Just had a few minutes to look at the EOUSA and ATJ sections, which starts at the end of page 19 (titled: Raising awareness of Reentry Barriers & Federal Court-Based Reentry Models)

The information is from a previous version and will need to be updated. Christina submitted a new version of the language for us on October 18 (see attached). Do you want me to update the information in track changes?

Subject: RE: Engaging with Stakeholders on Policing and Criminal Justice EO

Good morning,

I hope the attached document has been helpful as you continue your stakeholder engagement on the EO. It is important that we keep track of our follow up stakeholder engagement, so please keep a record of who you met with and on what section.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Subject: Engaging with Stake	holders on Policing and Crimi	nal Justice EO

Good afternoon,

Over the past few weeks, the Associate Attorney General met with the groups listed below to discuss the Executive Order on Advancing Effective, Accountable Policing and Criminal Justice Practices to Enhance Public Trust and Public Safety. The meetings also included DOJ staff from ODAG, OASG, and OLP. These stakeholders provided feedback on EO provisions that they had specific concerns about or could provide expertise on. The Associate told the groups there would be follow up engagement so that they could further provide input on implementation. As we all know, stakeholder engagement is an integral part of the EO implementation process for all sections, not just the sections that explicitly require it.

The attached document includes notes from the Associate's meetings and is divided by EO section. There is also a summary of all sections on p. 3. For any section where a group has expressed interest, it is important that one of the lead components on a particular EO provision contact the organization and provide them an opportunity to meaningfully provide feedback. This will likely look different depending on the section, but these groups are eager to provide specific thoughts and concerns. If there are any provisions of the EO that you do not intend to engage with stakeholders, please let us know.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me, Susan Davies, and Betsy Henthorne.

Thank you,

Saeed

Hi Myesha,

Please see attached spreadsheet with the list of RSVPs for the Nov. 16 civil rights meeting.

A couple folks are listed as tentative because they have not confirmed if they will be joining their colleague. I will let you know if anything changes.

Looking forward to the conversation.

Nadia

Hi All,

Reaching out re: the below ask to invite advocacy groups to the holiday party. I understand that those who attend the CRT (and immigration) quarterly have already been put on the list so is there anybody else we would like to be sure to include?

Below is the latest list I've seen of orgs invited to the CRT quarterly (note: this could be old). This doesn't include the ADL and HRC, would we want to include them? Any other orgs we should include?

I'm assuming presidents and or executive directors? Let me know if folks would like to huddle up on this tomorrow.

Thanks! Kelsey

Hey are there the heads of any external groups (e.g., ADL, NAACP, HRC) on the holiday party invite list? If there's room, I'd make the argument that we should invite them? Can have Kelsey work with the appropriate folks to pull together a list for your review...

Yes, I'm asking whether there are any major advocacy groups—who are not already invited under those two groups or as part of the ASG's list—that we would like to be invited. The answer could very well be no, that all the groups we want to be invited have already received invites.

Thanks!

ODAG WEEKLY TEAM MEMORANDUM

FROM: Civil Rights & Reform Team

DATE: December 2, 2022

1. High-Priority and Cross-Component Matters

A. CRT

- Bruckner v. Biden (M.D. Fla.)(DBE Program): Plaintiffs' complaint alleges that Section 11101(e)(3) of the Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act violates the Equal Protection Clause because it "imposes racial and gender classifications, and grants benefits (namely, contracts under a set aside or quota) based on those racial and gender classifications," and it seeks to prevent DOT from implementing the elements of the Infrastructure Act that have goals for contracting with small and disadvantaged businesses. The Court took Plaintiffs' motion for preliminary injunction and Defendants' motion to dismiss under advisement, directing the parties to submit supplemental briefing describing the administration and implementation of the DBE program and whether there are localities or federal agencies that have set a DBE goal of 0%. Based on her instruction that the parties should consider what a limited injunction would look like, CRT anticipates that the judge will soon grant the preliminary injunction.
- Boe v. Marshall (M.D. Al.) (Alabama SB 184): The United States intervened in this Equal Protection Clause challenge to Alabama Senate Bill 184, which categorically bars transgender minors from receiving medical care to affirm their gender identify, including to treat gender dysphoria. On November 23, 2022, the Division filed its opposition brief in response to a motion for sanctions served by two third-party organizations that were served subpoenas during the discovery process. Though confident on the law, CRT anticipates that the judge will grant sanctions based on his record of past decisions and reversals at the circuit court level.
- Hate Crime Statistics Release FBI's Hate Crime Statistics, 2021 report is scheduled to be released on 12/12/22. On December 2, CJIS will brief DOJ's Hate Crime Enforcement and Prevention Initiative in anticipation of concerns that the data will suggest that the overall volume of reported hate crime incidents decreased from 2020 to 2021. This decrease is most likely attributed to the fact that many of the larger law enforcement agencies and some states, including California and New York, did not make the transition to NIBRS in time to submit data prior to the deadline. As a result, the data from these agencies were not included in this year's reported totals. CJIS and the team managing the Department's Hate Crimes website will collaborate to develop language that acknowledges/explains the decrease in LEA participation in the 2021 UCR and the Hate Crimes Statistics Report related to the transition to NIBRS.

B. BOP

• Compassionate Release: Seth and Ashley have worked with the Director's staff and other Department components to reach a recommendation as to whether and how to grant compassionate release for documented victims of sexual misconduct by BOP staff. Seth and Ashley continue to track this issue. Late last week, FAMM advised us that one request has been filed by a woman currently at FCI Phoenix based on sexual assault during her time at FCI Dublin. We have asked BOP to send this request to its Central Office to review, and to explain whether it has adequate tracking mechanisms to identify these cases.

• Home Confinement Rule and Guidance:

 OMB has completed its review of the Home Confinement Rule and provided its feedback to OLP. BOP and OLP have completed their edits based on OMB's feedback and the rule has been returned to OMB to clear. The Home Confinement Rule will require that BOP set criteria to decide who and under what circumstances individuals transferred to home confinement during the pandemic will be returned to custody.

• First Step Act Implementation:

- On November 17, Director Peters signed a new policy pertaining to the calculation of FSA time credits. Shortly before the policy issued, Sens. Durbin and Grassley sent a letter to BOP with questions about their implementation of time credits.
- While the new policy will resolve several of the Senators' concerns, Seth and Ashley will follow up with BOP to understand two issues, including: (1) BOP rescission of previously awarded time credits based on a failure to complete the needs assessment; and (2) that BOP has reportedly never used the FSA's "warden exception" to permit individuals with Medium or High PATTERN scores to transfer to prerelease custody. We will also engage with BOP to discuss a new issue that has arisen in litigation—that BOP is not applying earned FSA credits to individuals with state detainers. We should be able to provide more details on each of these issues next week.

- SJC staff have reached out to schedule an FSA briefing for the week of December 19. Seth and Ashley will be the likely briefers, along with staff from BOP. The goal is to have BOP take the lead on these briefings moving forward.
- COVID Vaccination: BOP has provided an updated COVID vaccination status report (attached). Per the report:
 - \circ 77.8% of staff have completed a primary series of vaccine shots. This represents a 0.1% decrease from the last report on 11/17/22.
 - 58.4% of current inmates have completed a primary series of vaccine shots. This represents a 1.9% decrease from the last report on 11/17/22.
 - 5.3% of current inmates have completed a primary series of vaccine shots and a bivalent booster. This represents a 1.3% increase from the last report on 11/17/22.
 - o 29.7% of inmates have refused any vaccine.
 - 1.9% of vaccinated inmates have refused the bivalent booster.
- BOP Hiring: BOP has provided its bi-weekly hiring update (attached). BOP reports an overall staff fill rate of 84.62% which is a 0.05% decrease from the last report. The report also gives specific figures for FSA funded positions. BOP maintains its goal of filling 100% of these positions by the end of the year. Currently, BOP has filled 78% of the positions and reports continuing to make "steady progress on FSA hiring."

2. Team Affirmative Projects

- A. Civil Rights/Civil Liberties Organization's Quarterly Meeting: The rescheduled meeting will happen on December 9 at 11:30 am and will be virtual. The Leadership Conference has indicated that the organizations intend to raise the following concerns:
 - \circ LDF election security

- SPLC public education re: hate crime data release
- HRC anti-LGBTQ violence
- ACLU racial profiling guidance

B. BOP

• BOP Sexual Misconduct Working Group:

- Last week, Seth and Austin briefed staff from SJC and PSI about the Working Group's report. The response to the information provided in the briefing was positive and staff did not have many questions.
- Implementation plans are due to ODAG today. Ashley and Seth have been working with BOP on the format and content of its implementation plan. As part of its implementation plan, EOUSA sent out an e-mail requiring USAOs in districts which contain a BOP women's facility to designate a point of contact. EOUSA also circulated the report and other materials to every USA, FAUSA, Executive AUSA, and Criminal Chief.
- Seth, Ashley, Brad, and Myesha have provided a recommendation to Marshall as to the makeup of the standing advisory group.

• External Stakeholder Engagement:

- On December 7, BOP staff will attend a listening session organized by Kevin Ring of FAMM. Seth and Ashley, along with Saeed from OASG, will also attend. FAMM will bring several individuals who benefited from transfer to home confinement pursuant to the CARES Act.
- Later today, Seth and Brandon will meet with Jason Wojdylo to provide additional information about our efforts to encourage the recovery of owed restitution from inmate trust accounts.

3. Items Coming Our Way

A. BOP

• DOL/BOP Initiative. Seth met with Stacey Grigsby from WHCO to discuss a press release in the DOL/BOP initiative, which WHCO continues to encourage both DOL and DOJ to finalize. Seth has drafted a background memo and proposed press release pertaining to the DOL/BOP initiative for inclusion into your weekend book for your review.

- CBP Bus Deployment. BOP ended its bus deployment on November 26. There was an immediate positive impact on BOP operations as it was able to expedite the movement of about 20 inmates at FCI Hazelton who were waiting for transfer out of a restrictive housing unit there. BOP has told CBP that it will not renew the deployment. However, BOP will remain prepared to redeploy if needed. Yesterday CBP asked for BOP to re-deploy 8 buses and 24 staff around December 21 to assist with an expected border surge then. Seth has taken this request back to BOP to hear its concerns with the requested deployment and will meet with Marshall to discuss. Also, Seth asked BOP whether they can assist CBP with obtaining CDL courses for its staff so CBP officers can drive CBP's own buses.
- PSI Hearing on Sexual Misconduct by BOP Staff. PSI has scheduled a hearing on the issue of sexual misconduct by BOP staff for December 13. Director Peters will appear on behalf of BOP. Seth and Austin will be meeting with her and OLA staff next week to discuss her anticipated testimony.

B. ATJ

- ATJ Quarterly. During ATJ's quarterly, they shared with you copies of their proposed internal and external organizational chart. The chart is in Exec Sec (it is currently with OLC for review).
- LAIR Executive Director. ATJ has put into Exe Sec a package for the AG's approval to designate Ms. Yang-Green as the Executive Director of the LAIR. The Exec Sec package still has not reached OASG, but OASG expects to turn quickly once it does.
- LAIR Annual Report. The Attorney General and White House Counsel are required to co-author an annual report on LAIR's work. ATJ staff shared an early draft with OAG, ODAG, and OASG staff, and we discussed edits this week. I expect an informal copy will be ready for your review in early December (around 12/7), with a formal version expected through Exec Sec near the end of the month. The goal is to clear by late December/early January.

4. Recommended DAG Action Items

NONE.

5. Team Action Items

A. ATJ

• Following the Quarterly Meeting, ATJ shared the statement of interest they filed this summer related to vehicle seizures with Mike BenAry, so that he could ensure consistency as the Department considers changes to its own asset forfeiture policy. ATJ will also share the draft fines and fees guidance with Mike once ready.

Hi Saeed,

I hope you're well. Since we last spoke, I've been on detail doing faith-based outreach for the DHS Secretary, reporting through Assistant Secretary Brenda Abdelall.

In this capacity, I've started to get a steady stream of allegations of Hindutva activities in the United States that are either threatening in nature to other communities and/or are fundraising for activities in India that threaten religious minorities.

Below is a request from New York-based Hindus for Human Rights to designate Texas-based Global Hindu Heritage Foundation (GHHF) a hate group, with some details in support.

Attached is a November 27 GHHF fundraising event for activities in India that multiple community contacts have expressed concern about.

I'm sharing for your awareness and welcome any thoughts on how to best address these concerns and requests. Happy to jump on a call at your convenience if you'd like to chat.

Thanks so much, Sameer

Hi Sameer,

Just wanted to provide a selection of quotes from GHHF's newsletters and website that we feel qualifies them to be referred to as a hate group:

- "Christian pastors are like leeches who want to  the Hindu customs and try to digest and pretend that Hindu customs and traditions are from Christianity". (August 22 2022 newsletter)
- "In 2014, GHHF wrote a letter to India's Minister of Education exhorting her to revise the educational curriculum and teach about the "heroism" of Mahatma Gandhi's killer Nathuram Godse." (source)

- "Islam does not tolerate any other religious people." (source)
- "Hindus should learn from the past as to how Muslims have slaughtered Hindus, raped women, destroyed Hindu Temples and looted the riches of India" (source)
- "Consequently Hindus are going to be condemned to hellish agony and persistent terror by Muslims." (source)
- Describing Muslims as "savages" (source)
- Their website cites Robert Spencer, who SPLC describes as "one of America's most prolific and vociferous anti-Muslim propagandists"
- "Once the Muslims dominate the political structure in India, they can pass the Sharia law and all Hindus can be subjected to the above commands of Islam." (source)
- "O Hindus! Muslims are ambushing you! Where can you hide? Where would you GO?" (source)
- "Jesus is angry, hateful, cruel, and jealous God." (source)
- "Hindus should understand that in the name of humanitarian service, the Christians in India would go to any extent to lie and cheat in order to convert Hindus to Christianity. They have no moral conscience, and no scruples, and with unlimited resources coming from European counties, with highly efficient planning and well organized administration, and with highly focused vision to destroy Hindu dharma, they have relentlessly converted Hindus to Christianity on a war footing." (source)
- "Read about the true nature of Christianity and do not fall trap into the fallacy that all religions are same.
 All religions are different, Hinduism is inclusive and other two major religions Christianity and Islam are exclusive. It is all about "We and THEY."" (source)
- "Muslims leaders have openly announced that they will break up India into three countries: Mughalistan, Dalitistan, Dravidistan." (source)

Hi Sameer,

I hope you're doing well. I want to alert you to an upcoming fundraising event in Frisco, Texas hosted by the Global Hindu Heritage Foundation (GHHF).

This gala features an agenda supportive of Hindu nationalist (Hindutva) activities in India, including the practice of ghar wapsi, or the conversion of Christians, Muslims, and other minorities "back" to Hinduism and the destruction of churches in India.

GHHF's goal is to "ensure the survival of Sanatana dharma and also encounter aggressive Christian rampant conversion tactics." They do so by promoting discriminatory and hateful rhetoric about Indian Christians in particular. In their invitation email, GHHF boasts about their activities including establishing educational centers to prevent Hindu children from "being lued by Christians to brain wash them" and "legal efforts to demolish the illegal Churches built in Tirupati city limits."

This event is emblematic of the fundraising activities that Hindu nationalist organizations conduct in the United States. This program and organization supports activities in India that would be considered religious freedom violations under the International Religious Freedom Act. The marketing for this event, as well, includes language reminiscent of the Hindu nationalist version of the Great Replacement Theory. We have already seen that Hindu nationalist actors intend to sew disharmony in the South Asian American community, and events like these explicitly connect Hindu nationalist activity in India and the Indian diaspora.

Regarding this specific event, there may be nothing you can do, but we feel it important that the DHS leadership keeps tabs on these fundraisers for hatred happening withing our borders.

Hi, Marshall

I spoke with Alex Piquero and learned as follows:

Following a call with FBI, BJS, CRT and OPA, I learned as follows:

Myesha Braden Associate Deputy Attorney General Office of the Deputy Attorney General United States Department of Justice (b) (6) From: "Braden, Myesha (ODAG)" (b) (6)

To: "Miller, Marshall (ODAG)"(b) (6)

Cc: "Pietranton, Kelsey (PAO)" (b) (6)

Subject: Hate Crime Data Release Plans and BJS Estimation Procedures

Date: Wed, 07 Dec 2022 19:56:49 -0500

Importance: Normal

Attachments: 2021_CDE_compared_w-2020,2019_quick+OHupd.xlsx

Hi, Marshall

Alex Piquero provided the following information about the relationship of estimation procedures to the hate crime data:

- The hate crime data is incident-based and not estimated like the crime data released in October. Therefore, no estimates were produced concerning this data and, in any case, doing so would have been very challenging.
 - The FBI and BJS are researching how hate crimes are defined, tracked, measured, and coded across states to determine if reporting is consistent from place to place. As more agencies submit their crime data through NIBRS, the FBI and BJS will continue to explore the feasibility of producing estimates and, if so, what estimates should be produced.
- Monday's data will show both that the overall volume of reported hate crime offenses decreased from 2020 to 2021 and, relatedly, the number of reporting agencies also decreased.
 - A few large law enforcement agencies (New York City, Los Angeles, Phoenix, San Jose, Miami-Dade), as well as some states (California and Florida), did not make the transition to NIBRS in time to submit data prior to the reporting deadline of March 14, 2022, and were not included in the 2021 reported totals.
- The folks in CRT-POL prepared a comparison table that is attached hereto. It shows:
 - The numbers are down the most in the following categories:
 - Anti-Jewish (down 52.56%)
 - Anti-Black (down 22.22%)
 - Anti-Hispanic/Latino (down 16.25%)
 - Anti-Muslim (down 12.37%)
 - There is a surprising 140.45% spike in Anti-Sikh bias.
 - Anti-AANHPI hate continues to experience a rise, with a further 15% increase.
 - Sexual Orientation hate crimes showed a 1.98% increase, even though 21.48% fewer agencies reported hate crimes than last year.
 - We experienced an overall 11.62% drop in the number of reported hate crimes.

Year	Total Incidents	# LEAs submitted	Total LEAs in country
2021	7303	11887	18812
2020	8052	15138	18625
2019	7103	15772	18674

During yesterday's call with FBI, BJS, CRT, EOUSA, and OPA, the components discussed the following plans in preparation for the data release:

• FBI conducted a Beta release on Monday that gave 5 organizations (the Leadership Conference, American Jewish Committee, ADL, SPLC, Sikh Coalition, and the Arab American Institute) 24-hour access to the 2021 hate crime data.

- FBI is coordinating with OPA to conduct a press call at 8:30am on 12/12/23 before the data is released. FBI-CJIS, FBI-CID and someone from either OASG or CRT will participate in the call.
- FBI will publish a press release as the data is made public, targeting DOJ regulars and outlets that have made specific outreach concerning the hate crime data.
- FBI CJIS is preparing FAQs that will be linked to the web-site data. (They will share the FAQs with OPA, CRT, EOUSA, and OJP.)
- CRT will host a call with 10 or so civil rights stakeholders either the evening of the data release or the morning after.
- OJP within the coming days/weeks, OJP will publish a blog post outlining upcoming hate crime grant awards under the Till and Shepherd/Byrd programs.

Hi, Paul.

During yesterday's call with FBI, BJS, CRT, EOUSA, and OPA, the components discussed the following plans in preparation for the data release:

- FBI conducted a Beta release on Monday that gave 5 organizations (the Leadership Conference, American Jewish Committee, ADL, SPLC, Sikh Coalition, and the Arab American Institute) 24-hour access to the 2021 hate crime data.
- FBI is coordinating with OPA to conduct a press call at 8:30am on 12/12/23 before the data is released. FBI-CJIS, FBI-CID and someone from either OASG or CRT will participate in the call.
- FBI will publish a press release as the data is made public, targeting DOJ regulars and outlets that have made specific outreach concerning the hate crime data.
- FBI CJIS is preparing FAQs that will be linked to the web-site data. (They will share the FAQs with OPA, CRT, EOUSA, and OJP.)
- CRT will host a call with 10 or so civil rights stakeholders either the evening of the data release or the morning after.
- OJP within the coming days/weeks, OJP will publish a blog post outlining upcoming hate crime grant awards under the Till and Shepherd/Byrd programs.

If CRS has anything to add, please send it to me so I can inform the group.

Best,

Myesha

Betsy,

Per the Leadership Conference, the groups would like to focus on four areas of discussion, led as follows:

- 1) LDF election security
- 2) SPLC public education re: hate crime data release
- 3) HRC anti-LGBTQ violence
- 4) ACLU racial profiling guidance

Out typical agenda includes very brief welcoming remarks from the DAG, ASG, and AAG, then the meeting is turned over to the groups. It turns back to the DAG to wrap.

Hi Myesha,

Apologies for the delay, my response to you didn't send!

Yes, we will plan to have Maya moderate the discussion.

The list of updated and final RSVPs is attached. The highlighted names are the only two that have been added since I last sent the list to you.

Below is the most updated agenda. I will send you a separate document of the agenda later today, but wanted you to have this in the meantime. Please note that the names listed are the leads of each topic, but will not necessarily be the only people to speak on the topics.

Kindly, Hannah

DAG TALKING POINTS

12/09/22

WELCOME

- Hello, again. I'm happy to continue this ongoing conversation we began together shortly after my confirmation.
- It's particularly appropriate to be speaking with you this week, as we commemorate the 65th anniversary of the Civil Rights Division.
- As I said during Tuesday's celebration, the promise of America is that every person should have equal opportunity and equal justice under the law.
- These exchanges improve the Department's understanding of the civil rights community's various perspectives on our work and maintain important lines of communication between the Department and the public.
- During our last meeting, I promised that we would host a listening session focused on revising the Department's 2014 Racial Profiling Guidance and another to discuss the rise in violence against the LGBTQ community.
- We were able to fill both those promises in September. I hope most of you were able to participate in September's awareness summit, hosted by the Civil Rights Division and FBI's Civil Rights Unit and the Office of Diversity and Inclusion. I understand that representatives from approximately 40 LGBTQ+ based community organizations were able to participate.
- Thanks to all of you who participated in September's listening session with DHS and multiple Department of Justice components to discuss the Racial Profiling Guidance. My staff updated me on your thoughts and concerns, and I look forward to hearing more from you today.
- Before we turn the floor over to Maya to lead today's discussion, Assistant Attorney General Gupta and AAG Clarke will offer a few brief words.

CONCLUSION

- The Department of Justice mission to ensure equal justice under law is at the heart of everything we do.
- Thank you for consistently engaging the Department to raise issues of concern to your members and the communities you represent.

Hi Myesha,

Following up with the most updated RSVP list and agenda. The only addition to the RSVP list is Arthur Ago, if I have any other additions, I'll make sure to send that to you ASAP.

And this is the one addition to the agenda "Confronting White Supremacist Violence: An Effective and Inclusive Path Forward Policy Paper".

Thank you kindly, Hannah

Hey Myesha – just a heads up it looks like the racial profiling guidance TPs are missing and the hate crimes TPs appear twice. One other small thing: it says "Assistant" Attorney General in the DAG's intro of Vanita.

Vanita – attached are the DAG's prep materials for tomorrow's quarterly CR meeting. There are a couple of issues with the TPs that I've flagged for Myesha, so I expect we'll get an updated version and will share it with you then.

Based on my conversations with you about this meeting, we have not prepared TPs for you, but let us know if you need that or anything else before tomorrow.

Separately on the hate crimes stats, I spoke to Dena tonight and she is putting all this in an email, but as I understand it:

- Myesha sent Marshall a draft rollout plan last night; unclear if it has gone to the DAG [Saeed do you have this?]
- OPA has had a number of meetings over the past few days with CRT, CJIS, etc. on messaging and rollout
- Last year's rollout included a lengthy statement from the AG. OPA is still assessing whether another (likely shorter) AG quote or statement makes sense this year.
- Not sure if this came up in the CRT meeting today, but Robert Moossy believes the groups who got an advance look at the data (some of which will be at tomorrow's meeting) are pretty understanding about the state of affairs.

Saeed, please jump in if you have anything to add on this.

Quarterly Civil Rights Organization Meeting

DAG TALKING POINTS

12/09/22

WELCOME

- Hello, again. I'm happy to continue this ongoing conversation we began together shortly after my confirmation.
- It's particularly appropriate to be speaking with you this week, as we commemorate the 65th anniversary of the Civil Rights Division.
- As I said during Tuesday's celebration, the promise of America is that every person should have equal opportunity and equal justice under the law.
- These exchanges improve the Department's understanding of the civil rights community's various perspectives on our work and maintain important lines of communication between the Department and the public.
- During our last meeting, I promised that we would host a listening session focused on revising the Department's 2014 Racial Profiling Guidance and another to discuss the rise in violence against the LGBTQ community.
- We were able to fill both those promises in September. I hope most of you were able to participate in September's awareness summit, hosted by the Civil Rights Division and FBI's Civil Rights Unit and the Office of Diversity and Inclusion. I understand that representatives from approximately 40 LGBTQ+ based community organizations were able to participate.
- Thanks to all of you who participated in September's listening session with DHS and multiple Department of Justice components to discuss the Racial Profiling Guidance. My staff updated me on your thoughts and concerns, and I look forward to hearing more from you today.
- Before we turn the floor over to Maya to lead today's discussion, Assistant Attorney General Gupta and AAG Clarke will offer a few brief words.

ISSUE #3: (b) (5)

CONCLUSION

- The Department of Justice mission to ensure equal justice under law is at the heart of everything we do.
- Thank you for consistently engaging the Department to raise issues of concern to your members and the communities you represent.
