

Chase Camarena admits the allegations of the complaint and waives the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 52 and 26 U.S.C. §§ 7402(a) and 7407.

Chase Camarena voluntarily consents to this injunction and waives any right he may have to appeal from it.

Chase Camarena consents to entry of this Agreed Stipulated Judgment of Permanent Injunction without further notice and agrees that this Court shall retain jurisdiction over him for purpose of implementing and enforcing this Agreed Stipulated Judgment of Permanent Injunction.

The Court accordingly ORDERS that:

1. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1340 and 1345 and I.R.C. §§ 7402(a) and 7407.
2. The Court finds that Chase Edward Camarena has consented to the entry of this Agreed Stipulated Judgment of Permanent Injunction.
3. Pursuant to I.R.C. §§ 7402(a) and 7407, Chase Edward Camarena individually and doing business under any other name or using any other entity, including Hispanic Services, is permanently enjoined from directly or indirectly:
  - a. Filing, preparing, advising or assisting in the preparation of documents relating to a matter material to the internal revenue laws, including federal tax returns and related documents, for any person other than himself and his spouse;
  - b. Advising or instructing anyone regarding substantive tax law or the preparation of federal tax returns;

c. Representing, or appearing on behalf of, any person before the IRS, other than himself and his spouse;

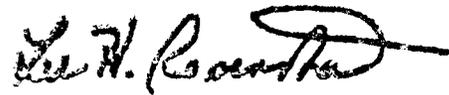

d. Engaging in any other activity subject to penalty under I.R.C. §§ 6694, 6695, 6701 or any other penalty provision of the Internal Revenue Code; and

e. Engaging in other conduct interfering with the enforcement of the internal revenue laws.

4. The United States is permitted to conduct post-judgment discovery to monitor Chase Edward Camarena's compliance with paragraph 3 of this Agreed Stipulated Judgment of Permanent Injunction.

There being no just reason for delay, the clerk is directed to enter this Agreed Stipulated Judgment of Permanent Injunction Against Chase Edward Camarena.

SO ORDERED this 13th day of October, 2017.
