THE GRAND JURY CHARGES:

INTRODUCTION TO ALL COUNTS

At all times relevant to this Indictment, unless otherwise indicated:

The Enterprise

1. The defendants JOVAN RENDON-REYES, also known as "Jovani," SAUL RENDON-REYES, also known as "Satanico," GUILLERMINA RENDON-REYES,

FRANCISCO RENDON-REYES, also known as “Pancho,” JOSE RENDON-GARCIA, also known as “Gusano,” FELIX ROJAS, ODILON MARTINEZ-ROJAS, also known as “Chino” and “Saul,” and SEVERIANO MARTINEZ-ROJAS, also known as “Negro,” “Gato” and “Arturo,” were members and associates of the “Rendon-Reyes Trafficking Organization,” a criminal organization that operated in Queens, New York; Atlanta, Georgia; and Jemison, Alabama, among other locations. Members and associates of the Rendon-Reyes Trafficking Organization engaged in various forms of criminal activity, including but not limited to sex trafficking of women and minor girls, prostitution, alien smuggling, alien harboring and money laundering.

2. The Rendon-Reyes Trafficking Organization, including its leadership, members and associates, constituted an “enterprise” as defined by Title 18, United States Code, Section 1961(4), that is, a group of individuals associated in fact. The Rendon-Reyes Trafficking Organization constituted an ongoing organization whose members functioned as a continuing unit for a common purpose of achieving the objectives of the enterprise. The enterprise was engaged in, and its activities affected, interstate and foreign commerce.

The Purpose of the Enterprise

3. The purposes of the enterprise included the following:
- a. Enriching the members and associates of the enterprise through criminal activity, including but not limited to sex trafficking of women and minor girls, prostitution, alien smuggling, alien harboring and money laundering.
  - b. Promoting and enhancing the enterprise and the activities of its members and associates.

c. Preserving and protecting the enterprise through the use of intimidation, threats of violence and acts of violence, including assaults and beatings to keep victims in fear.

d. Concealing the enterprise and the activities of its members and associates from law enforcement through criminal activity, including but not limited to money laundering, witness tampering and attempted witness tampering of individuals, including victims, who were perceived as potential witnesses against members and associates of the enterprise.

Means and Methods of the Enterprise

4. Among the means and methods by which the defendants and their associates conducted and participated in the conduct of the affairs of the enterprise were the following:

a. Members and associates of the enterprise used force, threats of force, fraud and coercion to cause young women and minor girls from Mexico and Latin America to engage in prostitution in the United States.

b. Members and associates of the enterprise arranged to smuggle young women and minor girls into the United States, transport them to Queens, New York; Atlanta, Georgia; Jemison, Alabama, and elsewhere, and harbor them at various locations.

c. Members and associates of the enterprise operated brothels and arranged to transport, and did transport, young women and girls to prostitute at such brothels and other locations, in various states, including but not limited to New York, Connecticut, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi.

d. Members and associates of the enterprise engaged in conduct designed to prevent detection of their identities, their illegal activities and the location of proceeds of those activities. Those activities included money laundering, witness tampering and attempted witness tampering of individuals, including victims, who were perceived as potential witnesses against members and associates of the enterprise.

COUNT ONE
(Racketeering)

5. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 4 are realleged and incorporated as though fully set forth in this paragraph.

6. In or about and between December 2004 and June 2014, both dates being approximate and inclusive, within the Eastern District of New York, the Northern District of Georgia, the Middle District of Alabama, the District of Arizona, the Southern District of Texas and elsewhere, the defendants JOVAN RENDON-REYES, also known as "Jovani," SAUL RENDON-REYES, also known as "Satanico," GUILLERMINA RENDON-REYES, FRANCISCO RENDON-REYES, also known as "Pancho," JOSE RENDON-GARCIA, also known as "Gusano," FELIX ROJAS, ODILON MARTINEZ-ROJAS, also known as "Chino" and "Saul," and SEVERIANO MARTINEZ-ROJAS, also known as "Negro," "Gato" and "Arturo," together with others, being persons employed by and associated with the Rendon-Reyes Trafficking Organization, an enterprise that engaged in, and the activities of which affected, interstate and foreign commerce, did knowingly and intentionally conduct and participate, directly and indirectly, in the conduct of the affairs of the Rendon-Reyes Trafficking Organization through a pattern of racketeering activity, as defined in Title 18,

United States Code, Sections 1961(1) and 1961(5), consisting of the racketeering acts set forth below.

RACKETEERING ACT ONE
(Alien Smuggling Conspiracy)

7. In or about and between December 2004 and June 2014, both dates being approximate and inclusive, within the Eastern District of New York and elsewhere, the defendants JOVAN RENDON-REYES, SAUL RENDON-REYES, GUILLERMINA RENDON-REYES, FRANCISCO RENDON-REYES, JOSE RENDON-GARCIA, FELIX ROJAS, ODILON MARTINEZ-ROJAS and SEVERIANO MARTINEZ-ROJAS, together with others, did knowingly and intentionally conspire: (a) to encourage and induce one or more aliens to come to, enter, and reside in the United States, knowing and in reckless disregard of the fact that such coming to, entry, and residence was and would be in violation of law, for the purpose of private financial gain, in violation of Title 8, United States Code, Sections 1324(a)(1)(A)(iv) and 1324(a)(1)(B)(i); (b) knowing and in reckless disregard of the fact that one or more aliens had come to, entered, and remained in the United States in violation of law, to transport and move such alien or aliens within the United States by means of transportation and otherwise, in furtherance of such violation of law, for the purpose of private financial gain, in violation of Title 8, United States Code, Sections 1324(a)(1)(A)(ii) and 1324(a)(1)(B)(i); and (c) knowing and in reckless disregard of the fact that one or more aliens had come to, entered, and remained in the United States in violation of law, to conceal, harbor, and shield from detection such alien or aliens in any place, including any building and any means of transportation, for the purpose of private financial gain, in violation of Title 8, United States Code, Sections 1324(a)(1)(A)(iii) and 1324(a)(1)(B)(i), all in violation of Title 8, United States Code, Section 1324(a)(1)(A)(v)(I).

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1952(a)(1)(A), 1952(b)(1), 2 and 3551 et seq.)

CRIMINAL FORFEITURE ALLEGATION
AS TO COUNTS ONE AND TWO

80. The United States hereby gives notice to the defendants charged in Counts One and Two that, upon their conviction of either offense, the government will seek forfeiture in accordance with Title 18, United States Code, Section 1963, which requires any person convicted of such offenses to forfeit: (a) any interest acquired or maintained in violation of such offenses; (b) any interest in, security of, claim against, or property or contractual right of any kind affording a source of influence over any enterprise which the defendants established, operated, controlled, conducted, or participated in the conduct of, in violation of such offense; and (c) any property constituting, or derived from, any proceeds which the defendants obtained, directly and indirectly indirectly, from racketeering activity in violation of such offense.

81. If any of the above-described forfeitable property, as a result of any act or omission of the defendants:

- (a) cannot be located upon the exercise of due diligence;
- (b) has been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a third party;
- (c) has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the court;
- (d) has been substantially diminished in value; or
- (e) has been commingled with other property which cannot be divided without difficulty;

it is the intent of the United States, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 1963(m), to seek forfeiture of any other property of the defendants up to the value of the forfeitable property.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1963(a) and 1963(m)).
