

From: Anne Holman [mailto:awholm[REDACTED]]
Sent: Sunday, June 24, 2012 5:58 PM
To: Read, John [John.Read@ATR.USDOJ.gov]
Cc: d[REDACTED]
Subject: Regarding Amazon's ability to make me lose my livelihood

Dear Mr. Read:

I work at The King's English Bookshop (TKE), a dream come true for the past 12 years. It doesn't pay me the moon but I have health insurance, can pay my mortgage and live in the community I love. If Amazon is allowed to continue its predatory pricing methods and bully tactics, my bookstore will go out of business and I will lose a job I love. Over the past 35 years, we at TKE, have found ways to compete with everything the economy and large corporations have thrown at us. But Amazon is cheating; please don't let them continue to do that. America is not a land of cheaters, it's a land of people who appreciate a fair game. I sincerely hope you agree.

Very truly yours,

Anne Holman

--

Anne Holman
The King's English Bookshop
1511 South 1500 East
Salt Lake City, UT 84105
801-484-9100
books@kingsenglish.com
www.kingsenglish.com

What I'm reading now:

Watergate, Thomas Mallon
The Tiger's Wife, Tea Obrecht