Dear Mr. Read,

I am writing today regarding “United States v. Apple, Inc., et al., 12-cv-2826 (DLC) (SDNY)”. I have worked in the book industry for several years now. I have 3 children, the oldest is seven, she loves to read and enjoys the public and elementary school library. She also loves to browse through the local BAM store for hours on the weekends. I enjoy shopping with Amazon just as everyone else, but I feel that we are losing the true meaning of going into a book store and purchasing the physical copy and storing it on a book shelf for others to enjoy.

I am in agreement with the Author’s Guild and will do whatever I can to support their efforts to stop this bizarre support of Amazon becoming the only way to purchase a book in this country. We need the physical books for our future families, so they can enjoy the atmosphere as much as we have in our past.

Sincerely,

Eric Williams
