PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the following statement is true and correct:

On April 27, 2018, Border Patrol Agent J. Renteria, was performing his assigned duties in the Imperial Beach Border Patrol Station's area of responsibility. At approximately 9:05 PM, Agent Renteria observed eighteen individuals walking north from the United States/Mexico International Boundary near an area known to Border Patrol agents as "Goat Canyon." Agent Renteria responded to the location and upon his arrival all of the individuals stopped. Agent Renteria encountered the individuals, identified himself as a United States Border Patrol agent and conducted an immigration inspection. This area is approximately four miles west of the San Ysidro, California Port of Entry and approximately 50 yards north of the United States/Mexico International Boundary. Thirteen of the eighteen subject, including one later identified as the defendant Marbel Yaneth RAMIREZ-Raudales, freely admitted to being citizens of Honduras. Three subjects, admitted to being citizens of India, one subject admitted to being a citizen of Guatemala, and the remaining subject admitted to being a citizen of Mexico. All of the subjects stated they were not in possession of immigration documents allowing them to enter or remain in the United States legally. On April 27, 2018 at approximately 9:10 PM, Agent Renteria placed all of the subjects, including RAMIREZ, under arrest.

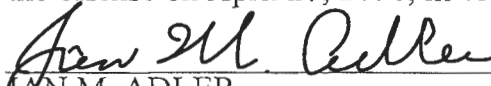

RAMIREZ was advised of and stated she understood her Miranda Rights and agreed to speak without an attorney present. RAMIREZ freely admitted that she is a citizen of Honduras and that she was born in Colon, Honduras. RAMIREZ stated she illegally crossed into the United States on April 27, 2018. RAMIREZ stated she knew that it was illegal for her to enter the United States without proper documents. RAMIREZ stated that her intended destination was Texas.

Executed on April 28, 2018 at 2:00 PM.

David J. Weber
Border Patrol Agent

On the basis of the facts presented in the probable cause statement consisting of one page, I find probable cause to believe that the defendant named in this probable cause statement committed the offense on April 27, 2018, in violation of 8 USC 1325.
