Dear Sirs,

My name is George Thomas I am a songwriter and a member of ASCAP In respect to the "Consent Decrees Act "financial compensation from various Digital services such as Amazon, Google, Sirius, Pandora, Youtube, Clear Channel Just to mention the biggest offenders is reprehensible at best. It is certainly about Time to change the monetary compensation in 73 years money has changed significantly.

The introduction of the home computer has revolutionized the world. It is about time for the music industry to overcome this antiquated system and step into the twenty first century, Now it is time for our call to arms. Music, films and all forms of the artistic process are an intricate part of the evolution of mankind. What a drag it would be if we were just a bunch of robots. Artist world wide call out to see the possibilities of our future. Please Won't you try to see it our way after 73 years of asking? George Thomas
