2. Venturian Corp. (hereinafter Venturian), was a corporation organized under the laws of Minnesota with its principal offices in Hopkins, Minnesota, and was engaged in, among other things, the business of selling military equipment and supplies to, among others, certain developing nations. In 1955, Venturian changed its name from Northwestern Auto Parts Company to Napco Industries, Inc. In May 1984, Venturian reorganized, was renamed Napco International, Inc. and continued its business of the sale of military equipment and supplies. Following another reorganization, in June 1987, Venturian assumed its present name and transferred all of its domestic and international military equipment sales business assets to a new, wholly owned, subsidiary with the same name as its predecessor parent corporation, Napco International, Inc. Venturian is an issuer as that term is defined in the FCPA, 15 U.S.C. §78dd-1(d)(1).

3. Napco International, Inc. (hereinafter Napco), was a corporation organized under the laws of Minnesota with its principal offices in Hopkins, Minnesota, and was engaged in, among other things, the business of selling military equipment and supplies to, among others, developing nations. Napco, a wholly owned subsidiary of Venturian, was a domestic concern as that term is defined in the FCPA, 15 U.S.C. §78dd-2(d)(1).

4. For the purposes of this Indictment, the name Napco shall stand for the following entities for the following periods:

Napco Industries, Inc. January 1983 to May 1984

Napco International, Inc., May 1984 to June 1987
 presently known as Venturian Corp.

Napco International, Inc., June 1987 to present a subsidiary of Venturian Corp.

For the period from January 1983 through June 1987, the defendant LIEBO was an officer of an issuer as that term is defined in the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977, 15 U.S.C. §78dd-1(d)(1) and for the period from June 1987 through November 1988, he was an officer of a domestic concern as that term is defined in the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977, 15 U.S.C. §78dd-2(d)(1).

5. The Foreign Corrupt Practices Act was enacted by the Congress in 1977 for the purpose of making it unlawful to make payments to foreign government officials to obtain or retain business and to require certain corporations to maintain accurate records.

6. In order to advance the national security of the United States and its allies, the Congress authorized the Foreign Military Sales (hereinafter FMS) program. Under this program, loans were made to certain foreign governments to finance the purchase of defense items, that is, defense articles or services of United States origin. FMS loan funds were disbursed by the Federal Financing Bank (hereinafter FFB), an agency of the United States Department of Treasury.

7. The Defense Security Assistance Agency (hereinafter DSAA), an agency of the United States Department of Defense, was responsible for directing, administering and supervising FMS loans. To discharge its responsibilities, the DSAA promulgated requirements and issued directives governing FMS loans. The pertinent FMS loan requirements and directives provided, in essence, that:

a. FMS funds were to be used to procure defense items only under purchase contracts approved by DSAA; and

b. To ensure FMS loan funds were utilized only for the purposes intended by law, and for which each loan was authorized, certain certifications were required from the contractor or commercial supplier obtaining funds pursuant to the FMS loan;

c. Among the certifications required from contractors and commercial suppliers were, at various times material herein, that (i) if DSAA approved FMS financing of a stated dollar value of non-U.S. origin components or services, that dollar amount would not be exceeded and that, as a condition of receiving U.S. Government funds, DSAA would be notified of any changes to the identification of non-U.S. items or services; (ii) that the FMS financed contract price included only those commissions specifically stated in the certificate, and that such commissions would be paid only to bona fide employees or agencies which neither exerted or proposed to exert improper influences to solicit or obtain the contract as defined in Federal Acquisition Regulation 3.401; (iii) that no rebates, gifts or gratuities contrary to U.S. law have been or would be given to officers, officials or employees of the purchaser, that is, of the foreign government borrower of FMS funds, intended to secure the contract or obtain favorable treatment under the contract.

d. The certifications required to be made by a commercial supplier were not to contain any statement which was false, fictitious or fraudulent. Failure to adhere to this requirement subjected a contractor or commercial supplier to criminal prosecution for, among other things, making a false statement under 18 U.S.C. §1001.

8. Before the FFB would advance FMS loan proceeds to a commercial supplier, DSAA, in reliance on a commercial supplier's certifications, was requested to certify to the FFB that the invoices DSAA had received from the commercial supplier, and the certifications it had received from the foreign government borrower, are in accordance with the loan terms and applicable regulations.

9. The Republic of Niger, located in the North Central portion of Africa, was a foreign nation qualified to receive FMS loan assistance from the DSAA.

10. Tahirou Barke Doka was, until December 1985, the First Counselor of the Embassy of the Republic of Niger in Washington, D.C. and, as such, was a foreign official as that term is defined in the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977, 15 U.S.C. §78dd-1(b) and §78dd-2(d) (2).

11. Captain Ali Tiemogo was the Chief of Maintenance for the air force of the Government of Niger, and, as such, was a foreign official as that term is defined in the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977, 15 U.S.C. §78dd-1(b) and §78dd-2(d) (2).

12. On or about September 24, 1981, September 15, 1982, and September 26, 1983, three loan agreements, in the respective amounts of $2.3 million, $2.0 million and $1.2 million, were entered into by and between the FFB and the Republic of Niger. Pursuant to these loan agreements, as amended, the guarantees of the DSAA, and the promissory notes of the Republic of Niger as the borrower, the FFB agreed to lend the aggregate amount of $5.5 million to the Republic of Niger for the purchase of defense items consisting of articles and services of United States origin. The Government of Niger was permitted to contract with a United States supplier for the defense supplies and services it required, subject to DSAA's prior approval of all purchase contracts.

13. In February 1983, the Government of Niger entered into a contract with a West German aircraft maintenance firm, Dornier Reparaturwerft GmbH (hereinafter Dornier) to perform maintenance on the Nigerian C-130's. However, the Government of Niger had insufficient funds to pay for Dornier's services and Dornier sought to affiliate with a United States contractor so that the Government of Niger could qualify for United States Government FMS financing.

14. Beginning in or about June 1983, Napco, acting in cooperation with Dornier, began negotiations with the Government of Niger for a contract to furnish replacement parts and to perform maintenance on two C-130 transport aircraft owned by the air force of the Government of Niger, the Escadrille Nationale Nigerienne (hereinafter the ENN).

15. Between December 1983 and March 1987, four purchase contracts for aircraft parts and maintenance and for other defense items were entered into between Napco and the Government of Niger, three of which were approved by DSAA. The following chart identifies these contracts:

B. THE CONSPIRACY (18 U.S.C. 371)

Beginning in or about July 1983 and continuing through in or about September 1987, in the District of Minnesota and elsewhere, the defendant LIEBO did unlawfully, willfully and knowingly combine, conspire and confederate with other divers persons, known and unknown to the Grand Jury:

1. To defraud the United States of America and agencies thereof, particularly the Department of Defense, DSAA, concerning its right to have the FMS program operate free from fraud and false statements, and to defraud the United States of America, and agencies thereof, by impeding, impairing, obstructing, and defeating the lawful government functions of the Internal Revenue Service of the Treasury Department in the ascertainment, computation, and collection of the revenue: to wit, the income tax liability of NAPCO.

2. To violate the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977 by the use of the mails and of means and instrumentalities of interstate commerce corruptly in furtherance of an offer, payment, promise to pay or authorization of the payment of money:

(a) to officials of the Government of the Republic of Niger, that is, First Counselor Tahirou Barke Doka and Captain Ali Tiemogo, both of whom were foreign officials as that term is used in the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977, 15 U.S.C. 78dd; and

(b) to persons, that is, Fatouma Mailele Boube and Amadou Mailele, both relatives of Tiemogo, while knowing that all or a portion of such money would be offered, given or promised, directly or indirectly, to foreign officials, namely Barke and Tiemogo, for the purpose of influencing the acts and decisions of Barke and Tiemogo in their official capacities, and inducing them to use their influence with the Ministry of Defense (hereinafter MOD) of the Government of Niger and with the ENN so as to affect and influence the acts and decisions of the MOD and ENN in order to assist the defendant LIEBO and his coconspirators in obtaining and retaining business with the Government of the Republic of Niger, in violation of Title 15, United States Code, Sections 78dd-1(a) (1) and (3) 78dd-2(a) (1) and (3); 78dd-2(b) and 78ff(c) (2); and

3. To further violate the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977 by:

(a) failing to make and keep books, records, and accounts which, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflected the transactions and dispositions of Napco's assets; and

(b) failing to devise and maintain a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide reasonable assurances that --

(i) Napco's transactions were executed in accordance with management's general or specific authorization;

(ii) Napco's transactions were recorded as necessary to maintain accountability for assets; and

(iii) access to the Napco's assets was permitted only in accordance with management's general or specific authorization.

in violation of 15 U.S.C. §§78m(b) (2) (A) and (B) and 78ff(a);

4. To violate Title 18, United States Code, Section 1001; and by, among other things, falsely representing to DSAA the identities of Napco's agents, misrepresenting the percentages of contract funds paid and to be paid to non-U.S. suppliers and filing mis-dated invoices.

5. To violate Title 26, United States Code, Section 7206(2).

C. MEANS AND METHODS OF THE CONSPIRACY

The charged conspiracy was accomplished by the following means and methods and in the following manner:

1. It was a part of the conspiracy that the defendant LIEBO, and others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, would and did offer, promise and agree to pay, and authorize the payment to

Tahirou Barke Doka, the First Counselor of the Niger Embassy in Washington, D.C., and to Captain Ali Tiemogo, of the ENN, both officials of the Government of Niger, certain payments, equalling approximately 10% of NAPCO's net revenues on certain contracts for spare parts and aircraft maintenance -- financed by the United States Government -- between NAPCO and the Government of Niger, to use their influence in order for Napco to obtain and retain said contracts;

2. It was further a part of the conspiracy that the defendant LIEBO, and others, would and did make payments in the aggregate amount of $130,816.83 to Barke and Tiemogo.

3. It was further a part of the conspiracy that the defendant LIEBO, and others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, would and did use various methods to conceal the conspiracy in order to insure the continuing existence, success and profitability of the conspiracy, including but not limited to:

(a) preparing and using bogus commission agreements, reports, requests for payment and other internal Napco documentation purporting to show that "commissions" on Napco's Niger contracts had been earned by and paid to bona fide agents of Napco;

(b) creating a fictitious commission agent, known as "E. Dave," and opening an account at First National Bank of Hopkins, in Hopkins, Minnesota, in the name of this "agent" for the purpose of concealing the payment of money to Niger Government officials Tiemogo and Barke;

(c) using, as the names of its commission agents, the names of Amadou Mailele (hereinafter "Mailele") and Fatouma Mailele Boube (hereinafter "Boube"), both relatives of Tiemogo, in order to conceal the payments to Niger government officials Tiemogo and Barke;

(d) assisting Barke and Tiemogo in their receipt of bribes through wire transfers to accounts, opened for the purpose of receiving the bribes, at Credit Lyonnais in Paris, France.

(e) falsely representing to DSAA that Mailele and Boube were Napco's agents in the Republic of Niger when these persons were not Napco's agents, had performed no services for Napco, and had acted solely as the intermediaries for Tiemogo and Barke for the purpose of concealing the payments to them; and

(f) instructing employees of Napco to convey documents between Napco's offices in Hopkins, Minnesota, and Washington, D.C., and between Napco's Washington, D.C. office, the Washington, D.C. Embassy of the Republic of Niger and DSAA's offices in Arlington, Virginia, for the purpose of obtaining and retaining purchase contracts with the Government of Niger, obtaining payment for goods and services provided under purchase contracts and to facilitate the payments to the Niger government officials, Barke and Tiemogo.

4. It was further a part of the conspiracy that the defendant LIEBO and others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, would and did conceal the nature and extent of Napco's payments to Barke and Tiemogo by filing and causing to be filed false and fraudulent U.S. Corporation Income Tax Returns, Form 1120, for Napco for the tax years 1984, 1985 and 1986, which returns falsely claimed certain deductions for the payment of agents commissions.

5. It was further a part of the conspiracy that the defendant LIEBO, and others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, would and did cause the FFB to advance FMS loan funds to Napco by wire transfers by submitting false statements and certifications to DSAA, including letters, statements and certificates which (a) falsely indicated the identities of Napco's "agents" and the amounts to be paid to them; (b) misrepresented to DSAA the percentages of purchase contracts which would be paid by Napco to a non-U.S. supplier, that is, Dornier, for maintenance of the Niger Government's two C-130 aircraft; and, (c) in connection therewith, filed with DSAA intentionally mis-dated Dornier invoices purporting to show services performed under a certain purchase contract.

6. It was further a part of the conspiracy that the defendant LIEBO, and others, would and did further conceal the offer and payment of money to Barke and Tiemogo by aiding and assisting in the preparation and presentation of a false and fraudulent Form W-8 concerning the "E. Dave" bank account.

7. It was further a part of the conspiracy that the defendant LIEBO, and others, would and did misrepresent to DSAA the percentages of purchase contracts which would be paid to a non-U.S. supplier, that is, Dornier, for maintenance of the Niger

Government's two C-130 aircraft and, in order to fraudulently obtain payment for such non-U.S. supplier's services, filed with DSAA certain intentionally mis-dated Dornier invoices purporting to show services performed under a certain purchase contract with the Government of Niger.
