23 M.P., R.I.M., R.J.C., T.T., and others known and unknown:
24

1           1.       To use the United States Postal Service and commercial interstate carriers to 2 send money for purposes of executing a scheme and artifice to defraud and for obtaining money and 3 property by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, in 4 violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1341; and

5           2.       To transmit and cause to be transmitted by means of wire communications in 6 interstate commerce documents and information for purposes of executing a scheme and artifice to 7 defraud and for obtaining money and property by means of materially false and fraudulent
8 pretenses, representations, and promises, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343.

9                           The Objective of the Conspiracy and Scheme to Defraud

10          B.       The objective of the conspiracy and scheme was for defendant and his 11 coconspirators to obtain money and property from persons whom they enticed to provide advance
12 fees to fund expenses for the sale of the victims' time share properties, sales which never occurred,
13 a criminal scheme commonly known as "the buyer's pitch." Through this conspiracy and scheme 14 defendant and his coconspirators fraudulently obtained more than $3,330,000.

15                           Manner and Means

16          C.       The manner and means by which the objective of the conspiracy was accomplished 17 include, but were not limited to, the following:

18           1.       Defendant and his coconspirators operated a continuous fraudulent scheme
19 under the business names Holiday Advertising, Professional Concepts LLC, TeleTeton
20 Corporation, Redline Funding LLC, Great West Funding Incorporated, Equity Financial Services
21 LLC, First Capital Financial Services Corporation, Beneficial Business Solutions, Eastern 22 Enterprises LLC, and Community Funding Corporation, among others. Defendant and his 23 coconspirators changed the names, mailing and shipping addresses, and physical locations of the 24 scheme's businesses in order to dissociate the scheme from complaints made to consumer

1 protection and law enforcement agencies and other entities and to evade detection and apprehension
2 by law enforcement.

3           2. Defendant and his coconspirators induced and attempted to induce victims to 4 send money and property to the fraudulent corporations by making materially false and fraudulent 5 pretenses, representations, and promises to them, including but not limited to: (1) the names of 6 defendant and his coconspirators; (2) the geographic location of each of the various companies; (3)
7 that the various companies were actively engaged in business, were licensed and authorized by law
8 to arrange the sale of time share properties, and were in fact arranging the sale of timeshare
9 properties, when in fact the companies were operated primarily as a means to defraud investors;
10 (4) that a buyer had offered to purchase the victim's timeshare property, when in fact no buyer
11 existed; and (5) that the various companies would close the sale of the victim's timeshare property
12 within 90 days of the victim's payment, when in fact each of the fictitious companies was operated 13 for no more than 90 days in order to dissociate the scheme from complaints made to consumer
14 protection and law enforcement agencies and other entities and to evade detection and apprehension
15 by law enforcement.

16           3. Defendant and his coconspirators made and caused to be made interstate wire 17 communications to customers to induce the victims to part with money and to lull victims into 18 believing that their investments were sound and that their funds would be recovered.

19           4. Defendant and his coconspirators sent and caused to be sent victim funds and 20 documents by means of U.S. Mail, interstate commercial carriers, and interstate wire 21 communications to complete the transactions.

22           5. All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1349.
