

From: Margaret Baker <mimi95959@hotmail.com>
Sent: Wednesday, December 23, 2009 12:00 AM
To: ATR-Agricultural Workshops <agriculturalworkshops@usdoj.gov>
Subject: comment

If I were in charge of US Ag policy, I would stop subsidies to mega corporate farms and products such as corn and soybeans. I like the European system with subsidies to small farms. When you shop for food there it is easier to find great local products, cheese, meats, fruits and vegetables. It is wrong when a Twinkie is cheaper than an apple. Margaret Baker