

He doesn't know how long he will have to be there. I expect to see him next Tuesday.
I hope that I am not bothering you too much. When I will have to come I wonder if you would be kind enough to reserve a single room without bath for $3.00 for me. Or will you be too busy to bother about such minor details. Have you heard from ? The latest and this time correct bulletin which I just got from

Sincerely yours

Dear Mr. Kelley;

Just a few lines to let you know that we won't go to meet after the middle of November. So you can still get in touch with us here. Please let us know on time when you will need us so I can make arrangements. I hope you are well. My regards to Mrs. Ma Smith. Thanks for forwarding my mail.

Sincerely

The trial date in the above styled case has been adjourned in order to permit the defendant additional time to prepare a defense to January 10, 1949. It is not anticipated that any further delay will be encountered and therefore, in due course, a request will be made sometime in December through military channels for your attendance in Washington on the date before stated.

The law requires that the Government serve upon the defendant in advance of trial a list of all witnesses who will be called on behalf of the prosecution and that such list include the place of abode of each witness. This letter is being written in order to make certain of your present residence address, that is to say, your place of abode which, according to our records, is

It will be appreciated if you will immediately address a letter to the undersigned indicating whether or not the above residence address is correct as of this date. In the event that you are leaving off of the base, please furnish your exact residence address.

In the event that your address has already been changed or should you change your address between now and the date of trial, please inform the writer, giving full particulars.

With kind regards, I remain

Yours very truly,
