4 the nation.

5 I believe that our greatest strength in defending the 6 nation comes from our career public servants. They are 7 dedicated to securing our country with fidelity to our 8 founding values.

9 And if confirmed, it would be my absolute honor to 10 lead and support the extraordinary workforce of the 11 National Security Division. We will confront domestic and 12 international terrorism. We will counter threats to our 13 cyberinfrastructure. We will protect our nation from 14 espionage and foreign adversaries. And we will work to 15 foster trust of the work of the intelligence community.

16 I believe that my experience has prepared me to take 17 on this critical responsibility. I began my career in the 18 Department of Justice in the Civil Rights Division as a 19 trial attorney. As an assistant United States Attorney, as 20 a federal prosecutor in Washington, D.C., for over a 21 decade, I prosecuted crimes at the state and the federal 22 level. Those included murders, homicides, complex 23 conspiracies, and public corruption cases.

24 I learned to pursue justice based on the evidence and 25 based on the law. And I learned to protect both the public

1 safety and the rights of the accused and all Americans
2 under our Constitution.

3 The terrorist attacks on September 11, changed the 4 course of my career. It led me to shift my focus to 5 national security. I first worked at the FBI as special 6 counsel to Director Mueller, helping to support the 7 transformation of the FBI after 9/11.

8 In 2006, I returned to Main Justice to help establish 9 the new National Security Division. I was responsible for 10 overseeing the Department's intelligence work, including 11 the implementation of Congress's landmark changes to the 12 Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act. I was the general 13 counsel of the National Security Agency, and from 2011 to 14 2014, I served as the director of the National 15 Counterterrorism Center, which Congress established to 16 unify and coordinate our counterterrorism efforts.

17 At every stage of my career, I have been guided by the 18 values of the Department of Justice, devotion to the 19 Constitution, to the search for the truth and to the 20 pursuit of equal justice under the law.

21 If I am confirmed, I will follow the facts and I will 22 follow the law. And I will work relentlessly to advance 23 the security of the nation.

24 I look forward to answering your questions. Thank 25 you.

1 [The prepared statement of Mr. Olsen appears in the 2 appendix.]

3 / COMMITTEE INSERT

4 Senator Coons. Thank you. Thank you to all of our 5 five witnesses of this panel for your opening statements 6 We're now going to proceed to five-minute rounds of 7 questioning. As you all know, the Senate is currently in 8 the middle of a vote series, thus senators will come in and 9 out, and I presume that the chairman will return, and I
10 will go for a second vote.

11 But let me begin. If I could, Mr. Olsen, from your 12 opening statement, it's clear you're no stranger to the 13 critical work of the National Security Division. I'd be 14 interested in having you just elaborate a little bit on the 15 time you spent working there previously. And can you 16 explain the critical role that office plays in supporting 17 our national security? And then, just elaborate a little 18 bit more on your service, working for the U.S. Attorney's 19 Office in the Bush administration, and how that experience 20 prepared you for your service in the subsequent Obama 21 administration.

22 Mr. Olsen. Yes. Yes. Absolutely. And thank you, 23 Senator. I -- you know, I was there at the very beginning 24 of the National Security Division. I was there at the very 25 beginning of the National Security Division.

1 It was established by Congress because of a 2 recognition that the Department of Justice's various 3 elements that worked on national security, whether that's 4 the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act, or 5 counterterrorism, or counterespionage, were not 6 sufficiently unified. The decision was made to create the 7 first new division in several decades, the National 8 Security Division, which like a number of other parts of 9 the government, were reformed in response to the attacks of 10 9/11.

11 In my judgment, the division has been an unqualified
12 success. Bringing together intelligence professionals, 13 attorneys who work on applications to the FISA court, along 14 with the prosecutors who handle and oversee 15 counterterrorism cases and counterespionage cases, and 16 really been part of the broader national security 17 reformation following the attacks of 9/11.

18 But I should add that it's continued to evolve since I 19 left a decade ago. I left in 2009, and it has changed to 20 evolve to meet the threats we face today, whether those 21 threats are from cyber actors, from those that would seek 22 to steal our intellectual property. It has continued to 23 grow and evolve as the threats that we face have grown and 24 evolved. And again, to continue to represent the 25 intelligence community very effectively.

1 Senator Coons. Thank you, Mr. Olsen. I think based 2 on your broad and deep service and experience, we're lucky 3 to have you nominated to continue your public service in 4 this role.

5 Ms. Williams, if I might -- Judge Williams. Forgive
6 me. You've served as a magistrate judge, I think, for a 7 dozen years. How has that role and experience prepared you 8 for an Article III judgeship? And what aspects of that new 9 role for which you've been nominated are you most excited 10 about, if confirmed?

11 Ms. Williams. So, thank you, Senator. For the past 12 12 years, I have served the District of New Jersey as a 13 magistrate judge, and I am lucky to be in the District of 14 New Jersey, which has delegated quite a bit of authority to 15 magistrate judges in our district. And so, most of my work 16 is managing cases and preparing them for disposition by the 17 Article III judges.

18 And so, how my work as a magistrate judge has prepared 19 me is to understand the process of judging, and justice, 20 and to ensure that everyone who appears before me as a 21 magistrate judge or, if confirmed, as a district court 22 judge, is privy to a fair, impartial process.

23 Senator Coons. Thank you, Your Honor. Judge Pan, 24 during your tenure as a magistrate judge, if I understand 25 correctly, you've presided over more than 650 trials. That 1 is an astonishing body of work. You've spent your entire 2 career in public service. President Obama noted your 3 unwavering commitment to justice and integrity upon your 4 initial nomination. I just would be interested in how your 5 experience as a magistrate judge, and your long public 6 service dedication will inform your service in the federal 7 judiciary as an Article III judge, should you be confirmed?

8 Ms. Pan. Thank you, Senator Coons, for that question.
9 For the last 12 years, I've served as a judge on the 10 District of Columbia Superior Court, the local court of 11 general jurisdiction in the District of Columbia. And I've 12 served in the Criminal Division, the Civil Division, and 13 the Family Court. Before that, I was an assistant United 14 States Attorney for 10 years.

15 And so, I have devoted the last 22 years to serving 16 the citizens and residents of the District of Columbia.

17 Senator Coons. It didn't seem that long at the time, 18 but when you say it, it seems like a long time, doesn't it?

19 Ms. Pan. Yes. Well, it's been an honor and a 20 privilege. And I would be honored to continue my service
21 to this same community in this new capacity as an Article 22 III judge to consider issues of Constitutional and federal 23 importance, and to continue my service in that regard.

24 Senator Coons. Thank you very much. My five minutes 25 are up. Senator Cotton.

1 Senator Cotton. Thank you, Mr. Acting Chairman.
2 Congratulations to you all. Mr. Olsen, I remember when you
3 used to come brief Congress as the Director of NCTC, and I 4 always found you to be a sober, reasonable, national 5 security professional. I guess when Joe Biden nominated 6 you to this position, I thought it was one of his better 7 choices.

8 But then, I started looking at what you've been up to 9 for the last four years, and I have questions about which 10 Matt Olsen we're getting. In 2017, you wrote an op-ed, 11 entitled, "The Electoral College, a National Security 12 Threat." I want to repeat that "The Electoral College is 13 a National Security Threat." Do you believe that -- still 14 believe that the Electoral College is a national security 15 threat?

16 Mr. Olsen, Senator, let me begin by thanking you for 17 your initial comments about my time as the National 18 Counterterrorism Center Director. And I spent a better 19 part of my career as a government public servant, 20 protecting the country.

21 I left the government in 2014 and entered the private 22 sector. I wanted to stay -- remain engaged on the issues 23 that I thought were important. And as a private citizen, 24 of course, I expressed some views, including that article
25 you're referring to, in a way that I wouldn't and haven't

1 expressed as a public -- as a public or government servant.

2 That view, yes. There are aspects, in context, if I
3 may explain. There are aspects of the way in which the 4 Electoral College allowed -- or could allow nefarious cyber 5 actors to pinpoint their efforts to influence an election.
6 There are ways in which the Electoral College makes us more 7 vulnerable to nefarious, particularly nation-state cyber 8 actors to influence elections. And that's --

9 Senator Cotton. That's what I --

10 Mr. Olsen. -- what I was seeking to highlight.

11 Senator Cotton. I'm sorry Our time --

12 Mr. Olsen. No. Of course

13 Senator Cotton. Our time is very limited here. So, 14 you still think the Electoral College is a national 15 security threat?

16 Mr. Olsen. I stand by the content of the article that 17 I wrote.

18 Senator Cotton. Okay.

19 Mr. Olsen. Yes.

20 Senator Cotton. Should the Department of Justice ever 21 bring a lawsuit to try to force states to, say, adopt the 22 National Popular Voter Compact?

23 Mr. Olsen. Senator, I'm not familiar with any --

24 Senator Cotton. Right.

25 Mr. Olsen. -- statutory provisions or proposals along

1 those lines.

2 Senator Cotton. Last year, in the middle of riots
3 that caused billions of dollars of damage, and had murders 4 spiking at rates not seen in a generation, you described 5 the situation as "mostly peaceful protests." Do you think 6 the rioting we saw last year was mostly peaceful protests?

7 Mr. Olsen. I think that -- I'm not sure exactly the 8 comment you're referring to. But I --

9 Senator Cotton. You signed a public letter last June 10 saying that.

11 Ms. Olsen. Yeah. I will say this, Senator. If I am 12 confirmed and have the opportunity to lead the National 13 Security Division, the threat that we face from the types 14 of violence that we've seen in the past several years, 15 particularly any type of domestic terrorism, I would be 16 responsible for enforcing our laws and enforcing those 17 laws, regardless of ideology, and enforcing them fairly and 18 impartially. And that would be my pledge.

19 Senator Cotton. You once wrote that, "ISIS supports 20 Donald Trump." Do you think that ISIS supported Donald 21 Trump?

22 Mr. Olsen. I appreciate again, Senator, the content -- 23 -- the article you're referring to, again -- I -- as a 24 private citizen, I tried to stay engaged on the national 25 security issues that I had worked on. And I will answer

1 your question directly.

2 The article I wrote was based on statements that I had 3 seen that I was very concerned about from a propaganda 4 standpoint. In 2016, when I wrote that article, ISIS had 5 risen and was using its propaganda machine to influence 6 people in the United States, and they were using the 7 language, the words, of then Candidate Donald Trump to 8 advance their propaganda machine. And so, was referring 9 to their exact words in making that statement.

10 And I stand by the article. I was concerned about the 11 ways in which ISIS was using that -- those comments to 12 recruit and mobilize people in the United States.

13 Senator Cotton. If it's true that ISIS supported 14 Donald Trump, do you think Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi thinks he 15 made a bad bet?

16 Mr. Olsen. I'm very supportive of the nature in which 17 we prosecuted -- and the way the Trump administration took 18 the fight to ISIS over the past several years.

19 Senator Cotton. Okay. So, Mr. Olsen, I'll just say 20 again, I had a lot of respect for the medals, in what we 21 saw as the NCTC director. But I feel like something has 22 changed here just in the last four years. To review what 23 we've covered today, you've said ISIS supports Donald 24 Trump. You referred to rioting last summer as mostly 25 peaceful protests. You've said the Electoral College is a

1 national security threat.

2 It's one thing to leave the government and comment on 3 public affairs, and be partisan, to give money to 4 candidates of your choice and to campaign for them. But I 5 feel like something about Donald Trump's presidency in the 6 last four years sent you a little bit around the bend. So 7 it makes me wonder which Matt Olsen we're going to be 8 getting at the Department of Justice.

9 My time's expired.

10 Senator Coons. Thank you, Senator Cotton. Senator
11 Blumenthal.

12 Senator Blumenthal. Thanks Mr Chairman. You know, 13 I want to put in the record, first of all, a letter from 14 more than 20 former prosecutors in Connecticut, including 3
15 of my successors, maybe more, as U.S. Attorney Derick 16 Dailey, Chris Crowley, and Stan Twardy. All of them among 17 the most distinguished lawyers, but also former prosecutors
18 in Connecticut. A rather extraordinary letter, attesting 19 to the integrity and intellect of Judge Merriam. If 20 there's no objection, I ask that it be put in the record, 21 Mr. Chair.

22 Senator Coons. Without objection.

23 [The information appears in the appendix:]

24 / COMMITTEE INSERT

25 Senator Blumenthal. Thank you. The reason I focus on 1 this letter is, Judge, because your career has been on the 2 other side of the courtroom from them. And all the members 3 of this panel who have been in the trenches of litigation, 4 particularly in the criminal area, know how heated and 5 contentious it can sometimes be. So to have this kind of 6 extraordinary vote of confidence in your integrity and 7 credibility, I think, says far more than I could about the 8 qualifications that you bring to this position.

9 And there are a lot of things going on here today here 10 in the Capitol. The president's going to visit. We have 11 potentially an infrastructure agreement. But for all of us 12 in Connecticut, your appearance here is one of the more 13 consequential events of the day and of this year because 14 you will serve on the bench for decades, God willing.

15 You may well hear cases of students who are now in law
16 school. And every one of you who will serve on the bench
17 are the voice and face of justice to everyday Americans.
18 Most litigants simply don't have the wherewithal, or the 19 time, or resources to appeal to the Second Circuit Court of 20 Appeals. And for them, the decisions in the district court 21 are justice in America.

22 So this position is so profoundly important to our 23 nation. And to have someone who, as has been stated by 24 those lawyers I mentioned, has, quote, "brought an 25 evenhanded and accessible approach to the federal bench,"

1 end quote, and "applied the law fairly and properly, 2 without regard to personal preference," end quote, is an 3 extraordinary gift to the people of Connecticut and our 4 country.

5 Maybe, if you don't mind, could you tell me a littl 6 bit about how your experience as a federal defender has 7 informed your work as a magistrate judge, and the approach
8 that you will take on the United States Dis rict Court
9 Bench?

10 Ms. Merriam. Thank you, Senator, for those very kind 11 words. Connecticut has the great ben fit of being a fairly 12 small federal court. And it is collegial, and people know 13 each other, and they respect each other. And I felt that 14 as a defender. I felt that as a law clerk. I felt it in 15 private practice. And I feel it now, as a magistrate 16 judge.

17 And in the 18 months in which I was appointed as a 18 magistrate judge, two others were appointed in close 19 succession: one a career prosecutor and one a career civil 20 li igator. And over the past four and a half years, almost 21 five years, the three of us have worked as magistrate 22 judges together, asked for each other's advice, shared our 23 ideas for how to better the system, and to better the 24 experience of people that come in front of us. Because as 25 magistrate judges, we are the first person a litigant

1 usually sees. And likewise for a public defender, you're 2 the first person a defendant turns to when they are caught 3 up in a system that can be very scary.

4 But at the end of the day, I think my experience there
5 helped me to see all sides of the system and to understand 6 that when people come to court, it's because something has 7 gone terribly wrong, and we need to help them get through 8 that crisis with respect.

9 Senator Blumenthal. Thank you. Mr. Olsen, you and I 10 spoke about the 9/11 families when we had an opportunity to 11 talk privately. And I emphasized to you my concern about 12 the government, in effect, withholding evidence and 13 information that they need to pursue their case against the 14 government of Saudi Arabia. And I think the failure to 15 provide that evidence and information is absolutely 16 unconscionable from what I know.

17 I have purposely rejected opportunities to look at the 18 classified information, because I want to talk as publicly 19 as I can about what I do know without any threat or hint
20 that I'm violating the rules of classification. But I
21 think the American people deserve an explanation as to why 22 our government is, in effect, withholding or concealing 23 evidence that would aid the 9/11 families in pursuing 24 justice against the government of Saudi Arabia, which may 25 well have aided and abetted the attackers on 9/11 that

1 caused the deaths of their loved ones.

2 And I have written, along with my colleagues, Senators
3 Gillibrand and Menendez, to the Attorney General Merrick
4 Garland and Director Wray as recently as two weeks ago.
5 Over the past couple of years, I've sent several letters 6 with different groups of colleagues on and off this 7 committee concerning the department's and the FBI's 8 invocation of the state secrets privilege, till without 9 any explanation.

10 I asked Director Wray about this issue in 2019, and 11 I've asked Attorney General Garland and Helaine Greenfeld
12 about it earlier this year. The administration, so far, 13 has provided no explanation or the evidence that the 9/11 14 families are seeking.

15 We are approaching the 20th anniversary of that 16 insidious, unspeakable act of horror, an attack on our 17 nation. And the American people deserve to know, 20 years 18 later, why that information still needs to be withheld.

19 You and I talked about it. I know you're not in the 20 job right now, but I would like a commitment from you that 21 you will review this matter, and you'll consider whether 22 the privilege has been properly invoked and provide an 23 explanation to the American people.

24 Mr. Olsen. Senator, thank you. And thank you for the 25 opportunity to discuss this issue with you. As I

1 mentioned, I am in this work of national security because 2 of 9/11, and you have my commitment that, if confirmed, I
3 will work with the Attorney General to review this matter 4 closely.

5 Senator Blumenthal. Thank you. And by the way, on 6 the Electoral College, I agree with you. Thank you.

7 Chairman Durbin. [Presiding.] Senator Grassley.

8 Senator Grassley. Ms. Cobb, as a law student in 2004, 9 you wrote an article on federal statutes and regulations.
10 You argued that social history should be used in statutory 11 interpretation, a position that led you to criticize a 12 dissent by Justice Thomas. In criticizing Justice Thomas, 13 you wrote about, quote, "the utility of looking at the 14 social and legislative histories in tandem to garner a 15 complete understanding of both the purpose and the meaning 16 of the legislation," end of quote. Do you think that the 17 words in a statute can change meaning based on social 18 events?

19 Ms. Cobb. No, Senator. And if I could just put that 20 in context? I believe you're referring to an article I 21 wrote when I was maybe 23 or 24 years old. I had never had 22 a client before, never been in court.

23 My role as a judge is obviously different than my 24 academic pursuits when I was in my 20s. I believe that you 25 start with the text. I have never used --

1 Senator Grassley. I think you've answered my 2 question.

3 Ms. Cobb. Thank you.

4 Senator Grassley. You bet. And I thank you for up
5 front saying, no. Second, do you agree with Justice
6 Kavanaugh that courts should phase out the statutory term 7 "alien" in favor of "noncitizen" because of the perceived 8 social history of those terms?

9 Ms. Cobb. I don't have a position on that, Senator.
10 I have not considered that.

11 Senator Grassley. In January of this year, you were a 12 panelist for the Metropolitan and Washington Employment 13 Lawyer Association. You spoke at a webinar entitled, 14 quote, "Litigating Race Discrimination and Employment in 15 the BLM Era." My understanding -- that's the end of the 16 quote. My understanding is that you talked about both 17 racial discrimination and sexual harassment.

18 Will you please explain for us how litigation has 19 impacted or changed by the Black Lives Matter era? In 20 other words, I wouldn't think that that movement would 21 change anything from what it would be previous to that.
22 But I'll wait for your opinion.

23 Ms. Cobb. Senator, yes. I didn't choose that title, 24 and I don't know that it actually captured what was 25 discussed at that informal luncheon discussion. I think a

1 better title, if I were choosing it, would be, "Litigating
2 Cases or Current Considerations for Litigating Cases."

3 I think that there is a lot more discussion about 4 race. And whether you want to attribute that to the Black 5 Lives Matter movement or anything else, I think people are 6 more in tune to it.

7 And there are certain considerations as litigators.
8 For example, one thing that came up that I recall from that 9 informal discussion was just talking about voir dire. You 10 have jurors that have, you know, exposure to what they're 11 seeing on the news, and may have opinions that litigants 12 need to flesh out to make sure that we're getting fair and 13 impartial jurors. So, I think a better title would be, 14 "Current Considerations for Litigating Race Discrimination 15 and Sexual Harassment Cases."

16 Senator Grassley. Okay. Mr. Olsen, as the head of 17 the National Security Division, you will supervise the 18 counterterrorism section. I'm deeply concerned, given 19 recent events, that the current administration does not 20 take an evenhanded approach to domestic terrorism. For 21 example, we know that the FBI is currently investigating 22 500 domestic terrorism cases of primarily anarchist 23 extremists that were open during the 2020 riots. These 24 cases constitute 25 percent of the FBI's current domestic 25 terrorism investigations, yet they are not mentioned in the 1 administration's domestic terrorism strategy.

2 Two questions. Will you commit to pursuing left-wing 3 domestic terrorism cases in addition to right-wing ones?

4 Mr. Olsen. Thank you, Senator Grassley. And 5 absolutely. I will pursue all acts of violence, all acts 6 of domestic terrorism, regardless of ideology. That's the 7 commitment that I make. That's the commitment the attorney 8 general has made.

9 Senator Grassley. Specifically, how do you plan to 10 ensure that your division is prosecuting left-wing domestic 11 terrorism cases at the same rate and pace as right-wing 12 cases?

13 Mr. Olsen. Senator, I was a prosecutor here in 14 Washington, D.C., for 10 years. I worked as a career 15 public servant on national security matters for another 16 decade. My entire career has been based on following the 17 facts and following the law, applying the law to those 18 facts.

19 If I'm confirmed, in the National Security Division, 20 that's exactly what I will do. I will follow the facts, 21 investigate every case that falls within my purview without 22 regard to ideology.

23 Senator Grassley. My last question is to Judge
24 Merriam. At your investiture, Judge Alvin Thompson said, 25 quote, "I believe that in both her professional life and

1 her personal life, she lives out the ideals of justice and 2 fairness expressed by John Rawls in a publication, A Theory
3 of Justice." What does A Theory of Justice mean to you?

4 Ms. Merriam. Thank you, Senator Grassley. I'm afraid
5 I have not read it, and I'm not familiar with what Judge 6 Thompson was referring to.

7 Senator Grassley. As a magistrate judge, how does the 8 concept of justice as fairness affect your job, if at all?

9 Ms. Merriam. Every day, Senator. Every day, it is my 10 job to make sure that every party that comes in front of me 11 is treated completely fairly.

12 Senator Grassley. Do you think an effort to achieve 13 justice from Rawls -- well I guess you can't comment on 14 that. So I won't ask that question.

15 Ms. Merriam. Thank you, Senator.

16 Chairman Durbin. I'll get you a copy of that book, 17 Senator. This is a transition period. We're going live, 18 as they say, except a couple of the senators are in a 19 remote virtual situation. We're going to see if they're 20 tuned in.

21 Senator Klobuchar. Thank you.

22 Chairman Durbin. From the great state of Minnesota, 23 Senator Klobuchar.

24 Senator Klobuchar. Thank you. I am -- I'm not in an 25 undisclosed position here. I am in the Capitol, but thank

1 you very much, Chairman Durbin. And thank you to our panel
2 of witnesses, and I should say nominees.

3 I want to welcome you, Judge Pan, especially back to 4 the Senate with another opportunity to be considered. I
5 know you got out of the committee by voice vote last time 6 back in 2016, and then sadly wasn't considered by the full 7 Senate.

8 But in the years since you appeared before the 9 committee, you have continued to serve as a judge on the 10 D.C. Superior Court. Could you talk a little bit about the 11 last question from Senator Grassley? How do you ensure 12 that those who appear before you believe that the court can 13 reach a fair and just decision?

14 I think it's very important right now for judges to 15 think about this because over the last four years, we had 16 some politicization from the White House of the judiciary.
17 And to me, that all citizens feel that judges can be fair 18 in their decision-making process is really important.

19 Ms. Pan. Thank you, Senator Klobuchar. As a judge on 20 the D.C. Superior Court for the past 12 years, I have tried 21 every day to make sure that every litigant, every party, 22 every witness, everyone that comes into my courtroom 23 receives fair treatment, open-minded decision-making, and 24 prompt decision-making from the court. I think that that's 25 what they're entitled to from our system of justice. And

1 I'm deeply committed to ensuring that everyone who enters 2 my courtroom receives the highest quality of justice and 3 fair treatment. And we've received training from my court 4 to make sure that this happens. And I try to do it every 5 day. Thank you.

6 Senator Klobuchar. Well, thank you. And at a time
7 where we've seen this horrific violence against the Asian 8 American community, it's critical that our institutions 9 reflect the diversity of our country. And if confirmed, 10 you would actually be -- I was surprised by this, the first 11 Asian American woman to serve on the District Court for the 12 District of Columbia. Can you take a moment to tell us 13 what that would mean to you personally, to your family, and 14 to the community?

15 Ms. Pan. Thank you, Senator Klobuchar. I think 16 diversity on the bench is important because it contributes 17 and promotes confidence in our judiciary for the community 18 to see that the judiciary actually reflects the membership 19 of the community as well. I also think it performs an 20 important role model function for members of the bar who 21 are people of color, or from groups that are not 22 traditionally, or haven't been nominated to the bench in 23 large numbers. And so I think that that is important.

24 I'm deeply honored to be honored -- to be nominated by 25 the president. I was the first Asian Pacific American

1 judge in the District of Columbia. And it would be a
2 tremendous honor to become the first female Asian Pacific
3 American judge on the United States District Court in this 4 jurisdiction.

5 Senator Klobuchar. Very good. Thank you very much
6 Mr. Olsen, I enjoyed our discussion, and I want to welcome 7 you as an honorary Minnesotan since you were born in Fargo.
8 But you've spent summers in our great state in Detroit 9 Lakes.

10 You spent more than two decades in government service 11 and national security, in numerous leadership roles under 12 both President Bush and Obama. How has your experience in 13 national security from across government, and having served 14 presidents of both parties, prepared you for your role?
15 And then, if you could just comment a little bit about what 16 we talked about the other day, the cybersecurity and 17 elections? So thank you.

18 Mr. Olsen. Thank you very much for that, Senator 19 Klobuchar. I came up on working in national security 20 during a time when the Bush administration was in office.
21 And in fact, some of the most consequential work I did, in 22 my own view, on national security took place during the 23 Bush administration.

24 The transformation of the FBI, the passage of the 25 landmark changes to the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance

1 Act. These were priorities of the Bush administration.

2 I stayed on as a career national security official 3 into the Obama administration. And I think one of the 4 enduring lessons of that experience was that national 5 security really transcends political or partisan
6 considerations. And that's true, not just in my own
7 experience, it is absolutely true of the people that I
8 worked with, whether they were in the intelligence 9 community or at the Justice Department. That people who 10 worked on national security cared about protecting the 11 country. They were not influenced, and they refuse to be 12 influenced by political or partisan concerns.

13 That would be the way I would proceed if I am 14 fortunate enough to be confirmed, is to continue to lead 15 the National Security Division according to that ideal of 16 nonpartisan a-political commitment to national security.
17 And that's what I learned from that experience.

18 On the second part of your question, Senator, you 19 know, cybersecurity has been an issue for a number of 20 years. But it has really taken prominence in the past 21 several years as a national security threat. And I would 22 be committed to continuing the great work that the National 23 Security Division has done in prosecuting cybercriminals, 24 people who are engaged in nefarious cyber activity that 25 threatens our national security, particularly our critical

1 infrastructure. There are nation-states, particularly the 2 Chinese -- or China, that is involved in stealing our 3 intellectual property, carrying out espionage through 4 cyber.

5 And the National Security Division plays a critical
6 role in countering that activity. And that's something I 7 think that's going to continue to be a priority going 8 forward, and I look forward to, if confirmed being able to 9 work on that further.

10 Senator Klobuchar. Thank you. Thank you to all the 11 nominees.

12 Chairman Durbin. Thank you Senator Klobuchar. Is 13 Senator Ossoff with us?

14 Senator Ossoff. Yes, I am. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

15 Chairman Durbin. Take it away.

16 Senator Ossoff Thank you. And congratulations to 17 these nominees on your nominations. Mr. Olsen, my first 18 question is for you, please. Despite serious problems 19 documented in the FISA application process by the 20 Department of Justice Inspector General, among others, the 21 Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court approved electronic 22 collection activity in response to all 459 of the final 23 filed government applications requesting such authority in 24 2020.

25 Given the deficiencies that have been identified by

1 DOJ's Inspector General in the FISA application process, 2 are you open to and will you work with this committee to 3 develop possible legislative fixes to ensure the integrity 4 of the process?

5 Ms. Olsen. Senator, the answer -- direct answer to 6 your question is yes. I look forward to working with this 7 committee in continuing to improve the Foreign Intelligence
8 Surveillance Act and its implementation.

9 If I may just say, it is a landmark law. It has 10 provided as a tool, indispensable intelligence to our -- to 11 protect our country. At the same time I was very 12 concerned by the findings of the inspector general in its 13 recent report on the deficiency in the way that the law has 14 been implemented. And I am absolutely committed. It would 15 be, in fact, a priority, if I'm confirmed, to continue to 16 work to address those deficiencies and to improve the 17 process because the trust of the American people depends on 18 their confidence in the way that law is implemented.

19 Senator Ossoff. And you acknowledge that the remedy
20 to those documented flaws may include legislative fixes.
21 And you're willing to engage, in good faith, with this 22 committee to consider such fixes?

23 Mr. Olsen. Yes. Of course. Working with the rest of 24 the Justice Department and the intelligence community with 25 this committee and Congress to implement those changes.

1 I've done that in the past, and I would do so again.

2 Senator Ossoff. Thank you, Mr. Olsen. And in your 3 position, you will have responsibility for reviewing all 4 applications for surveillance under FISA; is that correct?

5 Mr. Olsen. Yes.

6 Senator Ossoff. Based on the department's disclosed 7 FISA statistics for 2020, you personally would need to 8 review and fact check at least one 25-page document every 9 day in order to personally render such oversight. Can you 10 please describe the process that you anticipate you would 11 implement by which you would assess the accuracy of facts
12 stated in applications to the Foreign Intelligence 13 Surveillance Court?

14 Mr. Olsen. Yes, of course. And -- Senator, the 15 National Security Division includes, when I was last there, 16 approximately 100 attorneys who are responsible for 17 appearing before the FISA Court, representing the 18 government before the FISA Court, and working with the 19 intelligence community, particularly the FBI, to review
20 these applications. Ultimately, they go to a senior 21 official, whether the attorney general, the deputy attorney 22 general, or if I'm confirmed, me in the role as the 23 assistant attorney general, for final signature.

24 The crucial point here, of course, is that the process
25 needs to be sufficiently robust so that facts are checked

1 and documents are reviewed by agents at the FBI, for 2 example, who submit these applications, by lawyers at the 3 FBI, by lawyers at the Department of Justice, by the 4 individuals who support the judges. So there's a multi-5 layered process to check the facts and to ascertain the 6 lawfulness of any application, that it meets the standards, 7 in particular probable cause standard, before it's approved
8 by the FISA Court judge.

9 Again, I was very concerned by the IG's finding of 17 10 significant problems in a number of applications that the 11 inspector general reviewed. And I know that there are a 12 number of steps already underway by the FBI and DOJ to 13 address those concerns. And I would make it a priority to 14 ensure that those are implemented.

15 Senator Ossoff. Thank you. And Mr. Olsen, you will 16 take personal responsibility for ensuring that all 17 applications to the FISC are factual and accurate?

18 Mr. Olsen. Yes, Senator. That is part of this job, 19 is to be personally responsible, in my view, for the FISA 20 Court process, and to represent the government in a way to 21 ensure that FISA Court applications are complete and 22 accurate.

23 Senator Ossoff. Thank you. Section 702 permits the 24 government to obtain the content of communications between 25 Americans and foreign surveillance targets. This,

1 sometimes referred to as incidental collection of American 2 communications, can sweep Americans into surveillance
3 without warrants from courts other than the Foreign 4 Intelligence Surveillance Court. And some would argue this 5 deprives them of Fourth Amendment protections. What are 6 your views on the scope of this incidental collection, and 7 whether or not it does pose a threat to the privacy of 8 American citizens?

9 Mr. Olsen. Senator, in my views, Section 702, first 10 of all, has proven to be extraordinarily successful in 11 collecting critical intelligence that is focused on non-U.S.
12 persons, non-U.S. citizens who are outside the United 13 States. And it has been upheld numerous times by courts 14 that have reviewed the way in which Section 702 operates 15 with judicial and congressional oversight.

16 The concern that you raise is an important one, that 17 is the privacy concerns are interests that are implicated
18 when a U.S. person is -- their communications are captured 19 in the course of targeting a non-U.S. person overseas. And 20 the key here is that there are procedures in place to 21 destroy that information if it does not involve foreign 22 intelligence or evidence of a criminal act.

23 I would say that there have been a number of cases 24 where that, as we've referred to, incidental collection has 25 led to important foreign intelligence also being collected.

1 For example, if a target outside the United States is 2 communicating with a co-conspirator inside the United 3 States, the government has identified that co-conspirator
4 inside the United States, and then have been able to follow
5 up appropriately under the Fourth Amendment to continue 6 that collection.

7 So the law, I think, strikes the right balance. That 8 said, we need to be careful and sensitive to the privacy 9 interests that are certainly implicated by the way it 10 operates.

11 Senator Ossoff. Thank you Mr. Olsen. I'll have 12 additional questions on this subject for the record. And 13 if indeed you are confirmed, I look forward to working with 14 you. Thanks for your testimony. I yield, Mr. Chairman.

15 [The information appears in the appendix:]

16 / COMMITTEE INSERT

17 Chairman Durbin. Thanks, Senator Ossoff. I think 18 I'll be the last to wrap up. But I just have a question 19 for the aspiring judges, and it relates to my own 20 experience here, serving in Congress.

21 It was about 30 years ago when we declared a war on 22 drugs. And the reason that we acted as we did had a lot to 23 do with the advent of crack cocaine. The arrival of this 24 new narcotic was scary. It was very cheap, very addictive, 25 and very destructive to many people. And during the course

1 of our debate on this issue, I was in the House at the 2 time, there were incidents that occurred that gave us a 3 sense of immediacy of all the discovery of this drug and 4 such.

5 There was a case that did not involve crack cocaine,
6 but had a great deal of publicity involving a Maryland
7 basketball player, Len Bias. And as a consequence, we did 8 something dramatic. We created a sentencing guideline for 9 crack cocaine at 100 times the level of powder cocaine.
10 100 times.

11 The idea was that if we came down that hard, that 12 fast, that dramatically, that it would really break the 13 back of crack cocaine in terms of its infiltration into 14 America. We were completely wrong. Completely. The 15 number of addicts increased. The price of the drug on the 16 street went down instead of up. And we started filling our 17 prisons, primarily with African American defendants.
18 Dramatic increases in our federal prison population to 19 levels we'd never seen before.

20 In some of the sentencing that went on as a result of 21 it, we look back on it and say, "How could we have done 22 that?" A man named Alton Mills in the Chicagoland area, 23 three nonviolent crack cocaine sales, life in prison. Life
24 in prison. And many others just like it. It went way 25 beyond any deterrent effect and really reflected our

1 desperation to bring this under control.

2 Many judges commented, as they were forced by our 3 mandatory minimum sentences and other guidelines, they 4 didn't feel justice was being served in our courts when 5 they imposed these sentences. I know several of those 6 judges personally who talked to me at the time.

7 Since then, I have tried to correct my mistake, and we 8 passed two reforms of the sentencing law. Senator Grassley
9 was my partner in the most significant one the First Step 10 Act, and Fair Sentencing before that.

11 I'd like to ask the four of you who are aspiring to 12 these district court judgeships, what lesson we should have 13 learned from this experience? Judge Pan?

14 Ms. Pan. Thank you for the question, Senator. I 15 think that you raise a question of deep significance that 16 affects many people. And the lesson that I've learned from 17 what you've just said is that the legislature can learn 18 from mistakes and seek to correct them through the 19 legislative process. And I think that's a very positive 20 thing for the legislature to undertake.

21 Of course, as a judge, this is not the kind of thing 22 that we can address as a policy matter. But I think 23 sentencing considerations before judges are done on a case-24 by-case, individual, basis, and we are required to look at 25 the facts of each case. But from a judge's perspective, I

1 think that making the sentencing guidelines no longer 2 mandatory, now voluntary, is another thing that's been 3 helpful in this regard.

4 Chairman Durbin. But there are sentencing 5 enhancements that are suggested by the government in many 6 cases. Does that come into play? That's a discretionary 7 decision by the judge.

8 Ms. Pan. Yes. And of course, as a judge, and in 9 performing the function of sentencing, which is so 10 important because the liberty of another person is at 11 stake, a judge must consider all the relevant factors, 12 including the requests of the government, and weigh all of 13 that under the totality of the circumstances.

14 Chairman Durbin. Judge Williams?

15 Ms. Williams. Senator, my understanding of how, as a 16 judge, if confirmed as a district court judge to deal with 17 it, is informed by my handling of some misdemeanor cases, 18 clearly not on point with addressing the crack cocaine 19 issue. As I agree with Judge Pan, that's an issue for the 20 legislature.

21 What we have learned, what we learn and know as 22 judges, is that we have guidelines to follow, 3553(a) 23 allows judges to interact with a very, very seasoned and 24 skilled probation office that helps inform and supply us 25 with the information necessary to work through those

1 guidelines on individual cases. So, I've done that in 2 misdemeanor cases for individuals charged with crimes. And 3 should I be confirmed, I look forward to working with our 4 many talented probation officers as I work through the 5 Sentencing Act in the role of sentencing as a district 6 court judge.

7 Chairman Durbin. Judge Merriam?

8 Ms. Merriam. Thank you, Senator. When I was in the 9 Federal Defender's Office, I was there when the initial 10 changes in the crack/powder disparity went into effect.
11 And I was heavily involved in the process of organizing the 12 district, which meant everyone. That was the prosecutors, 13 and the probation office, and the judges, and the Marshals
14 Service, and the defense bar to make those changes 15 applicable to the clients where it was appropriate as 16 quickly and efficiently as possible to try to do the 17 justice on the ground that the legislature had seen fit to 18 put in place

19 And those changes have certainly made a real 20 difference over the years. But at the end of the day, 21 we're bound, now, other than by the mandatory minimums, by 22 3553(a), which is, as Judge Williams referenced, very 23 broadly encompassing the kinds of factors and the kinds of 24 considerations a judge can take into account. And that 25 discretion is an awesome one, and an important one, and

1 allows judges, I think, to work within the law to try to do 2 justice.

3 Chairman Durbin. Ms. Cobb?

4 Ms. Cobb. Thank you. It's hard to improve upon the 5 responses that have been given. But I think what struck me 6 most about what you said is the fact that this body was 7 paying attention to what was happening in the courts, and I 8 think that's extraordinarily important. When laws are 9 passed, particularly that provide criminal penalties, 10 whether they be mandatory minimums or otherwise, to pay 11 attention to kind of what the effect is on the ground once 12 those laws are implemented.

13 And I know that the Sentencing Commission does some 14 work in compiling statistics. But I really think it's 15 important to, you know, continue to pay attention to what's 16 happening after these laws are passed.

17 Chairman Durbin. Let me just add one other thing that 18 has changed the conversation. 20 ago, or 15 years ago, if 19 you would have said, "Oh, did you hear about that person 20 who overdosed on drugs last night?" the most common answer 21 would be, "No. I didn't. Was it an African American?
22 Inner city? A man between 20 and 35?" You would have been 23 right in most cases. Not anymore.

24 When we talk about drug overdoses now, it could have 25 been that cheerleader at the all-white high school in the 1 suburbs. And drug addiction has now reached every corner

2 of America. And we're starting to look at it anew. It is 3 no longer, "Just say no." We realize it is a medical 4 problem, a disease. We haven't responded with the adequate 5 resources to deal with addiction. I hope we will in the 6 future. But the conversation on drugs has changed in 7 America because the victims have changed pretty 8 dramatically. That is going to be part of the reality that 9 I hope you soon will be dealing with in your new positions.

10 I thank you for your cooperation at this hearing.
11 It's been an important one. You may receive some written 12 questions in the near term.

13 Is there anything else I need to do formally?

14 He wants me to read it and make sure you understand 15 this. Questions for the record will be due to the nominees
16 by 5 p.m. on Wednesday, July 21. The record will remain 17 open until that time to submit letters and similar 18 materials.

19 And with that, the hearing is adjourned. Thank you 20 all very much.

21 [Whereupon, at 12:54 p.m., the committee was 22 adjourned.]

4 United States Senate

5 Committee on the Judiciary

6 Washington, D.C.

7 The Committee met, pursuant to notice, at 10:00 a.m., 8 in Room G50, Dirksen Senate Office Building Hon Richard 9 Durbin, chairman of the committee, presiding.

10 Present: Senators Durbin [presiding], Leahy,
11 Feinstein, Whitehouse, Klobuchar, Coons, Blumenthal,
12 Hirono, Booker, Padilla, Ossoff, Grassley, Cornyn, Lee, 13 Cruz, Hawley, Cotton, Kennedy, and Blackburn.

14 Also Present: Senators Heinrich, Lujan, Menendez, and 15 Cassidy.

2 FROM THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE

3

4 Chairman Durbin. This hearing will come to order.

5 Today, the committee is holding its sixth nomination 6 hearing of the 117th Congress as we continue to process the 7 Biden administration's nominees. We have before the 8 committee this morning six nominees. Welcome to all.

9 Tiffany Cunningham, nominated to the Federal Circuit, 10 will be on the first panel, and then the second panel
11 includes Margaret Strickland, nominated to the U.S.
12 District Court for the District of New Mexico; David 13 Chipman, nominated to be director of Bureau of Alcohol, 14 Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives, known as A.T.F.; Ur 15 Jaddou, nominated to head the U.S. Citizenship and 16 Immigration Services, U.S.C.I.S.; Anne Milgram, nominated
17 to be the administrator of D.E.A., or Drug Enforcement 18 Administration; Ken Polite, nominated to be the assistant 19 attorney general for the Criminal Division.

20 Before I introduce two of these nominees, I want to 21 say a word about the nominations process. I want to thank 22 the White House for sending us nominees with extraordinary 23 experience and credentials for the positions to which 24 they've been nominated. And I want to make sure that we 25 understand we need to do our part, here in the Judiciary

1 Committee and in the United States Senate, to make sure 2 that we have Senate-confirmed leaders in the executive 3 branch.

4 Many of the positions that are being -- aspiring to be 5 filled today by these nominees have been vacant for long 6 periods of time. For example, former President Trump never 7 nominated an administrator for the Drug Enforcement
8 Administration. There hasn't been a Senate confirmed head 9 of that agency in six years, since 2015. The confirmation 10 process not only serves to gauge a nominee's 11 qualifications, but it's an important challenge to the 12 Senate and to this committee to do their job. The prior 13 administration relied heavily on acting officials, took the 14 Senate out of the process. This administration is trying 15 to bring the Senate back into its constitutional role.

16 Turning to the nominees, I want to first introduce 17 Tiffany Cunningham, nominated to the Federal Circuit. Ms.
18 Cunningham was born in Detroit, Michigan. She spent almost 19 20 years in Chicago. I'm proud to call her a fellow 20 Illinoisan. Her credentials are extraordinary:
21 undergraduate degree in chemical engineering from M.I.T., 22 law degree from Harvard Law School, clerkship on the 23 Federal Circuit. Ms. Cunningham has spent almost two 24 decades as an intellectual property litigator and has 25 worked on every aspect of patent litigation, from the 1 inception of the case, through discovery, trial, and 2 appeal.

3 Further, she has represented clients from any number 4 of fields: mechanical engineering, chemicals,
5 pharmaceuticals, biotechnology, computer science, and th
6 auto industry. Her clients include Fortune 500 and other 7 high-tech companies.

8 Given her experience representing both plaintiffs and 9 defendants, she understands the importance of the law being 10 applied evenhandedly. Ms. Cunningham will be ready from 11 day one to serve on the bench. She has technical 12 expertise, deep knowledge of patent law, and almost 20 13 years of experience as a litigator.

14 Finally, I would note that, when confirmed, Ms.
15 Cunningham will be the first Black judge to serve on the 16 Federal Circuit. This history -- historic nominee will 17 bring both professional and racial diversity to the court.

18 I also have the privilege of introducing David 19 Chipman, nominated to be the director of the A.T.F. Mr.
20 Chipman, 25-year law enforcement veteran, after beginning
21 his career as a special agent with the General Services
22 Administration's O.I.G., Mr. Chipman joined A.T.F. in 1988, 23 when it was still part of the Treasury Department. He 24 served as special agent with multiple field offices in many 25 locations, including Virginia, Texas, and Michigan, and led

1 a number of components of the A.T.F. in Washington,
2 including the Firearms Enforcement branch and the Policy
3 Development and Evaluation branch.

4 While at A.T.F., Mr. Chipman led or assisted in 5 multiple efforts to combat gun trafficking and the 6 proliferation of gun violence. He also worked tirelessly 7 to bring more attention to the health, safety, and wellness
8 of law enforcement officials nationwide.

9 Since leaving A.T.F., Mr. Chipman has continued his 10 work advancing bipartisan, commonsense measures to protect 11 responsible gun ownership while reducing the use of law -- 12 of firearms against law enforcement officers and innocent 13 individuals. Mr. Chipman has quite literally been on the 14 front lines in a fight against gun violence. As a gun 15 owner himself and an advocate for principled, 16 constitutional gun safety measures, Mr. Chipman is 17 singularly positioned to lead A.T.F. and tackle the gun 18 violence epidemic facing our nation.

19 It's worth noting, as well, that Mr. Chipman would be 20 only the second confirmed A.T.F. director in the agency's 21 history. I want to repeat that. He would be the -- only 22 the second confirmed A.T.F. director in the agency's 23 history and the first director to ever have served as an 24 A.T.F. special agent.

25 His knowledge of the agency and its purview is

1 unparalleled. In my estimation, he has what it takes:
2 acumen, leadership experience, and commitment to lead the 3 A.T.F. With that, I turn to my friend and ranking member, 4 Chuck Grassley.

5 Senator Grassley. You don't have to answer this now, 6 Mr. Chairman, but I would think that science ought to be 7 advanced enough to show us on this virus that we don't have 8 to have this spacing that we have now. Would you check 9 that out for me?

10 Chairman Durbin. If you want to sit closer to me, 11 I'll arrange that.

12 [Laughter.]

13 Senator Grassley. Well, I do, yes. Yes. But I think 14 we ought to get to the point where we have some more -- I'd 15 like to be able to actually see our witnesses, so maybe 16 think about it. Okay. Thank you.

1 STATEMENT OF HON. CHUCK GRASSLEY, A U.S. SENATOR FROM THE

3

4 Senator Grassley. Today, we're here for six nominees, 5 one for the circuit, one for the district, and four 6 executive nominees.

7 The nominee for the Federal Circuit, Tiffany
8 Cunningham, seems very well qualified. The Federal Circuit
9 is a specialty court. It hears mostly patent cases. It 10 does also hear some other appeals as well, including 11 federal taking, and so I'm going to have some questions for 12 Ms. Cunningham on that subject.

13 The district nominee, Margaret Strickland, is another 14 of President Biden's criminal defense judges. This is the 15 fourth criminal defense judge that we've considered.

16 I want to be very clear that there's nothing wrong
17 with being a criminal defense attorney. Some of President 18 Trump's excellent judges, like Paul Matey of the Third 19 Circuit, Raag Singhal of Florida, and Clifton Corker of 20 Tennessee, were criminal defense attorneys. They were out 21 to protect their clients' constitutional rights, all of 22 them.

23 Like I said before, there's nothing wrong with the 24 position that an organization -- that Demand Justice takes.
25 But we ought to have equal consideration or thoughts given

1 by that organization compared to some things that were said
2 about judges that came with federalist backing. Groups 3 like Demand Justice have made it clear that's not what they 4 want. They seem to think that these criminal defense
5 judges will defund the police from the bench. I think w 6 should try to find out what kind of criminal defense judges
7 we're getting: a Bill of Rights judge or a Demand Justice
8 judge.

9 We also have some executive nominees Former Attorney 10 General Milgram and Mr. Polite seem to be - have 11 relatively broad support. Mr. Polite, in particular, has 12 received strong letters of support from Republicans like 13 Brian Benczkowski and Alic Fisher, who aren't the usual 14 suspects supporting Democrat nominees. That's pretty 15 impressive.

16 I have concerns regarding Ms. Jaddou, a nominee to be 17 director of U.S.C.I.S. During her time as chief counsel 18 for that organization, that agency, during the last several 19 years of the Obama administration, the agency created 20 various parole programs that are not consistent with the 21 language or the intent of the Immigration and Nationality
22 Act. Should she be confirmed, I have concerns about her 23 willingness to further stretch the limits of parole
24 authority, and I hope to get some clarification in her 25 views during today's hearing, and I didn't get that

1 clarification when I had a telephone conference with her.

2 I'm also troubled by statements that she has made on 3 other issues, such as the use Title 42 expulsion authority 4 at the southern border, funding for immigration enforcement 5 agencies, and asylee law.

6 I believe all of these issues are worthy of thorough 7 questioning and examining before this committee. I regret 8 that today's format hearing will hinder our ability to 9 explore each of these topics, so I will probably have 10 questions in writing on those issues.

11 Lastly, we have Mr. Chapman. Ever since Mr. -- not 12 Chapman, Chipman. Ever since he was announced, I have been 13 hearing from alarmed constituents who care about their 14 rights under the Second Amendment. Mr. Chipman seems to 15 have worked for every prominent gun control group in the 16 country. He's been described by CNN as, quote, "a fierce 17 advocate for gun control," end of quote. There isn't a 18 liberal hobbyhorse on guns that he hasn't ridden, whether 19 it's misleading the public about modern sports rifles, 20 arguing against popular magazine sizes, or advocating for 21 universal background checks.

22 Of particular concern is the contempt with which he 23 seems to view ordinary Americans who buy and carry 24 firearms. And by the way, Mr. Chairman, I don't think I've 25 pulled a trigger of a gun in the last 40 years. If I do, I

1 don't remember when. So I'm not one of these guys that has 2 an arsenal of guns on my farm or anyplace. So I just come 3 from this from the standpoint of the Constitution.

4 So in regard to Mr. Chipman, to pick just one example, 5 he said last year, quote, "If you keep gun --" quote, "If 6 you keep gun -- the gun store open, there's a risk of 7 first-time buyers who are largely buying out of fear and 8 panic and untrained," end of quote.

9 A.T.F. is a significant law enforcement agency. We 10 mostly hear about it when it messes up, whether it's Waco, 11 Operation Fast and Furious, or the Chicago stash house
12 scandals. But day to day, A.T.F. plays a significant role 13 in the legal trade of firearms in this country. Many see 14 putting a command -- committed gun control proponent like 15 Mr. Chipman in charge of A.T.F. is like putting a tobacco 16 executive in charge of the Department of Health and Human 17 Services or antifa in charge of the Portland Police 18 Department. I hope he can alleviate those fears today as 19 we question him. I yield.

20 Chairman Durbin. Thank you, Senator Grassley. We 21 have four or five members, Democrats and Republicans, who 22 would like to say a word of introduction on behalf of one 23 of the nominees. First, from the state of New Mexico, we 24 have both senators. The senior senator, Senator Heinrich, 25 is joining us remotely, I believe. He'll introduce Ms.

1 Strickland. The floor is yours, Senator Heinrich.

1 STATEMENT OF HON. MARTIN HEINRICH, A U.S. SENATOR FROM THE 2 STATE OF NEW MEXICO

3

4 Senator Heinrich. Chairman Durbin and Ranking Member 5 Grassley, it's really my pleasure and honor this morning to 6 introduce Margaret Strickland, the President's nominee to 7 be district court judge for the District Court of New 8 Mexico. Ms. Strickland was born and raised in the 9 southwest border region, where this district court seat 10 presides. She attended New Mexico State University and the 11 University of Texas at El Paso before attending law school 12 at New York University.

13 Ms. Strickland returned to the southwest after law 14 school and started her career with the Las Cruces office of 15 the New Mexico public defender, representing clients in the 16 juvenile drug court and in felony defense work.

17 In 2011, Ms. Strickland formed her own law firm, 18 continuing her public service work representing indigent
19 defendants in federal court. Ms. Strickland has litigated 20 both criminal and civil cases, including a significant 21 number in the Federal District Court located in Las Cruces, 22 New Mexico. She's also appeared before the New Mexico 23 Court of Appeals, the New Mexico Supreme Court, and the 24 Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals, and filed before the United 25 States Supreme Court.

1 Ms. Strickland served on the board of New Mexico
2 Criminal Defense Lawyers for over a decade, including as 3 president. In 2018, the Federal District of New Mexico
4 appointed her to represent all Criminal Justice Act lawyers
5 as a panel representative. Ms. Strickland has also done 6 significant volunteer work with programs that reduce the 7 rate of euthanasia for companion animals. In fact, she and 8 her husband, Greg, foster dogs and puppies so that they can 9 be placed in a home rather than euthanized.

10 If confirmed, Ms. Strickland will be faced with one of 11 the busiest federal dockets in the country and inherit a 12 heavy back load of cases. I am confident that her 13 experience and her incredible work ethic will best position 14 her to immediately get to work. Ms. Strickland is a highly 15 qualified nominee with the right experience, the right 16 temperament, and the right disposition to be a fair-minded 17 district court judge.

18 The A.B.A. agrees with the majority, giving her a 19 well-qualified grading. She has spent her entire 20 professional career working in the community in which she 21 will sit. She knows intimately the impact the legal system 22 has on everyday Americans. And she understands that 23 serving as a judge is very different from serving as an 24 advocate. She is ready and prepared for the shift from 25 zealously and effectively representing clients to 1 faithfully applying the law to the facts of a specific 2 case.

3 I also want to take a quick moment to recognize Ms.
4 Strickland's husband, Greg, and their son, George, who I am
5 certain are so proud to celebrate this moment. I 6 enthusiastically support Ms. Strickland's nomination for 7 district court judge for the District of New Mexico. And I
8 hope that all of the members of this committee will join me 9 in supporting this highly qualified nominee. Thank you 10 both.

11 Chairman Durbin. Thank you, Senator Heinrich. Next, 12 we have the junior senator from New Mexico, our new 13 colleague, Senator Lujan.

1 STATEMENT OF HON. BEN RAY LUJAN, A U.S. SENATOR FROM THE

3

4 Senator Lujan. Mr. Chair, it's my honor to be before
5 the Judiciary Committee today to help introduce Margaret 6 Strickland for consideration to serve on the U.S. District 7 Court for the District of New Mexico in Las Cruces.

8 Ms. Strickland, as my colleague Senator Heinrich 9 shared, was born and raised in the southwest and would 10 bring significant legal experience and judicial experience 11 to the district court. Ms. Strickland has spent the last 12 15 years practicing law in New Mexico, including before the 13 New Mexico Court of Appeals, the New Mexico Supreme Court, 14 and the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals and the United 15 States Supreme Court. As a former public defender, she 16 would bring much-needed professional diversity and 17 perspective to our federal courts.

18 Ms. Strickland has strong ties to the New Mexico legal 19 community, including being elected by her peers to the 20 board of New Mexico Criminal Defense Lawyers, where she 21 served for over a decade in different positions, including 22 as president. In 2018, she was appointed by the Federal 23 District of New Mexico to represent all Criminal Justice
24 Act lawyers as the panel representative.

25 With a proven record of service and leadership, I'm

1 confident that Ms. Strickland will continue to serve all
2 New Mexicans equitably on the district court once 3 confirmed. She is a highly qualified nominee, and it's my 4 honor to stand with her today. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

5 Chairman Durbin. Thank you, Senator Lujan. Next, we 6 have Senator Padilla to introduce Ms. Jaddou. I think he's 7 going to join us shortly. In the meantime, I'll ask if 8 Senator Menendez is available, also by remote, to offer one 9 of the two introductions of Ms. Milgram, our D.E.A.
10 nominee. Senator Menendez, please proceed.

1 STATEMENT OF HON. ROBERT MENENDEZ, A U.S. SENATOR FROM THE

3

4 Senator Menendez. Well, thank you, Mr. Chairman, Mr.
5 Ranking Member, esteemed colleagues. Today, I'm pleased to 6 join Senator Booker in introducing Ms. Anne Milgram,
7 President Biden's nominee for administrator of the Drug 8 Enforcement Agency.

9 Ms. Milgram's experience as a local, state, and 10 federal prosecutor, a state attorney general, a 11 philanthropy executive, and a respected voice on criminal 12 justice reform make her an exceptional nominee. Ms.
13 Milgram grew up in East Brunswick, New Jersey, was drawn to 14 public service at a young age, even serving as a 15 congressional page. She went on to earn her B.A. from 16 Rutgers College, a Master of Philosophy from the University
17 of Cambridge, and law degree from New York University.
18 After clerking for U.S. District Court Judge Anne Thompson 19 in Trenton, New Jersey, Ms. Milgram got her start in the 20 Manhattan District Attorney's office.

21 In 2001, she joined the U.S. Department of Justice's 22 Civil Rights Division as special litigation counsel for 23 human trafficking. There, Ms. Milgram won several 24 convictions under newly enacted human trafficking laws, an 25 issue that is deeply intertwined with illicit drug trade.

1 Then in 2007, after serving as counsel in his U.S.
2 Senate office, New Jersey Governor Jon Corzine nominated
3 her to serve as attorney general. In this position, Ms.
4 Milgram oversaw a criminal justice division with 21 5 prosecutors, 30,000 law enforcement officers across New 6 Jersey, a managerial experience that leaves her well 7 prepared to oversee the D.E.A.'s 9,000 employees. As 8 attorney general, Ms. Milgram led investigations into gang 9 activity, organized crime, mortgage fraud, illegal
10 trafficking, and more. She also pursued innovative, data-
11 driven approaches to fighting crime in New Jersey, 12 including a 2007 partnership with the Bureau of Alcohol, 13 Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives to help New Jersey trace 14 illegal firearms recovered at crime scenes.

15 Yet Ms. Milgram is best known for her ground working 16 -- reform policing in the city of Camden, then known as the 17 most violent city in America. Using analytics and crime 18 data to create a more responsive police force, within one 19 year, she helped achieve a 40 percent reduction in violent 20 crime in Camden.

21 In 2011, she founded the Criminal Justice Initiative
22 at the Laura and John Arnold Foundation to continue her 23 focus on leveraging technology to advance criminal justice
24 reform. There she developed a public safety risk 25 assessment tool to provide judges with more holistic

1 decision-making information and helped invest over $55
2 million in efforts across the country to prevent violent 3 crime and create a more humane criminal justice system.

4 Today, she is a professor of practice and 5 Distinguished Scholar in Residence at New York University
6 School of Law, where she launched the Criminal Justice Lab.

7 My colleague, Anne Milgram is uniquely positioned to 8 lead the D.E.A. and advance the Biden administration's 9 effort to combat the opioid epidemic, stop the flow of 10 dangerous substances like fentanyl into our country, and 11 build safer communities. In my view, the D.E.A. can only 12 benefit from her vast experience her eye for innovation, 13 and her reputation for excellence. I urge her swift 14 confirmation. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

15 Chairman Durbin. Thank you, Senator Menendez.
16 Senator Booker, you're now recognized.

1 STATEMENT OF HON. CORY BOOKER, A U.S. SENATOR FROM THE

3

4 Senator Booker. Thank you very much. Mr. Chairman, 5 there are a privilege senators get, to introduce someone 6 from their state, but this is a deeper privilege, that some 7 of my colleagues have had, is I get to introduce somebody 8 from my state who I have known for almost 3 years.

9 About 29 years ago, I met Anne Milgram when -- and by 10 the way, I'm not under oath, so I will say 29 years ago, I 11 was 21 and she was 5. And I met her when we were both 12 finalists in New Jersey to go on for -- to go on to the 13 final round to be Rhodes Scholar candidates. I have since 14 got to know a lot of the people that interviewed us that 15 day, and they made it clear to me that she was the 16 outstanding standout of the duo that would go on to the 17 final round. Anne made an impression me on that day, back 18 in 1992, that I will never forget, and I tracked her career 19 since then.

20 It was 15 years ago that she and I both landed in 21 important positions in our state. I was the mayor of the 22 state's largest city, and she was the attorney general for 23 the state of New Jersey. Newark was in crisis. We had 24 spiking violent crime. The drug crisis in our city was 25 palpable. Residents were afraid, and the biggest issue

1 people talked about in our public polling was the crisis of 2 crime.

3 What we got in Anne Milgram was, for our city, a 4 champion, someone that had a depth of knowledge about the 5 issues from her being a prosecutor, an advocate for civil 6 rights, and she became, for the state of New Jersey, a 7 nationally known pioneer in public safety. My colleague, 8 Senator Menendez, has already mentioned the statistical 9 data that supports the simple truth: she helped to drive 10 down crime to historic lows in places all over the state of 11 New Jersey.

12 For me, she was an extraordinary partner who had a 13 holistic understanding of what real public safety is. It 14 is not a police officer on every corner. It is this 15 understanding that these issues go deeper, that there is an 16 intrinsic tie between public safety and ideals of justice, 17 transparency, and accountability. Her success as an 18 attorney general led to her continuing that pathway of 19 being a pioneer. She went to work with the Arnold
20 Foundation and helped to further advance ideals of reform 21 in how we address safety and security in our communities.

22 She has now become one of the preeminent experts on 23 the very issue she would be dealing with should be 24 confirmed. She is someone that gives me hope about our 25 country that we cannot be chained to the drug war policies

1 of the past but find ways that actually produced evidence-2 based results.

3 I am so confident in her leadership, not just because 4 of the pattern of her career of success after success,
5 successful innovation after pioneering triumph, but I know
6 her as a person. I know her character. I know her core.
7 She is an extraordinary American. She is a celebrated 8 leader in the state of New Jersey, and I am confident for 9 our country, in this time when we are still dealing with 10 the travesties of a failed war on drugs, that she will do 11 for this country what she did for cities like Camden and 12 Newark, deliver public safety and a deeper, more meaningful 13 justice for all. Thank you.

14 Chairman Durbin. Thank you, Senator Booker, for that 15 inspiring statement. Finally, before we return to Senator 16 Padilla, one of our colleagues from the great state of 17 Louisiana is going to introduce Mr. Polite. I understand 18 Senator Cassidy may be joining us by remote. I hope so.
19 Senator, are you with --

20 Senator Cassidy. You should be seeing me, Mr. Chair.

21 Chairman Durbin. I hope so.

22 Senator Cassidy. Do you have me? Do you have me?

23 Chairman Durbin. You can proceed, and I think we will 24 find you. There you are.

25 Senator Cassidy. I should be on.

1 Chairman Durbin. There you are.

2 Senator Cassidy. You got me?

3 Chairman Durbin. Yes. Please proceed.

1 STATEMENT OF HON. BILL CASSIDY, A U.S. SENATOR FROM THE 2 STATE OF LOUISIANA

3

4 Senator Cassidy. Thank you, Chairman Durbin and 5 Ranking Member Grassley. It is a privilege to introduce 6 New Orleans native and former U.S. attorney for the Eastern 7 District of Louisiana Kenneth Polite. He is the nominee
8 for the assistant attorney general for the Criminal 9 Division in the Department of Justice.

10 Mr. Polite has succeeded with his intelligence, hard 11 work, and support from his family. He started his life in 12 the Calliope Projects in New Orleans raised by a single 13 mom driven to provide a future for her children. Her 14 mother -- his mother, Rosalind, took classes at Xavier 15 University, gained employment in the state Probation and 16 Parole typing pool, which enabled her to move off of public 17 assistance and out of the projects into her own home. She 18 taught her children the power of education by, among other 19 things taking them to the public library every weekend.
20 It paid off. Mr. Polite received a full scholarship to De 21 La Salle High School. He graduated as valedictorian and 22 subsequently graduated from Harvard University and 23 Georgetown Law School.

24 With this background of hard work and dedication and 25 two decades of litigation and management experience in

1 criminal, civil, and compliance law, Mr. Polite is clearly 2 qualified.

3 He's also highly recommended from official -- by 4 officials across the political spectrum back home.
5 Republican Louisiana Attorney General Jeff Landry wrote a 6 letter to this committee saying of Mr. Polite's time as 7 U.S. attorney for the Eastern District of Louisiana that he 8 was, quote, "not only an effective crime fighter, but also 9 an invaluable member of the community."

10 Mr. Polite is also endorsed by Mayor LaToya Cantrell 11 of New Orleans and the City of New Orleans Department of 12 Police, sheriffs, district attorneys, faith-based leaders, 13 as well as the F.B.I. New Orleans field office, former 14 Special Agent in Charge Michael Anderson, and former 15 Assistant Special Agent in Charge Daniel H. Evans.

16 I look forward to the committee and the full Senate
17 taking up and approving Mr. Kenneth Polite's nomination.
18 Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

19 Chairman Durbin. Thank you, Senator Cassidy. Has 20 Senator Padilla joined us by remote, I hope, to introduce --

1 STATEMENT OF HON. ALEX PADILLA, A U.S. SENATOR FROM THE 2 STATE OF CALIFORNIA

3
4 Senator Padilla. Thank you, Mr. Chairman, and I
5 apologize for the back and forth. We're wrapping up the 6 markup in Environment and Public Works. I do expect to 7 join you in person in a little while, but in the meantime, 8 I want to thank you and Ranking Member Gras ley for the 9 opportunity to introduce Ur Mendoza Jaddou from the great 10 state of California as President Biden's nominee to be the 11 director of the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services
12 at the Department of Homeland Security.

13 U.S.C.I.S. plays a critical role in our immigration 14 system, as every member of this committee knows. It is the 15 agency tasked with processing and adjudicating visa
16 applications, asylum petitions, and employment 17 authorizations. It also handles the process for granting 18 citizenship to immigrants who have worked hard to come to 19 the United States and pursue the American dream. Ms.
20 Jaddou has spent her long and distinguished career working 21 to improve the lives of immigrants in the United States.

22 This work is personal to me and to her, I, as a son of 23 immigrants and her as a daughter of immigrants. Her mother 24 was from Mexico and her father was from Iraq. Ms. Jaddou 25 grew up in the California border community of Chula Vista,

1 which is just seven miles north of the Mexican border. She 2 knows firsthand what it means to be from an immigrant 3 family and how much immigrants contribute to the diversity 4 of our country and to the fabric of our communities and, of 5 course, to our economy.

6 I believe Ms. Jaddou is uniquely qualified to serve as 7 director of U.S.C.I.S. at this critical time. In 2014, she 8 was named chief counsel for U.S.C.I.S., where she led an 9 office of 270 attorneys around the country who provided 10 legal advice to the agency. This included advising on 11 policies and programs, changes in statutes and regulations, 12 and other complex legal issues. During her time as chief 13 counsel, she also worked closely with the D.H.S. Office of 14 General Counsel and her counterparts at Immigration and 15 Customs Enforcement and Customs and Border Protection.

16 Her understanding of immigration law and how 17 U.S.C.I.S. functions is second to none. Her career began 18 on Capitol Hill as counsel to Congresswoman Zoe Lofgren.
19 She went on to become the majority chief counsel to the 20 House Immigration subcommittee when Congresswoman Lofgren 21 was named chair of that subcommittee. She also served as 22 deputy assistant secretary for regional, global, and 23 functional affairs at the State Department's Bureau of 24 Legislative Affairs, and most recently, she served as 25 director of D.H.S. Watch, a project of America's Voice.

1 I want to close with a story that Ms. Jaddou shared 2 with me that perfectly demonstrates her passion for this 3 work, for immigration law, and her commitment to service.
4 While she was a student at U.C.L.A. Law School, there was 5 no tenured immigration law professor on staff or an 6 immigration law clinic where she and her peers could help
7 immigrants with their cases. Instead of being deterred, 8 she sought the guidance of her professors, and she and her 9 classmates started their own immigration law clinic. I 10 think it embodies the passion and initiative that we need 11 in the next director of U.S.C.I.S.

12 She's the right person to lead this agency, and I 13 strongly support her nomination. I urge you all to do the 14 same. Thank you very much.

15 Chairman Durbin. Thank you very much, Senator
16 Padilla. And now, I'd ask our first nominee on the first 17 panel, please stand to be sworn.

18 [Witness sworn.]

19 Thank you. Let the record show that the witness 20 answered in the affirmative. Ms. Cunningham, please 21 proceed with your opening remarks.

1 TESTIMONY OF TIFFANY CUNNINGHAM, NOMINEE TO BE UNITED 2 STATES CIRCUIT JUDGE FOR THE FEDERAL CIRCUIT

3

4 Ms. Cunningham. Thank you, Chairman Durbin. Thank 5 you, Ranking Member Grassley. And thank you to the entire 6 committee for scheduling this hearing. I also appreciate 7 the committee's flexibility in the scheduling because I had 8 to attend to a pressing family emergency. I also want to 9 thank President Biden for the nomination. I'm truly 10 humbled and honored. I have some people here to introduce, 11 some people who are present in the room and also some 12 people who are unable to attend.

13 I'm going to start with the people who are unable to 14 attend. First, I want to introduce my mother. Her name is 15 Patricia Mae Cunningham. She was born and raised in 16 Paducah, Kentucky. She was a high school English teacher, 17 teaching in the Detroit public schools for almost 30 years.
18 And she's also literally an embodiment of my heart outside 19 of my body. And as I sit before this committee, my heart 20 is partially broken because my mom is facing a very serious 21 medical issue, which is the only reason she is not present 22 today. I love you, Mom, and I will see you again very 23 soon.

24 Next, I want to introduce my father. His name is 25 Elisha Donald Cunningham. He was born and raised in 1 Talladega, Alabama. He is a veteran of the Vietnam War.

2 He worked in the automobile industry for approximately 50
3 years. I love you, Dad, and thank you for being there to 4 support Mom through this difficult challenge.

5 Next, I want to introduce my aunt, Dorothy Clemons.
6 She was a longtime resident of the Washington, D.C., area 7 and like a second mother to me. She worked for the federal 8 government for most of her life, and in addition 9 unfortunately, she cannot be here because she passed away 10 in 2015. But I'm confident that she is watching and 11 sending her support. I want to thank the larger Cunningham 12 family, the larger Clemons family, my friends, loved ones, 13 significant other, and other people who have really sent 14 their support my way.

15 I want to turn to introduce the people who are present 16 in the room today, starting with Dr. Muneera Kapadia. I've 17 known her since we were six years old. She was my first 18 best friend. And she drove all the way from North Carolina 19 to be here to support me today.

20 Next to her is Judge Qiana Lillard. I've known her 21 since freshman year of high school, and she is also a very 22 dear friend and supported me on this journey today.

23 Next to her is Ms. Jan Anne Dubin. She is a 24 consultant in Chicago and another dear friend, and I thank 25 her for her support.

1 Last but not least, I want to thank my colleagues at 2 Perkins Coie for all of their support. I truly appreciate 3 it. And without further ado, I look forward to answering 4 the committee's questions.

5 [The prepared statement of Ms. Cunningham appears in 6 the appendix.]

7 / COMMITTEE INSERT

8 Chairman Durbin. [Presiding.] Thank you Ms
9 Cunningham. Yours is an amazing story that brings you to 10 this moment before the Senate Judiciary Committee and 11 aspiring to this judgeship. And it really is star studded, 12 the things you have done, chemical engineering from M.I.T.
13 and Harvard and so forth. Let me ask you this question.
14 At this point in your career, you seem to be at the top of 15 your game. Why do you want to give it up to be on the 16 bench?

17 Ms. Cunningham. Thank you for that question, Senator.
18 I can tell you that this is literally my dream job. I
19 recall when I was fortunate enough to clerk for the court 20 in 2001 to 2002, one of the first days walking around and 21 really seeing the pictures of the judges on the walls. And 22 I saw a court that had fine, fine jurists, but it was very 23 homogeneous, if I must admit. There were all white judges 24 and only two women at that time. And at that point in 25 time, I kind of put in my mental vision board that I hoped

1 that one day I could be a judge at that court. So I'm 2 truly humbled to be sitting here before you today, and it's 3 really a dream job that I've aspired to.

4 Chairman Durbin. And you've seen a number of judges 5 as a litigator, as a clerk. What do you think are the 6 shortfalls of some and the benefits that others bring to 7 the bench?

8 Ms. Cunningham. Thank you for that question, Senator.
9 So in general, I have been very fortunate to both clerk for 10 a wonderful judge and also appear in front of wonderful 11 judges across the country. In general I have appeared in 12 front of judges that really have upheld all the standards
13 of being a good judge. These are fair, impartial, unbiased 14 people who come to the judging without any sort of 15 prejudice. So I feel like that is really great. In 16 terms of being a judge, and if I were fortunate enough to 17 be confirmed, I really would bring those same qualities to 18 the bench and also really make sure that I carefully gave 19 every party a chance to be heard and carefully studied the 20 arguments and faithfully applied the law to the facts of 21 the case.

22 Chairman Durbin. Some critics argue that the jury 23 system may not be up to the 21st century challenges, that 24 many issues coming before juries are so technical, so 25 complicated, that the average layman -- laywoman, layman --

1 would have difficulty understanding them and really coming
2 to a conclusion that is the basis for a verdict or a 3 decision. You're in one of those rarefied atmospheres of 4 the law where there is just that sort of technicality and 5 complexity. What has been your observation on the 6 performance of juries with those challenges?

7 Ms. Cunningham. Senator, I've been fortunate enough
8 to try a number of cases, and I've seen juries really meet 9 the task. They absolutely will pay attention to all of the 10 arguments. And what has been incumbent on really all of 11 the advocates is to make sure to explain the technology so 12 it's understandable to a layperson. That really is a duty 13 of every zealous advocate and something that I have really 14 tried to fulfill in my role as an advocate to date.

15 Chairman Durbin. Thank you. Senator Grassley?

16 Senator Grassley. Thank you very much.

17 Congratulations to you, Ms. Cunningham.

18 It is important for the Federal Circuit to protect the 19 rights of private property owners under the Fifth Amendment 20 taking clause. I'm going to give you some facts. At the 21 Supreme Court, taking clause relief was granted to 35
22 percent of private property owners between 1979 and 2015, 23 where in state and federal courts, excluding the Federal 24 Circuit, the success rate of regulatory takings claims from 25 that same period of time was nine and nine-tenths percent.

1 Lastly, Justice Thomas has cited data showing that only one
2 and sixth-tenths percent of the taking claims under Lucas
3 were successful from '92 to 2017 in the Federal Circuits,
4 where you will be seating -- sitting. These aren't exactly 5 apple-to-apples comparisons, but there is a trend there.

6 So do you think it's a problem that the takings claims 7 seem to be far less successful in the Federal Circuit than 8 in other tribunals, and what do you think accounts for the 9 difference?

10 Ms. Cunningham. Thank you, Senator, for that 11 question. In general, I think that I -- while I've told 12 you already, I've been a patent litigator for the last 20 13 years and have not actually litigated any takings cases, 14 what I can tell you is that if I were fortunate enough to 15 be confirmed, I would take that area very seriously, no pun 16 intended, and would also be sure to faithfully apply the 17 law to the facts of any case before me. In terms of the 18 statistics, I believe that the court faithfully tries to 19 apply the law to the facts of a case, so I think it really 20 depends very much on the facts of each case that comes 21 before the court.

22 Senator Grassley. If you'll do no more for me than 23 just take that into consideration, that we seem to get less 24 relief under the taking constitutional rights than -- in 25 the Federal Circuit than we do at other tribunals, I would

1 consider that quite an accomplishment today. In the wake 2 of the T.C. Heartland, what do you see as the role of the 3 Federal Circuit in enforcing proper venue in patent cases?

4 Ms. Cunningham. Thank you for that question, Senator.
5 T.C. Heartland, obviously, the venue case that came down, 6 has led to cases being filed in different jurisdictions and 7 potentially a shift of some of the cases from some of the 8 jurisdictions where they were filed previously. In 9 general, I feel like the Federal Circuit will, of course -- 10 and I recognize that if I were fortunate enough to be 11 confirmed, would be bound by all Supreme Court precedent, 12 including that case, and I would faithfully apply that case 13 to any of the issues that came before me.

14 Senator Grassley Okay. My last question, as a 15 general matter, do you think it's appropriate for district 16 judges to actively create favorable patent venues in their 17 courts?

18 Ms. Cunningham. Thank you for that question, Senator.
19 In general, I think that district court judges, just like 20 all judges, need to be bound by the rule of law and just 21 being focused on applying the law to the facts of each case 22 without really taking into consideration regarding what 23 sorts of cases they might want to appear before them.

24 Senator Grassley. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

25 Chairman Durbin. Thank you, Senator Grassley. The

1 next senator seeking recognition is Senator Coons.

2 Senator Coons. Mr. Chairman, if I might, I'll defer
3 to my colleague from New Jersey, who would like to make 4 just a minute of brief remarks.

5 Chairman Durbin. Of course.

6 Senator Booker. Yeah, I just wanted to have 60 7 seconds. You know, these -- we have these hearings, and 8 this is one of those moments where I feel this sense of 9 exhaustion and exaltation at the same time. And we are in 10 this period, almost 250 years of American history, where we 11 still are counting the first Black person to do this, the 12 first Black person to do this. And I just wanted to say 13 for this moment, and have no questions for the witness, how 14 extraordinary it is that she is a history maker and a rule 15 breaker, should she be confirmed.

16 This is a long and tortured history of federal courts
17 in this country, from Dred Scott to Plessy versus Ferguson 18 to even recent decisions that trouble me on voting rights.
19 But we have to mark these moments where we are making 20 extraordinary progress. The witness before us today is an 21 extraordinary human being by any measure, and I just want 22 to say for the record that the history of our country, our 23 ancestors, Black and White, a rainbow coalition of people 24 that have struggled to make a day like this possible, our 25 ancestors are rejoicing, and I'm so grateful to see the 1 witness before us today. Thank you.

2 Chairman Durbin. Thank you, Senator Booker. Senator
3 Coons.

4 Senator Coons. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Ms.
5 Cunningham, welcome. You have very strong credentials and 6 have represented some of America's most successful and 7 best-resourced companies, companies like Intel or Microsoft
8 or General Motors.

9 And I'm someone who, in IP, is always concerned about 10 balance, balance in policy, balance in experience, balance
11 in advocacy. I just am interested in your views, broadly, 12 as well as your experience around solo inventors, small 13 start-up companies, because often, they have quite 14 different experiences in our IP system and different views 15 on the importance of patent protection, in particular.
16 Have you represented a small start-up company or a solo 17 inventor, or are you aware of the challenges that sometimes 18 face these smaller players when they seek protection under 19 our patent system?

20 Ms. Cunningham. Thank you, Senator, for that 21 question. So my representations have been very broad.
22 I've represented both individuals and large companies, as 23 you already indicated, and also smaller companies. So I do 24 have that breadth of representation.

25 Senator Coons. And what do you see as the differences

1 in how a General Motors or a Microsoft experiences our 2 patent system versus the somewhat iconic, I know, garage 3 inventor?

4 Ms. Cunningham. Sure. I think usually the 5 differences come down to kind of the resources that are 6 available to the companies versus the smaller individuals.
7 So really, ensuring equal access for everybody, including 8 the garage inventor, as you indicated, as well as the large 9 companies that may be more well-heeled, is important in our 10 system.

11 Senator Coons. We're in the middle, on the floor of 12 the Senate right now, in debating and hopefully moving 13 towards a final vote on a bill designed to strengthen 14 innovation, R&D, our competitiveness as a country. And I'm 15 concerned about China's ongoing theft of American 16 intellectual property. I'm also alarmed by the contrast 17 between China's recent efforts to bolster its IP regimes 18 and the weakening of protections for creators and 19 innovators in our system. How do you view the challenge or 20 the potential threat to our global leadership in IP by 21 China?

22 Ms. Cunningham. Thank you for that question, Senator.
23 So in general, I've seen some statistics, for example, that 24 show that China's involved in potentially 60 percent or so 25 of trade secret cases, and I'm aware of some of the theft

1 concerns and some of the issues that I believe this body
2 and Congress at large are considering.

3 I also am aware of a fairly recent suit where there 4 was essentially an antisuit injunction that took place, and 5 then the Texas court -- it was the Eastern District of 6 Texas, I believe, before Judge Gilstrap. It looks like 7 you're familiar with this particular decision I'm 8 describing, Senator Coons. But in that particular case, it 9 was a situation where the Texas court decided that that 10 court could go ahead and proceed on the merits. But I 11 think that's another concern, and I think it interrelates 12 with the concern that you flagged.

13 Senator Coons. One of the areas that Senator Tillis 14 and I worked hard to try and find some common ground and 15 some path forward on in the last Congress is subject matter 16 -- the eligibility to Section 101 jurisprudence. And I 17 would argue we have heard from many former heads of the 18 P.T.O., many practitioners in the field, even judges on the 19 circuit to which you've been nominated, that there is 20 profound uncertainty about the path forward in Section 101 21 jurisprudence.

22 And I recognize there's real limitations on what you 23 can say in a confirmation hearing, but do you believe the 24 Federal Circuit could provide greater clarity or certainty
25 in this area? Are you concerned that some critical

1 technologies around things like artificial intelligence or 2 personalized medicine are now not eligible for patents or 3 there's lack of real clarity and that's impacting our 4 competitiveness as a country, particularly in these two 5 critical areas?

6 Ms. Cunningham. Thank you for that question, Senator
7 Coons. So I know this is an area that I think is near and 8 dear to your heart as well to some of the other senators'
9 hearts. And in general, in terms of Section 101, I think 10 the impact of the Alice and Mayo decisions and kind of that 11 framework, the two-step framework that it looks like you're 12 familiar with that was set up, has led to decisions where 13 there is more in terms of cases where really there are 14 Section 101 invalidation decisions that come down. It 15 comes down in a variety of areas. As you indicated, 16 because some of these cases may likely come before me, I
17 can't speak to it because I completely understand my duty 18 to not prejudge any matters.

19 Senator Coons. Understood.

20 Ms. Cunningham. But I do recognize that this is an 21 important area and an area that deserves attention and an 22 area that the Supreme Court is considering taking up a cert 23 petition on as well.

24 Senator Coons. Last question, if I could. A decade 25 ago, we passed and the president signed into law the

1 America Invents Act. One of its core goals was increased 2 efficiency and the improvement of patent quality and the 3 reduction duplicative litigation. A decade later, is it 4 your impression that that goal has been achieved or not, 5 and what, if anything, has surprised you about the 6 implementation or interpretation or real-world impacts of 7 that legislation?

8 Ms. Cunningham. Thank you, Senator, for that 9 question. So in general, as you indicated that 10 legislation was passed in 2011, and it really has led to a 11 number of -- especially, I.P.R. petitions have really been 12 a boon effort. And I think that has led to more people 13 really seeking, from the P.T.O., sort of the invalidity 14 decisions that they may want to try to get in place or at 15 least challenging the validity of a patent before the 16 P.T.O. as opposed to strictly before the district courts.

17 I feel like it has led to some decrease in filings, at 18 least in terms of dealing with some issues in terms of 19 invalidity before the district courts. Again, I feel like, 20 as a nominee, I can't speak to exactly where all these 21 things would go because various issues, of course, come 22 before the Federal Circuit. But I do recognize that the 23 A.I.A. has had a huge impact and was really the biggest sea
24 change since the 1952 Patent Act.

25 Senator Coons. I appreciate -- I'm glad that you have

1 been nominated by our president, and I look forward to 2 supporting you and appreciate your answers to my questions, 3 constrained as they are by the context in which you appear,
4 and look forward to your service on the Federal Circuit.

5 Thank you, Ms. Cunningham.

6 Ms. Cunningham. Thank you.

7 Chairman Durbin. Thank you, Senator Coons. Senator
8 Hirono was hoping to be here, but apparently she hasn't 9 made it yet, I'm sorry to say. I want to thank Ms.
10 Cunningham for her testimony, and I also want to say, 11 reminiscent of what has been said by Senator Booker, when 12 you're in a category of a first, you have to be the best.
13 And I believe President Biden has found, in your 14 nomination, that kind of quality. We thank you.

15 You may be receiving written questions following the 16 hearing from senators, which we hope you will diligently 17 respond to as quickly as possible. Ms. Cunningham, thank 18 you for your testimony today.

19 Ms. Cunningham. Thank you.

20 Chairman Durbin. With that, we move to our second 21 panel. And I ask for everyone's patience while we finalize 22 the setup for five nominees. Take a minute or two to put 23 the name tags and seats in position.

24 Senator Grassley. Hey, I was just thinking, when I
25 asked you do we have to be socially distanced --

1 Chairman Durbin. I think we have the five witnesses, 2 and we'll hear from them in their opening statements after 3 they stand to be sworn, please.

4 [Witnesses sworn.]

5 Let the record again reflect that the panel has, in 6 its entirety, answered in the affirmative. I think, Ms.
7 Strickland, you are the first to proceed with an opening 8 statement, please.

4 Ms. Strickland. Thank you. First, I want to say 5 thank you, Senator Durbin and Ranking Member Grassley, for

DRAFT DOCUMENT

1 TESTIMONY OF DAVID H. CHIPMAN, NOMINEE TO BE DIRECTOR, 2 BUREAU OF ALCOHOL, TOBACCO, FIREARMS, AND EXPLOSIVES
3

4 Mr. Chipman. Good morning, Chairman Durbin, Ranking
5 Member Grassley, members of the committee. Thank you,
6 Senator Durbin, for your generous introduction earlier 7 I'm honored to be here today and grateful to President 8 Biden for nominating me to the position of Director of the 9 Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives. I
10 thank my wife, Tara, who is here with me, and my family, 11 including my children, Carson and Allison, for all their 12 love and support.

13 A.T.F.'s mission is critical to our nation's public 14 safety. If confirmed I will proudly lead the bureau and 15 serve, once again, alongside its dedicated and talented 16 agents, investigators, and professional staff as they work 17 every day to keep our communities safe from criminal 18 shootings and other violent crime, firearms trafficking, 19 bombings, arson, and more. When I first joined A.T.F. in 20 1988, at the age of 22, I swore an oath to defend my 21 country, uphold our Constitution, and protect the American 22 public. During 25 years of public service, until my 23 retirement as a special agent in 2012, I honored that oath
24 every day.

25 I know the danger that agents face in the field to

1 ensure public safety and bring criminals to justice. As a 2 young agent, I was a certified explosives specialist on the 3 national response team and a tactical operator on the 4 special response team, A.T.F.'s version of S.W.A.T.

5 I understand the physical and emotional stress that 6 agents are under, particularly when working on crimes 7 involving mass casualties and destruction. I was an 8 investigative first responder to the 1993 bombing of the 9 World Trade Center in New York and the 1995 bombing of the 10 Federal Building in Oklahoma City. I have felt the pride 11 that A.T.F. agents experience when they prevent gun 12 violence or apprehend criminals who violate our nation's 13 gun laws. I disrupted firearms trafficking organizations
14 that funneled hundreds of firearms along the Iron Pipeline
15 from Tidewater, Virginia, to New York. And I arrested a 16 straw purchaser who bought a handgun that a child used to 17 shoot a cop.

18 The leadership positions I held at A.T.F. grounded me 19 in what it will take to improve bureau operations and 20 morale. I have supervised agents in the field multiple 21 times. I used that experience to develop new approaches to 22 combat homicides committed with firearms, impacting 23 communities across the United States. While at A.T.F.
24 headquarters during the Bush administration, I was 25 responsible for all A.T.F. field policies and procedures.

1 I later oversaw all firearms programs and foreign offices
2 for the entire bureau. I launched the Violent Crime Impact
3 Team program, credited with preventing gun homicides in 15 4 targeted cities.

5 During my last several years at A.T.F., I had fiscal 6 responsibilities. I oversaw large budgets, including the 7 $50 million field operational budget, A.T.F.'s $80 million 8 spectrum relocation program, and the $60 million assets 9 forfeiture program.

10 These experiences, hard won over the course of 11 decades, will serve as my guide if I'm confirmed to lead 12 the A.T.F. The bureau has excelled at investigating crime 13 since the days of Eliot Ness. My leadership mission will 14 be to sharpen A.T.F.'s focus while striving to prevent more 15 violent crimes from occurring in the first place. I look 16 forward to answering your questions today, and thank you.

17 [The prepared statement of Mr. Chipman appears in the 18 appendix.]

19 / COMMITTEE INSERT

20 Chairman Durbin. Thank you, Mr. Chipman. Ms. Jaddou, 21 please proceed.

24

25

1 TESTIMONY OF UR MENDOZA JADDOU, NOMINEE TO BE DIRECTOR, 2 UNITED STATES CITIZENSHIP AND IMMIGRATION SERVICES

3

4 Ms. Jaddou. Thank you, Chairman Durbin. Thank you, 5 Ranking Member Grassley. I greatly appreciate the honor to 6 be considered by this committee for director of U.S.
7 Citizenship and Immigration Services. I would especially 8 like to thank Senator Padilla, my home state senator from 9 beautiful California, for your kind and gracious 10 introduction. I'd also like to thank Senator Feinstein for 11 opening the door to federal service as a summer intern in 12 your San Diego office 25 years ago.

13 I come before you today the product of a uniquely 14 American experience. My late dad, a Chaldean Catholic from 15 northern Iraq, came to America as a bright-eyed foreign 16 student in the 1950s, with dreams of freedom, democracy, 17 and opportunity. He also found love and marriage of almost 18 50 years to my late mom, an immigrant from Mexico, 19 beautiful inside and out, who arrived with an equally 20 ambitious American dream. My parents would go on to raise 21 three daughters and strive for their American dream in a 22 southern suburb of San Diego, less than ten miles from the 23 U.S.-Mexico border.

24 My husband, Peter, my rock, who's right behind me, is 25 here today, along with our two amazing daughters, Suli and

1 Luna, my sun and moon. Peter's family shares a very 2 similar story. His parents, Coptic Christians from Egypt, 3 immigrated to America to serve in the medical field. His 4 dad served as a doctor in the U.S. Navy as a lieutenant
5 commander. His mom trained and became a radiation 6 oncologist, helping thousands of cancer patients through 7 very difficult times.

8 America has been strengthened by the big dreams, hard 9 work, and contributions of millions of immigrants and 10 refugees who have come to our shores to forge a better life
11 for themselves and their children. At the heart of a 12 functioning immigration system is an agency that 13 effectively processes immigration and naturalization 14 applications under the law, like those of my family and so 15 many others. This means that U.S.C.I.S. must process 16 applications fairly efficiently, and in a humane manner;
17 be accessible, transparent, and accountable; and safeguard 18 the integrity of the system and ensure the security of the 19 nation.

20 My most immediate responsibilities, if confirmed, will 21 be to return the agency to firm solvency, resolve 22 dramatically increasing processing times and backlogs, and 23 utilize 21st century tools. I'll work to ensure that 24 U.S.C.I.S. retains the confidence of the American public as 25 an agency able to fulfill its mission. In addition, I'll

1 work to ensure that the hardworking and dedicated men and 2 women, my former colleagues at U.S.C.I.S., have the 3 resources, support, and leadership they need to carry out 4 their roles without undue difficulty.

5 I'd like to thank the President for nominating me,
6 Secretary Mayorkas, and many others who have supported me
7 through this process. Thank you very much for considering 8 me for the honor of serving as U.S.C.I.S. director.

4 Ms. Milgram. Thank you, Chairman Durbin, Ranking 5 Member Grassley, and members of the Judiciary Committee for 6 the opportunity to appear before you today. I'm grateful
7 to President Biden for nominating me to this important
8 position, and I want to extend my deepest thanks to Senator
9 Booker and Senator Menendez for their very kind 10 introductions.

11 At the outset, I want to thank my family for their 12 love and support. My husband and my nephew are here with 13 me today. My parents, my sister, and her family and our 14 son are watching on TV. As I sit here today, I cannot help 15 but think about my grandfather and my great-grandfather, 16 both police officers who rose to become the chief of police 17 in South Amboy, New Jersey. I know that they would be 18 incredibly proud to see their granddaughter nominated to 19 lead the dedicated, passionate, and tenacious professionals
20 at the Drug Enforcement Administration.

21 Today, the D.E.A. is called upon to address some of 22 the most significant challenges in our nation. We are in 23 the midst of an ongoing crisis of prescription opioid 24 addiction. It is a homegrown problem, where most of those 25 addicted to opioids begin by taking prescription drugs that

1 they are prescribed or that they find in the medicine
2 cabinets of their families and friends. The prescription
3 opioid crisis has now transformed into a national epidemic
4 that is driven by the distribution of illicit fentanyl, 5 which is senselessly costing hundreds of thousands of 6 American lives.

7 There are sophisticated international drug trafficking 8 organizations that are brazenly distributing highly 9 addictive drugs in our communities, accompanied by waves of 10 senseless violence. And Americans in the grips of 11 addiction are far too often unable to get the necessary
12 treatment and support that they need. We need to confront 13 these challenges head-on, and I intend to do that.

14 I also recognize that members of this committee and 15 across Congress have spent countless hours working on 16 solutions, and if I am confirmed, I look forward to 17 collaborating with you to ensure that we make tangible, 18 sustained, and measurable progress. My experience
19 vigorously enforcing the law, both public safety and public 20 health will serve me well in this role.

21 I have been an assistant district attorney in the 22 Manhattan D.A.'s office, a federal prosecutor, and the 23 state attorney general for New Jersey, where I led the 24 9,000-person Department of Law and Public Safety.

25 As attorney general, I also oversaw the police

1 department in Camden, New Jersey, which was then one of the 2 most dangerous cities in America. Today, it is not. We 3 worked tirelessly in partnership with the D.E.A. and with 4 other law enforcement agencies to reduce violence in Camden
5 and to improve community relationships. And as a result, 6 violence dropped by more than 40 percent in one year.
7 Today, Camden is at historically low rates of crime and 8 violence.

9 If I am confirmed, I will bring this results-oriented 10 focus in leading the professionals at the D.E.A. as they 11 carry out their vital mission to make our communities safer 12 and healthier. I'm grateful for the opportunity to answer
13 your questions. Thank you

1 TESTIMONY OF KENNETH ALLEN POLITE, JR., NOMINEE TO BE 2 ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL, CRIMINAL DIVISION

3
4 Mr. Polite. Chairman Durbin, Ranking Member Grassley,
5 members of the committee, thank you for today's hearing. I
6 offer particular thanks to Senator Cassidy for his kind 7 introduction and to both Senators Cassidy and Kennedy for 8 their courtesies throughout this nomination process. Thank 9 you both for your service to our nation and to the great 10 state of Louisiana. I am grateful to President Biden for 11 nominating me to serve in this important role at this 12 important time.

13 My wife, partner, and advocate, Dr. Florencia Greer
14 Polite, is here with me today, along with our wonderful 15 daughters, Gabrielle and Lena. Watching from afar are my 16 mother, Rosalind; my father, Kenneth Sr.; my supportive in-17 laws, Gloria and Theodore; my siblings, Damion, Tyrrel, and 18 Catrina; and scores of other friends, colleagues, and 19 family members.

20 Senators, I come from humble beginnings, the oldest 21 child born to teenage parents in New Orleans, raised in 22 some of the city's most poverty-stricken areas, including 23 the Calliope Project in the Lower Ninth Ward. My life was 24 nonetheless rich with my family's love and, most 25 importantly, my mother's sacrifice, investment, and

1 commitment to my education.

2 From Harvard University and Georgetown Law to a Third 3 Circuit clerkship with my mentor, Judge Tom Ambro, to 4 prestigious law firms and courtrooms and boardrooms to 5 today's hearing and beyond, I am always representing and 6 always reaching back to the community that helped shape me 7 into a servant leader.

8 I hail from a family of public servant. My mother 9 recently retired after 34 years of service in the U.S.
10 Department of Housing and Urban Development. My father was 11 a 37-year veteran of the New Orleans Police Department. My 12 brother Damion is a captain in the Army Reserves and a 13 detective with the Houston Police Department. Yet despite 14 our connections to law enforcement, our family, like many 15 Americans, has felt the pain of losing a loved one, my 16 brother, to street violence. I carry his memory with me
17 every day.

18 I bring a wide-ranging legal perspective to this role, 19 having served as the United States Attorney in the Eastern 20 District of Louisiana, as well as, as an assistant U.S.
21 attorney in the Southern District of New York, as well as, 22 as a defense attorney with law firms in New York, New 23 Orleans, and in Philadelphia. I also bring the unique 24 insight that comes with serving as a chief compliance
25 officer for a Fortune 500 company.

1 If confirmed, I look forward to leading and working 2 alongside the tremendous public servants in the Criminal 3 Division. Its work, which includes combatting 4 cyberthreats, COVID relief fraud, and exploitation of our 5 nation's most vulnerable populations, is more essential 6 than ever. Moreover, it requires even greater 7 collaboration with U.S. attorneys' offices and federal, 8 state, local, tribal, territorial, and international law 9 enforcement partners. I look forward to answering your 10 questions. Thank you.

11 [The prepared statement of Mr. Polite appears in the 12 appendix.]

13 / COMMITTEE INSERT

14 Chairman Durbin. [Presiding.] Thank you, Mr. Polite.
15 Well, what an amazing array, in this panel, of talent and 16 experience, and we thank you, each and every one of you, 17 for your willingness to engage in public service. We have 18 questions to ask. With this panel, I wish I could ask each 19 of you five minutes of questions, but I'll -- you'll be 20 spared from that ordeal, and we'll try to keep this as 21 condensed as possible. But I do want to start with Mr.
22 Chipman.

23 Mr. Chipman, first, thank you for serving in law 24 enforcement and risking your life for this nation. We 25 cannot ever thank you enough and your family for standing

1 by you in this commitment.

2 Buckle your seatbelt. You want to be the head of the 3 A.T.F., hang on tight. They're coming after you, buddy.
4 They are creating some fictional stories about your life 5 and your experience, and you're going to have to try to 6 weather this storm. It's going to be rough from time to 7 time. And I want to give you an opening opportunity.

8 It seems that some on the political fringe are willing 9 to say whatever it takes to try to sink your nomination.
10 That includes peddling baseless claims about your work as 11 an A.T.F. special agent in Waco Texas and statements that 12 you made regarding attacks on a helicopter supporting 13 A.T.F. operations at Waco. I also understand they've gone 14 so far as to Photoshop your face on somebody else's body to 15 try to establish that you were in Waco or some other place 16 when you weren't.

17 So now is your chance to at least open up by telling 18 us the facts. Would you comment on the role -- your role 19 at Waco, the purported photograph, and the statements you 20 made regarding the helicopter attack?

21 Mr. Chipman. Thank you, Chairman Durbin, for the 22 opportunity to address these issues. First, I was directed 23 to report to Waco in May of 1993. That was in the month 24 after the events at Waco had concluded. My role was to be 25 assigned to a group of D.O.J. employees who were

1 investigating the events there, and one of the reasons I 2 was selected is because I had no involvement in the actual 3 case that was being examined.

4 With regards to a photo that I too have seen on the 5 internet, this is not me. It is, in fact, a real photo
6 that comes from the time of Waco. It has a stamp on it 7 that showed that it was evidence. But during the course of 8 the investigation, I interviewed all of the A.T.F. agents
9 at Waco, and that is not an A.T.F. agent

10 And then finally, the question about what I believe 11 you're responding to is I had the opportunity to do a event
12 on Reddit. Reddit is one of those things where people fire
13 questions at you, and you have to type very fast. And I
14 got a question about the lethality of the .50 caliber rifle
15 and how often it was used in crime in the United States, 16 and I was trying to be candid and say that the only case 17 that I knew of that .50 calibers were used was at this 18 incident at Waco that I was familiar with.

19 And I was also familiar that Branch Davidians had, in 20 fact, shot two of the planes -- excuse me, helicopters.
21 There were bullet holes and I saw the pictures of that. I 22 could have done a better job by describing them as being 23 forced down because of the gunfire as opposed to shot down, 24 which might have left the impression that they were blown 25 out of the sky, which they were not. And I regret that

1 confusion I added.

2 Chairman Durbin. Thank you very much, and I'm sure 3 you'll have ample opportunity to answer that and similar 4 questions as we proceed. Ms. Milgram, I think one of the 5 really startling things that I learned in this Judiciary 6 Committee many years ago, as we consider the role of the 7 D.E.A., was the responsibility of the Drug Enforcement 8 Administration of the United States federal government to 9 determine each year how many opioid pills would be produced 10 by pharmaceutical companies across our nation.

11 Between 1993 and 2015, the agency which you are hoping 12 to lead allowed production of oxycodone to increase 39-
13 fold, from three and a half tons to 151 tons, with D.E.A.
14 approval. Senator Kennedy and I authored legislation to 15 require D.E.A. in their quota setting to take into account 16 the fact that that was way too many, and there were many 17 people who were abusing it and too many overdose deaths.
18 I'm encouraged that the quota has gone down from 14 billion 19 opioids on the market in 2016 to 9.7 billion in 2019, but 20 that is still too much. Those pills are enough -- that 21 quota is enough for every adult in America, every adult in 22 America, to have a two-week supply of opioids. Haven't we 23 learned our lesson? Have you addressed this issue? Are 24 you aware of it?

25 Ms. Milgram. Senator, thank you for that question,

1 and thank you also for the leadership that both you and 2 Senator Kennedy have shown in raising this issue and in 3 passing the SUPPORT Act.

4 I agree with you that drug diversion remains of 5 critical, critical and urgent importance for the D.E.A.
6 We've seen, between 2019 and 2020, approximately 90,000
7 Americans have overdosed. And again, many of those 8 individuals are starting on opioids through their medicine 9 cabinets and through the medicine cabinets of their family
10 and friends. So I share your concern about this issue.
11 You have my commitment that, if I am confirmed, I will -- 12 this will be a high priority issue to look at the quotas 13 and to work with you, I hope, and other members of this 14 committee on this important issue.

15 Chairman Durbin. I'll just say to my colleagues, it 16 is hard to understand how the pharmaceutical industry can, 17 year after year, ask for approval for the production of 18 billions of these opioid pills when we're going through 19 this scourge of overdose and all the heartbreak that it 20 brings with it. And I hope the D.E.A. will finally stand 21 up and say, "Enough." Thank you very much, Ms. Milgram.
22 Senator Grassley.

23 Senator Grassley. One question for Ms. Strickland.
24 What, if any, is your relationship with the group Demand
25 Justice or its leaders, like Brian Fallon and Chris Kang?

1 Ms. Strickland. Thank you for the question, Senator.
2 I have spoken with Mr. Kang.

3 Senator Grassley. And that's the answer to your 4 question. You've had one conversation with him?

5 Ms. Strickland. I believe I've spoken to him twice, 6 maybe three times.

7 Senator Grassley. Okay. Now, for Ms. Jaddou, as 8 you're aware, the Immigration and Nationali ation Act
9 grants Homeland Security the authority to temporarily 10 parole an alien into the country on a case-by-case basis 11 for specific reasons. Unlike with D.A C.A., aliens who are 12 paroled into the United States are eligible to adjust their 13 status and obtain green cards.

14 Now, the vice president has said -- and called for 15 granting parole in place to countless young people who are 16 living in the United States illegally. This would have the 17 effect of byp ssing Congress and giving millions of people 18 living illegally in the United States a path to legal 19 status or U.S. citizenship, unlike some of us who would 20 like to do that if we could get it done reasonably on a 21 bill passed in Congress.

22 Do you agree with the vice president's proposal to 23 grant parole in place to potential millions of so-called 24 Dreamers?

25 Ms. Jaddou. Thank you, Senator, for the question. My

1 job as U.S.C.I.S. director, if I'm confirmed, will be to 2 work with the attorneys in the agency to understand that 3 provision and understand who it could apply to. I would 4 have to study what the vice president is recommending or 5 suggesting, and I would have to work with the people who 6 understand the provision of law and apply it to the facts 7 of the individual on a case-by-case basis to determine that 8 answer.

9 Senator Grassley. Okay. Then let's go to the law.
10 One more question for you. How is letting an entire class 11 of people receive parole consistent with an immigration 12 law's clear language that parole should only be on a case-13 by-case basis for specific reasons?

14 Ms. Jaddou. Thank you, Senator. One of the things 15 that U.S.C.I.S. does as it adjudicates -- it adjudicates on 16 a case-by-case basis. Individuals must submit a form that 17 is the general access that people have to any sort of 18 request made before the agency. They must provide quite a 19 bit of information about themselves before they can even be 20 considered. And many background checks are done on each 21 individual case, and an adjudicator says yes, no, may 22 request additional information. And that's where -- how 23 adjudication is done.

24 Senator Grassley. Mr. Chipman, on March 25th this 25 year, Senator Johnson and I wrote to A.T.F. asking for

1 records relating to the October 2018 Hunter Biden firearm
2 incident. In response to my letter, A.T.F. has refused to 3 provide any records, citing the Freedom of Information Act, 4 which is totally irrelevant to A.T.F.'s responsibility to 5 comply with legitimate Congressional oversight requests.
6 Congress isn't subject to F.O.I.A. restrictions, and 7 A.T.F.'s use of the law as a shield is incompetent.

8 If confirmed, what steps will you take to produce
9 records to this committee relating to Hunter Biden's 10 October 2018 firearm incident?

11 Mr. Chipman. Senator Grassley, thank you for asking 12 me this question. If I am confirmed as A.T.F. director, I 13 will abide by all A.T.F. policies and D.O.J. policies to 14 ensure that you receive the records that you require.

15 Senator Grassley. This matter has been all over the 16 news. What else do you need to learn before you can make a 17 decision to do what I ask you to do?

18 Mr. Chipman. Senator, I am familiar with what I've 19 seen in the news. But I think if I'm confirmed as A.T.F.
20 director, it'll be my responsibility to respond based on 21 the facts, and I'm sure that there would be more facts
22 available to me if I am confirmed.

23 Senator Grassley. I will submit the rest of my 24 questions for answer in writing.

25 [The information appears in the appendix:]

1 / COMMITTEE INSERT

2 Chairman Durbin. Thank you, Senator Grassley.

3 Senator Leahy?

4 Senator Leahy. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Mr. Chipman,
5 as you know, the A.T.F.'s National Tracing Center in West
6 Virginia is our country's only crime gun tracing facility.
7 When a gun is found at a crime scene, law enforcement 8 authorities want to find the gun's last-known owner, they 9 submit a trace request to the National Tracing Center. The 10 National Tracing Center receives nearly 1,700 trace 11 requests every day, every day. It's on a pace to receive 12 550,000 requests this year as all -- a record high.
13 Incredible number -- amount of time-sensitive work for the 14 N.T.C.

15 And I know from my days in law enforcement how 16 important it was to trace a gun found at a crime scene. It 17 could be the key to solving the crime, preventing others.
18 So I think most Americans would be shocked if they knew 19 this is the observed reality of crime gun tracing at the 20 A.T.F.'s National Tracing Center. Laws have been passed 21 that forced you into that situation. Congress, at the 22 behest, I think, of some of the gun lobby, prohibited
23 A.T.F. from electronically searching gun sales records 24 currently in its possession. You have tens of millions of 25 these records being stored in metal shipping containers in

1 the parking lot, some of them frayed, decayed, barely 2 legible.

3 Again, a number of us on this committee have served in 4 law enforcement, and we know how important it is to be able 5 to trace a gun. So anything else you want to trace, we'd 6 do it electronically, scan it. Any agency in the 21st 7 century would do that. But you are forced by the laws that 8 we passed, foolish laws, to have this labor intensive 9 process, which, of course, hinders law enforcement all over 10 the country. I think we have to act swiftly to bring the 11 A.T.F. into the 21st century. Just yesterday, I 12 reintroduced the Crime Gun Tracing Modernization Act. It's 13 supported by the Justice Department. It would allow A.T.F.
14 to electronically search crime gun records.

15 So, Mr. Chipman, my question is do you agree that 16 further improving the efficiency of crime gun tracing is 17 going to help law enforcement throughout the country?

18 Mr. Chipman. Thank you, Senator, for this question,
19 and thank you for being so passionate about something 20 that's just so critical to not only the functions of state 21 and local law enforcement, which A.T.F. supports, but the 22 mission of A.T.F. to disrupt firearms trafficking.

23 As a young agent in Norfolk, Virginia, there was not a 24 single trafficking case that I was able to make that didn't 25 rely on the Tracing Center, and I can confirm those

1 pictures are accurate, at least as of ten years ago, when I
2 oversaw the activities there, that we have dedicated 3 federal employees that are just meeting obstacles that are 4 inhibiting the A.T.F. from doing a good job. And that is 5 telling local cops where crime guns came from, which is 6 just a very valuable lead.

7 Senator Leahy. I'm told that electronic traces could 8 potentially save hundreds of thousands of hours on traces 9 overall. I think that's why so many law enforcement 10 agencies support my legislation. In fact, Mr. Chipman, I'd 11 like to enter letters of support from the Federal Law 12 Enforcement Officers Association and the Major Cities
13 Chiefs Association.

14 [The information appears in the appendix:]

15 / COMMITTEE INSERT

16 Chairman Durbin. Without objection.

17 Senator Leahy. And since 2013, Mr. Chipman, I've been 18 working with A.T.F. on bipartisan legislation to curb straw
19 purchasing and firearms trafficking. I worked with Senator 20 Collins and Chairman Durbin to reintroduce that legislation 21 to help us stop these kind of straw purchases. Why is that 22 important, that we be able to do that?

23 Mr. Chipman. Well, it's critical. One of the most 24 significant cases I ever was able to make in my A.T.F.
25 career was actually in Waco. We had a officer shot by a

1 juvenile, and I was able to trace the gun using the Tracing
2 Center and was able to identify that an adult had straw 3 purchased this gun for the child.

4 You know, this is what places everyone in danger, and 5 it's something we've known has occurred for a long time,
6 and I think that working collaboratively with the licensees 7 to teach them how to observe this criminal behavior and 8 stop it but also investigating these crimes is just 9 absolutely essential.

10 Senator Leahy. I now close with this. I'm a gun 11 owner, but when I go to the gun store in Vermont to buy a 12 gun, they say hi to me and, "I saw your cousin the other 13 day. Every -- how are you doing? Oh, by the way, we have 14 to do a background check on you." And I say, "Fine." I 15 want it to be done for everybody. I don't want straw 16 purchases. And most gun shop owners don't want some of 17 these gun show things where they can have straw purchases.
18 Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

19 Chairman Durbin. Thank you very much. Senator
20 Cornyn?

21 Senator Cornyn. Mr. Chairman, before my five minutes 22 starts, I'd like to just respectfully note my objection to 23 five executive branch nominees here all for very 24 significant Senate-confirmed positions, and the chairman 25 has given us these five nominees and five minutes to ask

1 them questions. This is a -- to me, it's a -- trivializes
2 our constitutional responsibility of advice and consent. I 3 don't think we have much choice but to proceed to try to 4 ask what questions we can, but this is really a joke. And 5 when it comes to our constitutional responsibilities, I 6 understand the eagerness of the chairman and the 7 administration to move nominees as fast as they can. It's 8 a frustration for every administration, every Senate 9 majority. But this is really beyond ridiculous, and I just 10 would respectfully note my objection.

11 Chairman Durbin. Senator, if I could respond? We're 12 doing our best to move these nominees in a timely fashion.
13 But I --

14 Senator Cornyn. Well, this is a drive-by hearing, is 15 what this is.

16 Chairman Durbin. But I would like to add for the 17 record that many of the vacant -- many of the positions 18 they are seeking were either left vacant or filled by 19 temporary appointment under the previous administration.
20 This administration is bringing the nominees for Senate
21 confirmation.

22 Senator Cornyn. Mr. Chairman, I support the 23 nomination and will, in all likelihood, vote for the 24 confirmation of some of these nominees, but there's some I 25 have serious questions about that I'd like to have a chance

1 to ask them. But having noted my objection, let me just 2 proceed.

3 Ms. Jaddou, in 2015, the Permanent Subcommittee on 4 Investigations here in the Senate did a extensive multiyear
5 investigation into the placement of unaccompanied childr n
6 with sponsors here in the United States. They documented 7 that, in one case, the Office of Refugee Relocation placed 8 eight children in a forced labor condition. Basically, 9 what happened is human traffickers posed as sponsors, and 10 then O.R.R. placed these unaccompanied children with 11 sponsors who then trafficked them and used them for forced 12 labor. Do you believe the current procedures that are in 13 place to vet sponsors for placement of unaccompanied 14 children are acceptable?

15 Ms. Jaddou. Thank you, Senator, for that really 16 important question. As a mother, the protection of 17 children is - I can't even describe how important it is, 18 not only to me personally but parents everywhere.

19 On this specific issue, as the director of U.S.C.I.S., 20 if I'm confirmed, this is not generally the area where I
21 would have a specialty, and I don't necessarily have a 22 specialty in the placement of children in specific homes.
23 I am aware that U.S.C.I.S. currently is assisting in the 24 mission of Homeland -- that H.H.S., Health and Human 25 Services, at the moment, and they have been trained under

1 the current procedures. But unfortunately, I have not been 2 brought up to speed on those issues, and I would certainly 3 -- that would be one of the first things I would want to 4 do, to ensure that the officers of U.S.C.I.S. have the 5 greatest amount of information and training available to 6 them to place children in safe and loving homes.

7 Senator Cornyn. Are you aware that, as of May 24th, 8 2021, that the Biden administration has 18, 87 children in 9 custody?

10 Ms. Jaddou. I was not aware of that specific number, 11 but I have heard it's a larger number

12 Senator Cornyn. And are you aware that, since the 13 Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations conducted this 14 multiyear investigation into the placement of unaccompanied 15 children with sponsors, here has been no change in the 16 policy. In fact, there is no government agency that is 17 responsible for following up on the placement of these 18 children. Are you aware of that?

19 Ms. Jaddou. As I stated, sir, I was not aware.
20 That's not a process that I'm a specialist in. I don't 21 have much expertise in that area. But certainly, to the 22 extent that U.S.C.I.S. officers, if I'm confirmed, are 23 involved in that process, I would like to learn as much 24 about it, and I thank you for bringing that to my 25 attention. I would definitely like to take a look as soon

1 as I'm confirmed.

2 Senator Cornyn. As a matter of fact, on March the 3 11th, 2021, the Biden administration entered into a new 4 memorandum of understanding regarding unaccompanied
5 children, terminating the cooperation between H.H.S., 6 O.R.R., I.C.E., and C.B.P. with regard to vetting the 7 background of the sponsors with whom these unaccompanied
8 children are placed. In other words, as ba as this 9 committee report is, and it dates back to 2015, there's 10 been no change in the follow-up of these children that are 11 being placed with potential traffickers, people who would 12 subject them to forced labor assault them, abuse them, 13 exploit them. The Biden administration has just made that 14 harder to vet because they terminated the memorandum of 15 April the 13th, 2018.

16 Mr. Chipman, I wanted to ask you, do you recognize the 17 -- an individual right to keep and bear arms?

18 Mr. Chipman. Thank you for that question, Senator.
19 The Supreme Court has recognized that right. I'm a gun 20 owner myself. And the answer is yes.

21 Senator Cornyn. And is a law-abiding gun owner a 22 threat to public safety, in your view?

23 Mr. Chipman. Thank you for that question, Senator.
24 If the term law-abiding means someone has lawfully 25 possessed a gun, there are often occasions that that person

1 then goes on to commit a violent crime. If you're just 2 saying characterize the majority of gun owners, the 3 majority of gun owners are law abiding.

4 Senator Cornyn. What's the role of the A.T.F. or the 5 federal government in restricting the right of law-abiding 6 gun owners to keep and bear arms? You said that some of 7 them may go on to commit crimes, but so far, we're not 8 living with, I guess, the movie The Minority Report, where 9 we had the capacity or ability to investigate pre-crimes.
10 So what restrictions would you place on the right of a law-
11 abiding citizen to keep and bear arms under the Second 12 Amendment?

13 Mr. Chipman. If I'm confirmed as A.T.F. director, 14 it's A.T.F.'s responsibility to primarily enforce the 15 National Firearms Act, the Gun Control Act, and our 16 priority will be, you know, focusing on people who break
17 federal laws and attempt to, you know, intervene before 18 they kill someone. So that is a balance that we need to 19 strike but again, the Constitution is the guardrails to 20 that activity.

21 Senator Cornyn. I'll just say, in conclusion, if the 22 chairman will give me just a moment, that I think one of 23 the areas that I do think that A.T.F. needs to focus on is 24 unlicensed firearms manufacturers that are not currently 25 obligated, like federal firearms licensees are, to conduct

1 background checks. And indeed, this is a loophole through 2 which some individuals -- for example, the shooter in 3 Odessa, Texas, a few years back, circumvented the 4 background check system by buying a AR-15 lookalike from a
5 unlicensed firearms manufacturer. So I hope that's an area 6 you will look at and work with us on.

7 Mr. Chipman. Thank you, Senator, and if confirmed, I 8 will strive to work with you on that, and I thank you for 9 your dedication improving the N.I.C.S. system.

10 Chairman Durbin. Thank you, Senator Cornyn. And 11 Senator Feinstein.

12 Senator Feinstein. Thanks, Mr. Chairman. While we 13 are sitting here, we have gunman in San Francisco 14 shooting down people. The press say at this time maybe six 15 to seven people have been killed. Mr. Chipman, gun 16 violence is so prevalent in this country. What are the 17 first steps you will take to do something about it, if any?

18 Mr. Chipman. Senator, well, I wanted to say thank you 19 for that question, but first, I'm sorry to hear that news.
20 I wasn't aware of that. If I'm confirmed as A.T.F.
21 director, one of our priorities at A.T.F. will be focusing 22 on gun trafficking and the unlawful transfer of legal guns
23 to criminals, and perhaps, in this case, you know, a crime
24 like this could be prevented. So as A.T.F. tries to solve 25 crimes, we will have to strive just as hard to prevent them

1 from ever happening in the first place.

2 Senator Feinstein. Well, I thank you. You know, and 3 I guess I've been listening to these questions being asked 4 and responded to for more than 20 years now, and nothing
5 changes on the streets. And I think we all need to think a 6 little bit about that. You know, this is a gun-happy 7 nation, and everybody can have their gun, but what is 8 happening out there in the killing of innocents should be 9 protected by our laws. And unfortunately we're not making 10 the laws that can protect people from this kind of gun 11 crimes.

12 Last fiscal year, the number of inventory inspections
13 conducted by A.T.F. to ensure that weapons are not diverted 14 to criminals fell to just over 5,800. And my 15 understanding, that's down from 13,000 in fiscal year 2019.
16 So the -- your department is sitting by, and all of this is 17 happening. At the same time, gun sales were spiking around 18 the nation. Even before the pandemic, A.T.F. inspected 19 less than 15 percent of licensed dealers in a year. So I'm 20 not a great fan of those numbers. If confirmed, what will 21 you do, specifically, to increase the number of A.T.F.
22 inspections?

23 Mr. Chipman. Thank you for this question, Senator.
24 And it's a very important question. If confirmed, very 25 early on in my tenure, I want to find out the reasons for

1 that drop in statistics. One thing strikes me is I'm 2 unsure how COVID impacted the A.T.F. workforce. But 3 certainly, when just looking at the numbers, we have to 4 ensure that A.T.F. inspectors are targeting those firearms 5 dealers most at risk.

6 I also see in those numbers that a large percentage of 7 the inspections result in no findings, which suggests that,
8 in those cases, they're -- the dealer is compliant. So I 9 think a whole review of what's going on to make sure that 10 the limited resources that A.T.F. -- is used efficiently to 11 further this mission is absolutely critical, and thank you 12 for bringing up this important point

13 Senator Feinstein. Well, thank you. And I will do 14 everything within my power to see that you have the staff 15 to do this if you really show that you're going to do it 16 because I am increasingly concerned, as the numbers of mass 17 shootings go up, people dying, and that is happening on our 18 streets right now. Gun sales are spiking across the 19 nation. And A.T.F.'s record has decreased from -- as I 20 understand it, down to 15 percent of licensed dealers being 21 inspected in a year. Is that a correct figure? It was in 22 The New York Times, 5/2/21.

23 Mr. Chipman. Senator, thank you for that question.
24 It is my understanding that A.T.F. has not yet been able to 25 meet a self-imposed goal of inspecting dealers every three

1 years. It's something that A.T.F. is mandated to do with 2 explosives dealers. So I think it's a good goal. Again, 3 if I'm confirmed, I will get to the bottom of this 4 situation, and I thank you for your dedication in doing
5 what you can to provide A.T.F. the resources to get this 6 important mission done.

7 Senator Feinstein. Well, I hope you do that. I'm 8 going to hold you to it. And if you don't, you're going to 9 hear from me. So thank you very much.

10 Mr. Chipman. Yes, Senator.

11 Senator Feinstein. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

12 Chairman Durbin. Thank you Senator Feinstein.

13 Senator Lee.

14 Senator Lee. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Like Senator
15 Cornyn, I'd like to make a brief statement not counting 16 against my time at the outset. I just want to express 17 agreement with what Senator Cornyn said, and while I'm 18 certainly sympathetic to the need to get through nominees, 19 it is different than establishing that we need to have all 20 five of these nominees in a single panel in a single 21 hearing. If we need to have more hearings, fine. If we 22 need to have more panels of the same hearing, that's fine 23 too. This is a difficult spot. To cover this many 24 nominees of this much significant in one hearing can be 25 tough. Thank you for letting me address that.

1 Mr. Chipman, I'd like to start with you. I believe 2 Senator Cornyn referred briefly to a statement that I 3 independently found concerning, a statement that you had 4 posted on Reddit back in 2019, when you said, quote, "While 5 at A.T.F., I conducted studies involving people who fail d 6 background checks to determine how many later committed 7 crimes with a gun. Many did. This is a perfect 8 opportunity to arrest people before committ ng crimes 9 rather than responding after the fact," close quote.

10 I find this statement very troubling, especially 11 troubling for someone who's been nominated to serve as the 12 A.T.F. director, because, even setting aside for a minute
13 the Second Amendment, even before you get to the Second 14 Amendment, this violates our most fundamental rules of due 15 process, talking about a desire to arrest people before 16 committing crimes rather than after the fact. It's not how 17 our criminal justice system works. And if that's how you 18 view people, that is concerning to me.

19 Now, this is compounded by other comments you've made 20 that, to me, reflect a certain degree of disdain toward gun 21 owners and, in particular, new gun owners.

22 On April 3rd of 2020, just over a year ago, you gave 23 an interview with Cheddar News, and you were talking about 24 increases in gun sales, especially first-time gun owners 25 who had decided to purchase a gun for the first time during

1 the pandemic. In the interview, you openly mocked first-2 time gun owners, saying that they were, quote, "more like 3 Tiger King," and then advising them in quite a mockery to 4 hide their gun, quote, "behind the cans of tuna and beef 5 jerky they have stored in a cabinet and only bring that out 6 if the zombies start to appear," close quote.

7 When I first saw this, I watched the clip and I read 8 the clip several times, hoping that I was missing context, 9 hoping that there was something else there that would make 10 this less troubling. It concerns me that you, as the 11 nominee to be the director of the A.T.F. would have such a 12 flippant and, if I may say so, utterly condescending 13 attitude toward first-time gun owners in this country. And 14 I say this as a former federal prosecutor, one who worked 15 with A.T.F. agents and agents from many other agencies.
16 This is a troubling flippant attitude for somebody who's 17 going to head this agency.

18 Now, you may find it interesting to learn that a 19 survey of federal firearms licensees conducted by the 20 National Shooting Sports Foundation shows that retailers 21 supported the highest average percent increase in sales to 22 Black Americans during the first half of 2020, with large 23 increases also to women and to Hispanic Americans and Asian 24 Americans as well. So why would you choose to insult so 25 many of your fellow Americans with a statement like this

1 based on the fact that they've purchased a gun?

2 Mr. Chipman. Senator, thank you for allowing me the 3 opportunity to address both of these comments that I 4 believe were misunderstood and taken out of context. I'll 5 start with the first.

6 When I was talking about the prosecution of people who 7 had lied and tried to buy a gun, clearly those people who 8 lie and try have committed a serious federal felony. And 9 what I suggested is, if we did research, we could determine 10 which of those people were most likely to later commit some 11 violent crime. And I do believe it would be A.T.F.'s 12 mission, that of prosecutors to prosecute those people who 13 committed a serious federal felony before, you know, 14 striking again and killing someone. With respect to the 15 other quote, I'll just say briefly --

16 Senator Lee. So are you saying that what you, in 17 fact, meant was before committing other crimes and after 18 committing a predicate crime? Is that what you're telling 19 me that you meant when you said, "This is a perfect 20 opportunity to arrest people before committing crimes 21 rather than responding after the fact"? Is that what you 22 meant?

23 Mr. Chipman. Senator, thank you for the question, and 24 thank you for the opportunity to clarify. What I said was 25 that I think that, in certain circumstances, it is

1 absolutely the mission of A.T.F. to arrest people for lying 2 on a federal firearms form, a five-year felony --

3 Senator Lee. Right, because that's a crime. That is 4 a crime.

5 Mr. Chipman. And it's the one I was speaking about in 6 the quote that you were saying, sir.

7 Senator Lee. Okay. But you said before committing 8 crimes.

9 Mr. Chipman. Before committing an additional violent 10 crime, which is something I was seeing at A.T.F., that 11 people would lie and try and then go through other means, 12 acquire a gun, and hurt someone

13 Senator Lee. Okay. So that statement was sort of in 14 invisible brackets? Is that what you mean? Or is that 15 just what you're saying that you meant?

16 Mr. Chipman. At the time, I did my best to 17 communicate and clearly, as exemplified here, I fell short. I 18 will try to do better.

19 Senator Lee. Okay. How about the other statement?

20 Mr. Chipman. With regards to the comments that I made 21 on Cheddar, that was a lengthy interview. What I was 22 trying to use is self-depreciating humor. The person who 23 had a gun stored behind his tuna and beef jerky was me.
24 And I was saying that all of us were acting in new ways as 25 a response to COVID, and I thought that people should be

1 very clear that when they bring a gun in their home, they 2 need to be properly trained.

3 So again, we have oftentimes the ability to talk to 4 the media. Sometimes that's taken out of context, and I'm 5 sorry for any confusion I made when I was trying to point 6 out the fact that sometimes bringing a gun into your home, 7 if you're untrained, is a particularly dangerous thing to 8 do.

9 Senator Lee. Yeah, it does concern me that these 10 statements that you say are taken out of context or 11 misunderstood are not themselves out of context. When you 12 view them in context against other statements you've made, 13 statements -- including statements that you made while you 14 were representing, as a lobbyist, Americans for a 15 Responsible Solution.

16 You were talking about silencers, about sound 17 suppressors used on firearms. You said, "You know what 18 protects your hearing better than a silencer? Earplugs." 19 And you went on to say that making it easier for people to 20 purchase silencers would make it easier for active shooters 21 to inflict serious harm on our communities without being 22 protected by trained law enforcement professionals. Now, 23 The Washington Post, hardly a bastion of conservative, 24 right-wing-nutcase journalism, gave that three Pinocchios.

25 You were even more acerbic. You were even more

1 aggressive and, I believe, even more reckless, when you
2 gave a similar comment to The Salt Lake Tribune, my 3 hometown paper, in response to legislation I had filed 4 dealing with sound suppressors for firearms, recognizing 5 that there are legitimate medical reasons why someone might 6 want to protect their hearing using a combination of 7 earplugs and sound suppressors.

8 You said, quote, "The only people that benefit from 9 this bill are gun lobbyists and criminals who want easier
10 access to deadly weapons. That's why this irresponsible 11 legislation couldn't get passed when Republicans had 12 complete control of the Congress. Instead of making it 13 easier for firearms that could be used in ambushes and 14 other attacks to enter our streets, Congress should focus 15 on making the job of police officers who are trained to 16 serve and protect the communities and their families 17 safer."

18 You're saying that the only people who could benefit 19 from them are gun lobbyists and criminals who want to kill 20 people. Is that statement also taken out of context? If 21 so, what was the additional context? And how does this 22 reflect the careful, measured judgment of one who would be 23 in charge of enforcing our nation's gun laws?

24 Mr. Chipman. Senator, thank you for the question 25 about silencers, which have been regulated under the

1 National Firearms Act since the 1930s. The effort to take 2 the silencer out of that regulatory regime that has 3 prevented silencers by more frequently being used in 4 criminals, as an advocate, I thought that that was the 5 wrong approach.

6 Senator Lee. Yes, you made that quite clear. But 7 that's not what I'm complaining about. What I'm 8 complaining about is that you said the only people who 9 could support this are gun lobbyists and people who want to 10 engage in illegal shootings, people who want to engage in 11 mass shootings, or something like that. Do you stand by 12 that statement?

13 Mr. Chipman. Senator I was trying to contrast the 14 fact that silencers are legal. You purchase them --

15 Senator Lee. No. No.

16 Mr. Chipman. -- through the National Firearms Act.
17 The people who want them unregulated are those that want to 18 have easier access.

19 Senator Lee. Look, you're not going to spit downwind
20 and then tell us it's just raining. I mean, I'm sorry.
21 There is no reasonable reading of this statement that could 22 be interpreted this way. "The only people that benefit 23 from this bill are gun lobbyists and criminals who want 24 easier access to deadly weapons." Is it not also true that 25 some people might want to protect their hearing while

1 shooting?

2 Mr. Chipman. Senator, as I said before, it's my 3 belief that those who want to buy silencers to protect 4 their hearing, there's a method to do that. There are many 5 companies that sell National Firearms Act weapons, and 6 there's a process to do that. What I was addressing was 7 making it easier for criminals to use silencers, a threat 8 that our nation has really avoided because of a strong law 9 passed in 1930.

10 Senator Lee. Yeah. All right. Look, I get it. My 11 time has expired. That's not what you said. That's not 12 what you said at all, nor is that the impact that this bill
13 would have. The fact is that most people don't get sound 14 suppressors because of the regulatory and expensive, 15 time-consuming, burdensome process that is imposed by this 16 law. And I think this is very concerning for someone who's 17 had a series of inflammatory statements, very concerning 18 that we're considering confirming you to be our lead law
19 enforcement officer for our gun laws. Thank you, Mr.
20 Chairman.

21 Chairman Durbin. Senator Whitehouse.

22 Senator Whitehouse. Thank you, Chairman. Mr. Polite, 23 I assume you'll agree that it's wrong to pursue a criminal 24 case for political purposes.

25 Mr. Polite. Certainly, Senator. That is correct.

1 Senator Whitehouse. Is it also wrong to duck a case
2 for political purposes?

3 Mr. Polite. Senator, considerations related to 4 politics should play no role in enforcement or 5 prosecutorial decision-making.

6 Senator Whitehouse. So there's room for misuse on 7 both sides. It would be wrong to pursue a case for 8 political reasons, and it would be wrong to duck a proper 9 case for political reasons also, correct?

10 Mr. Polite. That's correct, Senator.

11 Senator Whitehouse. Did you read Judge Gleeson's
12 brief in the Flynn case?

13 Mr. Polite. I am familiar with the brief, Senator.

14 Senator Whitehouse. Would you read it before I vote 15 for you?

16 Mr. Polite. Certainly, Senator.

17 Senator Whitehouse. Great. Thank you. Ms. Milgram, 18 in Rhode Island, we have integrated peer recovery
19 specialists into law enforcement. Sometimes they ride 20 along. Sometimes they follow up. It has been an 21 enormously successful program that many of our police 22 departments have not only come to participate in but come 23 to love.

24 Whoever is handling the mic, could they please deal
25 with that? Like, turn down my volume. May I hold the time

1 while we fix this? How are we feeling? Well, it's just -- 2 let me try again. Can you hear me? I think my mic is off 3 now. All right. Hello? Off. You get a pause while we 4 sort out the microphones. Okay. Am I back yet? No.

5 Speaker Unknown. Can you all hear that?

6 Chairman Durbin. This microphone is not working.

7 Senator Whitehouse. Are we back?

8 Chairman Durbin. No.

9 Senator Whitehouse. Are we back? All right. Well, 10 what I'm told is that we are audible online but maybe not 11 through the speakers in the room. So I will just try to 12 speak loudly enough that we can hear each other across the 13 gap.

14 So I mentioned this integration of peer recovery
15 specialists into law enforcement. As D.E.A. administrator, 16 how would you respond to that kind of initiative?

17 Ms. Milgram. So, Senator, I really appreciate the 18 question and the work that you're doing in your state.
19 When I did work around reducing violence in the city of 20 Camden many years later, we went back to look at the 21 overlap of health and crime in the city. We did a study, 22 and we found that 67 percent of the individuals who were 23 frequent users of the healthcare system were also frequent 24 users of the criminal justice system. And underlying that 25 is substance abuse, mental health, and homelessness.

1 So I very much agree with you that we have separated, 2 in many ways, law enforcement from public health, but that,
3 if we want to have the safest communities we can, we need 4 to be thoughtful about addressing many of these things that 5 can be --

6 Senator Whitehouse. So while D.E.A. is an enforcement 7 agency, you would support the integration of peer recovery
8 and addiction workers into law enforcement' work?

9 Ms. Milgram. Senator, I've spent the better part of 10 the past three years at N.Y.U. working with law 11 enforcement, with the Indianapolis Police Department, and 12 with McLean County, Illinois to build a screening tool for 13 law enforcement to be able to identify individuals 14 suffering from substance abuse and mental health. And so, 15 if I'm confirmed, I would very much look forward to working 16 with you and others to address the overlap of health and 17 crime, and I would look forward to that opportunity.

18 Senator Whitehouse. Yeah. Senator Cornyn and I are 19 working on legislation to expand what's happening with 20 respect to peer recovery, recovery integration, into a 21 larger behavioral health and crisis intervention 22 integration with law enforcement. Would you support those 23 initiatives as well?

24 Ms. Milgram. Senator, I would very much look forward 25 to working with you and Senator Cornyn on these. The 1 question in my mind, just to put it very basically, is how 2 do we make our communities safer and healthier. And to me, 3 anything that can get us there are things that -- sorry -- 4 are things that we should be pursuing. I didn't mean to 5 scream. I apologize.

6 Senator Whitehouse. No, I think they just turned the 7 speakers back on. That's why that happened. Would you 8 also comment on how important it is for D.E A. to look at 9 the money side of the international narcotics trafficking 10 industry as opposed to just the drug supply side?

11 Ms. Milgram. Yes, Senator There is no question that 12 one of the core missions of D.E A. is to dismantle the most 13 significant individuals and organizations that are engaged 14 in narcotics trafficking, and a significant aspect of that 15 is following the money, looking at whether it's money 16 laundering or other financial transactions that are 17 happening, not just in the United States but also around 18 the world. I'm grateful for the leadership you've had on 19 this issue, and I would also look forward to working on 20 that with you and other members of the committee.

21 Senator Whitehouse. Good. Thank you. As the chair
22 of the International Narcotics Trafficking Caucus, I want 23 to focus in this area, and we look forward to working with 24 you.

25 Finally, Mr. Chipman, can you think of any position

1 that you have taken regarding firearms that you would 2 pursue at A.T.F. that is out of step with majority views of 3 the American public?

4 Mr. Chipman. Senator, thank you for that question,
5 and the answer is no.

6 Senator Whitehouse. And let me just take a second if 7 I close out. I think I actually got a little extra time as 8 we switched the clock because of the microphone, so I'll 9 end. But I do want to express my appreciation to Chairman 10 Leahy for his work on gun tracing. As a U.S. attorney and 11 as my state's attorney general, we really tried to focus on 12 getting information to investigators as quickly as possible
13 from crime scenes and to be able to trace back where guns
14 and ballistics, shells, for instance, came from so that you 15 could, in real time, be working on preventing further 16 crimes.

17 And we are long overdue getting that problem fixed.
18 And I just wanted to express my appreciation to Senator 19 Leahy for his work on this, and he is well supported in the 20 caucus trying to make sure that we get this done. So thank 21 you. Look forward to working with you on this ballistics 22 and gun tracing side.

23 Mr. Chipman. Thank you, Senator.

24 Chairman Durbin. Thank you, Senator Whitehouse.

25 Senator Cruz.

1 Senator Cruz. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Mr. Chipman, 2 a minute ago, Senator Whitehouse asked you if any of your 3 views on guns are out of step with the majority of the 4 American people. The AR-15 is one of, if not the most 5 popular rifle in America. It's not a machine gun. It's a 6 rifle. Your public position is that you want to ban AR-7 15s. Is that correct?

8 Mr. Chipman. Senator, thank you for the question, and 9 thank you for our visit yesterday and offering me a Dr.
10 Pepper. It made me reminisce about my time in central 11 Texas. But now, to your question, with respect to the AR-
12 15, I support a ban, as has been presented in a Senate bill 13 and supported by the president. The AR-15 is a gun I was 14 issued on A.T.F.'s S.W.A.T. team, and it's a particularly 15 lethal weapon, and regulating it as other particularly 16 lethal weapons I have advocated for. As A.T.F. director, 17 if I'm confirmed, I would simply enforce the laws on the 18 books, and right now, there is no such ban on those guns.

19 Senator Cruz. So you want to ban the most popular 20 rifle in America. A minute ago -- and you noted there is a 21 Senate bill. Senator Feinstein had a bill to ban some 22 2,000 specified rifles and other firearms in her bill. In 23 2013, the Democrats had a majority in the Senate. It was 24 the Harry Reid Senate. And we voted on the Senate floor on 25 Senator Feinstein's so-called assault weapon ban. Do you

1 know how many Senators voted for it?

2 Mr. Chipman. No, I do not.

3 Senator Cruz. 40. 60 voted against it. So in a 4 Democratic Senate, a supermajority voted against a ban.
5 Now, part of the reason they voted against the ban, as 6 you're aware, is during the Clinton administration there 7 was a ban in effect. The Department of Justice studied the 8 effect of that law and discovered that it had no measurable 9 impact on violent crime. Is that right?

10 Mr. Chipman. Senator, I did enforce this law for ten 11 years as an A.T.F. agent. I'm unfamiliar with the study 12 that you are pointing out, and I apologize for that.

13 Senator Cruz. Well, when you and I met in my office
14 last night and discussed it, I asked if there were any data 15 to suggest that the ban was effective, and what you said in 16 the office is you were not aware of any data, that the data 17 was -- I think mixed is the term you used.

18 Mr. Chipman. Yes, Senator. What I said to you 19 yesterday, you've accurately stated it. I think it was 20 mixed, which, you know -- I stand by that remark. And I 21 think my recollection is that evidence was shown that the 22 limitation on magazine size had an impact. I also believe 23 that later studies showed that the use of assault weapons
24 in mass shootings had declined during that period, but, you 25 know, that's how I would like to characterize my views on

1 that.

2 Senator Cruz. So you also said, when you and I talked 3 yesterday in the office, that Senator Feinstein's bill, 4 which a supermajority of senators voted against in a 5 Democratic Senate, you said that bill didn't go far enough, 6 and you wanted an even broader ban to ban -- you said it
7 didn't go far enough. Is that right?

8 Mr. Chipman. Senator, thanks for that question and 9 the ability to clarify. What I did say is that Senator 10 Feinstein's bill did not address those firearms that are 11 currently in the possession of Americans, and then I did 12 share with you my view as an advocate, which would be quite 13 different than someone actually enforcing the law on the 14 books, that those firearms could be treated under the 15 N.F.A. and regulated that way, which would deal with those 16 currently in the possession of Americans.

17 Senator Cruz. So when you say it didn't go far 18 enough, you mean that you don't just want to ban the 19 manufacture of those rifles, you don't just want to make it 20 illegal to sell those rifles, but you want to actively have 21 government go after the people who currently possess 22 firearms, and if they don't register and submit to all of 23 the onerous restrictions of the National Firearms Act, 24 presumably confiscate their weapons?

25 Mr. Chipman. Senator, what I've said publicly is

1 that, as an advocate, I prefer a system where the AR-15 and 2 other assault weapons are regulated under the National 3 Firearms Act.

4 Senator Cruz. Let me shift to Ms. Jaddou. You and I
5 also had a conversation this week. Do you consider so-6 called birth tourism to be a problem?

7 Ms. Jaddou. Thank you, Senator. Thank you, and thank 8 you for taking the time to meet with me yesterday. I 9 really appreciated that. Yeah, we did have a quite 10 fruitful discussion on that issue. And I believe we ended 11 with the thought that we need to collect some information
12 and the data is not there. I also noted that, as a mother 13 and as someone who's been through quite a difficult 14 delivery, the incredible interest in protecting the health 15 of a mother, the health of a new baby, and ensuring that we 16 can do the best we can so that women and their babies are 17 protected.

18 Senator Cruz. Ms. Jaddou, with all respect, I don't 19 find that answer remotely credible. And you said in my 20 office you didn't consider birth tourism, an eight-month-21 pregnant or nine-month-pregnant woman getting a tourist 22 visa to come to America to have a child on American soil so 23 that child is an American citizen, that you didn't consider 24 it an abuse of our laws. It's an obvious and transparent 25 abuse of the laws.

1 I will point out last December federal prosecutors 2 indicted six people running a birth tourism operation in 3 Long Island where Turkish women would pay between 7,500 and 4 10,000 dollars to travel to New York on tourist visas to 5 give birth and return to Turkey with American-citizen 6 babies. And in 2019, The New York Times referred to the 7 birth tourism industry as, quote, "thriving." Is it your 8 position that this doesn't occur, that The New York Times 9 was wrong, that there's not a blatant abuse of our 10 immigration system?

11 Ms. Jaddou. To the extent that anybody is committing 12 fraud or assisting in anybody committing fraud or 13 misrepresentation, that has -- not only makes someone 14 inadmissible to the United States, but also there are 15 criminal penalties. And I understand -- I'm not familiar 16 with the case you just mentioned, but I'm familiar with 17 other ones that a sister agency inside the Department of 18 Homeland Security in the past, Immigration and Customs 19 Enforcement, has addressed.

20 Senator Cruz. Thank you.

21 Chairman Durbin. Senator Klobuchar?

22 Senator Klobuchar. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman.
23 Congratulations to all the nominees. I think I'll start 24 with you, Mr. Polite, down there. You were appointed by a 25 Republican Louisiana governor to serve on the Louisiana

1 Civil Service Commission and currently have the support of 2 Louisiana's Republican attorney general, who praised you 3 for being not only an effective crime fighter but also an 4 invaluable member of the community.

5 In your view, have you earned that support? And how 6 do you work together? I always think of prosecutors, when 7 I had my old job, as ministers of justice, that you have 8 to, of course, focus on community safety and convicting the 9 guilty but also protecting the innocent, which, to me, also 10 involves things like conviction integrity units, drug 11 courts, and the like. So if you want to briefly respond.

12 Mr. Polite. Senator, thank you so much for that 13 question, and my view is very similar to what you 14 articulated, Senator, that my role as a U.S. attorney, 15 while certainly focused on issues of enforcement, was much 16 broader than that. It was to be a community problem 17 solver, and so to utilize all of the tools at our disposal, 18 not just enforcement but tools such as prevention and 19 intervention and even reentry, particularly in a state like 20 Louisiana, where incarceration rates were so high. All of 21 those tools were critical to our work, and it required 22 outreach to many different components within our 23 communities, across state, local, and federal law 24 enforcement, but also outside of government to actually 25 achieve those goals.

1 Senator Klobuchar. Very good. Thank you. Mr.
2 Chipman, it's not lost on me that, as we're having this 3 discussion with you, or several members are, about guns, 4 that there is another mass shooting with fatalities near 5 San Jose.

6 We have worked hard. There are Republicans, like 7 Senator Toomey, that have worked on the background check 8 issue and tried to get that done. We know the vast 9 majority of Americans support rational gun violence 10 legislation, and a piece of this is for many years, I've 11 led the legislation to close a dangerous loophole in the 12 law that allows domestic abusers to buy a gun simply 13 because they're not married to their victims. This bill 14 actually was included in the Violence Against Women Act
15 over in the House and got a number of Republicans voting 16 for it, and it's something that I think we can advance.

17 Could you comment about that? Do you agree that we 18 should keep guns out of the hands of all convicted domestic 19 abusers?

20 Mr. Chipman. Thank you, Senator, for this question, 21 and thank you for your dedication to domestic violence,
22 which remains the most dangerous call police will ever 23 respond to. As an A.T.F. agent in central Texas, one of 24 the most significant cases I worked was a pipe bomb sent by 25 an estranged boyfriend to a woman who worked at a probation

1 and parole office. So domestic violence is something that 2 A.T.F. agents regularly deal with on the job, and there's 3 no greater threat than those offenders who have access to a 4 gun. So it would be one of the top priorities I had if I
5 am confirmed as A.T.F. director.

6 Senator Klobuchar. Very good. Thank you very much.
7 Ms. Milgram, I enjoyed our discussion, and we talked about 8 opioids, something that I've been working on for quite a 9 while with a number of Republicans on this committee as 10 well as Democrats. What do you see D.E.A.'s role -- we 11 talked about the documents from a recent trial showing drug 12 manufacturers mocking what they called "hillbillies" in 13 West Virginia. I do suggest -- I know there's shared 14 belief on this issue, but this mocking of the Beverly 15 Hillbillies song, where drug executives were -- actually 16 put in words mocking the people they got hooked on the 17 drugs, was an outrageous thing I'd never seen until last 18 week, and it just shows how heartless this addiction was 19 where people were profiting off of people's own addictions, 20 many times resulting in death.

21 Could you quickly address what the D.E.A. -- you see 22 as the priorities?

23 Ms. Milgram. Senator, I share your concern on this 24 issue. America is in the midst of an opioid crisis, and 25 fentanyl, which has now come to our cities and streets, is

1 really fueling this addiction opioid crisis today. But I 2 share your concern that there are two pieces of this.

3 First, it's the pharmaceutical companies and the 4 manufacturers and others that have essentially put us in a 5 situation today where we must regulate opioids and the 6 prescription drugs that people are being given. So there's 7 a huge function in the D.E.A.'s diversion work that is a 8 part of that, and it will be a priority for me.

9 The other piece is really stopping the illicit 10 fentanyl from coming into our country, where individuals 11 who -- most of whom first become hooked through 12 prescription drugs, are then turning to heroin, to illicit 13 fentanyl, and to other substances. And we're seeing just 14 way too many overdose deaths in our country.

15 Senator Klobuchar. Okay. Thank you. Last, Ms.
16 Jaddou, I really enjoyed our conversation as well. It -- 17 we talked about the fact that, for so many of us in our 18 states where we have needs for immigrant workers, permanent 19 workers, temporary workers, and the like, this is becoming 20 a near crisis, especially in northern Minnesota in our 21 tourism industry, in some of our farmlands, and others. We 22 also rely on all levels of education from immigrants that 23 are part of our economy.

24 And one of those is in medical. And yesterday, 25 Senator Collins, Rosen, Ernst, and I led -- introduced a

1 bipartisan bill that I've long been leading. I took it
2 over from Senator Conrad when he left. The Conrad State 30
3 and Physician Access Act, which increases the number of 4 international doctors trained in the U.S. to remain in the 5 country if they practice in rural or underserved areas. I
6 remind people that more than 25 percent of our U.S. Nobel 7 laureates were born abroad, and 70 of America's Fortune 500
8 companies were started by people born in other countries.

9 How can U.S.C.I.S. help to ensure we are attracting 10 talent to come to our country at all levels and work with 11 us on this really crisis of not having enough doctors in 12 underserved areas, one of the reasons you see Senator 13 Collins and Senator Ernst join me on this bill?

14 Ms. Jaddou. Thank you, Senator. I really appreciated
15 the time talking with you yesterday, and when we talked 16 about this issue, as you know, I worked on it when I was a 17 Hill staffer back in the day on the House side, and I
18 completely appreciate and understand this issue. And a 19 family member, my father-in-law, came through a program, a 20 little different but somewhat similar to ASSIST, in the 21 U.S. Navy. So I can personally appreciate the program.

22 Professionally, from U.S.C.I.S., what we can do is to 23 ensure that the processing of the applications surrounding 24 that is not something that is slowing down the process, 25 that we are doing it efficiently and in an accessible

1 manner, and of course, to ensure the integrity and security 2 of the system.

3 Senator Klobuchar. Excellent. Thank you all for -- 4 Ms. Jaddou. Thank you.

5 Senator Klobuchar. -- your pointed and brief answers
6 so I could get all my questions in. I appreciate it.

7 Chairman Durbin. And the patience of your chairman.

8 Senator Klobuchar. The patience of our chairman, yes.

9 Chairman Durbin. Senator Hawley.

10 Senator Hawley. Thank you, Mr. Chairman, and thanks 11 to all of the witnesses for being here.

12 Mr. Chipman, if I could just start with you. Since 13 leaving the A.T.F., you've served as a policy advisor or 14 provided support for, I think, just about every national 15 gun control group in the country, or close to it: the Brady
16 Campaign to Prevent Gun Violence, the Coalition to Stop Gun
17 Violence, Mayors Against Illegal Guns, and most recently 18 the Giffords group.

19 My question is, given your policy bias -- I mean, you
20 clearly have a very distinct policy point of view. You 21 alluded to this with Senator Cruz a moment ago. How can 22 America's hundreds of millions of law-abiding gun owners 23 have confidence that you won't try to restrict their Second 24 Amendment rights if you're confirmed as A.T.F. director? I 25 mean, what assurances can you give them that you will limit

1 your efforts to criminals who misuse weapons and leave law-
2 abiding firearms owners to themselves?

3 Mr. Chipman. Senator, thank you for this question
4 because it's really important. As I've said, for 25 years,
5 I enforced the law on the books. Every day, me and other 6 federal agents tried to catch the bad guys. I mean, that's 7 what the mission was. It was trying to keep the public 8 safe.

9 During those 25 years, I saw gaps in the law that 10 really prevented us from doing the job I knew the American 11 public wanted us to do. Look at that 25 years. I was not 12 going wayward with law-abiding gun owners. I never 13 received complaint of that sort. And I'm prepared to 14 return to that job. But my passion after leaving A.T.F.
15 was to make A.T.F. and o r enforcement of gun laws more 16 effective to keep us all safe. And I understand, if I'm 17 confirmed, I will have to earn the confidence and your 18 respect and trust to keep doing that.

19 Senator Hawley. Let me ask you about some of your 20 work for the Giffords group. In the landmark U.S. Supreme 21 Court case District of Columbia versus Heller, which 22 happened -- was handed down when I was actually working at 23 the U.S. Supreme Court, the Giffords Law Center that year, 24 if memory serves, authored an amicus brief arguing that 25 there is no individual right to own a firearm under the

1 Second Amendment. The Supreme Court, famously, found 2 otherwise.

3 Do you share your employers believe that the Second 4 Amendment does not protect an individual right to keep and 5 bear firearms?

6 Mr. Chipman. Thank you for your question, Senator. I
7 do not. I'm a gun owner. I respect that the Supreme Court 8 has recognized this right, and if A.T.F. director, I will 9 ensure to uphold that right.

10 Senator Hawley. Very good. So you think Heller was 11 rightly decided, just to be clear about this?

12 Mr. Chipman. Senator, I'm a cop, not a lawyer. What 13 I know is the law is the law, and the Supreme Court plays a 14 role in recognizing what those rights are. You know, as an 15 agent, I felt like we were going down a highway. Our 16 mission was to prevent crime, and the Constitution were 17 those guardrails to keep us in line. And at times, when 18 the road was uncertain, we had signposts, and those were 19 attorneys who we asked advice and counsel.

20 And so, if confirmed as A.T.F. director, that's the 21 balance that I would strike. But the bottom line is our 22 job is to prevent crimes from -- apparently, that is 23 ongoing right now, that other members have suggested, and 24 that would be my sole duty.

25 Senator Hawley. Well, I just want to be clear on this

1 because you said that you do think that the Constitution
2 supports -- protects the individual right to keep and bear
3 arms. That was the holding of Heller. You've been a
4 policy advocate now for quite a number of years, and I
5 think that your views, and you've discussed some of them 6 today, are fair game. So I just want to be clear on this.
7 You think Heller was rightly decided, is that correct?

8 Mr. Chipman. Yes, sir.

9 Senator Hawley. Okay, great. Thank you. That's 10 helpful. Let me ask you about something you said in 2012.
11 In an interview -- I think it was on MSNBC -- you said that 12 the Secret Service should not carry guns. You said their 13 whole role is to cover and evacuate, and you went on to say 14 possibly we need to think of strategies like that in 15 schools. Is that still your view?

16 Mr. Chipman. Senator, I trust that you have -- and 17 your staff have actually picked something I've said. I do 18 not believe I ever said that. I might have said this, 19 which is I was trained to work with the Secret Service.
20 And I have observed that part of that training is that you 21 have to get your body in between you and the person you're 22 protecting, and you often don't have the opportunity to 23 even draw your gun. That is something that I would say. I 24 have never advocated that the Secret Service should not 25 carry guns, ever.

1 Senator Hawley. Did you mean to suggest then that 2 schools should have unarmed guards, that they shouldn't be 3 able to protect students with firearms? I mean, I'm trying 4 to understand the import of your comments.

5 Mr. Chipman. Senator, thank for the question about 6 schools. I mean, this is something that we've all debated 7 and tried to figure out a solution to the mass violence
8 we've seen in schools. We know how to keep buildings safe.
9 I came in one today. I do not believe that the best 10 approach is to arm people to win gunfights in schools.

11 Senator Hawley. So you're opposed, then, to having 12 armed guards in schools? You think that they shouldn't be 13 armed?

14 Mr. Chipman. As an advocate and as a firearms expert, 15 I've rendered my opinion that I believe that there are 16 better ways to secure schools. If I'm confirmed as A.T.F.
17 director, largely, this is not going to be the focus of 18 A.T.F. Our focus would be to prevent people who would do 19 harm at schools from ever getting guns in the first place.
20 So hopefully that addresses the question as you've asked.

21 Senator Hawley. Wouldn't that just leave the guards 22 who are there, the law enforcement who are there, to act as 23 human shields? I mean, is that essentially your view?

24 Mr. Chipman. Senator, no, it's not. And I'm sorry if 25 I'm not explaining this correctly. We came into a building

1 today secured so that guns would not be brought in. I'm 2 more a believer of hardening targets so that guns could 3 never enter a school, so that armed people inside would not 4 be faced with other armed people. So, you know, metal 5 detectors is something used in some schools, and I've 6 suggested that that's a possible, you know, view that 7 states and localities will have to make for themselves.

8 Senator Hawley. I do have some additional questions 9 for you which I'm happy to give to you for the record, as 10 well as we'll give to you for the record your comments on 11 that 2012 interview that I referred to and give you a 12 chance to follow up more fully on that. Thank you, Mr.
13 Chairman.

14 [The information appears in the appendix:]

15 / COMMITTEE INSERT

16 Chairman Durbin. Thank you, Senator Hawley. Senator
17 Cotton. I'm sorry. Senator Blumenthal, then Senator 18 Cotton.

19 Senator Blumenthal. Thanks, Mr. Chairman. I want to 20 pursue the line of questioning, Mr. Chipman, that you just 21 finished with my colleague Senator Hawley because I think 22 you said something very telling, and it ought to be 23 compelling to this committee and to the United States 24 Senate. You said, "I'm a cop, not a lawyer." And as the 25 head of A.T.F., you'd be the top cop in that agency, which

1 has agents who enforce the law just like cops do. You
2 wouldn't be making law, would you? You'd be enforcing it.

3 Mr. Chipman. No, I'd be enforcing it, and I'd be 4 relying on attorneys, as I did through my entire career, if 5 that road became uncertain. That's just standard practice.

6 Senator Blumenthal. And in 25 years as an agent at 7 the A.T.F., you liked some of your targets, maybe 8 personally, and you didn't like others. You thought some 9 laws were really good and maybe didn't like others, but you 10 enforced them against people without fear or favor, 11 correct?

12 Mr. Chipman. In some ways, it's easy. You enforce 13 the law on the books. There's not -- and you want to do it 14 safely, and you want to keep yourself safe.

15 Senator Blumenthal. And the president of the United 16 States has issued a proposed regulation dealing with ghost 17 guns, that in effect would require that all firearms have 18 serial numbers. I strongly support it. I've introduced 19 legislation that would ban ghost guns, as they're called, 20 that lack serial numbers. In a hearing that I recently 21 held in my Subcommittee on The Constitution -- not mine; I 22 chair it -- the following fact was disclosed.

23 In -- between January 1, 2016, and March 4, 2021, 24 A.T.F. attempted to trace almost 23,946 ghost guns, but 25 only 151 traces could be completed. That's less than 1

1 percent. What happens in investigations when guns can't be 2 traced?

3 Mr. Chipman. Thank you for this question, Senator.
4 What happens is it makes the case very difficult to solve.
5 We can rely on other technologies to help, but certainly, 6 tracing the serial number of a product is critical. It's 7 how we solved the World Trade Center bombing and the 8 Oklahoma City bombing. So it's absolutely essential to law 9 enforcement to be able to trace a gun.

10 Senator Blumenthal. There's nothing ghostlike about 11 ghost guns. They look like guns. They shoot like guns.
12 They kill like guns. They are guns. And in my home state 13 of Connecticut, we've banned ghost guns. But the law of 14 one state really can't protect the citizens of that state 15 because guns can be brought from other states. And now 16 people can actually assemble these guns in their homes, 17 make them out of plastic on machines.

18 In your experience, is the serialization of firearms 19 the same as a gun registry? Because I know some of my 20 colleagues and some people are very fearful that the 21 serialization of guns, which is now a requirement on all 22 guns sold by licensed manufacturers, will be turned into 23 some kind of national registry. That isn't true, is it?

24 Mr. Chipman. No, Senator. It was clear as an A.T.F.
25 agent that such a registry is prohibited by law. The only

1 registry that exists is in the National Firearms Act. The 2 bottom line is is that serial number, even before ghost 3 guns, was something that criminals would try to remove, 4 especially firearms traffickers, and so this is a real 5 threat to firearms trafficking.

6 Senator Blumenthal. Thank you. Ms. Jaddou, you and I 7 had a wonderful conversation, and I want to just commend to 8 my colleagues your personal story. Your mo and dad, your 9 entire family is really a model of what citizenship should 10 mean in this country, the way you've contributed and your 11 entire family.

12 I want to focus on the use of parole powers, which you
13 and I discussed briefly. There are about 3.5 million 14 people in the family-based visa backlog and hundreds of 15 thousands more in the employment-based visa backlog. This 16 problem is now completely out of hand. It's a disgrace to 17 this country. And I know this administration didn't create 18 it, but I'm hoping that you will address it. I've spoken 19 to you previously about recapturing unused visas, which I 20 hope you will explore.

21 And to circumvent the visa backlog problems, Congress
22 specifically granted D.H.S. the authority to grant parole 23 on the basis of urgent humanitarian need or significant 24 public benefit, as you know. It seems reasonable that the 25 reunion of families who have an approved immigrant visa

1 petition but who are stuck, literally just stuck, waiting 2 for a visa to become available is an urgent humanitarian 3 need.

4 So I'm -- would like to ask you, would you consider 5 creating a parole program for children and spouses of those 6 with approved visa petitions? Such a step would have 7 enormously beneficial consequences to thousands of people.

8 Ms. Jaddou. Thank you, Senator, and I especially 9 appreciated the time talking with you. It was extremely 10 enjoyable getting to know you.

11 So with regard to your question, that is certainly 12 something I would like to take a look at if I'm confirmed.
13 I -- of course, it would require reviewing the parole
14 provision with regard to the individuals you're mentioning
15 and to determine whether the law allows for such facts.
16 And that would -- something I'd be happy to work with you 17 and your office on.

18 Senator Blumenthal. Thank you very much. Thank you, 19 Mr. Chairman.

20 Chairman Durbin. And now Senator Cotton.

21 Senator Cotton. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I want to 22 add my voice to the objections raised by Senator Cornyn and 23 Senator Lee about scheduling a panel with five witnesses, 24 one of which is a lifetime judicial appointment, the other 25 four of which are very important appointments to the 1 executive branch.

2 Chairman Durbin. Senator, would you allow me to 3 respond be -- and not at the expense of your time?

4 Senator Cotton. Please. Please.

5 Chairman Durbin. Senator, in the last Congress, on 6 the following occasions, we had one court nominee followed 7 by a second panel with five nominees, judicial and 8 executive nominees: October 4th, 2017; December 13th, 9 2017; May 9th, 2018; June 6th, 2018; August 22nd, 2018;
10 October 17th, 2018; May 22nd, 2019; December 4th, 2019.
11 These panels included lifetime appointees, and as you can 12 see, in eight different occasions under Republican 13 leadership, they had exactly the same format as today.

14 Senator Cotton. No time like the present to change 15 our ways. And as a new member of the committee, I'm 16 observing that I don't think that we should have four 17 important executive branch nominees in front of us at a 18 time. But thank you.

19 Mr. Chipman, you testified to Senator Lee that it's a 20 serious felony to lie on a background check application, 21 and I agree. The A.T.F. form 4473 asks, "Are you an 22 unlawful user of or addicted to any drug or uncontrolled 23 substance?" If an applicant checks yes, they cannot 24 purchase a firearm.

25 On March 25th, Politico reported that Hunter Biden,

1 President Biden's son, applied for a handgun that was later
2 thrown in the trash and had to be recovered by Secret
3 Service agents in 2018. Politico reported that Hunter 4 Biden completed this background check and answered no to 5 the question of whether he was an unlawful user of or 6 addicted to any drug.

7 Hunter Biden has since published a book and gone on a 8 nationwide book tour, conducting numerous interviews
9 stating that he was, in fact, very much addicted to drugs
10 at the same time that he purchased this firearm. This 11 would mean that, by his own admission, Hunter Biden lied on 12 that form, and, by your earlier testimony, committed a 13 serious felony. Should Hunter Biden be prosecuted for 14 breaking this law?

15 Mr. Chipman. Senator, thank you for your question.
16 If I'm confirmed as A.T.F. director, it will be my 17 responsibility to enforce all federal laws without 18 political favor. I do not know any factors in this 19 particular case, but I am familiar with the press account 20 of it.

21 Senator Cotton. Well, my understanding is the statute 22 of limitation is only five years and that this happened in 23 2018. Mr. Biden is obligated to keep a record of that form 24 for up to five years himself. So this should be a fairly 25 easy case to investigate. Can I get your commitment that,

1 if you are confirmed, you will, in fact, look into this 2 matter and refer it for prosecution if you find that Hunter
3 Biden violated the law?

4 Mr. Chipman. Senator, what I will assure you is that,
5 if A.T.F. director, I will ensure that all violations of 6 law are investigated and referred. I'm not sure that it 7 has not been investigated.

8 Senator Cotton. Well, I hope it has. And if the 9 facts are as clear-cut as they appear to be, based on Mr.
10 Biden's own admission, I would expect to see criminal 11 charges forthcoming. But I would say that when a case is 12 as high profile as this, if there is not an answer for the 13 American people and public it severely undermines the 14 confidence in our gun laws as well as the A.T.F. and the 15 Department of Justice if there are not criminal 16 consequences.

17 I want to turn to a second matter now, Mr. Chipman.
18 You have called for an assault weapons ban. I have a 19 simple question for you. What is an assault weapon?

20 Mr. Chipman. Senator, an assault weapon would be, in 21 the context of the question you asked, what Congress 22 defines it as.

23 Senator Cotton. So you're asking us to ban assault
24 weapons. We have to write legislation. Can you tell me, 25 what is an assault weapon? How would you define it if you

1 were the head of the A.T.F.? How have you defined it over 2 the last several years as your role as a gun control 3 advocate?

4 Mr. Chipman. Senator, if I'm confirmed as A.T.F.
5 director, you know, my recollection is the only process by 6 which A.T.F. is weighed in is that I know there is a Demand
7 Letter 3 program, which requires multiple reports -- 8 multiple sale reports on the southwestern border. And 9 A.T.F. in that program has defined an assault rifle as any 10 semiautomatic rifle capable of accepting a detachable
11 magazine above the caliber of .22, which would include a 12 .223, which is, you know, largely the AR-15 round.

13 Senator Cotton. So you believe that every weapon that 14 takes a detachable magazine that can take a .22 round or 15 5.56 in military parlance should be defined as an assault 16 weapon?

17 Mr. Chipman. Let me clarify. What I believe I just 18 said is any semiautomatic rifle with --

19 Senator Cotton. Okay, any semiautomatic rifle.

20 Mr. Chipman. What --

21 Senator Cotton. That's the -- a detachable magazine 22 that takes a 5.56 or .22 round should be defined as an 23 assault weapon?

24 Mr. Chipman. Senator, you asked me if A.T.F. had used 25 this term, and I was sharing with you my knowledge of a

1 program in which A.T.F. has defined this term. And it is 2 in the Demand Letter 3 program. And that rifle is a
3 semiautomatic rifle capable of accepting a detachable
4 magazine with a round greater than a .22 caliber. And in 5 those cases, firearms dealers on the southwest border are 6 required to make a multiple sale report to A.T.F.

7 Senator Cotton. I'm amazed that that might be the 8 definition of assault weapon. That would basically cover 9 every single modern sporting rifle in America today. Let 10 me put it this way. If I wanted to buy an assault weapon, 11 and I walked into Walmart or Cabela's or some other firearm 12 dealers, and I looked up on the wall where they were 13 labeling their weapons, would there be a label on the wall 14 for assault weapon?

15 Mr. Chipman. I don't believe, Senator -- and thank 16 you for this question -- that the firearms industry has 17 used the term assault rifle in their marketing since there 18 was a ban on it. It was after that that they changed their 19 use of the term assault rifle to the modern sporting rifle.

20 Senator Cotton. Well, so I've been in Walmarts, and 21 I've been in Cabela's, and I've seen that you can find 22 sections for pistols or handguns or for shotguns or for 23 rifles because those are actual kinds of firearms. I think 24 our exchange here illustrates that there really is no such 25 thing as an assault weapon. That is a term that was

1 manufactured by liberal lawyers and pollsters in Washington
2 to try scare the American people into believing that the 3 government should confiscate weapons that are wildly 4 popular for millions of Americans to defend themselves and 5 their families and their homes.

6 Chairman Durbin. Thank you, Senator. Senator Hirono.

7 Senator Hirono. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I'm going 8 to ask the panel to respond to my two initial questions en 9 masse. First question, since you became a legal adult, 10 have any of you ever made unwanted requests for sexual 11 favors or committed any verbal or physical harassment or 12 assault of a sexual nature? Everybody on the panel, 13 please.

14 Ms. Milgram. No, Senator.

15 Ms. Jaddou. No, Senator.

16 Mr. Chipman. No, Senator.

17 Ms. Strickland. No, Senator.

18 Mr. Polite. No, Senator.

19 Senator Hirono. Thank you. Have you ever faced 20 discipline or entered into a settlement related to this 21 kind of conduct?

22 Ms. Milgram. No, Senator.

23 Ms. Jaddou. No, Senator.

24 Mr. Chipman. No, Senator.

25 Ms. Strickland. No, Senator.

1 Mr. Polite. No, Senator.

2 Senator Hirono. This is a question for Ms. Milgram.
3 We all know that our country is in the throes of an opioid 4 crisis. I would like to point out that Hawaii continues to 5 be plagued by meth, and Honolulu actually just set a five - 6 year high for drug-related deaths, with 197 such deaths in 7 2020, and this was largely driven by meth overdoses.

8 I know that, you know, you are going to be very 9 focused on the opioid crisis, and I'm glad that you 10 mentioned that there is an overlap of health and behavioral 11 health aspects to this addiction, but I hope that you will 12 also allocate D.E.A. resources to ensure that issues like 13 the meth problem in Hawaii do not get short shrift as the 14 agency focuses on the opioid crisis.

15 Ms. Milgram. Senator, thank you for that question.
16 And I share your concern about methamphetamine. In the 17 United States, there are large quantities of 18 methamphetamine and other narcotics coming across borders, 19 being shipped by mail. And so this is a critical aspect,
20 and it's part of the core mission of the D.E.A. So you 21 have my assurance that, if I'm confirmed, that it will 22 continue to be part of that core mission.

23 Senator Hirono. Thank you. Ms. Jaddou, I'm glad that 24 we had a chance to talk briefly, and you mentioned in our 25 discussion, and you also said today that the heart of the 1 immigration system is the processing of applications. And 2 there is a huge backlog on the processing of various kinds

3 of applications where sometimes people have to wait months
4 and months for applications to be processed.

5 So I would like to have your commitment, as you did in 6 our discussion, that you -- this will be one of the first 7 areas that you will address because you do consider the 8 processing of applications to be at the heart of what 9 U.S.C.I.S. does.

10 Ms. Jaddou. Thank you so much, Senator, and I really 11 appreciate the time we had together. I absolutely -- you 12 absolutely have my commitment on that. It is my top 13 priority.

14 Senator Hirono. You have been with the U.S.C.I.S.
15 during the Obama administration, and why are you choosing 16 to return to an office that you have been before?

17 Ms. Jaddou. Thank you, Senator. I understand the 18 intrinsic value of a functioning legal immigration 19 processing agency, and that's what U.S.C.I.S. does. I have 20 been on the Hill. I have taken those phone calls from 21 constituents. I have seen it myself in my life. At 22 U.S.C.I.S., when I was chief counsel, I saw that the simple 23 act of opening an envelope with an application can create 24 backlogs if not done well, and I also understand that 25 partner agencies are really important to the process.

1 So I look forward to using the relationships and the 2 knowledge that I have already gained in my time working on 3 the Hill and at U.S.C.I.S. to now convert it into working 4 as the director of the agency.

5 Senator Hirono. Thank you. And, Mr. Chipman, just as 6 Ms. Jaddou, you are going back to an agency with which you 7 have a lot of experience. So how do you think the 8 experience -- your previous with A.T.F. will help you in 9 your role as director?

10 Mr. Chipman. Thank you for that question. It's a 11 great question. Much of that experience, I was an agent, 12 and I know what it takes to do that job, so I think I'll be 13 able to connect with the employees that I would lead. But 14 I also know how important it is for a leader to be 15 accountable, and that's what I want to be for the troops.

16 Senator Hirono. You've been asked a number of 17 questions about whether or not -- obviously, you have been 18 an advocate for sensible gun safety legislation, but I just 19 want to note for the record that, of course, you will be 20 enforcing the law, so you'll be following the law, 21 something that I wish some people in the previous 22 administration also did.

23 So when we look at the issue of gun violence -- and 24 even as we speak, there is a mass shooting apparently 25 happening in California -- that there are those among us

1 who think that the way to deal with the scourge of gun 2 violence in our country is to enable ever more guns in our 3 country. And, Mr. Chapman, while I -- Chipman, while I 4 don't expect you to weigh in on that point, it is very 5 clear, is it not, that there's nothing in the Constitution
6 that prevents Congress or the states from enacting gun 7 ownership -- sensible gun ownership laws, is there?

8 Mr. Chipman. Senator, I think that it is well within 9 the powers of Congress to balance the rights we have under 10 the Constitution and the responsibility as a nation to keep 11 us safe.

12 Senator Hirono. Well, and while the Supreme Court did 13 decide in Heller, there are a lot of us who do not agree 14 with that particular Supreme Court decision. My time is 15 up. Thank you.

16 Chairman Durbin. Thank you, Senator Hirono. Senator
17 Kennedy.

18 Senator Kennedy. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I want to 19 begin -- I don't have any questions for him, but I want to 20 give a shout-out to my friend Mr. Polite, who served 21 honorably and well as a United States attorney in 22 Louisiana, and I'm going to vote for him. And I want to 23 thank him for his willingness to serve. I don't know how 24 he talked his spouse into it. He's giving up major dollars
25 to come back into government service, but I am grateful

1 that he is willing to do so.

2 Mr. Polite. Thank you for your support, Senator.

3 Senator Kennedy. Ms. Strickland, Counselor, you do 4 not believe in qualified immunity for law enforcement 5 officials, do you?

6 Ms. Strickland. Thank you for the question, Senator.
7 For much of my career, I have served on the board of the 8 New Mexico Criminal Defense Lawyers Association --

9 Senator Kennedy. Yes, ma'am. But see, my time is so 10 limited. You don't believe in qualified immunity for law 11 enforcement officials, do you?

12 Ms. Strickland. So on behalf of organizations and 13 associations that I've been in, we have taken the position 14 that New Mexico, who is considering its own civil rights 15 bill, should not --

16 Senator Kennedy. Let me ask you again. Do you 17 believe in qualified immunity for law enforcement 18 officials?

19 Ms. Strickland. So --

20 Senator Kennedy. You, personally.

21 Ms. Strickland. Well, any personal views that I have 22 on it would not come into consideration if I were to be 23 confirmed as a judge.

24 Senator Kennedy. Oh, sure they will.

25 Ms. Strickland. I have --

1 Senator Kennedy. Sure they will. You're -- if you're 2 confirmed, you're going to do everything you can to 3 undermine qualified immunity, aren't you?

4 Ms. Strickland. No, Senator. Qualified immunity is 5 the law of the land. It is the law of the Supreme Court, 6 is the law of the Tenth Circuit, and I would apply it.

7 Senator Kennedy. Well, you spent your entire adult 8 career arguing against qualified immunity, haven't you?

9 Ms. Strickland. I have spent my time as an advocate 10 working underneath qualified immunity, where I did not 11 argue against qualified immunity. I worked within the 12 bounds of qualified immunity. And on behalf of 13 associations --

14 Senator Kennedy. Yeah, but you don't believe in it.
15 It's okay. I mean, this is America. You can believe what 16 you want.

17 Ms. Strickland. I --

18 Senator Kennedy. But I don't want to be misled here.
19 You don't believe in qualified immunity, do you?

20 Ms. Strickland. I do believe, Senator, in qualified 21 immunity. It is the law of this country. It is the law of 22 the Supreme Court.

23 Senator Kennedy. Well, then why did you help New 24 Mexico -- why did you work so hard to get Mexico to change
25 -- New Mexico to change it?

1 Ms. Strickland. Well, New Mexico was considering a 2 new bill regarding civil rights, and it was trying to 3 decide whether qualified immunity should apply in a new --

4 Senator Kennedy. Okay. Understand, I'm not trying to 5 cut you off. I really hate being rude like this and 6 interrupting folks, but we have so little time. Here's 7 what I want to ask you. I want you to answer this one for 8 me in front of God and country. If you personally were 9 queen for a day and you could make any policy you wanted to 10 right now and you had the ability to get rid of qualified 11 immunity for law enforcement officials by just sweeping 12 your hand, you're telling me you wouldn't do it?

13 Ms. Strickland. Yes, Senator. I -- qualified
14 immunity --

15 Senator Kennedy. You wouldn't do it.

16 Ms. Strickland I would not because qualified
17 immunity --

18 Senator Kennedy. Okay. Let me ask a question of Mr.
19 Chipman. Where's Mr. Chipman? You're nominated for 20 Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms and Explosives and all kind 21 of other dangerous stuff, is that right?

22 Mr. Chipman. Yes, Senator.

23 Senator Kennedy. Okay. You don't believe in private 24 ownership of handguns, do you?

25 Mr. Chipman. That's incorrect. I own one myself.

1 Senator Kennedy. Do you? Do you believe in private 2 ownership of assault weapons?

3 Mr. Chipman. Yes, sir.

4 Senator Kennedy. What do you own, by the way?

5 Mr. Chipman. That's a pretty private question. I
6 have the -- I'll share the gun I'm proudest of. It's a 7 Smith and Wesson Treasury Commemorative gun, and the serial 8 number is my birth date.

9 Senator Kennedy. Oh, that's cool. Congratulations.
10 Do you believe in banning assault weapons?

11 Mr. Chipman. I do, sir.

12 Senator Kennedy. Okay. Define assault weapons.

13 Mr. Chipman. Assault weapons would be something that 14 members of Congress would define.

15 Senator Kennedy. Well, how do you define it? You're 16 going to be running the agency.

17 Mr. Chipman. Senator, I think this is good question.
18 If I am confirmed as A.T.F. director --

19 Senator Kennedy. I got 35 seconds left. Define it 20 for me would you please, sir? What's an assault weapon?

21 Mr. Chipman. Yeah. Senator, the bill to ban assault 22 weapons is --

23 Senator Kennedy. What is your definition of an 24 assault weapon?

25 Mr. Chipman. -- dozens of pages. There's no way I

1 could define an assault weapon in 30 seconds.

2 Senator Kennedy. You don't have any -- you're going 3 to run an -- this agency, and you don't have a definition 4 of assault weapon?

5 Mr. Chipman. But I would be enforcing the definition
6 that members of Congress pass.

7 Senator Kennedy. Yeah, but you're going to be issuing 8 rules and regulations. Just give me your definition.

9 Mr. Chipman. I'll give you one definition that A.T.F.
10 currently uses.

11 Senator Kennedy. Give me your definition.

12 Mr. Chipman. One definition that A.T.F. currently --

13 Senator Kennedy. Give me your definition.

14 Mr. Chipman. I can give you one definition that 15 A.T.F. currently --

16 Senator Kennedy. If you won't answer my question, how 17 can I vote for you? I'm done, Mr. Chairman. I don't think 18 I'm going to get an answer.

19 Senator Ossoff. [Presiding.] Thank you, Senator
20 Kennedy. I yield myself five minutes to question -- oh, 21 pardon me. Senator Coons, you want to go ahead? Okay.

22 Yield myself five minutes, and I thank the panel. Thank 23 you for your willingness to serve. Thank you for putting 24 yourself through this process. I'd like to begin with you,

25 Mr. Chipman. Much of the -- in fact, the majority of 1 homicides involving firearms involve handguns. Is that 2 correct?

3 Mr. Chipman. That's correct. And thank you for the 4 question, Senator.

5 Senator Ossoff. What steps do you intend to take, 6 should you be confirmed, to stop the proliferation of 7 illegal handguns and reduce the level of gun violence
8 involving handguns on American streets?

9 Mr. Chipman. Thank you, Senator. The top priority of 10 A.T.F. will be a focus on firearms trafficking. By 11 focusing on the illegal transfer of guns from lawful 12 commerce into illegal commerce, the selling and illegal 13 dealing of guns to criminals, is the best way to prevent 14 crime with guns. The ultimate responsibility is -- of 15 A.T.F. is to do what is within our powers to prevent those 16 offenders from ever getting a handgun if they can't 17 lawfully possess it in the first place.

18 Senator Ossoff. Thank you, Mr. Chipman. And this is 19 a question for both you and Ms. Milgram, please. We've 20 seen a significant increase in violent crime across the 21 country over the last year. In the city of Atlanta, for 22 example, homicide has increased 60 percent year over year.
23 I was recently out at a park in my neighborhood with my 24 wife and dear friends, celebrating our friend's son one-25 year-old birthday party. And gunfire erupted at that park.

1 A group of young people who had been fighting moved several 2 blocks west throughout the afternoon. Gunfire erupted 3 again. 15-year-old girl was killed, two young people 4 wounded.

5 Senator Ossoff. Will each of you, Mr. Chipman and Ms.
6 Milgram, please commit to joining me in Georgia, should you
7 be confirmed, to meet with leaders in local and state law
8 enforcement, as well as community leaders, the Atlanta 9 Police Department, the Fulton County Sheriff's office, to 10 discuss how we can tackle and reverse this disturbing trend 11 of increased violent crime and homicide that's taking lives 12 and doing grievous harm to so many families?

13 Ms. Milgram. Yes, Senator. I'd be delighted to join 14 you if I'm confirmed.

15 Senator Ossoff. Thank you, Ms. Milgram. Mr. Chipman?

16 Mr. Chipman. Yes, Senator. I'd welcome the 17 opportunity to visit Atlanta, visit our Atlanta field 18 division, and visit A.T.F.'s critical lab that's located 19 there.

20 Senator Ossoff. Thank you. I'm going to ask you a 21 similar question about two other areas of my state that 22 have seen comparable significant increases in violent crime
23 over the last year. The city of Savannah is experiencing 24 an outbreak of homicides and shootings at levels not seen
25 in three or four years. Last fall in Savannah, violence

1 escalated from, on average, a shooting every three days to 2 one every other day. Will you similarly please commit to 3 joining me to meet with Savannah's political leadership, 4 Mayor Van Johnson, the Savannah Police Department, and the 5 Chatham County Sheriff's office to discuss how to reduce 6 violent crime in and around Savannah, Georgia?

7 Ms. Milgram. Senator, I would commit to you that I 8 believe that violence is -- it is critically important that 9 we address it, and I, if I'm confirmed, am happy to assist 10 you in any way, with any meetings or otherwise, and any 11 other members of this committee in any way that I can.

12 Senator Ossoff. Thank you Mr Chipman?

13 Mr. Chipman. Senator thank you very much for the 14 opportunity to again go to your state and meet with local 15 law enforcement, which is A.T.F.'s role to support in their 16 efforts to prevent violent crime.

17 Senator Ossoff. It is, indeed, and so, Mr. Chipman,
18 in the same vein, I'd like to also ask you if you'll please 19 make the same commitment to meet with me and the leadership 20 of Augusta's Police Department, the Richmond County
21 Sheriff's office, and leaders in and around Augusta, 22 Georgia to discuss similarly increasing rate of violent
23 crime in the Augusta area.

24 Mr. Chipman. Senator, I agree that I will commit to 25 that visit, and it will be nice to visit a place of Georgia

1 I have never visited.

2 Senator Ossoff. Thank you so much. I appreciate your 3 willingness to serve. Thank you again for putting 4 yourselves through this process. Senator Blackburn is 5 recognized for five minutes.

6 Senator Blackburn. To our witness, thank you for 7 bearing with us today as we have been in and out. Mr.
8 Chipman, I'm going to come to you. There's been a lot said 9 about your affiliations and the organizations and how that 10 might influence your work at the A.T.F. And one of the 11 things that I hear from Tennesseans is they want the A.T.F.
12 to be going after criminals, not after law-abiding gun 13 owners. So how would you execute that?

14 Mr. Chipman. Thank you, Senator, and thank you also 15 for spending the time on the phone with me earlier so we 16 could meet.

17 Senator Blackburn. Sure.

18 Mr. Chipman. I think the perfect example of how 19 Tennesseans should expect A.T.F. to respond is how we 20 responded to your city that was bombed on Christmas. We 21 will always be there in the worst hours to determine who 22 committed a crime and bring them to justice if we can. We 23 will always be focused on criminals. That's what we do.

24 Senator Blackburn. And I hope you appreciate why 25 people are very concerned about your stance on the Second

1 Amendment and are very concerned that you would be going 2 after law-abiding gun owners. So let me ask you this. In 3 the House Judiciary Committee hearing on 2019, you said, 4 and I'm quoting you, "Simply restating -- reinstating the 5 '90s era ban on assault weapons is not enough." So I want 6 you to tell me what is enough in relation to this 7 statement.

8 Mr. Chipman. Thank you for the question. In that 9 hearing, I was commenting on the fact that I had the 10 opportunity to enforce the National Firearms Act for 24 11 years. That was an act that balanced the right of 12 individuals to possess those firearms but had a regulatory 13 structure that, I found, kept them out of the hands of 14 criminals, which is the ultimate goal of all Americans. I 15 thought, and I expressed that belief at that time, that the 16 National Firearms Act would be a proper way to balance the 17 rights and responsibilities of Americans --

18 Senator Blackburn. So the National Firearms Act would 19 be enough.

20 Mr. Chipman. I believe that the National Firearms Act 21 would be --

22 Senator Blackburn. Let me ask you this. Because in 23 the same hearing, you continued -- and this gets to the 24 question that Senator Kennedy had for you. And I'm quoting 25 you. "Instead, we should regulate a broader class of 1 firearms, including assault weapons manufactured before the 2 law's enactment. One option would be to require the 3 registration of all existing assault weapons under the 4 National Firearms Act, while banning the future manufacture

5 and sale of these firearms." So in these statements, 6 you're talking about expanding the National Firearms Act,
7 correct?

8 Mr. Chipman. Yes, ma'am.

9 Senator Blackburn. Okay. So that would not be 10 enforcing it as it is written. That would be a change of 11 policy. And then you would ban the future manufacture.
12 That would be a change of policy. Banning the sale would 13 be a change of policy. And in these statements, and going 14 back to that hearing, you were referring to common 15 semiautomatic firearms when you speak of assault weapons,
16 correct?

17 Mr. Chipman. Senator, in this hearing, I was acting 18 as an advocate and was asked to propose solutions to 19 complex problems. As the -- 20 Senator Blackburn. And you were referring to 21 semiautomatic weapons, correct?

22 Mr. Chipman. Yes, Senator. But --

23 Senator Blackburn. Yes. Thank you very much.

24 Mr. Chipman. -- as director of -- 25 Senator Blackburn. Okay. Ms. Jaddou, I'd like to ask

1 you a question, please, ma'am. We are quite concerned 2 about some of the practices that have taken place under 3 U.S.C.I.S. During your time as the chief counsel at 4 U.S.C.I.S., the agency expanded the use of discretionary 5 parole activity from a restricted case-by-case basis into a 6 variety of new parole programs, such as International 7 Entrepreneur Parole, the Filipino World War II Veterans
8 Parole program, and the Central American Minor Parole 9 program.

10 Did this expanded use of discretionary parole through 11 these new programs actually circumvent congressionally 12 established immigration policy, and did U.S.C.I.S. exceed 13 its authority under law created by Congress by admitting 14 aliens who did not qualify for admission under normal and 15 legal immigration categories?

16 Ms. Jaddou. Thank you, Senator. And thank you for 17 taking the time to meet with me on the phone.

18 Senator Blackburn. Absolutely. Yes, I enjoyed it.

19 Ms. Jaddou. Thank you. Yes, I did too. Thank you.

20 With regard to your question, we looked at the Immigration 21 and Nationality Act, and I have worked with the, at the 22 time, other attorneys in the agency as well to determine if 23 it fits within the structure of the Immigration and 24 Nationality Act. And we did determine that, and therefore, 25 we proceeded.

1 Senator Blackburn. So you feel that none of these 2 programs went outside of the authority.

3 Ms. Jaddou. That was the determination we made at the 4 time.

5 Senator Blackburn. So why not just go by the law as 6 written?

7 Ms. Jaddou. So the way the law is structured is there 8 is a case-by-case determination.

9 Senator Blackburn. Correct.

10 Ms. Jaddou. And those programs certainly set out 11 guidelines for adjudicators, but none heless, every 12 individual must apply, must submit an application, must be 13 reviewed, have background checks. An adjudicator must 14 review that application very carefully before they make a 15 decision.

16 Senator Blackburn. Well, I will tell you this appears 17 when you expand the use of discretionary parole authority 18 and move away from a restricted case-by-case basis and put 19 these new programs in place. The appearance of that is 20 that you're making it easier to circumvent the law as 21 written, and that is problematic.

22 I know I'm over my time. I have a question for you on 23 the birth -- Ban Birth Tourism Act, a piece of legislation
24 that I introduced. I'm going to submit that to you --

25 Ms. Jaddou. Thank you.

1 Senator Blackburn. -- for the record. I know that 2 Senator Cruz asked you about that earlier and would 3 appreciate your attention to that question.

5 / COMMITTEE INSERT

6 Ms. Jaddou. Absolutely.

7 Senator Blackburn. And I will say this, Mr. Chairman.
8 Ms. Jaddou, you have an adorable family, and your girls 9 deserve --

10 Ms. Jaddou. Thank you.

11 Senator Blackburn. -- all the ice cream that they 12 want to eat this afternoon.

13 Ms. Jaddou. We already secretly promised them a few 14 dollars.

15 [Laughter.]

16 Senator Blackburn. Because they have behaved 17 beautifully.

18 Ms. Jaddou. Aw, thank you.

19 Senator Blackburn. We give them the gold medal for 20 that.

21 [Laughter.]

22 Ms. Jaddou. Thank you.

23 Senator Ossoff. Thank you, Senator Blackburn.

24 Senator Coons is recognized for five minutes.

25 Senator Coons. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. And I'd like

1 to thank our remarkable panel of nominees for your 2 dedication, your willingness to serve, for all that you are 3 going to bring to your service. Listening to your 4 individual stories, to the journeys that brought you here, 5 was inspiring to me. We stand at a moment when the 6 American people are looking to us here in Washington, in 7 the federal government, in the Biden administration, in the 8 federal judiciary, here in Congress, to see their problems, 9 to hear their concerns, and to actually deliver some 10 meaningful solutions.

11 So if I can, Ms. Strickland, I j st wanted to ask you 12 a quick question about the difference between an advocate 13 and a judge and how you understand those different roles, 14 and then I'm going to get into more law enforcement related 15 issues for our remaining nominees. Ms. Strickland?

16 Ms. Strickland Thank you for that question, Senator.
17 As an advocate, my role was defined by the Sixth Amendment, 18 to zealousl work within the bounds of law in the best 19 interests of my client, and I've had to -- tried to do that 20 ov r my career. The role of a judge is quite different.
21 The role of a judge is also defined under the Constitution, 22 and the judge is to approach every case neutrally, with 23 deliberately putting aside any personal opinions the judge 24 might have in order to fairly consider the facts, the law, 25 and the argument of counsel.

1 Senator Coons. Well, thank you, Ms. Strickland. If I
2 might also, Ms. Jaddou, U.S.C.I.S. -- I've gotten a number 3 of calls, as has my colleague Senator Hirono, about the 4 backlog for U.S.C.I.S. for fingerprinting, specifically in 5 Delaware, which has put thousands of Delawareans' lives on 6 hold, keeping them from visiting loved ones or getting 7 jobs. U.S.C.I.S. has made some strides recently to address 8 this and has cut the backlog in half, including by 9 eliminating some unnecessary requirements imposed by the 10 previous administration. Can you speak to how you will 11 address these ongoing processing backlogs and commit to 12 keeping me updated on the situation in my home state?

13 Ms. Jaddou. Thank you, Senator. And thank you for 14 that question. This is exactly why I think this is the 15 right moment for me in this job. I have been in that 16 agency, and I understand those little, minute steps can 17 really create backlogs, time-sensitive backlogs. And I 18 have seen it so I could hit the ground running. I have 19 built such wonderful relationships with the dedicated men 20 and women at U.S.C.I.S., whom I admire tremendously, and I
21 know I can work with them, and not just them. It's partner 22 agencies as well that we need to build strong working 23 relationships. And I have a running start.

24 Senator Coons. Well, I look forward to working with 25 you in that context, and I know there's thousands --

1 Ms. Jaddou. Absolutely.

2 Senator Coons. -- of families in my state that are 3 looking for some relief from these significant challenges.

4 Mr. Chipman, if I might, Senator Cornyn and I have 5 recently reintroduced a bill, the N.I.C.S. Denial
6 Notification Act, which would require federal authorities 7 to notify state and local law enforcement when someone goes 8 in, lies on their background check form, tries to buy the 9 gun -- and this is someone who's a person prohibited, so 10 it's against the law for them to get that gun. Current law 11 does not require any notice to local law enforcement.

12 There were 100,000 federal background check denials in 13 2019. In some states, because the background check goes 14 through state police, they get immediate notification, but 15 in a majority of states, including mine, they don't.

16 Can you help explain why it's an urgent warning sign 17 when someone tries to buy a gun, fails their background 18 check because they're lying -- they're a convicted felon, 19 say -- and they're trying to get their hands on a gun? Why 20 is this something we should take up and pass a bill to 21 require notification to state and local law enforcement?

22 Mr. Chipman. Senator, first, thank you for the 23 question and thanks for your dedication to this important 24 issue. I view this as a near miss. In many professions, 25 you study a near miss because you feel lucky that the bad

1 thing didn't happen. If someone is willing to go into a 2 gun store and lie and commit a federal felony, we shouldn't 3 expect that it stops there because there are loopholes in 4 the law. As A.T.F. agents, it's our job to ensure that the 5 information we have is in the hands of local police who 6 might come across these people. So it's not only good 7 policy. It's a way A.T.F. can support local law 8 enforcement and keep them safe.

9 Senator Coons. Thank you. Now, I'd like to ask about 10 what we're going to be doing together to not just make law 11 enforcement more transparent, more accountable, but to make 12 law enforcement more effective. I'm from Wilmington, 13 Delaware. You just heard from Senator Ossoff from Georgia 14 concerns about a rise in violent crime in cities in his 15 state, in Savannah and Augusta and Atlanta. In my hometown 16 of Wilmington despite the best efforts of our mayor and 17 governor and our police department, we have seen a steady 18 increase in violent gun crime.

19 Mr. Polite, I understand from your testimony, you 20 became interested in serving as a prosecutor when your own 21 half-brother was murdered. And you've spent time clerking 22 for Judge Ambro, a personal friend, on the Third Circuit
23 and serving in the Skadden Arps office in Wilmington, a 24 place I was a summer associate. So you know a thing or two 25 about my hometown.

1 Mr. Chipman and Ms. Milgram, you're nominated to lead 2 the A.T.F. and D.E.A. and to work alongside Mr. Polite, who 3 will be leading, hopefully, D.O.J. Criminal Division. And 4 all three of you have significant experience in law
5 enforcement and have great experience in addressing violent 6 crime in American cities. Ms. Milgram, you spoke about 7 Camden and the work that you did.

8 I'd be interested in hearing from each of you what 9 role you see in coordinating between the A.T.F., D.E.A., 10 and D.O.J.'s Criminal Division to reduce violence in our 11 communities, whether you'll commit to staying engaged with 12 me and with other members of this committee and the Senate 13 as we work with our local communities to try and address
14 and interrupt the ways in which drugs and guns and gangs
15 and violence seem to be going together, and how you see 16 this journey, should you be confirmed, of trying to bring 17 more peace, more justice, and more order to our 18 communities. If we could, in order, Mr. Chipman, Ms.
19 Milgram, Mr. Polite.

20 Mr. Chipman. Senator, first, yes. I commit to this 21 collaborative approach. It's one I found effective at 22 A.T.F., and I do believe that the A.T.F. will have 23 information and intelligence and techniques and technology 24 that, when married with the ground truth that a local law 25 enforcement agency has, that that's a good pathway to 1 preventing violent crime.

2 Senator Coons. Ms. Milgram?

3 Ms. Milgram. Thank you, Senator. I've had a job as a 4 state chief law enforcement officer where a prior attorney 5 general had taken over the police department of one of the 6 most dangerous cities in America. So I understand this 7 concern, and my belief is that one of the things we did 8 there was we partnered with the D.E.A. We partnered with 9 A.T.F. We partnered with other local law enforcement 10 agencies and state agencies in order to do a concerted 11 effort to reduce violence, improve community relations, and 12 bring accountability, and it was incredibly effective.

13 If I am confirmed to lead the D.E.A., I believe that 14 one of the great strengths of the D.E.A. today is its 15 partnerships with states and local law enforcement.
16 They're a big part of running task forces across the 17 country and also sit as an important part of H.I.D.T.A. So 18 I am deeply committed to addressing the issues of violent 19 crime. Drugs drive violence in our communities. In 20 Camden it was a huge part of the work we did, was drug 21 related. So you have my full commitment, if I'm confirmed, 22 to partner with you, other members of this committee and 23 Congress, as well as with the other agency heads and the 24 Department of Justice, in any way that I can to be helpful 25 on this.

1 Senator Coons. Thank you, Ms. Milgram. Mr. Polite?

2 Mr. Polite. Senator, thank you for this question, and 3 thank you for your commitment to this area. I would also 4 note that I'm a proud member of the Delaware Bar, and most 5 importantly, my wife was born in Wilmington, so we have 6 very close ties to your state.

7 Like my colleagues assembled here, I share in this 8 commitment to collaboration in this area. During my time
9 as U.S. attorney, this is exactly the way we approached 10 many of the same violent crime issues that crippled the 11 city of New Orleans. And what we did was establish what 12 was called the Multiagency Gang Unit. It included agents
13 from A.T.F., D.E.A., other state, local, and federal law 14 enforcement agencies that worked shoulder to shoulder, not 15 just in terms of sharing intelligence but actual personnel 16 and space where they investigated those cases and 17 ultimately decided what was the appropriate venue in order
18 to address violent crime that was caused disproportionately
19 by a small number of individuals in the New Orleans area.

20 That level of collaboration is what I view as being 21 the hallmark of our work then, and I look forward to, if 22 I'm confirmed, to lending my voice to those same 23 discussions and that same level of collaboration that you 24 articulated.

25 Senator Coons. Well, thank you. I'm not just a

1 member of this committee. I'm a member of the subcommittee
2 that funds all of federal law enforcement, D.O.J., A.T.F., 3 D.E.A. And I look forward to working with you because we 4 have a real challenge in this country. We need to 5 strengthen our communities. We need to strengthen 6 families. We need to push back on the drivers of violence
7 and division. But we also need to provide more effective, 8 more timely, more relevant federal resource to support 9 state and local law enforcement and communities as they are 10 trying to bring peace to our streets and justice to our 11 country.

12 So I look forward to working with all of you. Thank 13 you for your willingness to serve. And, Mr. Chairman, I 14 appreciate the time to question.

15 Senator Ossoff. Thank you, Senator Coons. Thanks 16 again to the nominees for your testimony, your willingness 17 to serve. Before I adjourn today's hearing, I want to 18 enter a number of letters into the record and make a few 19 logistical notes.

20 We have received a number of letters of support for 21 today's nominees from those across the political, 22 professional, and ideological spectrum. These include 23 letters of support for Ms. Cunningham from intellectual 24 property experts and practitioners, letters from multiple 25 law enforcement organizations in support of our executive

1 branch nominees, a letter of support from the Criminal 2 Defense Bar in support of Ms. Strickland, and many others.
3 I will enter all of those letters into the record without 4 objection.

5 Questions for the record will be due to the nominees 6 by 5 p.m. on Wednesday, June 2nd, and the record will 7 likewise remain open until that time to submit letters and 8 similar materials. With that, this hearing is adjourned.
