Cr. No.

(T. 18, U.S.C., §§ 982(a)(1), 982(b)(1),
1956(a)(2)(A), 1956(h), 2 and 3551 et seq.;
T. 21, U.S.C., § 853(p))

4. Barbados Company Executive 2, an individual whose identity is known to the Grand Jury, was a citizen of Barbados and a resident of Barbados. Barbados Company Executive 2 was a senior vice president of the Barbados Company.

5. Barbados Company Executive 3, an individual whose identity is known to the Grand Jury, was a citizen of Barbados and a resident of Barbados. Barbados Company Executive 3 was the Chief Financial Officer of the Barbados Company.

6. The "Bermuda Company," a corporation the identity of which is known to the Grand Jury, was an insurance company headquartered in Bermuda that offered various financial products, including life, property and casualty insurance. The Bermuda Company was the majority shareholder of the Barbados Company.

7. The "New York Dental Company," a corporation the identity of which is known to the Grand Jury, was a dental company that was incorporated in New York in 1992 and had an address in Elmont, New York.

8. Co-Conspirator 1 ("CC-1"), an individual whose identity is known to the Grand Jury, was a United States citizen and a resident of Tampa, Florida. CC-1 was the CEO of the New York Dental Company and owned and controlled the company.

9. The Barbados Investment and Development Corporation ("BIDC") was an agency of the government of Barbados. The defendant DONVILLE INNIS, as the Minister of Industry, exercised authority over the BIDC.

II. The Fraudulent Schemes

10. From in or about and between August 2015 and April 2016, the defendant DONVILLE INNIS leveraged his position as the Minister of Industry and engaged in a scheme to accept approximately $36,000 in bribes from the Barbados Company, in violation of Barbadian law, and to launder that money to and through the United States. Employees of the Barbados Company, including Barbados Company Executives 1 and 2, agreed to pay bribes to INNIS, who, in return, agreed to use his official position as the Minister of Industry to cause the BIDC to renew insurance contracts with the Barbados Company.

11. In furtherance of the scheme, Barbados Company Executives 1, 2 and 3 caused the Barbados Company's majority shareholder, the Bermuda Company, to make bribe payments to the defendant DONVILLE INNIS through a United States bank account in the name of the New York Dental Company, which had no actual business with the Barbados Company. The Barbados Company employees, including Barbados Company Executives 1, 2 and 3, did not disclose to the Bermuda Company that the payments were for the benefit of a Barbadian government official and instead falsely claimed that the payments were for "[c]onsulting services."

12. In furtherance of the scheme, in or about July 2015, the defendant DONVILLE INNIS, using his official position as Minister of Industry, caused the BIDC to renew an insurance contract with the Barbados Company (the "2015 Contract"). By its terms, the 2015 Contract required the BIDC to pay a premium of approximately $944,956.12 to the Barbados Company and another insurance company.

13. In return, employees of the Barbados Company, including Barbados Company Executives 1 and 2, agreed to pay a bribe of approximately $16,536.73 to the defendant DONVILLE INNIS, in consideration for having caused the BIDC to renew the 2015 Contract. The bribe payment of approximately $16,536.73 was 1.75 percent of the premium that the BIDC owed to the Barbados Company and another insurance company under the 2015 Contract.

14. To conceal the bribe payments, the defendant DONVILLE INNIS arranged to launder the bribes through "Bank 1," a bank the identity of which is known to the Grand Jury, with an address in Elmont, New York, in the name of the New York Dental Company (the "New York Dental Company Bank Account"). The payment was routed through a branch of Bank 1 located in Brooklyn, New York. CC-1, a friend of INNIS, was the authorized representative of the New York Dental Company Bank Account.

15. On or about August 17, 2015, the Bermuda Company transferred approximately $16,536.73 to the New York Dental Company Bank Account based on a false invoice provided by Barbados Company Executives 1, 2 and 3 for consulting services. On or about August 19, 2015, the New York Dental Company transferred approximately $16,000 to a Bank 1 account in the United States in the name of the defendant DONVILLE INNIS (the "INNIS Bank Account") via a check transaction. The New York Dental Company check for approximately $16,000 was made payable to INNIS.

16. In or about March 2016, the defendant DONVILLE INNIS, using his position as Minister of Industry, caused the BIDC to renew another insurance contract with the Barbados Company (the "2016 Contract").

17. In return, employees of the Barbados Company, including Barbados Company Executives 1 and 2, agreed to pay an additional bribe of approximately $20,000 to the defendant DONVILLE INNIS, in consideration for having caused the BIDC to renew the 2016 Contract.

18. On or about April 18, 2016, the Bermuda Company transferred approximately $20,000 to the New York Dental Company Bank Account based on a false invoice provided by Barbados Company Executives 1, 2 and 3 for consulting services. On or about April 25, 2016, the New York Dental Company made transfers of approximately $9,000 and $8,000 to the INNISS Bank Account via check transactions. The New York Dental Company checks for approximately $9,000 and $8,000 were made payable to the defendant DONVILLE INNISS. On or about April 27, 2016, the New York Dental Company transferred approximately $2,750 to the INNISS Bank Account via a check transaction. The New York Dental Company check for $2,750 was made payable to INNISS.

III. Barbados Prevention of Corruption Act

19. The Prevention of Corruption Act of Barbados (the “Barbados Prevention of Corruption Act”) provided in Section 3(1) that “[a]ny person who, by himself or by or in conjunction with any person, corruptly solicits or receives or agrees to receive, for himself or for any other person, any gift, loan, fee, reward or advantage whatsoever as an inducement to, or reward for or otherwise on account of any member, officer or servant of the Crown or of a public body doing or forbearing to do anything in respect of any matter or transaction whatsoever, actual or proposed, in which the Crown or such public body is concerned, shall be guilty of a misdemeanour.”

21. The Barbados Prevention of Corruption Act provided in Section 7 that “[w]here, in any proceedings against a person for an offence under this Act, it is proved that any money, gift or other consideration has been paid or given to or received by a person in the employment of the Crown or any Government Department or a public body by or from a person or agent of a person holding or seeking to obtain a contract from the Crown or any Government Department or public body, the money, gift or consideration shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have been paid or given and received corruptly as inducement or reward, unless the contrary is proved.”
