

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”) is entered into among the United States of America, acting through the United States Department of Justice and on behalf of the United States Small Business Administration (collectively, the “United States”), Allstar Health Providers, Inc. (“Allstar”), Maria Chua, and Bryan Quesenberry (“Quesenberry” or “Relator”) (collectively referred to as “the Parties”) through their authorized representatives.

RECITALS

A. Allstar is a corporation organized under the laws of California and located at 10722 Arrow Route, Suite 218, Rancho Cucamonga, CA 91730. Allstar operates a home health agency. Maria Chua is the co-owner of Allstar.

B. On September 10, 2020, Bryan Quesenberry filed a qui tam action in the United States District Court for the Central District of California captioned U.S. ex rel. Quesenberry v. 2 Evil Geniuses, et al., Dkt. No. 20-cv-8497 pursuant to the qui tam provisions of the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. § 3730(b) (the “Civil Action”). Relator alleges that Allstar unlawfully applied for and received two loans under the Paycheck Protection Program (“PPP”) prior to December 31, 2020, and falsely certified, in the submitted applications for the PPP loans, that it would receive only one PPP loan prior to December 31, 2020.

C. The PPP was established pursuant to the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (“CARES”) Act. The CARES Act, which was enacted in March 2020, was designed to provide emergency financial assistance to millions of Americans suffering economic effects caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. One source of relief provided by the CARES Act was the authorization of forgivable loans to small businesses for employee payroll and certain other expenses, through the PPP. To obtain a PPP loan, a qualifying business was required to submit a PPP loan application, which is signed by an authorized representative of the business. The loan application requires the business—through its authorized representative—to acknowledge the program rules and make certain affirmative certifications regarding its eligibility to obtain the PPP loan. PPP loan applications were processed by participating lenders, which received processing fees from SBA. Following the approvals of loan applications, the participating lenders funded the loan, which were 100% guaranteed by the SBA.

D. The United States contends that it has certain civil claims against Allstar and Maria Chua for engaging in the following conduct, hereinafter referred to as the “Covered Conduct”:

The United States contends that, in May 2020, Allstar, through Chua, submitted an application for a PPP loan to “Lender 1.” In that application, Allstar certified that “[d]uring the period beginning on February 15, 2020 and ending on December 31, 2020, the Applicant has not and will not receive another loan under the [PPP].” Subsequently, Allstar entered into a promissory note by which Lender 1 agreed to lend $226,459 to Allstar pursuant to the PPP (the “Lender 1 PPP Loan”), and Allstar received the Lender 1 PPP Loan proceeds by electronic transfer.

The United States further contends that, in May 2020, while Allstar’s loan application to Lender 1 was still pending, Allstar submitted an application for a PPP loan to “Lender 2.” In that application, Allstar stated that “[d]uring the period beginning on February 15, 2020 and ending on December 31, 2020, the Applicant has not and will not receive another loan under the [PPP].” Subsequently, Allstar entered into a promissory note by which Lender 2 agreed to lend $199,995 to Allstar pursuant to the PPP (the “Lender 2 PPP Loan”), and Allstar received the Lender 2 PPP Loan funds by electronic transfer.

The United States contends that, after receiving both the Lender 1 PPP Loan funds and the Lender 2 PPP Loan funds, Allstar knowingly and improperly retained the funds obtained from both loans, contrary to the express certifications that Allstar made that Allstar would not receive more than one PPP loan prior to December 31, 2020. The United States further contends that, despite knowing that it should not have received more than one PPP loan prior to December 31, 2020, Allstar (1) applied for and received forgiveness for the Lender 1 PPP Loan from SBA and (2) failed to repay the Lender 2 PPP Loan, causing Lender 2 to charge off the loan and SBA to purchase the Lender 2 PPP Loan pursuant to its guaranty.

E. The United States contends that it has certain civil claims against Allstar and Maria Chua for violations of the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. § 3729-3733 (“FCA”).

F. Relator claims entitlement to a share of the proceeds of this Settlement Agreement under 31 U.S.C. § 3730(d).

G. This Settlement Agreement is neither an admission of liability by Allstar or Maria Chua nor a concession by the United States that its claims are not well founded.

To avoid the delay, uncertainty, inconvenience, and expense of protracted litigation of the above claims, and in consideration of the mutual promises and obligations of this Settlement Agreement, the Parties agree and covenant as follows:

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Allstar and Maria Chua shall pay to the United States $399,990 (“Settlement Amount”), of which $199,955 is restitution. Allstar and Maria Chua agree that they are jointly and severally liable for the Settlement Amount, which shall be paid by electronic funds transfer pursuant to written instructions to be provided by the United States Attorney’s Office for the Central District of California no later than 30 days after the date of this Agreement.

2. In the event that Allstar and Maria Chua fail to complete the payment set forth in Paragraph 1 by the date upon which it is due, Allstar and Maria Chua shall be in Default of their payment obligations (“Default”). Upon Default, the United States will provide Allstar and Maria Chua, through their legal counsel or other representative previously designated by Allstar and Maria Chua, by electronic mail a written Notice of Default, and Allstar and Maria Chua shall have an opportunity to cure such Default within ten business days from the date the Notice of Default is sent by counsel for the United States. If Allstar and Maria Chua fail to cure the Default within ten business days from the date the Notice of Default is sent by the United States and in the absence of an agreement with the United States to a modified payment schedule, the difference between the amount paid by Allstar and Maria Chua under Paragraph 1 and $399,990 shall become immediately due and payable, and interest on such amount shall accrue at the rate of 10 percent per annum, compounded daily from the date of Default.

3. Upon execution of this Settlement Agreement, Allstar and Maria Chua shall enter into a Consent Judgment with the United States in the form attached as Attachment A. The United States shall not file the Consent Judgment unless Allstar and Maria Chua are in uncured Default as defined above. Allstar and Maria Chua agree not to contest any Consent Judgment and/or collection action undertaken by the United States pursuant to this Paragraph, either administratively or in any state or federal court, except on the grounds of actual payment to the United States. At its sole option, in the event of uncured Default as defined above, the United States alternatively may rescind this Agreement as to Allstar and Maria Chua and bring any civil and/or administrative claim, action, or proceeding against Allstar and Maria Chua for the claims that would otherwise be covered by the releases provided herein. If the United States opts to rescind this Agreement in the event of uncured Default as defined above, Allstar and Maria Chua agree not to plead, argue, or otherwise raise any defenses of statute of limitations, laches, estoppel or similar theories, to any civil or administrative claims that are (a) filed by the United States against Allstar and Maria Chua, within 180 days of written notification to Allstar and Maria Chua that this Agreement has been rescinded, and (b) relate to the Covered Conduct, except to the extent these defenses were available on the particular date when the Civil Action referenced in Recital Paragraph D was filed.

4. Conditioned upon the United States receiving the payment set forth in Paragraph 1, the United States shall pay to Relator $59,998.50 by electronic funds transfer (“Relator’s Share”). No other relator share payments shall be made under this Agreement.

5. Subject to the exceptions in Paragraph 7 (concerning reserved claims) below, and upon the United States’ receipt of the Settlement Amount, the United States releases Allstar and Maria Chua from any civil or administrative monetary claim the United States has for the Covered Conduct under the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 3729-3733; the Program Fraud Civil Remedies Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 3801-3812; or the common law theories of payment by mistake, unjust enrichment, and fraud.

6. Subject to the exceptions in Paragraph 7 below, and upon the United States’ receipt of the Settlement Amount, Relator, for himself and for his heirs, successors, attorneys, agents, and assigns, releases Allstar and Maria Chua from any civil monetary claim the Relator has on behalf of the United States for the Covered Conduct under the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 3729–3733.

7. Notwithstanding the releases given in Paragraph 5 of this Agreement, or any other term of this Agreement, the following claims and rights of the United States are specifically reserved and are not released:

- a. Any liability arising under Title 26, U.S. Code (Internal Revenue Code);
- b. Any criminal liability;
- c. Except as explicitly stated in this Agreement, any administrative liability or enforcement right, including the suspension and debarment rights of any federal agency;
- d. Any liability to the United States (or its agencies) for any conduct other than the Covered Conduct;
- e. Any liability based upon obligations created by this Agreement; and

f. Any liability of individuals, except Maria Chua.

8. Relator and his heirs, successors, attorneys, agents, and assigns shall not object to this Agreement but agree and confirm that this Agreement is fair, adequate, and reasonable under all the circumstances, pursuant to 31 U.S.C. § 3730(c)(2)(B). Conditioned upon Relator's receipt of the Relator's Share, Relator and his heirs, successors, attorneys, agents, and assigns fully and finally release, waive, and forever discharge the United States, its agencies, officers, agents, employees, and servants, from any claims arising from the filing of the Civil Action or under 31 U.S.C. § 3730, and from any claims to a share of the proceeds of this Agreement and/or the Civil Action.

9. Relator, for himself, and for his heirs, successors, attorneys, agents, and assigns, releases Maria Chua, Allstar, and its officers, agents, and employees, from any liability to Relator arising from the filing of the Civil Action, or under 31 U.S.C. § 3730(d) for expenses or attorneys' fees and costs.

10. Allstar and Maria Chua waive and shall not assert any defenses Allstar and Maria Chua may have to any criminal prosecution or administrative action relating to the Covered Conduct that may be based in whole or in part on a contention that, under the Double Jeopardy Clause in the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution, or under the Excessive Fines Clause in the Eighth Amendment of the Constitution, this Agreement bars a remedy sought in such criminal prosecution or administrative action.

11. Allstar and Maria Chua fully and finally release the United States, its agencies, officers, agents, employees, and servants, from any claims (including attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses of every kind and however denominated) that Allstar and Maria Chua have asserted, could have asserted, or may assert in the future against the United States, its agencies, officers, agents, employees, and servants, related to the Covered Conduct or the United States' investigation or prosecution thereof.

12. Allstar and Maria Chua fully and finally release the Relator from any claims (including attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses of every kind and however denominated) that Allstar and Maria Chua have asserted, could have asserted, or may assert in the future against the Relator, related to the Covered Conduct and the Relator's investigation and prosecution thereof.

13. a. Unallowable Costs Defined: All costs (as defined in the Federal Acquisition Regulation, 48 C.F.R. § 31.205-47) incurred by or on behalf of Allstar, Maria Chua, and Allstar's present or former officers, directors, employees, shareholders, and agents in connection with:

- (1) the matters covered by this Agreement;
- (2) the United States' audit(s) and civil investigation(s) of the matters covered by this Agreement;
- (3) Allstar and Maria Chua's investigation, defense, and corrective actions undertaken in response to the United States' audit(s) and civil investigation(s) in connection with the matters covered by this Agreement (including attorneys' fees);
- (4) the negotiation and performance of this Agreement; and
- (5) the payment Allstar and Maria Chua make to the United States pursuant to this Agreement and any payments that Allstar and Maria Chua may make to Relator, including costs and attorney's fees, are unallowable costs for government contracting purposes (hereinafter referred to as “Unallowable Costs”).

b. Future Treatment of Unallowable Costs: Unallowable Costs will be separately determined and accounted for by Allstar and Maria Chua, and Allstar and Maria Chua shall not charge such Unallowable Costs directly or indirectly to any contract with the United States.

c. Treatment of Unallowable Costs Previously Submitted for Payment: Within 90 days of the Effective Date of this Agreement, Allstar and Maria Chua shall identify and repay by adjustment to future claims for payment or otherwise any Unallowable Costs included in payments previously sought by Allstar or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, and Maria Chua, from the United States. Allstar and Maria Chua agree that the United States, at a minimum, shall be entitled to recoup from Allstar and Maria Chua any overpayment plus applicable interest and penalties as a result of the inclusion of such Unallowable Costs on previously submitted requests for payment. The United States, including the Department of Justice and/or the affected agencies, reserves its rights to audit, examine, or re-examine Allstar and Maria Chua’s books and records and to disagree with any calculations submitted by Allstar or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, and Maria Chua, regarding any Unallowable Costs included in payments previously sought by Allstar and Maria Chua, or the effect of any such Unallowable Costs on the amount of such payments.

14. This Agreement is intended to be for the benefit of the Parties only.

15. Upon receipt of the payment described in Paragraph 1, above, Relator and the United States shall promptly sign and file in the Civil Action a Joint Stipulation of Dismissal of all claims against Allstar in the Civil Action pursuant to Rule 41(a)(1)(A). Such dismissal shall be: (a) with prejudice to the Relator as to all claims against Allstar in the Civil Action; (b) with prejudice to the United States as to the Covered Conduct; and (c) without prejudice to the United States as to all other claims or allegations against Allstar in the Civil Action.

16. Each Party shall bear its own legal and other costs incurred in connection with this matter, including the preparation and performance of this Agreement.

17. Each Party and signatory to this Agreement represents that it freely and voluntarily enters into this Agreement without any degree of duress or compulsion.

18. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the United States. The exclusive jurisdiction and venue for any dispute relating to this Agreement is the United States District Court for the Central District of California. For purposes of construing this Agreement, this Agreement shall be deemed to have been drafted by all Parties to this Agreement and shall not, therefore, be construed against any Party for that reason in any subsequent dispute.

19. This Agreement constitutes the complete agreement between the Parties. This Agreement may not be amended except by written consent of the Parties.

20. The undersigned counsel represent and warrant that they are fully authorized to execute this Agreement on behalf of the persons and entities indicated below.

21. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which constitutes an original and all of which constitute one and the same Agreement.

22. This Agreement is binding on Allstar's successors, transferees, heirs, and assigns, and Maria Chua.

23. This Agreement is binding on Relator's successors, transferees, heirs, and assigns.

24. All parties consent to the United States' disclosure of this Agreement, and information about this Agreement, to the public.

25. This Agreement is effective on the date of signature of the last signatory to the Agreement (Effective Date of this Agreement). Facsimiles of signatures shall constitute acceptable, binding signatures for purposes of this Agreement.

Plaintiff United States of America (the “United States”); Defendant Allstar Health Providers, Inc.; and Defendant Maria Chua (collectively referred as the “Parties”), hereby stipulate, agree and consent to the entry of this judgment based upon the following uncontested allegations:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this case under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1345, 1367(a). Allstar Health Providers, Inc., and Maria Chua consent to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Central District of California for the resolution of this dispute.

2. 4. Also under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Allstar Health Providers, Inc., and Maria Chua agreed that in the event they defaulted and failed to pay the Settlement Amount, within ten (10) business days of the date the Notice of Default is sent by counsel for the United States, the United States may file a Consent Judgment against Allstar Health Providers, Inc., and Maria Chua, jointly and severally, in the amount of the unpaid balance of the Settlement Amount.

5. Allstar Health Providers, Inc., and Maria Chua now failed to make payment in accordance with the Settlement Agreement, and therefore are in default under the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

6. Unless it has already done so, within a reasonable time after the filing of this Consent Judgment, the United States will file a statement of debt showing the amount due and owing under the Settlement Agreement as of the date of default.

7. The United States has given Allstar Health Providers, Inc., and Maria Chua written notice of default under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, and demanded that Allstar Health Providers, Inc., and Maria Chua cure that default by tendering payment in full on the cure amount under the terms of the Settlement Agreement. The United States has given Allstar Health Providers, Inc., and Maria Chua ten (10) business days to cure the default, as provided in the Settlement Agreement, but Allstar Health Providers, Inc., and Maria Chua failed to respond or to make arrangements to comply with the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

ACCORDINGLY, THIS COURT enters judgment for the United States against Defendants Allstar Health Providers, Inc., and Maria Chua, jointly and severally, in the amount of $ _____, plus interest at the post-judgment interest at the rate of 10% per annum, compounded daily from the date this Consent Judgment is entered until it is satisfied.
