

From: Camille Knight <camilleeknight@gmail.com>
Sent: Tuesday, November 24, 2009 8:18 PM
To: ATR-Agricultural Workshops <agriculturalworkshops@usdoj.gov>
Subject: Migrant workers

Hello,

Most Americans are not aware that without migrant workers our food costs would skyrocket. No American will do the amount of work for the monetary rewards required to pick crops.

The government is trying to penalize farmers who are only doing their very best.

Why not go back to green cards and allow the migrants here for the farming season without all of the current hassles.

Thank you,
Camille Knight