ORDER

For reasons stated in the United States' Motion for Order Setting Amount of Restitution, and for good cause shown, it is hereby ORDERED that:

Pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3663A, defendants Curshen, Montgomery, Krome, Barham, Weidenbaum and Reynolds shall pay restitution in the total amount of $808,372.32 joint and several with their co-defendants. Such restitution shall be provided to the victims in the amounts and to the payees identified in the Motion and the list provided to the Court and Clerk of the Court by the Office of Probation.

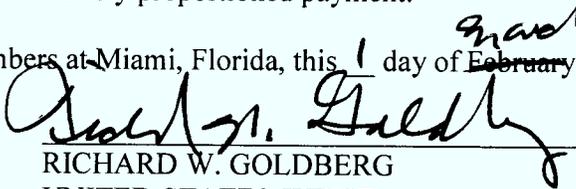

It is FURTHER ORDERED that to the extent any funds are paid to the victims in this case through the process of remission as authorized under the forfeiture statutes and to the extent such funds are insufficient to afford the full amount of restitution ordered herein, each of defendants Curshen, Montgomery, Krome, Barham, Weidnebaum and Reynolds shall then pay restitution on the following terms:

1. During the period of incarceration, payment shall be made as follows: (1) if a defendant earns wages in a Federal Prison Industries (UNICOR) job, then the defendants must pay 50% of wages earned toward the financial obligations imposed by this Judgment in a Criminal Case; (2) if the defendant does not work in a UNICOR job, then the defendant must pay a minimum of $25.00 per quarter toward the financial obligations imposed in this order.
2. Upon release of incarceration, the defendant shall pay restitution at the rate of 10% of monthly gross earnings, until such time as the Court may alter that payment schedule in the interests of justice.

The U.S. Bureau of Prisons, U.S. Probation Office and U.S. Attorney's Office shall monitor the payment of restitution and report to the Court any material change in the defendants' ability to pay. These payments do not preclude the government from using other assets or income of any of the defendants to satisfy the restitution obligations. If any of the defendants makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive an approximately proportioned payment.
