Re: United States v. Mildred E. Siak, also known as Mildred Elizabeth Gillars.

On the application of the defendant for additional time in which to prepare a defense, the court has now adjourned the trial of the case to Wednesday, January 1, 1949. I sincerely hope that no impediment exists which will render it impossible for you to arrive in the United States in conformity with the new date. It will be sufficient if you arrive in Washington no later than Saturday, January 6, as it is not absolutely necessary that you be here on the day the trial commences.

I have written a letter to your employer giving the above information and enclose copy for your files.

I do not like to burden you unduly but will appreciate a short note from you indicating whether or not there appears to be any reason why you cannot make the trip in accordance with the new trial date.

Miss Smith and Mr. Cunningham join me in sending best regards and in the hope that you are enjoying the best of health.

Sincerely,

JOHN M. KELLEY, JR.
Special Assistant to the Attorney General.

Re: United States v. Mildred E. Sick, also known as Mildred Elizabeth Gillars.

On the application of the defendant for additional bail in which to prepare a defense, the court has now adjourned the trial of the case to Wednesday, January 1, 1949. I sincerely hope that the important evidence which will be in your possession by that time in the United States is available to the court. It is sufficient if you arrive in Washington in time for the trial on January 1, as it is not likely that the government will be able to get the trial postponed.

I have written a letter to your employer giving the above information and enclosed a copy for your files.

I do not like to burden you unduly but will appreciate a short note from you indicating the hour or two there appears to be any possibility for your coming into the city in accordance with the law.

Miss Smith and Mr. Cunningham join me in sending best regards and in the hope that you are enjoying the best of health.

Sincerely,

JOHN W. KELLEY, JR.

Dear Mr. Kelley,

Ed 6

In the first place many thanks for the letter, you have sent to my employer and which was received in a good order.

To my gladness I can say, that I already have got the permission from my employer for this new trip. All our important recordings have been done, so that I have some more time now.

||| Please will you be so kind to send a message to Mr. Blackisto (vice-consul for the U.S.A. in Amsterdam, Holland, Museumplein 19) that you need me for a second time and that all he can do for me should be very appreciated.

Probable I need some custom-papers for the out and import of the material (magneto-tape etc.) which I should carry with me for the trial. For all those things I need the help of Mr. Blackiston.

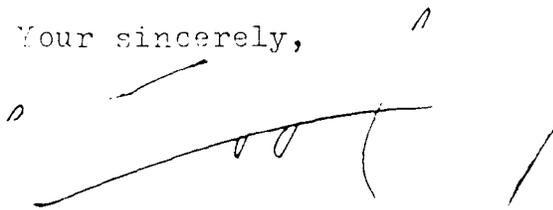

Willingly I should make this trip to the U.S.A. again by K.L.M. Perhaps can you advise Mr. Blackiston? I hope that you soon can send me the correct date, on which you expect me in Washington.

When you have some other wishes, n.c. to bring some special things with me in case of the trial, you should let me know, it will be a great pleasure for me to help you. Don't forget the recording, which is in the possession of Mr. Story.

Many thanks for your letter I just received this morning.

My best wishes for you, Miss Smiths, Mr. Green and Mr. Cunningham.

Your sincerely,

Re: United States v. Mildred E. Sink, also known as Mildred Elisabeth Gillars

The court has adjourned the trial date in the above entitled matter to January 3, 1949. However, the probable trial date will be January 10, 1949 and we have no reason to believe that any further adjournment will be granted hereinafter.

I trust that this change will prove of advantage rather than disadvantage to you in connection with your case referred.

With kind regards, I remain

Yours very truly,

I saw in the paper that the date of the Sillers-trial

middle of the term I would be very grateful to you if you would try to have me in Washington as short a time as possible.

Re: United States v. Mildred K. Sisk, also known as Mildred Elizabeth Gillars

The court has adjourned the trial date in the above styled case to January 5, 1949. However, I do not expect the trial will commence until January 10, 1949 and believe that there is small likelihood that any further adjournment will be granted.

The law requires that the Government furnish to the defendant and a list of the names of all witnesses which it intends to call, together with their residence address. Within the next week, I desire to supply the defendant with such a list and it is therefore essential that I learn whether or not you have moved. And, if so, that you furnish me with an exact mailing address. Not knowing where you are at the moment, I am forwarding a copy of this letter both to

I will appreciate it if you will write me promptly, giving me the desired information and setting forth your residence address as fully as possible.

Miss Smith and Mr. Cunningham join me in sending kind regards, and we remain

Dear Mr. Kelley;

Thank you and Miss Smith for forwarding my mail so faithfully. The Plans have been changed again and we expect to leave for South Carolina by the end of next week. I would be very thankful if you could let me know if the trial date has been changed and when you think that you will need me. I saw yesterday. He also doesn't seem to know anything. He had to enter the hospital yesterday
