CONSENT DECREE BETWEEN PLAINTIFF UNITED STATES AND DEFENDANTS LORI WILLIAMS AND TODD CHAMELIN

The parties hereby consent to the entry of this Consent Decree. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

I. SCOPE OF CONSENT DECREE

1. The provisions of this Consent Decree shall apply to Lori Williams, Todd Chamelin, and their respective employees, agents, assigns, successors-in-interest, and all persons in active concert or participation with either of them.
2. This Consent Decree constitutes a full and final resolution of all claims of violation of the Fair Housing Act that the United States brought or could have brought in this action related to Defendants Williams’s ownership and/or management of real property in Montgomery, AL. It constitutes a full and final resolution of all claims of violation of the Fair Housing Act that the United States brought or could have brought in this action related to Defendant Chamelin’s ownership and/or management of real property in Montgomery, AL.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

3. This action was filed by the United States to enforce the provisions of Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 (the Fair Housing Act), as amended by the Fair Housing Act Amendments of 1988, 42 U.S.C. §§ 3601 et seq. The United States alleges that Defendant Jamarlo K. Gumbaytay, aka Laurence Lamar d/b/a Elite Enterprises Consultant Group (hereinafter “Gumbaytay”) engaged in discrimination on the basis of sex in violation of the Fair Housing Act in connection with rental dwelling units he managed on behalf of Defendants Lori Williams, Todd Chamelin and others (hereinafter “the owner Defendants”) in and around Montgomery, Alabama. Specifically, the United States alleges that Defendant Gumbaytay, in violation of 42 U.S.C. §§ 3604 (a), (b), (c) and 3617, subjected female tenants and prospective tenants to discrimination on the basis of sex, including severe, pervasive, and unwelcome sexual harassment. Such conduct is alleged to have included, but is not limited to, unwanted verbal sexual advances; unwanted touching; entering the apartments of female tenants without permission or notice; granting and denying tangible housing benefits based on sex; and taking adverse action against female tenants when they refused or objected to sexual advances.

4. The United States further alleges that the owner Defendants, including Defendants Williams and Chamelin, are vicariously liable for the above-described discriminatory conduct because Defendant Gumbaytay engaged in such acts while acting within the scope of his employment and/or agency with the owner Defendants.

5. Defendant Chamelin represents that he currently owns no residential real property outside of his primary residence.

6. Defendant Williams owns the following residential real property: (a) 720 Capri St, Montgomery, AL 36105; (b) 413 Burgwyn Rd, Montgomery, AL 36105; (c) 277 Shadyside Lane Montgomery AL 36105; (d) 2719 Forbes Drive Montgomery AL 36110; (e) 4 Kelly Lane, Montgomery AL 36105; and (f) 601 6th Street Montgomery AL 36110.

7. The United States alleges that the Defendants' conduct constituted a pattern or practice of discrimination and/or a denial of rights to a group of persons that raises an issue of general public importance. See 42 U.S.C. § 3614(a).

8. Defendant Williams denies the allegations made by the United States and further denies that she violated the Fair Housing Act, or is in any way liable under the Fair Housing Act.

9. Defendant Chamelin denies the allegations made by the United States and further denies that he violated the Fair Housing Act, or is in any way liable under the Fair Housing Act.

10. To avoid the risks and burdens of litigation, Defendants Williams and Chamelin have each separately entered into this Consent Decree to resolve voluntarily the claims asserted by the United States. The decision to pay any monies was made solely by the liability carrier of Defendants Williams and Chamelin in order to avoid any future fees, costs, or expenses in connection with the defense of this suit and shall not be construed as an admission of liability.

III. INJUNCTION

11. Defendant Williams, Defendant Chamelin, and their respective agents, employees, successors, and all persons currently in active concert or participation with them are hereby enjoined from:

- a. Denying or otherwise making unavailable housing to any person because of sex;

- b. Discriminating against any person in the terms, conditions or privileges of renting a dwelling, or in the provision of services or facilities in connection therewith, because of sex;
- c. Making statements with respect to the rental of a dwelling that indicate any preference, limitation or discrimination based on sex; or
- d. Coercing, intimidating, threatening or interfering with any person in the exercise or enjoyment of, or on account of her having exercised or enjoyed, or on account of her having aided and encouraged any other person in the exercise or enjoyment of any right granted by 42 U.S.C. §§ 3603 -3606.

Defendants shall deliver this payment to counsel for the United States, via overnight mail, at the address listed in footnote 1, above.

23. The monetary damages fund shall be distributed to aggrieved persons in amounts to be determined by the United States and approved by the Court. Within sixty (60) days of the resolution of all of its claims in this case, the United States shall submit a proposed distribution of the monetary damages fund to the Court for approval, and identify the aggrieved persons and the amount of damages that the United States concludes should be paid to each. Defendant Chamelin and Defendant Williams each waive the right to challenge the United States' proposed distribution. However, no money from the fund shall be distributed to an aggrieved person unless he/she has executed and delivered to the United States the release attached to this Consent Decree as Appendix C. Should any aggrieved person refuse to execute the release attached as Appendix C, his or her share of the monetary damages fund will be distributed, in the United States' discretion, among the aggrieved persons who executed releases.

24. The monetary damages amounts required to be paid pursuant to paragraph 22, above, are debts for willful and malicious injury by Defendants Lori Williams and Todd Chamelin within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(6). Neither Defendant Williams nor Chamelin shall seek to discharge any part of their respective debts under paragraph 22 of this Decree in bankruptcy.

25. Interest shall accrue on any sums that are not paid within the times mandated by paragraph 22, as provided in 28 U.S.C. § 1961.

VIII. CIVIL PENALTY

26. Within ten (10) days after the date of the entry of this Consent Decree, Defendant Williams and Defendant Chamelin shall each separately issue a certified check or money order in the amount of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($1,000), payable to the United States Treasury as a civil penalty to vindicate the public interest pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 3614(d)(1)(C). Defendant Williams and Defendant Chamelin shall each deliver these payments to counsel for the United States, via overnight mail, at the address listed in footnote 1, above.

27. In the event that Defendant Williams or her agents or employees engage in any future violation(s) of the Fair Housing Act, such violation(s) shall constitute a “subsequent violation” pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 3614(d).

Neither Defendant Williams nor Defendant Chamelin shall seek to discharge any part of those debts in bankruptcy.

30. Interest shall accrue on any sums that are not paid within the time mandated by paragraph 26, as provided in 28 U.S.C. § 1961.

IX. ENFORCEMENT

31. The parties to this Consent Decree shall endeavor in good faith to resolve informally any differences regarding interpretation of and compliance with this Consent Decree prior to bringing such matters to the Court for resolution. However, in the event the United States contends that there has been a failure by either Defendant Williams or Defendant Chamelin, whether willful or otherwise, to perform in a timely manner any act required by this Consent Decree, or in the event of any other act violating any provision of this Consent Decree, the United States may move this Court to impose any remedy authorized by law or equity, including, but not limited to, an order requiring performance or non-performance of such acts or deeming such acts to have been performed, and an award of any damages, costs, and attorneys’ fees which may have been occasioned by the Defendant's non-actions or actions, or the Defendant's violation or failure to perform.

X. COSTS OF LITIGATION

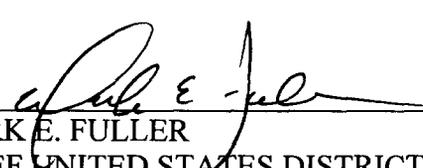

32. All parties shall be responsible for their own attorney's fees and court costs, except as provided in paragraph 31, above.

XI. DURATION

33. This Consent Decree shall be in effect for a period of five years from the effective date. The United States' Complaint against Lori Williams and the United States' Complaint against Todd Chamelin are dismissed with prejudice except that the Court shall retain jurisdiction for the duration of this Consent Decree to enforce its terms. Any time limits for performance imposed by this Consent Decree may be extended by mutual, written agreement of the United States and the party to whom the extension shall apply. The United States may move the Court to extend the duration of the Consent Decree against a Defendant if that Defendant violates one or more provisions of the Decree, or in the interests of justice. The expiration of the Consent Decree shall not extinguish or otherwise affect any Defendant's debt for any unpaid portion of the monetary judgments in paragraphs 22 and 26, including any accrued interest. Nor shall the expiration of the Consent Decree extinguish or otherwise affect the United States' ability to collect such unpaid sums.
