I am extremely worried about the lack of competition in agricultural markets. How can Monsanto be allowed to virtually have control over the agricultural seed distribution? Most of this country will be beholden to the profit motive of this hideous company.

It is undemocratic and it is wrong.

Additionally agribusiness has always been destructive to the soil and water supplies.

I can't begin to say how opposed I am to genetically modified foodstuffs. Oh please, it is too Orwellian.

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to comment.

Sincerely,

Peter Toscani
