PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the following statement is true and correct:

On April 27, 2018, Border Patrol Agent P. Meyer, was assigned to patrol duties in the Imperial Beach Border Patrol Station's Area of Operations. At approximately 6:00 PM, Agent Meyer observed seven subjects walking northbound from the United States/Mexico Primary International Boundary fence near an area known to Border Patrol Agents as "Goat Canyon." Agent Meyer responded to the location and upon his arrival all of the subjects stopped. This area is approximately four miles west of the San Ysidro, California Port of Entry and approximately fifty yards north of the United States/Mexico International Boundary. Agent Meyer identified himself as a United States Border Patrol agent and conducted an immigration inspection. Six of the seven subjects freely admitted to being citizens and nationals of El Salvador. The seventh subject, later identified as the defendant, Olvin Jovani HERRERA-Romero, admitted to being a citizen and national of Honduras. All of the subjects stated they were not in possession of immigration documents allowing them to enter or remain in the United States legally. On April 27, 2018 at approximately 6:15 PM, Agent Meyer placed all of the subjects, including HERRERA, under arrest. During administrative processing HERRERA stated he entered the United States on April 27, 2018.

Routine record checks of the defendant revealed a criminal and immigration history. A comparison of the defendant's criminal record and fingerprints were used to determine the defendant's record. Official immigration records of the Department of Homeland Security revealed the defendant was previously deported to Honduras on July 17, 2008 through San Antonio, Texas. These same records show that the defendant has not applied for permission from the Attorney General of the United States or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to return to the United States after being removed.

CONTINUATION OF COMPLAINT: Olvin Jovani HERRERA-Romero

Executed on April 28, 2018 at 2:00 PM.

David J. Weber Border Patrol Agent

3:37 PM, Apr 28, 2018

On the basis of the facts presented in the probable cause statement consisting of two pages, I find probable cause to believe that the defendant named in this probable cause statement committed the offense on April 27, 2018, in violation of 8 USC 1326, 8 USC 1325.
