Still need to write the proposed Qs – I didn't get a chance to turn to that yet.

Dear Pam and Tracy,

Yesterday, DPC's Native American Voting Rights Steering Group sent OAG the enclosed draft report, which is being created pursuant to Section 10 of EO 14019, Promoting Access to Voting. Unfortunately, it seems that the Department has not been tracking the steering group. Fortunately, we are seeing this report in draft form.

Though this came to us for a language/tone check, it seems clear that CRT should weigh in on the substance of the draft.

CRT/Pam: Can CRT take a quick look at the enclosed draft and give us a sense of how long it would take to provide substantive feedback on the draft, including flagging any errors or omissions?

OTJ/Tracy: Can OTJ take a quick look at the enclosed draft and give us a sense of how long it would take to provide feedback on tone, proper framing of Tribal equities/sensitivities, etc.?

Once we have that info, we will figure out how best to get our feedback to DPC and how to better support this group's work moving forward.

Best,

Tim:

From a quick look, it is not an overwhelming lift to process and provide feedback, but as you know this week is more-or-less swallowed by prepping for the White House Tribal engagement event on Monday. This is a very important issue to Tribal communities and OTJ, so we very much appreciate the opportunity to weigh-in. I know this will be driven in large part by external time lines, but the end of next week would be manageable on our end. That said, we will make happen what needs to happen. Thanks.

Tim and Myesha—Attached is a brochure from CRT that provides information about voting laws. In our EO 14019 strategic plan, we indicated that we would design this brochure and make it available on the Voting Section's website. Staff will also distribute the brochure at outreach meetings, conferences, and other public events attended by the Department, as appropriate, including the following:

- CRS will make brochures available at the informational booths it hosts at conferences or other public events;
- (b)(5) per CRT [REDACTED]; and
- (b)(5) per EOUSA [REDACTED].

After OASG provided initial feedback, Pam and the team worked to make this more accessible to lay readers. We think this version is in good shape.

Can you please let me know if you have any edits or comments by cob on Friday? The next step is to convert this into brochure format.

Happy to discuss.

Thanks,
Sparkle

Victor Williamson and Eileen O'Connor from VOT (who'd been attending the listening sessions) are at work on this and yesterday, Chris Herren told me that they'd have something to me by tonight. So I can have you something tomorrow morning. Would that work?

See Chris's memo below. I went through this as well, and added or responded to a couple of comments. Like Chris, Victor, and Eileen, I did not line edit for clarity, given that this isn't our document.

Let us know what else you might need from CRT.

Hi Pam –

Thanks for the chance to comment on this draft. With thanks to Victor and Eileen, we have included a number of comments here.

One of the things we struggled with is (b) (5). We have endeavored to make suggestions on those and other points.

Likewise, while we did not comment much on it, we would note that some the language used in this draft relies on jargon and very high level language – (b) (5) etc. We don't know who that language is aimed specifically, but it will be inaccessible to many people as it is written. It could stand to be written overall in a more accessible way.

Please let me know what else we can do to assist.

Thanks, Chris

Hi, Tim.

There will not be an ODAG rep participating on the Steering Group. Please see below. Our recommendation is to have CRT and OTJ represent the Department on the Steering Committee and report back to ODAG (both Ashley and me). Of course, CRT should also report back to OASG (Sparkle).

Hi Aisha,

Thank you again for giving us an opportunity to review and for letting us get back to you later in the week. I am enclosing some suggestions from attorneys in the Civil Rights Division's Voting Section.

Our Office of Tribal Justice (OTJ) is still hoping to review this, but may not be able to do so until next week. If I recall correctly, you are expecting to send this out for more rounds of review. If that is the case, then let us know if it would make more sense for OTJ to just chime in then.

We also want to make sure that DOJ is adequately supporting the steering group moving forward. If you are amenable, we would be happy to get someone to serve as a DOJ rep on the group. Just let us know.

Thanks again for your patience – and, more importantly, for your exceptional work on this very important issue.

All the best,

Thank you so much for your feedback. Please thank Chris, Victor, and Eileen. We know this is not how already overstretched enforcement attorneys want to spend their time, but I do think it is important that your team got a chance to dig in on this document earlier rather than later.

Tim:

Attached are OTJ's comments which I added to those of CRT (our comments are on pages 1, 3, 10, 13 and 22). I thought the document was generally very good. As this effort moves forward, OTJ would like to remain involved, I think we might add to the discussion. For example, the (b) (5)

Given the special relationship that the Federal government has with Tribal governments, the substantial and often unique voting barriers faced by Indian people, and the impact of the Native vote in many jurisdictions, this may be an avenue worth discussing in the future. Thanks again for the opportunity to review.

Dear all,

This is the most up to date version of the AG's First Step Act Annual report. I last provided edits (on top of OLP edits) on 1/24/22. Please note that the (b) (5) section has been updated to reflect the new rule, but I still think the (b) (5) needs to be updated (I disagree with (b) (5) comments on that; you will see where this is marked in track changes and comments). We need to update the (b) (5) section, following where we land with the (b) (5).

Once we do those 2 things, it would be good for BOP and others to go through this again, and everyone on this chain, but I don't think any major overhauls are needed – and myself, Julius, and BOP have been through this probably 35 times 😊

Hi all-

We will talk soon but I wanted to circulate this right away. I called Sara to give her a heads up this was coming. Attached are some high level edits to the Annual Report. I did a lot of "CTRL F" to find terms of note that I wanted to make sure were addressed:

The biggest flag is the use of the "(b) (5)" of (b) (5). In many places it is used (including the opening) that is not really accurate because (b) (5). I did a search and replaced "(b) (5)" (b) (5) instances) and replaced it with "(b) (5)" or something similar. I tried to flag the tables/passages where (b) (5), or would need to be updated. For the (b) (5) (which I know can be time-consuming) we could perhaps (b) (5), but I simply do not see how we can (b) (5).

Avoid (b) (5) - (b) (5) - I did a global search for these terms, and where I found them in a context that indicated we were (b) (5) I changed them to "(b) (5)" or "(b) (5)" or something along those lines.

"(b) (5)" -there are places where I eliminated this phrase or replaced it with "(b) (5)"

Hi all,

Here is the report with my edits. Sorry this ended up taking me hours longer than I had anticipated.

I think this provides all necessary flags and guideposts to OLP/BOP about where the data should be updated and with suggestions for how to do so.

Over to you, Julius.

Once thru that exercise, the only last thing that will need to change is the end of the (b) (5) (and the (b) (5) (b) (5) might need to wait being run until the AG's decision)

With this adjustment of the (b) (5) (which makes eminent sense), are you okay with me working with BOP to run new numbers/tables, etc.? I see Tamarra's question in the document asking whether (b) (5). Can I tell BOP to go with (b) (5)? From other conversations with BOP, I suspect (b) (5) will be far preferable; it may also be that (b) (5).

For version control purposes, would that mean OLP/BOP will have the pen? Or will it stay with OASG/ODAG for the (b) (5) section? If OLP/BOP have the pen, I can also go through the document that Tamarra sent and apply additional streamlining edits. Meantime, I'll stand down.

Nketia:

Sorry to respond so close to the start of the weekend once again, but I was hoping for a little more information about the substance of the event. I understand that the plan is for five to ten minutes of introductory remarks with Q & A to follow. We would like to lock down our briefing materials by Tuesday night, so we hoping to receive the likely questions by the end of day on Tuesday. Is that possible? Is there anything we can do to help in this regard? Also, if there is a point of contact developing the questions, I would love to reach out to them. Thanks again.

Hi Aisha and Libby,

As Libby knows, the AG is speaking to the National Congress of American Indians (NCAI) on Monday. His session will involve a brief Q&A segment. We just got the likely questions from NCAI, and there is a specific one on the steering group. I know the AG will be comfortable talking generally about the Department's overall commitment to voting rights (in Native communities and nationwide), but is there anything you would like us specifically to say or not say about the EO and the steering group?

Here is the question we got:

EVENT MEMORANDUM FOR THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

FROM: Tim Visser

SUBJECT: National Congress of American Indians – Executive Winter Council Session

On Monday, February 14, you will virtually attend the Executive Winter Council Session of the National Congress of American Indians (NCAI).

You will join the Council Session from 2:00pm – 2:30pm, during which time you will provide brief remarks and answer questions.

Proposed remarks are provided in TAB 2.

NCAI vetted and previewed for us the likely questions you will be asked. We have provided suggested responses for you in TAB 3.

For your situational awareness, we expect Secretary Haaland to address the session just before you.

I. Run of Show

You will log on to the event from your conference room. The expected run of show for your participation is as follows:

2:00 – 2:10pm Introduction by NCAI Vice President Mark Macarro

Brief Attorney General Remarks

2:10 – 2:28pm Q&A Session with NCAI CEO Dante Desiderio and VP Macarro

2:28 – 2:29pm Thank you from Attorney General

2:29 – 2:30pm Thank you from NCAI leadership

II. National Congress of American Indians

a. Background

NCAI was founded in 1944 in response to the “Indian termination” policies which sought to limit Tribal sovereignty and force assimilation.

Today, NCAI bills itself as “the oldest, largest, and most representative American Indian and Alaska Native organization serving the broad interests of Tribal governments and communities.” The organization’s stated purpose is to “serve as a forum for unified policy development among Tribal governments” to: (1) advance Tribal governance and treaty rights; (2) promote Tribal economic development, health, and welfare; and (3) give the public a better understanding of Tribes.

NCAI represents a diverse network of Tribal nations, citizens, and organizations, but it does not formally represent Tribal governments.

NCAI’s Executive Council Winter Session offers Tribes an opportunity to hear from members of Congress and the Administration to further inform and strengthen important government-to-government relationships.

Several members of the Biden Administration have spoken at NCAI events. For example, Vice President Harris and five Cabinet members spoke at NCAI’s Annual Convention in October 2021.

b. Leadership & Relevant Biographies

NCAI is governed by voting members who elect an Executive Committee. The Executive Committee includes the NCAI President, First Vice President, Recording Secretary, Treasurer, and 12 Regional Vice Presidents. All members serve two-year terms.

The current NCAI President is Fawn Sharp. Ms. Sharp is the previous President and current Vice President of the Quinault Indian Nation in Washington.

Your session will be led by NCAI's new Chief Executive Officer Dante Desiderio and First Vice President Mark Macarro.

Dante Desiderio previously served as the Executive Director of the Native American Finance Officers Association (NAFOA), a national organization focused on growing Tribal economies. Under his leadership, the organization increased its focus on economic growth by developing a robust advocacy presence in Washington, D.C. Mr. Desiderio is a member of the Sappony, an Indian Tribe based on the border of North Carolina and Virginia, where he serves in a leadership and advisory role on a number of programs related to community and economic development. He previously served on the inaugural board of the Center for Indian Country Development at the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis and on an Advisory Boards for the University of North Carolina and Arizona State University.

Mark Macarro has been the elected Tribal Chairman of the Pechanga Band of Luiseño Indians in Southern California for over twenty years. He first was elected to the Pechanga Tribal Council in 1992. Chairman Macarro served as program manager for the library and museum of the Rincon Reservation from 1992 through 1995, and as the director of youth education at Soboba Reservation's Noli School from 1990 through 1992. He began his career in Indian country as a grants/contracts administrator for the Pechanga Reservation in 1988. He also served as a California state credentialed substitute teacher for grades 7-12. Chairman Macarro's father, the late Leslie Macarro, was a Pechanga Tribal member and a correctional peace officer killed in the line of duty in May of 1988 while working for the California Youth Authority.

III. Background for Q&A Topics

During your session, you will engage in an approximately fifteen-minute question and answer session with Executive Director Desiderio and Chairman Macarro. They have previewed the expected questions, which broadly speaking cover four main areas: (a) implementation of President Biden’s recent Executive Order on Tribal public safety; (b) the reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA); (c) principles underlying the nation-to-nation relationship between Tribes and the Federal Government; and (d) Native American Voting Rights. The expected questions and proposed answers are located in TAB 3.

a. Executive Order 14053

On November 15, 2021, you attended the White House Tribal Nations Summit. During that event, you joined President Biden when he signed Executive Order 14053, “Improving Public Safety and Criminal Justice for Native Americans and Addressing the Crisis of Missing or Murdered Indigenous Persons.”

The Executive Order directs the Justice Department to take a number of steps, many of which overlap with previous Department workstreams.

Section 2 of the E.O. directs the Justice Department to develop a comprehensive strategy regarding federal law enforcement’s efforts to prevent and respond to violence against Native Americans, including MMIP cases. The plan will also require the Department to designate a person to serve as an outreach services liaison for relevant federal criminal cases.

Section 3 of the E.O. directs the Departments of Justice and Interior to develop guidance and technical assistance for Tribal entities on a series of topics, including implementing special domestic violence criminal jurisdiction under VAWA, responding to McGirt, coordinating Tribal Community Response Plans, and providing grants to support Tribal law enforcement and victim services programs.

Section 4 of the E.O. focuses on improving data collection, analysis, and information sharing. This focus area overlaps with requirements in Savanna’s Act and recommendations from a recent GAO report.

Section 5(c) of the E.O. directs the Interior Department to consult with the Attorney General to evaluate existing technical assistance regarding community-based conflict resolution, healing courts, and culturally appropriate victim services.

Section 6 of the E.O. prioritizes the role of Tribal consultations.

The same day that President Biden executed the E.O., the Deputy Attorney General issues a memorandum creating a Department Steering Committee to Address the Crisis of Missing or Murdered Indigenous Persons.

The Steering Committee, which is led by ODAG and the Office of Tribal Justice, is taking a holistic approach to aligning and improving the Department's efforts to address the MMIP crisis. It includes COPS, CRM, CRT, EOUSA, FBI, OJP, OLP, OVW, and USMS.

b. VAWA Reauthorization

The 2013 reauthorization of VAWA included a historic provision that recognized the inherent authority of Tribes to exercise special domestic violence criminal jurisdiction over non-Indian offenders who commit acts of domestic violence in Indian country. See 25 U.S.C. § 1304.

After that reauthorization, the Justice Department moved swiftly to implement the law's initial pilot project structure in 2013. That project remains in effect today. That pilot laid the foundation for the 27 tribes that exercise special domestic violence criminal jurisdiction today.

NCAI has been a key voice in pushing for further expansion of special domestic violence criminal jurisdiction in the current efforts to reauthorize VAWA.

On February 9, 2022, a bipartisan group of Senators joined together to introduce the VAWA Reauthorization Act of 2022. This followed similar efforts in the House last year.

The introduced reauthorization legislation would allow participating Tribes to prosecute non-Indian perpetrators of sexual violence, sex trafficking, domestic violence against child victims, stalking, and elder abuse. The proposed legislation would also seek to expand special domestic violence criminal jurisdiction to Alaska Native villages on a pilot basis.

The Administration and the Department have been vocal supporters of the reauthorization legislation, including the expanded special domestic violence criminal jurisdiction provisions.

c. Nation-to-Nation Relationship

You may be asked about the Department’s commitment to respecting its nation-to-nation relationship with Tribal partners, including through its U.S. Attorney’s Office (USAO) operations and litigating positions in the Supreme Court.

In 2010, Deputy Attorney General Ogden issued a memorandum regarding an “Indian Country Law Enforcement Initiative.” This document spelled out a new policy for USAOs with Indian Country jurisdiction. As part of that plan, USAOs are required to develop operational plans for addressing public safety in Indian Country. The 2010 Ogden Memorandum makes clear that those plans should be based on Tribal consultations.

We understand the DAG is considering updating the 2010 Ogden Memorandum. Though we should not announce that update yet, we can commit to furthering and building on the principles in the 2010 Ogden Memorandum.

With respect to the Department’s positions on litigation issues related to treaty and trust obligations, the safest reference point is the Memorandum of Understanding that you signed in October. This document reinforced the Justice Department’s commitment to respecting Tribal sovereignty and promoting Tribal treaty rights.

d. Native American Voting Rights

Given the rural and disconnected nature of many Native reservations, ballot access and voting rights are key areas of concerns for Tribal stakeholders.

In March 2021, President Biden issued an Executive Order on “Promoting Access to Voting.” 86 Fed. Reg. 13623 (Mar. 10, 2021). Section 10 of that order established a “Native American Voting Rights Steering Group.” The Steering Group was tasked with (1) engaging in consultations with Tribes on voting rights issues, and (2) issuing a report on protecting voting rights for Native Americans.

Justice Department staff participated in the consultations and have weighed in on early drafts of the report, which will be published in March.

As a more general matter, the Department’s efforts to protect and promote voting rights across the country includes protecting the franchise in Indian country.

IV. Miscellaneous Item – Tribal Nations Leadership Council

In 2010, Attorney General Holder established the Tribal Nations Leadership Council. The purpose of the Council is to facilitate dialogue and coordinate efforts between the Justice Department and Tribal governments.

The Council is comprised of twelve Tribal leaders, each representing Tribes in their respective region (as defined by the Bureau of Indian Affairs). Council members are selected by their peers.

The Council has not met with senior Department leadership since December 2017. Though the Office of Tribal Justice routinely holds calls with the Council, Council members have repeatedly requested a meeting with current Department leadership.

We recommend that in your brief opening remarks to NCAI, you commit to meeting with the Council this Spring.

Hi, team –

No action necessary for you here, but for your awareness, here is what we submitted to the AG. I suspect he will start digging in around lunchtime. Nothing at all for you to do now, though it is possible (certain?) follow up questions will arise at any point between now and 2:01pm Monday.

Thank you again – and as always – for your help on these items!

Hi, all. As we near the March 7 due date of the report on Native American voting rights directed by Executive Order 14019, we thought it made sense to focus tomorrow's meeting of the Steering Group largely on the report, its rollout, and on agency actions that might roll out at about the same time. Particularly because this might affect your agencies directly, we welcome robust engagement. (I'll send a reminder calendar appointment and link in a moment.)

Other agenda items are more than welcome, of course, but we'd suggest as a starting point:

1. Interagency review of the report
2. Report appendix
3. Report translation
4. Report rollout
5. Agency actions connected to the report and tied to rollout

Elva:

It appears many of our earlier concerns had be incorporated in this draft. Both Gina and I went through the document and the only suggested change is on page 3 regarding (b)(5) per OTJ. I have added that to CRTs comments in the attached document. Thank you.

All –

BOP came back with updates to the FSA annual report yesterday and I worked with them yesterday and today to clarify and further update. I believe this document is now ready for everyone's further review here and for the new PATTERN section to be added. BOP did leave comments in a couple of places where they've pushed back.

Attached are the two copies of the same document. One has all the redlined edits; the other has all the redlines accepted, including BOP's and OLP's. I've retained comments in both, so it's clear where the changes were made.

All-

OMB has sent back the draft report on Native American voting rights and the barriers Native Americans face in achieving full access to participate in U.S. elections. For the most part all of DOJ's edits were accepted. However, (b)(5) per OMB Additionally, DPC is planning on including the attached Appendix listing jurisdictions with Native American language responsibilities under sec. 203 of the VRA. In addition to reviewing the revised report, please take a look at the three sentences at the top of the Appendix and let me know of any concerns.

If possible, can you all respond by COB today.

All –

Attached is the annual report draft that adds new content to the “clean” version I circulated yesterday. This version contains new edits from CRM APP for the Compassionate Release section (in III.F.8, addressing the Bryant case) and from BOP (addressing our additional requests for update to Sections IV, VII, and VIII).

As you’ll see, BOP’s update on the cost savings question is modest, stating only that “at this time” there is no cost savings data or information to report. (b) (5)

The report draft does say (as the last report did) that any budgetary savings identified will be addressed in subsequent reports.

Rachel: If you’ve started to make edits to the PATTERN section, I can input these edits to your document afterwards. If you haven’t started, would you please input your edits to this version?

Julius

Hi all-

One additional note to the group, does it still make sense to have the discussion of US v. Bryant and is it still accurate and up to date concerning the status of the cert petition (III. F.8 Compassionate Release; draft at 43):

Tamarra: Sorry about that oversight. I did forward these additional flags you made to BOP right away, but it looks like that got lost and I forgot about it myself. I'll ask BOP to provide these specific updates while Rachel has the pen to the document.

Sara/Tamarra/Karl: On those two questions on the TC Rule, Susan Inman and I have discussed them and she said she'd look more closely into them while the PATTERN section is being updated. I'll forward you her thoughts as soon as she provides them.

This is great – we have made excellent progress. Julius, thanks so much for working with BOP to make these updates. All: The fact that BOP has had to update all of the data in this report twice already underscores that we must get this report out in March. We cannot go through this exercise again. Let us please do everything in our power to get this out in March.

Outstanding work: Karl/Tamarra pls review the time credits section, as Sonya wants to delete 2 sentences and I don't have a strong view about them. Rachel, we will still need to update the PATTERN section, to add a paragraph or so. BOP/Julius/all: There are still 2 tables that I think will need to be updated to reflect (b)(5); (b)(5) per BOP.

Karl, Tamarra, Sara:

I'm attaching a draft of the FSA annual report that has Susan Inman's comments to the TC Rule section in response to two of Sonya Thompson's comments. I removed others for now, especially Rachel Rossi, only to avoid version control problem that may arise, as Rachel has the pen and is working on the PATTERN section. The draft that Susan used is an older version but most up-to-date as to the TC Rule section:

Sonya's two comments are on the following lines in the TC Rule section (page 22 of the attached):

1. The text reads: (b) (5)

Sonya's comment on the clause in bold:

(b) (5)

(b) (5)

Susan's response:

I think the phrase "(b) (5)" is creating the confusion here, so I offered an alternative in the text. What we intended here was to make reference to an edit in the rule that (b) (5)

The edit I made here is almost a direct quote from the preamble of the final rule.

For more context, the preamble states: "FSA Time Credits may be lost through inmate discipline procedures in 28 CFR part 541 only if an inmate violates the requirements or rules of an EBRR program or PA."

And the operative text at 523.43 states: (a) Procedure for loss of FSA Time Credits. An inmate may lose earned FSA Time Credits for violation of the requirements or rules of an EBRR Program or PA.

2. The text also reads: (b) (5)

Sonya's comment on the sentence in bold:

(b) (5)

Susan's response:

I do not think this is the case (meaning (b) (5)). The preamble of the final rule states "The Bureau may revisit this question through further rulemaking, depending on the outcome of the DC Council's consideration of these issues, and any other relevant developments" and the sentence on the page here is consistent with that statement. Whether or not the sentence is in here, we have (b) (5). I think it would be helpful to leave this sentence in, but defer to ODAG.

Attached please find a Commerce Department report on Promoting Access to Voting that was circulated to OLC, OLP, CRT, CRM, EOUSA, and CIV, and CRT is the only component that provided comments on the updated document. Can you please let me know by 4 pm on Wednesday if this is cleared to share with OMB or if you have additional edits or input?

," and on p. 40, it says, that there is (b) (5)

The latest iteration of the report had been scaled down from the previous versions. We are just sharing this in hopes it helps in your review. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Hi, Sparkle and Tim (minus others)

Can we either huddle or hash this out via email, since it's due today? If 2 is in the past, including it is probably not an issue. If 1 is a (b) (5) instead of (b) (5), then it is probably an issue. I don't think a general "(b) (5) . . ." is a problem, if that's the focus of #3.

Thoughts?

Hi Rachel,

If you're still working on the PATTERN section but not making changes to the other sections, would it be okay with you if I took the pen and made additional edits to a couple other sections? I can then give the pen to Tamarra for her edits, who can then turn the document back to you to drop in the PATTERN section.

By "taking the pen," I'm referring to new edits that I – then Tamarra – would make to the latest "clean" version that I sent over on Feb. 24 at 6:50PM (and attached here).

Please let me know if that would work for you. Thank you!

Thanks Julius -

On the first issue, those of us on a separate chain have (almost) landed on the revisions to the time credits portion of the report, and you have those edits from me.

On the second, I think it's a good idea to continue to update those numbers.

Rachel, have you added your portions to the draft that Julius circulated on 2/24? Julius will need to add the revisions he noted, and I have some edits on a hard copy. I thought about emailing them, but many are nits that would be very tedious for someone else to input. Do you have an ETA on when you can return the pen to Julius? Thanks! T

Hi Tamarra,

My understanding is that Rachel has the pen.

Outstanding issues:

1. Two lines in the Time Credits Rule section with comments by BOP and OLP (Susan Inman): I believe those lines/comments and associated edits need to be reviewed by you and Karl.

2. BOP just emailed to say that as of March 1, 2022, there are now more than (b)(5); (b)(5) per BOP

(b)(5); (b)(5) per BOP . We need to change that number in two places in the report.

Hi everyone:

My apologies for just getting back to you about this now. After some discussion, I think we've reached consensus that DOJ could offer a brief blurb regarding the Section 203 notification item but not about our plans related to (b) (5) (or, obviously, (b) (5)).

You'll find CRT's draft description of the Section 203 notification issue below. We tried to avoid mentioning (b) (5) while also including some basic background and context about Section 203. Please let us know if you have any questions or you'd like for us to make any changes.

(b) (5)

Happy to discuss if it'd be helpful – just let us know.

Thanks, John

Subject: strategic plan

Hi Maggie,

Attached is the ES memo and strategic plan that is on its way to OAG. There is a placeholder for a message from the AG on page 2. The text on pages 5 and 6—mission, values, introduction—has been edited and approved by the DAG, but if the AG wants to make changes there, it won’t cause too much heartburn. The text in Section II, and especially the metrics, however, has been vetted repeatedly through the components—in addition to having been edited and approved by the DAG. In many cases, the components feel strongly about particular words and terms of art that describe their work, including their statutory missions and limitations. Section III has also been cleared twice. If the AG wants to make changes in these sections, we would appreciate the opportunity to check with the affected components to at least let you know if they believe it would be problematic. Also, because the Publisher format is a little finicky (and doesn’t have a track changes feature) and because we are still finalizing the technical material in the appendices, we think it’s easiest if I hold on to the pen.

OMB is focused on the Agency Priority Goals. They are pulling those together from all the agencies and are going to format and publish them in a variety of ways, which requires lead time. We understand that our ability to make changes to those at the staff level ends on Friday (2/18). As noted in the cover memo, the whole plan is due to OMB on 2/23. The Strategic Planning and Performance Staff in JMD will transmit the final once approved.

If you have any questions about the process or why something is phrased in a certain way, Apiyo and I should have the answer. Please reach out to us at any time.

Thanks!

Sonja Ralston

Hi Heather –

Happy Friday! OAG had very minimal edits, which are included in the enclosed document. In short, we are asking that the last bullet on p. 38 and the last bullet on p.40 both mention “(b) (5) [REDACTED].” The redlines reflect an attempt to make those entries parallel.

Other than that, we are cleared in OAG. Thank you so much for your patience!

-Tim

That's great news! Thank you for those edits. I'll make sure it's cleared from ODAG's perspective too, and flip this back to OMB. Thank you!
