

From: Uwe Stender [mailto:ustend[REDACTED]]
Sent: Friday, June 15, 2012 2:32 PM
To: Read, John
Subject: United States v. Apple, Inc., et al., 12-cv-2826 (DLC) (SDNY).

Dear Mr. Read:

I will keep this short.

I strongly oppose the proposed settlement between the Justice Department and the publishers re: e-book pricing.

It is my opinion that Amazon has been acting in a predatory manner that has (and will continue to) negatively affect the livelihoods of authors, publishers, book stores etc. If the settlement stands, then Amazon will establish a monopoly that will be to the detriment not only to the entire publishing industry, but also to all customers.

Please, protect broad competition!

Best wishes,
Dr. Uwe Stender

This message is intended only for the use of the individuals to which it is addressed and may contain information that is privileged and confidential. If you are not the intended recipient, you are hereby notified that you have received this transmission in error; any review, dissemination, distribution or copying of this transmission is prohibited. If you have received this communication in error, please notify us immediately by reply e-mail and delete this message and all of its attachments.