U.S. Department of Justice
Civil Rights Division

दमलकी भूल दे आयात
'दे हिंदवने
हिंदव
ढेडवल मुर्खिखा घुपप

अप्रैल 2001 'च फाले बोडा विश्वा
The Division of Justice's Civil Rights Division (Department of Justice's Civil Rights Division) filed the following statement on behalf of Mr. Jones, who received a settlement of $1 million and a promotion in his job.

The Division of Justice's Civil Rights Division (Department of Justice's Civil Rights Division) filed the following statement on behalf of Mr. Jones, who received a settlement of $1 million and a promotion in his job.

The Division of Justice's Civil Rights Division (Department of Justice's Civil Rights Division) filed the following statement on behalf of Mr. Jones, who received a settlement of $1 million and a promotion in his job.

The Division of Justice's Civil Rights Division (Department of Justice's Civil Rights Division) filed the following statement on behalf of Mr. Jones, who received a settlement of $1 million and a promotion in his job.
LEGAL RIGHTS

The Department of Justice, through the Civil Rights Division, enforces the laws that protect your legal rights.

If you believe your legal rights have been violated, you should contact the Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division, at 800-775-4626 (TTY: 800-335-3470) or submit a complaint online at www.司法.政府/civilright.

For more information, visit www.司法.政府/civilright.
* The Civil Rights Division of the Department of Justice (Civil Rights Division) cited in this Section (Criminal Section) does not investigate, litigate or settle cases of employment discrimination or housing discrimination. The following are some of the cases that the Civil Rights Division has handled:

1. Civil Rights Division

   The Civil Rights Division (Civil Rights Division) of the Department of Justice (Department of Justice) has handled a number of cases involving employment discrimination, housing discrimination, and other civil rights violations. For more information, please visit the Civil Rights Division's website at www.civilrights.gov. The following cases are examples of the types of cases handled by the Civil Rights Division:

   - Employment Discrimination Cases
     - Case 1
       - Description: In 2012, the Civil Rights Division filed a lawsuit against a large corporation for violating the Civil Rights Act by discriminating against African American employees. The corporation agreed to settle the case for $10 million and to implement changes to its hiring and promotion policies to prevent future discrimination.

   - Case 2
     - Description: In 2013, the Civil Rights Division filed a lawsuit against a Fortune 500 company for engaging in_patterns of discrimination against Hispanic employees. The company agreed to settle the case for $15 million and to implement changes to its hiring and promotion policies to prevent future discrimination.

   - Housing Discrimination Cases
     - Case 1
       - Description: In 2011, the Civil Rights Division filed a lawsuit against a housing developer for violating the Fair Housing Act by refusing to rent to tenants based on their race, color, national origin, sex, or familial status. The developer agreed to settle the case for $500,000 and to implement changes to its rental policies to prevent future discrimination.

   - Case 2
     - Description: In 2012, the Civil Rights Division filed a lawsuit against a landlord for violations of the Fair Housing Act by refusing to rent to tenants based on their race, color, national origin, sex, or familial status. The landlord agreed to settle the case for $250,000 and to implement changes to its rental policies to prevent future discrimination.

   - Education Discrimination Cases
     - Case 1
       - Description: In 2013, the Civil Rights Division filed a lawsuit against a school district for violating the Civil Rights Act by discriminating against students based on their race, color, national origin, sex, or disability. The school district agreed to settle the case for $750,000 and to implement changes to its policies to prevent future discrimination.

   - Case 2
     - Description: In 2014, the Civil Rights Division filed a lawsuit against a school district for engaging in_patterns of discrimination against students based on their race, color, national origin, sex, or disability. The school district agreed to settle the case for $1 million and to implement changes to its policies to prevent future discrimination.

   - Economic Discrimination Cases
     - Case 1
       - Description: In 2012, the Civil Rights Division filed a lawsuit against a bank for violating the Equal Credit Opportunity Act by denying loans to African American applicants based on their race. The bank agreed to settle the case for $1 million and to implement changes to its lending policies to prevent future discrimination.

   - Case 2
     - Description: In 2013, the Civil Rights Division filed a lawsuit against a bank for engaging in_patterns of discrimination against Hispanic applicants based on their race. The bank agreed to settle the case for $250,000 and to implement changes to its lending policies to prevent future discrimination.

The Civil Rights Division (Civil Rights Division) of the Department of Justice (Department of Justice) is committed to enforcing the civil rights laws and to promoting equal opportunity for all Americans. If you believe that you have been the victim of discrimination, you should contact the Civil Rights Division (Civil Rights Division) of the Department of Justice (Department of Justice) to file a complaint. You can also find information and resources on the Civil Rights Division's website at www.civilrights.gov.
* HMO (Medicaid) benefits were received, as were services listed.

The Medicaid program is administered by the State of Washington, Department of Social and Health Services, Disability Rights Section, P.O. Box 66738, Washington, D.C. 20035-6738.

* (Haitian) students are eligible for honors program, international students are not. Washington State University offers advanced placement programs, but only in certain areas. For more information, contact the Disability Rights Section, P.O. Box 66738, Washington, D.C. 20035-6738.
* This Transit (Transit) information is subject to change without notice. It is the responsibility of the ADA to maintain this information. This is the primary source of information for individuals with disabilities.

* * * * *

* Educational Opportunities Section, P.O. Box 65958, Washington, D.C. 20035-5958.

* * * * *

* (800) 669-4000

(15 से हम बांधकाम बंधक बांधक को लाया है)
Fair Housing Act

The Fair Housing Act (Fair Housing Act) prohibits discrimination in the sale, rental, or financing of housing on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, familial status, or disability. The Department of Housing and Urban Development - HUD (HUD) oversees the enforcement of the Act. Residents who believe they have been discriminated against in housing matters should contact the Department of Housing and Urban Development - HUD at (800) 669-9777 or the Housing and Civil Enforcement Section at (202) 514-4713.
Mortgage (mortgage) are, Mortgage is a legal agreement under which a borrower lends money to a lender and agrees to pay back the loan over a certain period of time. Mortgages are a common way for people to finance the purchase of a home. Mortgages are governed by national and state laws, and the terms and conditions of a mortgage can vary widely depending on the lender and the location.

Department of Housing and Urban Development (Housing and Civil Enforcement Section) P.O. Box 65998, Washington, D.C. 20035-5998.

Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Civil Rights Act of 1964)
Special Litigation Section

Special Litigation Section, P.O. Box 66400, Washington, DC 20035-6400.
The Voting Rights Act (Voting Rights Act) applies to:

- If you are a non-citizen or expatriate and wish to exercise your right to vote, you may obtain an application for admission to the electoral roll by writing to the address below:

Voting Section, P.O. Box 66128, Washington, D.C. 20035-6128.

You may also call our toll-free number (800) 253-3931 for assistance.

For more information, visit www.votergov.org.
Federal Protections Against National Origin Discrimination

Punjabi

http://www.usdoj.gov/crt