10 sense of -- so it sounds like that, that wasn't unusual that 11 the mil aides or the front office staff would sometimes 12 bring to the National Security Affairs team, in addition to 13 documents, sometimes notes that might pertain to national

8 [REDACTED] I'm just asking, generally speaking, was it -- it
9 sounds like it was sometimes the case that the Vice 10 President's notes, his notecards that pertained to national 11 security matters would get collected up and brought to your 12 office for storage --

13 COL BAKOTIC: And --

14 (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) -- or for review.

15 COL BAKOTIC: So, ma'am, again, if there was 16 something national security related, it would -- it'd be in 17 our practice to come to be returned to us. (b) (5), (b) (6), (b) (7)(C), (b) (7)(E)

13 that, you know, you were thinking, well, October -- you
14 know, assuming this happened in October, there's months
15 before the end of the administration.

16 So, it sounds like you were thinking that perhaps 17 the notes could be -- perhaps the Vice President could 18 access and review the notes before the administration ended.
19 Is that, is that what I hear you saying?

20 COL BAKOTIC: Yes, ma'am. I think that that's --

10 The ability for someone to take classified information home

12 leave government service, is that consistent with the 13 training you've had throughout your career?

14 COL BAKOTIC: Yes, sir.

15 (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) It is consistent? Sorry.

16 COL BAKOTIC: Well, sir, classified, you know, the 18 -- if something is classified, it has to be properly, 19 properly stored.

6 (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) Okay. So, before the break, we were 7 talking about the proposition that the Vice President could 8 take classified notes home with him after the administration
9 ended, outside of a secure facility.

10 And there was a lot of back and forth, but it
11 sounds like, if I'm getting this right, you didn't take that 12 position. That wouldn't be a position that you would take, 13 that he could take classified notes home with him outside of 14 a secure facility.

15 COL BAKOTIC: Yes, ma'am.

16 (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) And this may be an obvious answer to 17 this question, but did you ever tell Vice President Biden 18 that he could retain classified notes after the 19 administration ended?

20 COL BAKOTIC: I don't recall having a conversation
21 with the Vice President.

22 (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) And I think you mentioned earlier,
23 and you said this in the last interview as well, that it
24 wasn't really your role to directly advise the Vice 25 President on the handling of classified information.

1 (00:01:12)
