Hi Neil,

I do not recall anything other than the email I attached below (and again) on those handful of cases. I reviewed through my emails and could find nothing that contradicted my recollection. I see a couple of memos that she sent that generally discussed the office operations with ODAG, but nothing that specifically discussed the appropriate resolution of the January 17 commutations other than the email I attached earlier.

Good afternoon, Ed,

Reporting on the 925(c) working group—

The agenda started with congressional updates (few) and SG's comments on (b) (5)

I then discussed (b) (5) and highlighted the items I shared with you last week as topics of discussion for the working group:

(b) (5) I will have something soon for you on that.

(b) (5)

- (b) (5)

(b) (5)

We also agreed to meet more regularly (weekly instead of biweekly), and we agreed that it would be helpful if we could start sharing drafts of our response in smaller pieces, so that we can start having review from others of portions of our response ASAP.  I will give you the initial first draft portion tomorrow for your review, so that we can hopefully send that out by early next week.

Please let me know if you have any questions regarding the meeting.  Have a good evening.

Good evening, Ed,

As shared last night, and noted below, the working group believes (and I agree) that seeing draft portions of the final rule sooner rather than later will result in more efficient review by all parties, as opposed to waiting until the entire draft is complete. Attached is a draft of the first part of the rule's response, addressing four of the first issues that commenters addressed. It is a bit dense, but I plan to send this around on Monday to the working group participants unless you have an objection. This is only an initial draft, and I plan to refine it further, but it should give you a good overview of the direction we plan to go.

Have a happy Thanksgiving,

Kira

Good afternoon, Ed:

I wanted to give you a heads up that the original of my letter (see email below) was shipped via FedEx on Saturday to AG Pam Bondi, USADC Jeanine Pirro, AAG Harmeet Dhillon, and yourself, for delivery today.

Unfortunately, according to tracking information, all three packages addressed to 950 Pennsylvania Avenue NW (AG Bondi, AAG Dhillon, and yourself) were redirected and delivered this morning to a FedEx Ship Center located at 1501 Eckington Place NE, Washington DC 20002 for pickup. The fourth package addressed to USADC Pirro at 601 D Street NW was delivered this morning apparently without being redirected.

I called FedEx about the redirected shipments but the agent from Pakistan said all he could do was send an alert within FedEx, whatever that means, and said someone would call me. He could not even give me a telephone number for the FedEx Ship Center at 1501 Eckington Place NE. I hardly believe the three packages there will be picked up by someone from DOJ.

If I had email addresses for AG Bondi and AAG Dhillon, I would email the letter to them with a note about their FedEx shipments being redirected to the Eckington Place NE ship center. I'd like for them to have a chance to see the letter before it's made public. Are you able to provide their email addresses to me?

Thank you!—Robert.

We corresponded a few weeks aga over the Senate testimony of Brad Birkenfeld. Attached is a letter from the National Whistleblower Center in support of Brad's pardon effort. The letter both puts into context how the DOJ's pursuit of Brad was a mistake at best (very bad if not a mistake) and the impact that Brad in ending Swiss Bank secrecy and driving billions back to the US.

Please let us know if you need anything more. I hope this letter is helpful to any effort here.

Dear Mr. Martin,

At the December 1, 2025 White House Press Briefing, Press Secretary Caroline Leavitt explained the basis for President Trumps 'pardon of former Honduran President, Orlando Hernandez. Ms. Leavitt said the conviction was an "over-prosecution" by a "weaponized" Biden administration. She went on to explain "there was virtually no independent evidence presented" and the conviction was based on the testimony from "many admitted criminals" who hoped their testimony could reduce their sentences.

This scenario is IDENTICAL to the scenario that resulted in the conviction of Chad Scott.

1. Weaponized Biden prosecution.
2. No independent evidence.
3. Testimony from convicted felon/drug dealers who hoped to and subsequently did get their sentences substantially reduced.

[redacted]

[redacted]

(b) (6)

[redacted]

Please bring this egregious state of facts involving Chad Scott to the attention of President Trump. Although Scott may not have been a political figure, given the circumstances, Chad Scott has the same right to freedom as President Hernandez.

Ed - hope you are doing well. Not sure if this would fall within your purview, but wanted to see if we might discuss this case and how the President could be the big hero with military who work in the federal government. Please let us know if you'd have time to discuss.

The issue involves a Federal benefit for civilian employees who serve in the Reserve Forces (Reservist Differential at 5 U.S.C. § 5538). The case is Schwieger v. United States, Case No. 21-2131 in U.S. Court of Federal Claims. This benefit pays a differential to cover any deficit between military pay while activated and what the Federal civilian salary would have been (if any--some make more on military orders so nothing is owed; it also only covers periods of LWOP not periods while in a paid leave status). When signed into law in 2009, Obama unlawfully excluded anyone who volunteered for active duty. The Supreme Court directly overturned that interpretation and policy earlier this year in Feliciano v. Dept of Transportation, 605 U.S. (April 30, 2025).

There are two pressing issues that legal policy folks in the Trump Admin should address:

1. Career lawyers are appearing to steer the lead class representation on these cases to the Anti-Trump AFGE Union (American Federation of Government Employees) who only recently filed a separate class case in May. Our case has been pending for years. DoJ career attorneys in the AFGE case did not even oppose a motion for interim class counsel designation in September and the Biden Judge immediately approved it within 24 hours. In my case, career DoJ attorneys are fighting tooth and nail against class status and also trying to argue a bogus statute of limitations to avoid paying veteran claims earlier than 2019. AFGE is not even attempting to fight for the thousands of earlier veteran claims before 2019. My case covers the entire period from the beginning in 2009 to the present. It was telling that DoJ career attorneys (who may be members of AFGE for all I know) did not oppose interim class designation and the judge jumped to approve it so quickly.

2. In addition, we are proposing to the Government a far less expensive and quicker resolution through a Consent Decree but DoJ is steadfastly opposed and refuses to even talk about it. A Consent Decree could have the Trump Admin simply direct DoD and Federal Agencies to immediately pay these vets their back differential as a matter of an agreed policy change. It would result in a much reduced litigation and attorney fee arrangement avoiding the transfer of likely terabytes worth of PII information (SSN, addresses, banking information, etc.) outside of Government control and saves millions in costs to outside IT specialists to store and protect it all. Class counsel in a consent decree would only have to monitor the Government analysis in determining who is owed and how much while the data is maintained within secure systems. It would be a shame if an anti-Trump union takes lead representation and then costs the Government millions if not tens of millions more unnecessarily. DoJ political appointees and other Trump Admin lawyers should have 'eyes on' this situation.

3. The career attorneys in our case are also trying to cut out 2/3rds of the class of volunteering wartime vets by arguing their claims are time-barred. This argument is specious; but more to the point, the optics are horrible for the President. This is his constituency. I think Pres. Trump himself would be angry if he knew of this attempt to delay payments because some DoJ lawyers want to try to avoid responsibility by litigating a weak time-bar argument when the Supreme Court ruled the original Obama interpretation was completely wrong and is now reversed going back to 2009.

Bottom line: the Government lost decisively in the recent Sup. Ct. decision. They owe the back Reservist Differential. Trying to argue technical loopholes in Court at this point does not serve the President well and just adds insult to injury after this constituency of mostly wartime volunteer veterans screwed over by that initial Obama decision. These are Trump people and its time to stop the Biden litigation posture now on autopilot after the recent Sup Ct. loss. They need to be paid this back pay without having to wait for AFGE to max out its years-long class litigation approach that will also max out a hefty attorney fee award for them.

Neil – Here is a somewhat separate item for your consideration. This falls more into Ed Martin's DOJ weaponization responsibilities.

It lays out the complicated maneuvering in naming Nixon an unindicted co-conspirator.

Note, I'm not seeking unsealing of witness testimony before the grand jury. I'm after the record of DOJ's presentation regarding a sitting president.

It's generally agreed to be settled law that a sitting president cannot be indicted. How then can it be allowable to be named an unindicted c-conspirator? What fun ramifications for today, too!

Thanks for the update, Neil. When I first filed my petition, I reserved a hotel room in D.C. for the nights of August 7th and 8th. Is there any reason I should keep that reservation?

If we miss doing something on the August 8th date of President Nixon's resignation, the next significant date would be September 8th, the date of President Ford's pardon.

Let me know.

George –

I spent yesterday in DC, speaking at a Hill seminar on Nixon, so I just saw your idea. It ties in quite nicely with our past efforts to get Jaworski's grand jury presentation unsealed.

Remember:

- Both Cox and Jaworski announced publicly that they'd never name RN an unindicted co-conspirator, because he would stand accused but have no opportunity to come into court and defend himself. Jaworski, however, was rolled by his staff and they did just that.
- There's a great exchange on the tape where Petersen explains to NIxon how it works, roughly: the grand jury thinks you're guilty, but they are choosing not to indict you at this time.
- Many of the public believed the grand jury action was an actual finding of guilt
- The Supreme Court granted cert. on the question of whether a grand jury had the power to name RN, but later decided that action was "improvidently granted." There was no Circuit Court decision, since Jaworski appealed the matter directly to the Supreme Court. Thus, Sirica's decision supporting the grand jury action remains the precedent in the DC courts.

Thus, the essay can urge Obama be treated the same as Nixon. I'll work on this over the weekend.

Why don't you write a OpEd on this?  Nixon was charged as a co-conspirator, why not Obama? This being a way to document Obama's role, even though they couldn't charge him.

Good morning Mr. Martin,

The GRB Benefits Service Center has received your SF 2809 - Health Benefits Election Form. After review, we noticed some issues that require correction before we can proceed with processing your election.

(b) (6)

In case you no longer have the original, we have attached a blank copy of the Open Season SF 2809 to this email. You can submit your corrected SF 2809 and dependent verification to the GRB Benefits Service Center via fax at 877-386-4066 or via email to bsc@grbinc.com. If sending via encrypted email is preferred, you may now have the option from your DOJ email to "send securely" as an alternative to the standard "send" option. If not, include the word "[encrypt]" (with opening and closing square brackets) in the subject line to ensure your Personally Identifiable Information (PII) is protected.

Once we have received the corrected SF 2809 and the requested dependent verification, we will move forward with processing your election. We understand that you want to make sure your election is effective as quickly as possible, so we please note that we will honor your initial receipt date, meaning your Open Season election will become effective at the beginning of the first full pay period of 2026 - January 11th, 2026.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to call the GRB Benefits Service Center at 877-386-4010.

Hello Ed,

I hope you're doing well, and I truly appreciate how hard you are working on behalf of the American people. Because I know how busy you are, I hesitated to reach out — but this is deeply important to so many of us.

I wanted to share a filing that was just entered on the docket in our MDL. It is a letter to Judge Daniels that finally places the voices of the 9/11 widows, children, and our murdered loved ones into the public record after nearly 24 years. For many of us, this is the first time our concerns have been acknowledged in a formal, public way.

We are trying very hard to secure a meeting with Attorney General Pam Bondi so we can ensure that the proper heirs — the widows, children, and estates — are genuinely heard as the MDL moves forward. If there is any way for you to forward this filing to her or help facilitate that connection, it would mean a great deal to the 9/11 families.

I am attaching the PDF here. Thank you, truly, for any assistance you can provide — and for everything you already do for this country.

With gratitude,
Patricia Ryan

Subject: Ethics Reminders

Hi All,

As we approach the time of year when holiday events are traditionally held and gifts are exchanged, I want to take a moment to remind all employees of the ethics rules that apply. These rules, which are found in the Standards of Conduct, 5 CFR Part 2635, are summarized in the attached ethics fact sheets. As you'll see, there is one fact sheet addressing the rules that apply to gifts employees exchange with other federal government employees, as well as another fact sheet discussing the rules that apply to gifts individual employees receive from outside sources. These fact sheets can also be found in DEO's ethics library on the intranet (Ethics Library (doj.gov)).

Also please remember that you may not engage in fundraising for a charity in the federal workplace, or while using government time or government resources. The only authorized solicitation of funds in the Department is on behalf of the Combined Federal Campaign (CFC). On the other hand, employees may engage in fundraising in their personal capacity, so long as it is done outside of work, they do not use their official title or position to promote the fundraising, and they do not solicit subordinates or prohibited sources.

This guidance only highlights common questions and does not cover every situation. For further guidance, please refer to the Departmental Ethics Office (DEO) website: Justice Management Division | Departmental Ethics Office.

Finally, if you have not done so already, please complete your annual ethics training!

I'm here for any questions you may have.

Thanks!
Rachel

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Request for Immediate Review — Evidence of IRS/Treasury Weaponization Affecting Thousands

Director Martin,

Thank you for your service to our country, and congratulations to you and Mr. McCabe on your critical roles supporting President Trump's mission to expose and dismantle federal weaponization. Your leadership in this area is genuinely appreciated.

I am writing to request your office's assistance regarding a matter that falls squarely within the mandate of the DOJ Weaponization Working Group. We have documented evidence that elements within the IRS and Treasury — largely holdovers from the Obama/Biden era — are continuing to operate an enforcement program that was deliberately weaponized against thousands of small-business investors, rural landowners, and conservation-focused partnerships across the Southeast.

These enforcement actions remain active today, inside the current administration, and they are significantly harming communities that overwhelmingly support this President. The pattern mirrors the exact type of political misuse of federal power your office was created to investigate and correct.

Attached for your review are:

1. A formal letter requesting your intervention, summarizing the structural IRS/Treasury misconduct and the urgent need for oversight; and
2. A recent post by investigative journalist Laura Loomer, whose reporting has already brought national attention to the core issues we are raising. Her findings align with our firsthand evidence.

I would be grateful for the opportunity to brief you or your staff on the details so this matter can be addressed promptly and in accordance with the President's directives.

Thank you for your time and attention. I look forward to hearing from you.

Todd Collins

External Email

Good evening, Mr. Columbo,

Mr. McCabe shared the below email with me regarding your client, Jake Hoffman. Thank you for reaching out to us. In order to properly evaluate Mr. Hoffman's request, we do require some additional information. Please respond to this email with Mr. Hoffman's:

- Full Name: Jacob Michael Hoffman
- Address: (b) (6)
- DOB: (b) (6)
- SSN: (b) (6)
- FBI Number (if available): n/a
- Sex: Male
- Race: Caucasian/White

Please also respond to this email with:

- An affidavit from Mr. Hoffman, affirming he: COMPLETED AFFIDAVIT ATTACHED.
  - Is not a fugitive; is not addicted to or unlawfully using controlled substances; is not under a protective order; is not currently in prison; is not currently subject to probation, parole, or any other form of supervision; and has affirmatively disclosed his criminal history.
  - Has provided all relevant information as requested and that the information provided is true and correct.
- Official court records of his offense, including but not limited to, a factual statement of the offense conduct.
- A completed and signed Authorization for Release of Information (form attached). COMPLETED FORM ATTACHED.
- A properly completed Fingerprint Card (FBI Form FD-258) or an equivalent electronic fingerprint scan. SCAN OF COMPLETED LINKED ABOVE. ORIGINAL IN MY POSSESSION. CAN OVERNIGHT IF NEEDED.
- Affidavits from three character references, containing their name and contact information, who would be willing to speak with us if needed and who attest:
  - That they are not related to Mr. Hoffman and have known him for at least three years;
  - That they (the affiants) have not been convicted of an offense punishable by more than one year in prison; and

- That, to their knowledge, Mr. Hoffman has not committed a crime within the past five years, is not a drug user, does not abuse alcohol or other intoxicants, is not suffering from a mental health condition that would impair his judgment, and is a person of good character with a good reputation in the community. Additionally, the affiants must affirmatively attest that they believe Mr. Hoffman would not pose a danger to the community if permitted to possess a firearm.

Although we can provide no assurances of when a decision will be reached (and what the outcome of the decision will be), if you could provide the requested information by November 24, at the latest, it will greatly speed our ability to process the case. It would also be helpful if you could provide all of the requested information at one time, rather than piecemeal. Please be aware that we may need to request additional information based on the results of any investigation we conduct. If you have questions, please reach out to Kira Gillespie at USPardon.Attorney@usdoj.gov, and I do not hear from you to confirm receipt, I will reach out tomorrow.

Sincerely,
Kira Gillespie

Just bringing this to the top of your inbox. As you know, it is incumbent upon PARDON to keep the process on the final rule moving and so I require your approval to send forward part II of the draft of the final rule preamble to the working group. I would like to send the draft by COB today to avoid us being derailed too much by the impending holidays.

As promised, please find part 2 of the final rule preamble. As noted I made some changes and rearranged topics in response to component comments (OLP, ATF, & CIV all provided comments), and added sections on discrete requirements in the application (Part I), just the summaries of the comments in Parts F, G, & H (b) (5). If a redline compare version would be helpful, please let me know! I also have included some notes that I plan to ask the larger working group.

Thanks!

Ed, I was able to reduce the size of the PDFs by allowing them to be accessible only on the last two versions of Adobe. It is the only way to send them in one email, every other method I have tried is too large for Microsoft to transmit. If they cannot open these, we may have to return to a multi-email transmission.

Hi, Ed –

There are actually two documentaries, each just over an hour in length:

- "Watergate Secrets and Betrayals," produced by George Bugatti, was released on August 8, 2024, the Fiftieth Anniversary of Nixon's resignation. It is carried on the Salem NOW network and is the one submitted to about a dozen film festivals, including the World Film Festival in Cannes, where it was just named a finalist. I have asked George to send you a link.

- "How the Deep State Took Down Richard Nixon," produced by Michael Patrick Leahy, was released on this past August and is featured on Steve Bannon's War Room. Steve is listed as an Executive Producer. It can be accessed at warroom.film

Both are based on the theme that the Watergate defendants did not receive the due process of law guaranteed by the Fifth Amendment.

As you know, my Pardon Petition for the Watergate defendants is based on the same premise and remains pending in your office.

Let me know if I can be of further assistance.

Ed,

Rather than waiting for the access code, I'm providing a direct link below.

If I may note, Judge Laurence Silberman's disclosure regarding his awareness that Archibald Cox met privately with Judge Bazelon begins at 58:41 and continues through 1:00:00.
The contextual preamble, featuring Judge Andrew Napolitano and Geoff Shepard, begins at 56:13.

Attached is the list of Sirica's known ex parte meetings. He was a terrible judge, the most reversed in the D.C. District. Naturally, Time Magazine named him 1973 Man of the Year for his conduct of the Burglary Trial.

Renata Adler really took him apart in her Harper's Magazine article, https://harpers.org/archive/2000/08/a-court-of-no-appeal/?single_1

Thank you. Especially for your quick response.

I'm particularly interested in framing the question of Brady violations because I think it really fits into what's happened over the last 25 years to many Americans. And of course the January 6 defendants were subject to insane Brady violations.

Ed –

Hope the holiday season finds you well! This case out of EDNY where my guy's codefendant, David Gentile, got a commutation, has taken a bit of a wild turn. I really think the AUSAs are smarting from the commutation and determined to pretend the White House has not taken a position on whether their trial was Biden-era weaponized stuff (as Karoline Leavitt referred to it at a 12/1 presser) and they are really thumbing their noses at the President's decision. I can explain. Do you have 5-10 minutes for a call on Monday? Or even over the weekend?

Dear Ed,
Thank you for your service to our nation, the Department of Justice, and President Trump.

You and I met, I believe at the Council for National Policy (CNP), back when I was President of National Religious Broadcasters. At this time I am the Ambassador for Patriot Mobile and also serve on the CNP Executive Committee - and as Treasurer.

First, I hope you can come speak at CNP in February or in May. I believe Bob McEwen has invited you, or is going to. It is his role to extend the official invitation, but I am just encouraging you to accept. Whatever the date, our members would love to hear from you and I would enjoy reconnecting with you as well.

Second, I wanted to thank you for meeting with Brad Birkenfeld. I have attached a recent letter, which you may have already seen, that sheds new light on his case. Brad is a victim of a weaponized DOJ during the Obama-Hilary years. He has provided unique assistance to Senator Grassley and Senator Ron Johnson in their investigations. He has also helped build and fund a robust and growing Whistleblower movement on behalf of the American people.

In addition, I have known Brad for 7 years and recommend him for a Presidential pardon with enthusiasm, and without any reservation. One more thing, when this pardon comes it will be a PR bonanza for President Trump's original critique of corruption under President Obama and Hilary Clinton. According to the Trump's campaign's website at the time, the "Crooked Hilary" label came from a Wall Street Journal article highlighting revelations from non other than Brad Birkenfeld. This will be a pardon that "keeps on giving."

Please let me know if there is anything I can do to help with his case. I left you a phone message today and would be happy to talk about how I can assist further.

Again, thank you for meeting with Brad, considering his cause, and working to get it done.

Sincerely yours,
Jerry

Subject: [EXTERNAL] RE: Darryl Cohen

Dear Mr. Martin and Mr. McCabe,

Thank you for speaking with our client Darryl Cohen and considering this case.

I write to briefly update you on the status. SDNY prosecutors, who brought this case after the investigation was started by an overtly political AUSA in California, are throwing up roadblocks wherever they can as we move forward toward trial.

After we made an extensive presentation to the SDNY pointing out the substantial credibility problems with their lead witness (amongst other deficiencies), the SDNY has expressly changed its theory entirely as to how Mr. Cohen supposedly broke the law. Although there is no new evidence, we are now contending with an entirely new theory of supposed fraud. Additionally, less than four weeks from trial, the SDNY still will not definitively commit to calling its lead witness at trial, undoubtedly because of his own exposure and misconduct at the heart of these false allegations. Meanwhile, the SDNY prosecutors effectively threatened our lead witness with criminal exposure in an overt attempt to pressure her not to testify. For the first time in this almost three-year-old case, after we identified her as an important witness, SDNY claimed to the Court that the witness is an “unindicted co-conspirator” and asked the Court to appoint her a criminal lawyer. We filed a brief detailing the SDNY’s heavy handedness, which I have attached and which remains pending.

There are now at least three witnesses who will not communicate with the defense (or suddenly claim not to remember key information that exonerates Mr. Cohen) after having interacted with FBI agents or the prosecutors on this case. One expressly admits he was told by the SDNY not to speak about the case, another made clear to us that his memory changed after he was visited by the FBI. It is becoming increasingly difficult to defend Mr. Cohen through the SDNY’s strong-arm tactics.

Separately, Mr. Cohen continues to pursue claims against his former counsel who for months during the representation was in touch with the SDNY about a high-level position, unbeknownst to Mr. Cohen. That counsel later assumed multiple high-level positions at SDNY and the Court has not ruled on our related motion, which has been pending for well over a year.

We understand that Judge Kozinski’s letter about Mr. Cohen and his case has been sent. Our pretrial conference is scheduled for January 13, followed by trial on January 20. SDNY rejected our efforts to stop this injustice before trial. We hope your office can take a closer look and very much appreciate your consideration.

Best,

Michael L. Bloch

Ed, Neil, Tom -

My family and I would like to wish you all a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. I'm also passing along this editorial that has been reprinted in the WSJ at Christmas time every year since 1949. I thought you'd appreciate it:

I'd like to add that, just yesterday, we received a significant amount of Brady material in one of them - the one that's about to go to trial next month in the EDNY (US v. Cangialosi, et. al.). This Brady disclosure significantly supports many of the points that we made in our meeting with Ed, and that the clients in all of the cases have been making since day 1, making it even more clear in our view why the DOJ should be allowing the SEC to litigate these matters instead of prosecuting them criminally.

As requested, attached is the latest PARDON Org Chart. We are authorized to fill 32 positions in FY26. We currently have 19 people on board and have 13 vacancies.

- Current Vacancies: 13 Total Positions
  - 3 approved for hiring (GC, FOIA, LAS)—highlighted in GREEN.
  - 10 submitted hiring exemption request to JMD on 11/25/25—highlighted in RED. I checked with JMD HR last week and they said the exemption requests are still with ODAG for approval, but they hope to have an update soon.

Hello!

Hope you are well. Reaching out from MS NOW (Previously MSNBC).

I'm hoping to connect with Edward R. Martin Jr., who I believe is the head of the Weaponization Working Group.

We are working on a story for MS NOW for this weekend, where we will look back at five years since January 6.

I'm wondering if any people have been charged because of the "Weaponization Working Group"'s work, or if there is any statement from the group as we approach the 5th anniversary?

Thanks so much!

Ed,
I hope you and your family had a wonderful holiday season. I apologize for the intrusion, but I wanted to follow up regarding a few Federal Firearm Restoration applications I submitted through the portal over the past couple of months.
A few weeks ago, I emailed Neil McCabe to inquire about their status. I did not receive a response, and when I followed up this morning, the email bounced back. I am unsure whether Neil has moved on to another role. If someone else is now overseeing the Federal Firearm Restoration applications, I would appreciate it if you could point me in the right direction.
I received confirmation emails indicating that the applications were successfully submitted, but unlike pardon or commutation petitions, no reference or tracking number was provided. I am simply trying to confirm that the applications are still under review and to determine whether any additional information is needed from me at this stage.
Thank you very much for your time and continued assistance. I truly appreciate your help.

Hello Ed,

I hope you're doing well and had a lovely holiday. Thank you again for taking the time to review the filing I shared earlier. I really appreciate your willingness to stay engaged.

I wanted to circle back, as you suggested, to keep you up to date. Since my last note, two additional filings have been entered on the MDL docket. Together with the first submission, they more fully reflect the concerns of the 9/11 widows, children, and estates about how the MDL has been handled and how our voices have gone largely unheard for nearly 24 years.

For ease, I'm attaching all three filings here.

As before, our hope is simply to ensure that the proper heirs — the widows, children, and estates — are meaningfully heard as this MDL moves forward. We would be very grateful for the opportunity to meet with Attorney General Pam Bondi, or for any guidance you may have on the best way to facilitate that conversation.

Thank you again for your time and consideration.

With gratitude,
Patty Ryan

Dear Colleague,

Just before the New Year, I was informed that in 2022 the then-U.S. Pardon Attorney Liz Oyer oversaw the greatest failure in Pardon Office history.

On her watch, Ms. Oyer oversaw the destruction or theft of nearly all of the original signed Obama pardons, original signed Trump I pardons, and 18 months worth of the auto-pen Biden pardons. These original documents, signed by our Presidents, are gone. After discovering this, Ms. Oyer appears to have done a truncated investigation after which no one was ever held accountable. Next, she seems to have hidden all of this from her superiors during the transition to the new Trump administration. This is personally insulting to the Presidents and professionally unacceptable to "we the people."

After finding about what Ms. Oyer did, I have reviewed much of the material from that time including her correspondence and emails as well as some investigator efforts and some interviews. All of it seems incomplete to me because Ms. Oyer never found out where the documents went or if they still exist. She also did not hold anyone accountable for this. I believe Ms. Oyer must answer for this.

At this time, I ask you to please retain any documents you may have that relate to this and ask you also to review your memory and knowledge of the events around that time. Since the now-gone documents are signed by a President, they are subject to the Presidential Records Act so this matter is of utmost importance. At this time, my efforts to investigate will be confidential and I ask you to keep it so also. If you have any information about the theft or destruction, you may come see me directly and confidentially.

To be clear, we do have contemporaneously made facsimile copies of all of the clemency actions from those times. And, as a matter law, the Oyer theft/destruction does not impact the validity or efficaciousness of the Presidents' acts.

One last point: I believe that this failure brings shame upon Ms. Oyer as Pardon Attorney and not on you or this office. Thank you for all you do and please keep up the good work.

All the best.

Good afternoon Gentlemen,

I hope you all are having a nice weekend (with just the right amount of leftover Halloween candy).

There have been some recent updates in Mr. Hana's case that I think are relevant to consideration of his clemency application. I have included those in a brief supplement, which is attached here. Please let me know if I should also upload this through the online portal, and most importantly, thank you for your time and consideration of this additional information.

All my best,
Annie

Good evening, Ed,

Please find the draft of a final rule response. I am still fine-tuning some number estimates (I thought I went to law school to avoid numbers! Sigh) and anticipate receiving some comments from OLP tomorrow morning, so this may be adjusted very minimally, but it should be in good shape. The final section includes additional responses to comments received on application processes, including (b) (5) I hope to distribute this to the remainder of the working group by Tuesday, to give you time over the long weekend to review.

Brian,

Sounds good.

Re cleaning out, with your indulgence, would you please allow until Thursday at cob to get cleared out? I need to take files/material to Pardon but some personal stuff and especially my books need to go to my home office. Need to figure it out.

FYI, the two meetings scheduled for tomorrow are pardon related and requested before the holidays. I've cancelled them and will reschedule.

I have been referring folks and mail to Colin when they call or email or mail re Weaponization. (Snail mail tends to come to Pardon office so there are some to send over). Will make sure to transfer all to him.

Thx.

Ed,

(b) (6)

As you know, your position of record is solely with the Office of the Pardon Attorney, and you no longer possess the ODAG and SAUSA titles. Accordingly, as has been discussed, you should no longer be occupying ODAG space or using ODAG resources, including personnel, to conduct pardon-related work. This includes any meetings or activities that may have been tentatively scheduled to take place in ODAG, such as those scheduled for tomorrow.

We have instructed Main Justice personnel to begin clearing the room so it can be repurposed as soon as possible. Please plan to spend tomorrow morning removing all personal items and transferring any pardon-related materials to the Office of the Pardon Attorney. Please also coordinate with Nate tomorrow to return your office key. In addition, please ensure that any and all work associated with the Weaponization Working Group is transferred to Colin.

Thank you and please do not hesitate to reach out to me directly if you have any questions.

Best,

Brian,
Good morning.
I swung by the office last night and cleaned out my stuff. (I felt like it was easier to get things out last night and move over to Pardon today.
There are two stacks of material left in the offices which I informally labeled. First, in the main office, McCabe‘s old desk is covered with materials that are now redundant or out of date. All of that stack is trash. (To be clear, many bring me two or three copies of documents.  I have copies of all that I need. The rest is out of date and unnecessary.) Would you please arrange for it to be disposed?
The second stack is in the extra room adjacent to my private office. That stack is for Colin. It is the last of the weaponization paperwork. If you can please alert him to this, I would appreciate it and I can follow up with him on some of what it is. It’s mostly records that I didn’t think I should yet destroy.
Thanks for all your hard work for me and the admin. All the best.

I received a series of auto responses at that time indicating that the office was closed due to the shutdown, but I have not yet received a letter confirming that his application was received.

Can you confirm that his application has been received for review? His application is very important to me.

Ed –

Hello.

My name is Mark Amick (Georgia). I am the same Mark Amick who is listed at the top of the names from President Trump's pardon which was announced on Monday, November 10 2025 regarding the 2020 Election.

It is my understanding that I need to reach out to you to request my actual pardon certificate. I am respectfully making that request.

Please let me know what you may need from me further on this matter or verification that I am THE Mark Amick listed.

In anticipation, my home address is as follows:

(b) (6)

Thank you for this and all of your efforts for our country.
Regards,
Mark Amick

It is my pleasure to extend an invitation to you both to come and meet next Thursday, February 4th. Your experience and leadership on issues of weaponization and the rule of law in Poland and the EU are very valuable to us.

Please let me know how I may facilitate your visit. I expect the meetings to take place on February 4 although we can work out the time and exact locations.

All the best.

Mr. Martin,

Thank you again for advocating for my situation. Following up, I wanted to reattach the Request for Redress (and associated Assignment of Error) for ease of reference.

Additionally, since we haven't had the chance to meet in person, I wanted to attach a photo to provide a face to the story. I am in the middle of the photo, and am surrounded by my four siblings, who have served or are currently serving in the Air Force.

Lastly, wanted to note that a retired Brigadier General (Christopher "Mookie" Walker) will be sending a reference letter your way later this week. Gen. Walker has known me since before my time at the Academy and has closely followed along with my situation since the Board of Inquiry. I believe the context he can provide about my situation and the service in general could prove helpful.

Thank you for all you are doing to preserve what makes this country great. Please let me know if there's anything else I can provide.

Very Respectfully,

Ed,

I am hoping the news reports aren't correct and you are staying in the administration!! You have been great to work with on issues.

I wanted to follow up regarding the commutation application for Eric Smith. (b) (6)

Good morning, Mr. Columbo and Mr. Hoffman,

We are writing to advise you that the Attorney General has decided to grant Mr. Hoffman relief from his federal firearm disabilities under 18 U.S.C. 925(c). The notice of her decision and additional information about the process is contained in the attached letter. We encourage you to keep the letter for your records.

The FBI NICS Section has been notified, and it my understanding that they intend to have completed their updates today. We also intend to publish your name, along with other recipients, in the Federal Register soon, as required by statute.

Donna

I hope you are well. I don't have your attorney's email so pls forward this to him as well.

I was meeting with Ed Martin Jr. (the US Pardon attorney) today and shared with him some of your story.

He was particularly disturbed by your arrest where the officers pointed guns with laser sights (b) (6).

He will be in LA next week or the week after and wanted to meet with you (if you are open to that.) Ed is passionate about true justice, is interested in your case and might be able to help.

I reached out directly to make the introduction because the timing of his upcoming LA trip is very soon.

Ed,

As we discussed, Donna was totally abused by USC and the prosecutors. She fought the false charges until she ran out of money and eventually pleaded guilty. She followed USC's policies for 16 years and was thrown under the bus by USC. She is passionate about clearing her name - especially for her family's sake.

I hope you two can connect.

All the best

John

SUBJECT: Scaling Proven Solutions for Medicaid/Medicare Fraud Eradication:-

Summary:

- Nachiketa Bhatt, MBBS, RN, Nursing Home Administrator, Utilization Review Director has over 25 years of experience in the following :- patient eligibility determination, medical necessity reviews, financial capacity review, 1915 C Medicaid waiver reviews for home and community based care for seniors, disabled and autistic/ down syndrome patients, prior authorization, appeals, denials, the audit of hospital, nursing home, pharmacy, home health, outpatient and DME services plus successfully carrying out US Attorney investigations with recovery of over $ 32 million and many more undergoing successfully. These using “evidence based criterias” for Interqual , Mcg, MDS, Oasis for the traditional Medicare/Medicaid or managed care organization services.

- The softwares developed by ACG and Venedium helps to solve the current issues faced by CMS including the recovery of past claims.

The Opportunity:
Eliminating Fraud Risk & Ending "Pay-and-Chase" Today
The multi-billion-dollar fraud rings recently uncovered in Minnesota and across the country are no longer just "administrative waste"—they are industrial-scale thefts of American taxpayer capital, often siphoned into international shell companies and hostile regions. We do not need to wait for new legislation or years of R&D. The technologies to stop this are available now, providing value in the private sector, and are ready for immediate national scale.
1. DETECTION: Intelligent Surveillance of High-Risk Ecosystems
Retrospective audits are failing because they miss the "interrelated entity" networks that drive modern fraud. We propose a move to Targeted Surveillance Analytics that identify anomalies before the money leaves the country.

The Action: Deploy high-speed analytics to cross-reference CMS billing data with physical facility capacity and "Related-Party" financial ties.
The Example: In Skilled Nursing, these tools instantly flag facilities that understaff care while funneling "inflated rent" to offshore real estate shell companies owned by the same board members.
The Value: We replace manual reviews with system-wide "Anomaly Scoring" that prioritizes the highest-threat targets for DOJ enforcement.
2. PREVENTION: Expert-System Algorithms & "Proof of Care"
Fraud persists because the "Need" for care is often fabricated. We utilize Expert-System Care Algorithms to validate clinical necessity at the point of engagement.
The Action: Integrate the Cognitive Clinical & Payment Intelligence to act as an automated "Success Assurance" layer. It ensures that the patient's match the billed service.
The Example: In Home Health, "Ghost Billing" is eliminated via real-time "Proof of Presence" algorithms that require a verified, time-stamped digital handshake on an immutable ledger before a service is marked "deliverable."
The Value: This moves the system from "presumed care" to trusted and accountable care - if the care wasn't proven, the taxpayer doesn't pay.
3. ACCOUNTABILITY: Traceable Payments via Distributed Ledgers
The "Hawala" and shell-company networks used to hide stolen funds rely on the opacity of traditional banking. We propose Secure Block-Chain Distributed Ledgers for all high-risk program payments.
The Action: Tokenize Medicaid/Medicare disbursements through a secure, transparent ledger. Payments are "locked" until the Care Algorithm and Surveillance Analytics verify the service.
The Goal: Every dollar becomes 100% traceable from the U.S. Treasury to the bedside. This creates a "closed loop" that prevents funds from being diverted to unverified international accounts.
Conclusion: Engagement Ready
These are not experimental concepts; these are Success Assurance tools that are currently operational and protecting clinical integrity in complex healthcare environments. We are ready to engage with the Administration to deploy this framework in high-risk jurisdictions immediately. By embracing these scalable technologies now, we can secure Compelling Economic Value for the American Patient and the American Taxpayer.

Thx!

Subject: The Media Rollout of the Obama-triggered IC reversal to validate the Russian Collusion Hoax

Mr. Martin:

Good morning.

Critical to the effort to undermine the 2016-2017 presidential transition from President Barack Obama to President-elect Donald J. Trump was how the Russian Collusion Hoax was given Obama's presidential support, followed by a media rollout into The Washington Post and The New York Times—all part of an Obama-ordered reversal of intelligence community analysis to serve the political goal of kneecapping the incoming administration.

It is clear that although here were rogue, perhaps uncoordinated, efforts to taint Trump as an agent, or at least a willing beneficiary of Russian government intrusions into the 2016 presidential campaign, it was not until the first week of December 2016 that Obama took the positive step to order the reversal of intelligence community analysis of the election in order to reinforce that charge.

Critical to understanding this pivot is the narrative provided by an IC whistleblower, who was for months considered in the IC a Russia hawk, often the recipient of pushback for his robust assertions that the Russians could impact the 2016 election. In September 2016, the whistleblower participated in an IC finding, presented to Obama in a Presidential Daily Briefing, that the Russians did not have the capacity to materially impact the election, because of the U.S. government's own cyber defenses and the decentralized nature of how America conducts its elections.

After the election, the IC was satisfied that its September analysis was validated, and this self-congratulatory view was the anticipated theme of the scheduled presentation for the Dec. 6, 2016, PBD.

The PDB was shaping up as a bookend to the September briefing, reporting to the president that his administration was excelling.

The whistleblower said that after the briefing had been thoroughly reviewed and cleared for delivery by the analysts to actual briefing presenters, but the night before that briefing of the briefers, the FBI called for an all-stop.

Suddenly, without any harbinger in the agency cross-talk to produce the PDB, the FBI withdrew its seal of approval and demanded that IC withdraw the FBI's co-authorship of the briefing.

What happened next was a complete reversal of the IC's consensus. Instead of a congratulatory look-back on the IC's success protecting the 2016 election, the new briefing was a scary presentation of Russian malfeasance that led to Trump's victory.

The whistleblower said he was told by his supervisor that new information, compartmentalized in higher classification, or fractured away from the main body of the PDB material, forced a complete reworking of the analysis.

When the whistleblower persisted in seeing the material, or in some way evaluating it himself, the supervisor rebuffed him.

The PDB, scheduled for Dec. 6, 2016, was postponed until Dec. 8, 2016, and afterwards, two stories appeared Dec. 9, 2016, in The Washington Post reflecting the new analysis, "The CIA concluded that Russia worked to elect Trump. Republicans now face an impossible choice" and "Secret CIA assessment says Russia was trying to help Trump win White House."

Another article reflecting the reversal appeared Dec. 9, 2016, in The New York Times, "Russian Hackers Acted to Aid Trump in Election, U.S. Says."

Now, the IC analytical reversal was memorialized and promoted in two of the most prestigious media outlets, signaling to the rest of the media and the political establishment that Trump's victory was illegitimate—and that their efforts to advance that narrative were backed up by the IC.

A week later, during a Dec. 16, 2016, press conference held in the White House's Brady Press Briefing, Obama claimed that the Russians interfered in the 2016 election at the direction of their president: "Not much happens in Russia without Vladimir Putin."

Echoing the September PDB, Obama said Russia intended to undermine faith in American elections and help Trump along the way. Obama also revealed that during the September 2016 G20 conference in China, he personally warned Putin to back off of the American election—and attests that the Russians did not change any of the actual vote tallies.

Obama defended his decision not to go public with Russian interference, explaining that he did not want to appear as partisan or attempting to otherwise affect the results of the election.

It should be noted that regardless of the political messaging or considerations from the Obama team, from September 2016 through aborted December 2016 PDB, it was the IC consensus that Russia could not materially affect the election results, and that it did not make a serious attempt.

Upon years of reflection, the whistleblower speculated that the new material was actually the Steele Dossier, a series of rumor intelligence dispatches purporting to document embarrassing situations that gave the Russians blackmail power over Trump created by former MI-6 Moscow Station Chief Christopher Steele for the Clinton campaign.

This is consistent with retired Air Force Lt. Gen. James R. Clapper Jr.'s frequent frustration with FBI Director James B. Comey's habit of inserting political rumor intelligence into IC products—and at this time, Comey was an internal advocate for treating the Steele Dossier as established fact.

The whistleblower said inside the IC, the Steele Dossier was considered shoddy and unreliable for any purpose.

The whistleblower said he found further confirmation that the Steele Dossier was the reason for the FBI to halt and rework the PDB scheduled for Dec. 6, 2016, came in a 2017 email discussing an ongoing Freedom of Information Act request for document in which the email's author referred to the dossier's inclusion in the reworked PDB presentation.

Very respectfully,

McCabe

Yes, we can host it. I've reserved the same conference room for 2:00 to 3:00 on Thursday.

Ed is out of the office all week, so I assume that (b)(3), (b)(6) will lead the meeting?

All the logistical information is the same as last time and we will just need full names that match an ID for building access. People can send their info to (b) (6) and I.

Bob,

Good morning. I want to follow up with the proposed idea of having the next weaponization working group meeting, scheduled for 24 July, in your spaces. I cc'd Jared on this email as well, since he offered DoJ spaces.

Thanks for letting me know. I will be on leave next Wednesday through the following Monday, but I would like to ensure all arrangements are set before I depart.

Thank you.
