Prepared by U.S. Federal Trade Commission (Oct. 1999)

- Information obtained herein reflects best information available on technical assistance that the Federal Trade Commission has furnished to foreign jurisdictions from fiscal year ("FY") 1990 - FY 1998. (Each FY runs from October 1 through September 30).
- The total number of missions is comprised of long- and short-term missions. Long-term missions are defined as 2-9 months, and short-term missions are defined as 1-4 weeks.
- An "advisor" is defined as a FTC employee or consultant who participated in one or more long-or short-term missions. Normally FTC advisors are accompanied by a complementary staff member of the U.S. Department of Justice, Antitrust Division, who is separately funded, usually by USAID.
