

(COPY)

~~17878-03-24~~

Office of the Attorney General,

Washington, D. C.

42904-7

December 14, 1909.

DEPARTMENT CIRCULAR NO. 122.

Referring to Circular No. 114, it was intended to embrace in the litigation thereby assigned to the Public Land Division, all cases directly and essentially respecting land, whether they be civil or criminal, or whether the land be open to entry under the general land laws, or reserved for public purposes, or lands devoted to the uses of tribal or individual Indians, including actions to recover rents or royalties; but excepting the suits with which Assistant Attorney General Russell is especially charged, now pending in Oklahoma, and appeal in which was recently taken to the Circuit Court of Appeals. In addition to the other matters assigned Mr. Russell, there are assigned to him the defense of Indians and suits to recover money; proceedings involving the distribution of money to Seminole citizens; international and foreign matters; ocean cables, etc.

(Signed) GEO. W. WICKERSHAM

Attorney General.

EXACT COPY

Office of the Attorney General
Washington, D. C.

December 14, 1909

Department Circular No. 132

Referring to Circular No. 114, it was intended to embrace in the litigation thereby assigned to the Public Lands Division, all cases directly and essentially respecting land, whether they be civil or criminal, or whether the land be open to entry under the general land laws, or reserved for public purposes, or lands devoted to the uses of tribal or individual Indians, including actions to recover rents or royalties; but excepting the suits with which Assistant Attorney General Russell is especially charged, now pending in Oklahoma, and appeal in which was recently taken to the Circuit Court of Appeals. In addition to the other matters assigned Mr. Russell, there are assigned to him the defense of Indian and suits to recover money; proceedings involving the distribution of money to Nez Perce citizens; international and foreign matters; ocean cables, etc.

(signed) Geo. W. Vickersham

Attorney General.

Being superseded
by org. of Dep. Memo
U. Rogers - 2N
1-17-58

COPY

Org.

REPRODUCED AT THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES

R. C. J.

Office of the Attorney General
Washington, D. C.

December 14, 1909

Department Circular No. 122

Referring to Circular No. 114, it was intended to embrace in the litigation thereby assigned to the Public Lands Division, all cases directly and essentially respecting land, whether they be civil or criminal, or whether the land be open to entry under the general land laws, or reserved for public purposes, or lands devoted to the uses of tribal or individual Indians, including actions to recover rents or royalties; but excepting the suits with which Assistant Attorney General Russell is especially charged, now pending in Oklahoma, and appeal in which was recently taken to the Circuit Court of Appeals. In addition to the other matters assigned Mr. Russell, there are assigned to him the defense of Indian and suits to recover money; proceedings involving the distribution of money to Seminole citizens; international and foreign matters; ocean cables, etc.

(signed) Geo. W. Wickersham

Attorney General.