INDICTMENT

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES:

COUNT ONE

DEPRIVATION OF RIGHTS UNDER COLOR OF LAW
[18 U.S.C. § 242]

On or about May 8, 2017, in Calcasieu Parish in the Western District of Louisiana, the defendant, ROBERT HAMMAC, while acting under color of law as an officer of the Lake Charles Police Department, willfully deprived G.T. of the right, secured by the Constitution and laws of the United States, to be free from unreasonable seizures, which includes the right to be free from a law enforcement officer's use of unreasonable force during an arrest. The commission of this offense involved the use of a dangerous weapon (taser) and resulted in bodily injury. All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 242 [18 U.S.C. § 242].
