JUDGMENT

The Court, having granted Plaintiff's Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings, ORDERS as follows:

1. Defendant Jose Arizmendi illegally procured his citizenship;
2. Defendant procured his citizenship by concealment of materials facts and by willful misrepresentation;
3. Defendant's naturalization is revoked and Defendant is no longer a United States citizen effective as of the original date of the order, October 10, 1996;
4. Certificate of Naturalization No. 22712898 issued to Defendant is cancelled effective as of the original date of the certificate, October 10, 1996.
5. Defendant is forever restrained and enjoined from claiming or exercising any rights, privileges, benefits, or advantages of United States citizenship based on his October 10, 1996 naturalization.
6. Defendant is forever restrained and enjoined from claiming or exercising any rights, privileges, or advantages of United States citizenship under any document that evidences United States citizenship based on his October 10, 1996 naturalization.

7. Defendant shall immediately surrender and deliver to the United States Attorney General his original Certificate of Naturalization No. 22712898, any United States passport issued to him, and any other indicia of United States citizenship, including any copies thereof, in his possession or control. Defendant shall immediately make good faith efforts to recover and then surrender to the United States Attorney General any and all of the above-described items that he knows are in the possession of others.

8. Defendant shall deliver the items described above (his original Certificate of Naturalization, original United States passport, any other indicia of United States citizenship, and all copies thereof) to the United States Attorney General by sending them to the United States Attorney General's representative at the following address: Troy Liggett, United States Department of Justice, P.O. Box 868, Ben Franklin Station, Washington, DC 20044.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

SIGNED on this 27th day of JUNE, 2017, at Houston, Texas.
