SENTENCE OR PROBATION ORDER

The court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the court, the court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

Imposition of sentence suspended and defendant placed on probation for a period of three (3) years from this date with the following Special Conditions of Probation: (1) Defendant to pay a fine in sum of $10,000 in such amounts as determined by U.S. Probation Office. (2) Defendant to perform 200 hrs. of Community Service under direction of U.S. Probation Office.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

In addition to the special conditions of probation imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the general conditions of probation set out on the reverse side of this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of probation, reduce or extend the period of probation, and at any time during the probation period or within a maximum probation period of five years permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke probation for a violation occurring during the probation period.
