CONSENT DECREE

20 v.

21 MILNE ENTERPRISES, INC., d/b/a
 22 MILNE, NAIL, POWER TOOL &

 24

25 INTRODUCTION

26 This matter is before the Court for entry of this decree by consent of the parties

RECEIVED

1 consideration, the Court believes that entry of this decree is in the interest of justice.

2
3 1. Plaintiff, Robert Brian Robinson (“Robinson”), commenced the above
4 entitled action in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of
5 Washington, alleging that the Defendant Milne Enterprises, Inc., d/b/a Milne, Nail,
6 Power Tool & Repair (“Milne”) violated the Uniformed Services Employment and
7 Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 (“USERRA”) by failing to re-employ Robinson in 8 the position of Assistant Manager, which is the position Robinson would have been
9 employed in had his employment not been interrupted by Robinson’s military service
10 and by retaliating against him when he exercised his rights under USERRA.

12
13 2. Milne denies that it has violated USERRA.

14
15 3. Nevertheless, Robinson and Milne (collectively referred to as the 16 “Parties”), as a result of settlement discussions, have resolved their differences and 17 have agreed that this action should be settled by entry of this Consent Decree. It is 18 the intent of the parties that this Consent Decree be a final and binding settlement in 19 full disposition of all claims alleged in the Complaint filed in this case.
20

21 STIPULATED FACTS

22
23 4. Pursuant to USERRA, the parties acknowledge the jurisdiction of the 24 United States District Court for the Eastern District of Washington over the subject
25 matter of this action and of the parties to this case for the purpose of entering this
26 Decree and, if necessary, enforcing this Decree.
27
28

1 5. Venue is proper in this district for purposes of this Decree and any
2 proceedings related to this Decree only. Milne agrees that all statutory conditions
3 precedent to the institution of this lawsuit have been fulfilled.
4

5 FINDINGS

6 6. Having examined the terms and provisions of the Consent Decree, the 7 Court finds the following:
8

16 Procedure and USERRA, and is not in derogation of the rights and 17 privileges of any person. The entry of this Consent Decree will further

19 best interest of the parties.
20

21 NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND
22 DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

23 NON-ADMISSION

24 7. This Decree is being entered with the consent of the parties and shall not 25 constitute an adjudication or finding on the merits of the case or be construed as an
26
27

1 admission by Milne of any violations of USERRA, or any other law, rule or
2 regulation, dealing with or in connection with equal employment opportunities.
3

4 NON-RETALIATION

5 8. Milne shall not take any action against any person which constitutes
6 retaliation or interference with the exercise of such person's rights under USERRA,
7 or because such person gave testimony or assistance or participated in any manner in
8 any investigation or proceeding in connection with this case.
9

18 Milne shall separately pay to the appropriate governmental agencies the 19 appropriate employer's contribution due on the $6,750 back pay portion
20 of the total monetary award; i.e., the employer's contribution shall not

To Whom It May Concern:

I am genuinely pleased to give my professional recommendation for Brian Robinson. I am the Manager/Co-owner here at our store and was Brian's immediate supervisor for almost five years. Every day we'd spend considerable time together and I found him to be punctual, consistent, pleasant, and hard working.

Brian is a take-charge person who is able to present creative ideas and communicate the benefits of applying them. When we opened a new store, it was Brian who researched on his own to find the most effective computer system and software for us, and then presented that information to the heads of our company. He is one of the brightest people I have met over the years of running this business, and he used that intelligence to help our company get to a higher level faster than we would have without him.

During his employ, Brian worked his way from a part time sales clerk with limited duties to a full time Assistant Manager. As Assistant Manager he worked with me in overseeing and participating in day to day sales, shipping and receiving, inventory, and conducting outside sales to other businesses. He conducted himself professionally and more often than not, he would be wearing our company's uniform shirt, though not required to do so. Brian Robinson also took it upon himself to do other employee tasks so as the job would get done right in a timely manner. Even if it meant doing menial tasks such as shoveling snow, stocking shelves, setting up displays, fixing leaks in the roof and assembling equipment. He was always there for our customers, answering questions and giving concise, knowledgeable information to help them select the products they would need (all while keeping our bottom line in mind).

Sadly, Brian left our store to enlist in the military and is now pursuing an education in the medical field. Though this will surely be an enormous undertaking, Brian has shown time and time again that he is capable of seeing things through to completion and taking pride in the work he does. He has my absolute recommendation and I feel he will be a great asset to any company or organization.

Re: Robert Brian Robinson and Milne, Nail, Power Tool & Repair
Police Records Nos. 07-16182 and 08-04985

Dear Pasco Police Department:

I am writing on behalf of Milne Enterprises, d/b/a Milne, Nail, Power Tool & Repair. In February of 2008, my father, Randy Milne, filed a complaint against Robert Brian Robinson alleging that he was involved in a theft from our family store in the spring of 2007. I am writing on behalf of my family and the Milne store to withdraw all of our complaints against Robert Brian Robinson. We ask that this letter of withdrawal of our complaint be maintained in any files that exist regarding our previous complaints against Robinson.

Thank you.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "David Milne", is written over a horizontal line. The signature is stylized and somewhat cursive.
