Dear DoJ,

I am concerned about the ways industrial farms squeeze out local farmers by setting prices the little guys just can't compete with. I am also concerned that a few big businesses have so much power over where my food comes from and how it's produced. I no longer want to eat food that traveled halfway around the world to be available out of season, or food that is full of chemicals, or food that was not treated humanely as it was raised. Please do something!

Thank you,

Helena Gilbert
