

From: D. J. Herda [mailto:djwrit[REDACTED]]
Sent: Saturday, June 23, 2012 10:46 AM
To: Read, John
Subject: Amazon Unfair Business Practices

Dear Mr. Read,

As president of the American Society of Authors and Writers, I'm writing to say that our 2,000 members believe Amazon's involvement in using eBooks to target traditional brick-and-mortar bookstores, is unconstitutional and contrary to the history of fair practices and competition in business. We hereby suggest you take a firm position against such actions.

Sincerely,

D. J. Herda

Author of the New Globe Pequot Title, THEY CALL ME DOC – The Story Behind the Legend of John Henry Holliday

Buy It at Amazon

Request a Signed Copy from the Author

Confidentiality Notice. This e-mail may contain confidential information that is protected by the work product privilege. It is intended only for the use of individual(s) named above and/or below. If you are not a named recipient or an employee responsible for delivering the e-mail, you are instructed not to deliver, distribute or copy this e-mail, nor should you disclose its contents or take any action in reliance on the information it contains. If you have received this e-mail in error, please notify us immediately by telephone to arrange for the return of the transmitted documents to us.