DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[AAG/A Order No. 21–85]

Privacy Act of 1974; Modified Systems of Records

Pursuant to the provisions of the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a), the Office of the Deputy Attorney General, Department of Justice, will add new routine uses to the following systems of records:

Appointed Assistant United States Attorneys Personnel System, JUSTICE/DAG–002
Assistant United States Attorneys Applicant Records System, JUSTICE/DAG–003
Honor Program Applicant System, JUSTICE/DAG–004
Master Index File of Names, JUSTICE/DAG–005
Presidential Appointee Candidate Records System, JUSTICE/DAG–006
Presidential Appointee Records System, JUSTICE/DAG–007
Special Candidates for Presidential Appointments Records System, JUSTICE/DAG–008
Summer Intern Program Records System, JUSTICE/DAG–009
United States Judge and Department of Justice Presidential Appointee Records, JUSTICE/DAG–010
Miscellaneous Attorney Personnel Records System, JUSTICE/DAG–011
Executive Secretariat Correspondence Control System, JUSTICE/DAG–012

(All of the above-named systems of records were last published on December 9, 1981, in Federal Register Volume 46, pages 60303–60311, except for two. The Executive Secretariat Correspondence Control System was last published on February 4, 1983, in Federal Register Volume 48, page 5336; and the United States Judge and Department of Justice Presidential Appointee Records system was last published on April 6, 1984, in Federal Register Volume 49, page 13755.)

The new routine uses will permit disclosure to any civil or criminal law enforcement authorities; to officials and employees of the White House or any Federal agency; to Federal, State, and local licensing agencies or associations; and in a proceeding before a court or adjudicative body. The new routine uses, which are more fully described in the systems notices reprinted below, have been italicized for public convenience.

Address and submit any comment to J. Michael Clark, Acting Assistant Director, General Services Staff, Room 9002, Justice Management Division, Department of Justice, 501 D Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20530 by November 20, 1985.

Since the new routine uses are compatible with the purposes for which these systems are maintained, the Department will not be submitting a report to the Office of Management and Budget and the Congress.

W. Lawrence Wallace,
Assistant Attorney General for Administration.

JUSTICE/DAG–002,

SYSTEM NAME:
Appointed Assistant United States Attorneys Personnel System.

SYSTEM LOCATION:

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:
The system encompasses all Assistant United States Attorneys.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:
This system of records consists of records folders which may contain up to a total of five sections. The personnel section contains personnel records such as completed Civil Service forms, letters of recommendation, law school grade transcripts, appointment letters, appointment affidavits, bar affidavits, locator forms and personnel action forms. The character section contains completed or portions of ongoing background investigations and matters related thereto. The Congressional section contains completed and other political type recommendations regarding appointment. The protest section contains correspondence, if any, protesting the appointment of applicants. The complaint section contains correspondence from individuals or groups complaining about office holders. Rarely does a personnel folder contain more than the personnel and character sections

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:
These records are maintained pursuant to 5 U.S.C 301.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:
These records are used only by Department of Justice personnel.

Information contained in a folder may be used as the basis for answering future inquiries from other government agencies about a former assistant's qualifications. The personnel section may be made available to other federal agencies, at their request, upon the transfer of the assistant to such an agency.

Release of information to the news media: Information permitted to be released to the news media and the public pursuant to 28 CFR 50.3 may be made available from systems of records maintained by the Department of Justice unless it is determined that release of the specific information in the context of a particular case would constitute and unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

Release of information to Members of Congress: Information contained in systems of records maintained by the Department of Justice, not otherwise required to be released pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552, may be made available to Member of Congress of staff acting upon the Member's behalf when the Member or staff requests the information on behalf of and at the request of the individual who is the subject of the record.

Release of information to the National Archives and Records Administration: A record from a system of records may be disclosed as a routine use to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) in records management inspections conducted under the authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

Release of information to civil or criminal law enforcement agencies: Information may be disclosed to any civil or criminal law enforcement agency, whether Federal, State, local, or foreign, which requires information relevant to a civil or criminal investigation.

Release of information to agencies regarding the hiring or retention of employees: Information may be disclosed to officials and employees of the White House or any Federal agency which requires information relevant to an agency decision concerning the hiring, appointment, or retention of an employee; the issuance of a security clearance; the execution of a security or suitability investigation; the classification of a job; or the issuance of a grant or benefit.

Release of information to Federal, State, and local licensing agencies: Information may be disclosed to Federal, State, and local licensing agencies or associations which require information concerning the suitability or eligibility of an individual for a license or permit.

Release of information before a court or adjudicative body: Information may be disclosed in a proceeding before a court or adjudicative body before which the Office of the Deputy Attorney General (ODAG) is authorized to appear when (a) ODAG, or any subdivision thereof, or (b) any employee of ODAG in his or her official capacity, or (c) any employee of ODAG in his or her individual capacity where the Department of Justice has agreed to represent the employee, or (d) the United States, where ODAG determines that the litigation is likely to affect it or any of its subdivisions, is a party to litigation or has an interest in litigation and such records are determined by ODAG to be arguably relevant to the litigation.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING, RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING, AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

STORAGE:
These records are stored in paper folders.

RETRIEVABILITY:
Information is retrieved by use of the assistant's name, as the folders are filed alphabetically by name.

SAFEGUARDS:
These records are maintained in cabinets stored in a locked room.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:
These records are retained until the subjects of the files resign or otherwise leave their offices for non-federal government employment. In that instance, the personnel section is sent to the St. Louis Records Center for an indefinite period. If the assistant transfers to another agency of the federal government, the personnel section is sent to the gaining agency. All other sections of the folder are destroyed six months after the assistant leaves office.

SYSTEM MANAGER(S) AND ADDRESS:
Associate Deputy Attorney General; Office of the Deputy Attorney General; United States Department of Justice; 10th and Constitution Avenue, NW; Washington, D.C. 20530.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURE:
Address all inquiries to the System Manager. These records will be exempted from subsections (d)(1) and (e)(1) of the Privacy Act pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(5). Rules have been promulgated in accordance with the requirements of 5 U.S.C. 553(b), (c) and (e) and have been published in the Federal Register.

JUSTICE/DAG-006

SYSTEM NAME:

Presidential Appointee Candidate Records System.

SYSTEM LOCATION:

Office of the Deputy Attorney General; United States Department of Justice; 10th and Constitution Avenue, N.W.; Washington, D.C. 20530.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

This system encompasses all individuals who are brought to the attention of the Department of Justice as potential candidates for appointment as United States Judges, United States Attorneys, or United States Marshals.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

As to any particular individual, the number and kind of records may vary according to the qualifications of the individual. Thus, these records, in some instances, contain merely single letters from the individual himself or some other person recommending his consideration for one of the positions mentioned in the Categories of individuals. The records may also contain biographical sketches of the individual supplied either by the individual himself or the person recommending him. If the individual is under serious consideration for appointment, a confidential evaluation of his qualifications for the position will be in his folder. Also present may be completed background investigations on the individual. Letters, if any are received, protesting the individual's potential appointment may also be in the folder. Also present would be any information supplied by the individual or any other letters of recommendation.
These records are maintained pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 301.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses:
The routine uses of these records vary with the amount of consideration given to nominating the individual for appointment. In some instances, the records are stored, reviewed by Department personnel, and destroyed as outlined under Retention and Disposal. The candidate's entire record folder would be sent to the President upon his request. After a candidate is nominated and his nomination is pending Senate confirmation, the background investigation is routinely provided to Chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee. The fact that the candidate was being considered for appointment would be made known to the references supplied by the candidate and others contacted. Information about the candidate, as then known, might be supplied to contacted individuals as necessary to verify already obtained information or to seek elaboration of that information.

Release of information to the news media: Information permitted to be released to the news media and the public pursuant to 28 CFR 50.2 may be made available from systems of records maintained by the Department of Justice unless it is determined that release of the specific information in the context of a particular case would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

Release of information to Members of Congress: Information contained in systems of records maintained by the Department of Justice, not otherwise required to be released pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552, may be made available to a Member of Congress or staff acting upon the Member's behalf when the Member or staff requests the information on behalf of and at the request of the individual who is the subject of the record.

Release of information to the National Archives and Records Administration. A record from a system of records may be disclosed as a routine use to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) in records management inspections conducted under the authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2909.

Release of information to civil or criminal law enforcement agencies: Information may be disclosed to civil or criminal law enforcement agency, whether Federal, State, local, or foreign, which requires information relevant to a civil or criminal investigation. Release of information to agencies regarding the hiring or retention of employees: Information may be disclosed to officials and employees of the White House or any Federal agency which requires information relevant to an agency decision concerning the hiring, appointment, or retention of an employee; the issuance of a security clearance; the execution of a security or suitability investigation; the classification of a job; or the issuance of a grant or benefit.

Release of information to Federal, State, and local licensing agencies: Information may be disclosed to Federal, State, and local licensing agencies or associations which require information concerning the suitability or eligibility of an individual for a license or permit.

Release of information before a court or adjudicative body: Information may be disclosed in a proceeding before a court or adjudicative body before which the Office of the Deputy Attorney General (ODAG) is authorized to appear when (a) ODAG, or any subdivision thereof, or (b) any employee of ODAG in his or her official capacity, or (c) any employee of ODAG in his or her individual capacity where the Department of Justice has agreed to represent the employee, or (d) the United States, where ODAG determines that the litigation is likely to affect it or any of its subdivisions, is a party to litigation or has an interest in litigation and such records are determined by ODAG to be arguably relevant to the litigation.

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System:

Storage:
These records are maintained in paper folders.

Retrievability:
Information is retrieved from this system by reference first to the office, indexed geographically or by the circuit or district, for which the individual is being considered, and then alphabetically by name of the candidate.

Safeguards:
These records are stored in cabinets which are kept in a locked room.

Retention and Disposal:
These records are kept for five years and then destroyed, unless the individual receives the appointment.
CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:
The system encompasses the following: Department of Justice Presidential appointees and retired, resigned, or deceased appointees.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:
This system of records consists of records folders which may contain up to five sections. The personnel section includes such items as biographical sketches, qualification statements, completed Civil Service forms if applicable, letters recommending appointment, notifications of appointment, and other personnel-related matters. The character section contains completed or portions of ongoing background investigations and matters related thereto. The Congressional section contains Congressional and other political type recommendations regarding appointment. The protest section contains correspondence, if any exists, protesting the appointment of candidates. The complaint section contains correspondence from individuals or groups complaining about office holders.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:
These records are maintained pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 301.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:
Generally, these records are used only for internal Department of Justice purposes. Prior to appointment, routine uses would include those specified for the Presidential Appointee Candidate Records System. If an appointee leaves the Department, information contained in his personnel folder might be used as the basis for answering inquiries from prospective employers about his qualifications and performance. The personnel section of his folder would be made available to other federal agencies, at their request, upon the transfer of the appointee to such an agency.

Release of information to the news media: Information permitted to be released to the news media and the public pursuant to 28 CFR 50.2 may be made available from systems of records maintained by the Department of Justice, not otherwise required to be released pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552, may be made available to a Member of Congress or staff acting upon the Member's behalf when the Member or staff requests the information on behalf of and at the request of the individual who is the subject of the record.

Release of information to the National Archives and Records Administration: A record from a system of records may be disclosed as a routine use to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) in records management inspections conducted under the authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

Release of information to civil or criminal law enforcement agencies: Information may be disclosed to any civil or criminal law enforcement agency, whether Federal, State, local, or foreign, which requires information relevant to a civil or criminal investigation.

Release of information to agencies regarding the hiring or retention of employees: Information may be disclosed to officials and employees of the White House or any Federal agency which requires information relevant to an agency decision concerning the hiring, appointment, or retention of an employee; the issuance of a security clearance; the execution of a security or suitability investigation; the classification of a job; or the issuance of a grant or benefit.

Release of information to Federal, State, and local licensing agencies: Information may be disclosed to Federal, State, and local licensing agencies or associations which require information concerning the suitability or eligibility of an individual for a license or permit.

Release of information before a court or adjudicative body: Information may be disclosed in a proceeding before a court or adjudicative body before which the Office of the Deputy Attorney General (ODAG) is authorized to appear when (a) ODAG, or any subdivision thereof, or (b) any employee of ODAG in his or her official capacity, or (c) any employee of ODAG in his or her individual capacity where the Department of Justice has agreed to represent the employee, or (d) the United States, where ODAG determines that the litigation is likely to affect or any of its subdivisions, is a party to the litigation or has an interest in the litigation and such records are determined by ODAG to be arguably relevant to the litigation.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING, RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING, AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:
STORAGE:
These records are stored in paper folders.

RETRIEVABILITY:
Information is retrieved by using the name of the individual who is the subject of the folder.

SAFEGUARDS:
These records are stored in cabinets which are kept in a locked room.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:
The personnel section of these records is retained indefinitely at the Office of the Deputy Attorney General, except in the instance of an appointee who resigns or dies, in which case that section is sent to the St. Louis Records Center for indefinite storage. All other sections of the folders, in the instance where an appointee dies or resigns, are sent to the Suililand, Maryland Records Center for storage for five years and then destroyed.

SYSTEM MANAGER(S) AND ADDRESS:
Associate Deputy Attorney General; Office of the Deputy Attorney General; United States Department of Justice; 10th and Constitution Avenue, NW.; Washington, D.C. 20530.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURE:
Address all inquiries to the System Manager. These records will be exempted from subsections(d)(1) and (e)(1) of section 552a, Title 5, United States Code, by the Attorney General under authority of 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(5) to the extent therein permitted.

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:
A request for access to non-exempt portions of records from this system should be directed orally or in writing to the System Manager. When requests are in writing, the envelope and letter should clearly be marked "Privacy Access Request."

CONTESTING RECORD PROCEDURES:
Individuals desiring to contest or amend information maintained in the system should direct their request to the System Manager, stating clearly and concisely what information is being contested the reasons for contesting it, and the proposed amendment(s) to the information.
