FORFEITURE ALLEGATIONS

1. Upon conviction of the offenses alleged in Counts One through Seven, the defendant shall forfeit to the United States any interest in any property, real or personal, that was used or intended to be used to commit or facilitate the commission of these violations and any property, real or personal, constituting or derived from any proceeds the defendants obtained, directly or indirectly as a result of these violations, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Section 2428. The United States will also seek a forfeiture money judgment equal to the value of any property, real or personal, that was used or intended to be used to commit or to facilitate the commission of such violations; and any property, real or personal, constituting or derived from any proceeds the defendants obtained, directly or indirectly, as a result of such violations.

2. If any of the property described above as being subject to forfeiture, as a result of any act or omission of the defendants:

- a. cannot be located upon the exercise of due diligence;
- b. has been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a third party;

- c. has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the Court;
- d. has been substantially diminished in value; or
- e. has been commingled with other property that cannot be divided without difficulty;

the defendants shall forfeit to the United States any other property of the defendants, up to the value of the property described above, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. Section 853(p).
