Extension of the Designation of Temporary Protected Status for Honduras; Automatic Extension of Employment Authorization Documentation for Honduras TPS Beneficiaries

AGENCY: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, DHS.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Temporary Protected Status (TPS) designation for Honduras will expire on January 5, 2005. This notice extends the designation of TPS for Honduras for 18 months, until July 5, 2006, and sets forth procedures necessary for nationals of Honduras (or aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Honduras) with TPS to re-register and to apply for an extension of their employment authorization documents (EADs) for the additional 18-month period. Re-registration is limited to persons who registered under the initial designation (which was announced on January 5, 1999) and also timely re-registered under each subsequent extension of the designation. Eligible aliens must also have maintained continuous physical... presence in the United States since January 5, 1999, and continuous residence in the United States since December 30, 1998. Certain nationals of Honduras (or aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Honduras) who have not previously applied for TPS may be eligible to apply under the late initial registration provisions.

Given the large number of Hondurans affected by this notice, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) recognizes that many re-registrants may not receive their new EADs until after their current EADs expire on January 5, 2005. Accordingly, this notice automatically extends the validity of EADs issued under Honduras TPS for six months until July 5, 2005, and explains how TPS beneficiaries and their employers may determine which EADs are automatically extended.

DATES: Effective Dates: The extension of TPS for Honduras is effective January 5, 2005, and will remain in effect until July 5, 2006. The 60-day re-registration period begins November 3, 2004 and will remain in effect until January 3, 2005.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Colleen Cook, Residence and Status Services, Office of Programs and Regulations Development, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Department of Homeland Security, 425 I street, NW., ULLICO Building, 3rd Floor, Washington, DC 20529, telephone (202) 514-4754.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

What Authority Does the Secretary of the DHS Have to Extend the Designation of TPS for Honduras?

On March 1, 2003, the functions of the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) transferred from the Department of Justice (DOJ) to DHS pursuant to the Homeland Security Act of 2002, Public Law 107-296. The responsibilities for administering TPS held by INS were transferred to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS).

Under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), 8 U.S.C. 1254a, the Secretary of DHS, after consultation with appropriate agencies of the Government, is authorized to designate a foreign state (or part thereof) for TPS. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(1). The Secretary of DHS may then grant TPS to eligible nationals of that foreign state (or aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in that state). 8 U.S.C. 1254a(a)(1).

Section 244(b)(3)(A) of the Act requires the Secretary of DHS to review, at least 60 days before the expiration of the TPS designation or any extension thereof, the conditions in a foreign state designated for TPS to determine whether the conditions for a TPS designation continue to be met and, if so, the length of an extension of the TPS designation. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(3)(A). If the Secretary of DHS determines that the foreign state no longer meets the conditions for TPS designation, he shall terminate the designation, as provided in section 244(b)(3)(B) of the Act. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(3)(B). Finally, if the Secretary of DHS does not determine that a foreign state (or part thereof) no longer meets the conditions for designation at least 60 days before the designation is due to end, section 244(b)(3)(C) of the Act provides for an automatic extension of TPS for an additional period of 6 months (or, in the discretion of the Secretary of DHS, a period of 12 or 18 months). 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(3)(C).

Why Did the Secretary of DHS Decide to Extend the TPS Designation for Honduras?

On January 5, 1999, a notice was published in the Federal Register at 64 FR 524, designating Honduras for TPS due to the devastation resulting from Hurricane Mitch. The designation of Honduras for TPS subsequently has been extended four times, with notice of such determinations published in the Federal Register (65 FR 30438; 66 FR 23269; 67 FR 22451; 68 FR 23744). The most recent notice was published in the Federal Register on May 3, 2003, and it is due to end on January 5, 2005.

Since the date of the most recent extension, DHS and the Department of State (DOS) have continued to review conditions in Honduras. Due to continued reconstruction of infrastructure damaged by Hurricane Mitch, the Secretary of DHS has determined that an 18-month extension of the TPS designation is warranted because Honduras remains unable, temporarily, to adequately handle the return of its nationals. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(1)(B).

DOS notes that the 82,828 houses destroyed or damaged by Hurricane Mitch, only 42,768 have been rebuilt. (DOS Recommendation (August 31, 2004)). The USCIS Resource Information Center (RIC) also reports that housing reconstruction projects are ongoing (RIC Report (August 2004)). Reconstruction efforts will continue through at least 2005. (DOS Recommendation (August 31, 2004)). Honduras continues recovering from damage to its water and power supplies. The Honduran Social Investment Fund (FHS) is building 36 complex urban water systems that will benefit more than one million people in 35 municipalities. (RIC Report (August 2004)). The Honduran national water company is also rebuilding 33 urban water systems. Id. Reliable sources of electrical power remain a problem. For example, the hydroelectric plant at El Cajon is not functioning at prehurrinece capacity, because water levels have never recovered. Id.

Based upon this review, the Secretary of DHS, after consultation with appropriate Government agencies, finds that the conditions that prompted designation of Honduras for TPS continue to be met. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(3)(A). There continues to be a substantial, but temporary, disruption in living conditions in Honduras as the result of an environmental disaster, and Honduras continues to be unable, temporarily, to handle adequately the return of its nationals. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(1)(B). On the basis of these findings, the Secretary of DHS concludes that the TPS designation for Honduras should be extended for an additional 18-month period. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(3)(C).

If I Currently Have TPS Through the Designation of Honduras for TPS, Do I Still Re-register for TPS?

Yes. If you already have received TPS benefits through the designation of Honduras for TPS, your benefits will expire on January 5, 2005. Accordingly, individual TPS beneficiaries must comply with the re-registration requirements described below in order to maintain TPS benefits through July 5, 2006. TPS benefits include temporary protection against removal from the United States, as well as employment authorization, during the TPS designation period. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(a)(1).

If I Am Currently Registered for TPS, How Do I Re-register for an Extension?

All persons previously granted TPS under the designation of Honduras who wish to maintain such status must apply for an extension by filing the following: (1) Form I-821, Application for Temporary Protected Status; (2) Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization (see the chart below to determine whether you must submit the one hundred and seventy-five dollar ($175) filing fee with Form I-765); and (3) a biometric services fee of seventy dollars ($70) if you are 14 or older, or if you are under 14 and requesting an EAD. The biometric services fee cannot be waived. 8 CFR 267(a)(ii). Unlike previous registration periods, TPS applicants need not submit photographs with the TPS application because a photograph will be taken when the alien appears at an Application Support Center (ASC) for collection of biometrics. An application submitted without the required fees will be returned to the applicant. Please note that Form I-821 has been revised and only the new form is required.

Late Initial Register for TPS? Where Should an Applicant Submit His or Her Application To Re-register or Automatic Extension of His or Her EAD? What Documents May a Qualified Individual Show to His or Her Employer as Proof of Employment Authorization and Identity When Completing Form I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification?

Where Should an Applicant Submit His or Her Application To Re-register or Late Initial Register for TPS?

The Form I–821, Form I–765, fees, and all supporting documentation should be filed at the USCIS Chicago Lockbox at: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, P.O. Box 87583, Chicago, IL 60680–0583; or for non-United States Postal Service (USPS) deliveries: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, 427 S. LaSalle–3rd floor, Chicago, IL 60605.

Please note that this address is not the location where you have submitted your forms during previous re-registration periods. Aliens re-registering or late initial registering for TPS under the designation of Honduras should not send their TPS forms and fees directly to a USCIS Service Center or district office. Failure to follow these instructions may delay processing of your TPS re-registration application.

Who Must Submit the $175 Filing Fee for the Form I–765?

Although all re-registants must submit the Form I–765, only those applicants who are requesting an EAD, regardless of age, must submit the $175 filing fee or a fee waiver request pursuant to 8 CFR 244.20. Late initial registrants between the ages of 14 and 65, inclusive, who are requesting an EAD, must submit the $175 fee or a fee waiver request pursuant to 8 CFR 244.20. This requirement includes any individuals who do not need an EAD for employment or alien registration document purposes, but nevertheless choose to apply for an EAD for use solely as an identity document. Applicants who are submitting Form I–765 only for data-gathering purposes are not required to submit a $175 filing fee, nor are they required to submit a fee waiver request.

Who Must Submit the $70 Biometric Service Fee?

All re-registants and late initial registrants 14 years of age and older must submit the $70 biometric services fee. In addition, any applicant under the age of 14 choosing to apply for an EAD must submit the $70 biometric services fee, as a photograph, signature, and fingerprint are required to produce the card. This fee will not be waived. 8 CFR 103.2(e)(4)(i), (iii).

Who Is Eligible To Receive an Automatic Extension of His or Her EAD?

To receive an automatic extension of his or her EAD, an individual must be a national of Honduras (or an alien having no nationality who last habitually resided in Honduras) who has applied for and received an EAD under the TPS designation of Honduras. This automatic extension is limited to EADs bearing an expiration date of January 5, 2005, that were issued on either Form I–766, Employment Authorization Document, or Form I–688B, Employment Authorization Card. The EAD must also be either (1) a Form I–766 bearing the notation “A–12” or “C–19” on the face of the card under “Category,” or (2) a Form I–688B bearing the notation “274a.12(a)(12)” or “274a.12(c)(19)” on the face of the card under “Provision of Law.”

What Documents May a Qualified Individual Show to His or Her Employer as Proof of Employment Authorization and Identity When Completing Form I–9, Employment Eligibility Verification?

For completion of the Form I–9 at the time of hire or re-verification, qualified individuals who have received a six-month extension of their EADs by virtue of this Federal Register notice may present to their employer a TPS-based EAD as proof of identity and employment authorization until July 5, 2005. To minimize confusion over this extension at the time of hire or re-verification, qualified individuals may also present to their employer a copy of this Federal Register notice regarding the automatic extension of employment authorization documentation to July 5, 2005. In the alternative, any legally acceptable document or combination of documents listed in List A, List B, or List C of the Form I–9 may be presented as proof of identity and employment eligibility; it is the choice of the employer.

How May Employers Determine Whether an EAD Has Been Automatically Extended through July 5, 2005 and Is Therefore Acceptable for Completion of the Form I–9?

For purposes of verifying identity and employment eligibility or re-verifying employment eligibility on the Form I–9 until July 5, 2005, employers of Honduran TPS beneficiaries whose EADs have been automatically extended by this notice must accept such EAD if presented. An EAD that has been automatically extended by this notice to July 5, 2005 will actually contain an expiration date of January 5, 2005, and must be either (1) a Form I–766 bearing

If . . . Then . . .

| You are applying for an EAD valid until July 5, 2006, regardless of your age. | You must complete and file the Form I–765, Application for Employment Authorization, with the $175 fee. |
| You are not requesting an EAD, or are applying under late initial registration provisions and are under age 14 or over age 65. | You must complete and file Form I–765 (for data-gathering purposes only) with no fee.¹ |
| You are applying for an EAD and are requesting a fee waiver .......... | You must complete and file: (1) Form I–765 and (2) a fee waiver request and affidavit (and any other supporting information) in accordance with 8 CFR 244.20. | application for asylum or any other immigration benefit does not affect an applicant’s TPS eligibility, although the grounds for denying one form of relief may also be grounds for denying TPS. For example, a person who has been convicted of a particularly serious crime is not eligible for asylum or TPS. 8 U.S.C. 1158(b)(2)(A)(ii); 8 U.S.C. 1254a(c)(2)(B)(ii).

Does This Extension Allow Nationals of Honduras (or Aliens Having No Nationality Who Last Habitually Resided in Honduras) Who Entered the United States After December 30, 1998, To File for TPS?

No. This is a notice of an extension of the TPS designation of Honduras, not a notice re-designating Honduras for TPS. An extension of a TPS designation does not change the required dates of continuous residence and continuous physical presence in the United States. This extension does not expand TPS availability to those beyond the current TPS eligibility requirements for Honduras. To be eligible for benefits under this extension, nationals of Honduras (or aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Honduras) must have continuously resided in the United States since December 30, 1998 and been continuously physically present in the United States since January 5, 1999, the date of the initial designation of TPS for Honduras.

Are Certain Aliens Ineligible for TPS?

Yes. There are certain criminal and terrorism-related inadmissibility grounds that render an alien ineligible for TPS. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(c)(2)(A)(iii). Further, aliens who have been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States are ineligible for TPS under section 244(c)(2)(B) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1254a(c)(2)(B), as are aliens described in the bars to asylum in section 208(b)(2)(A) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1158(b)(2)(A).

What Is Late Initial Registration?

Some persons may be eligible for late initial registration under 8 U.S.C. 1254a(c)(1)(A)(iv) and 8 CFR 244.2(f)(2) and (g). To apply for late initial registration an applicant must:

(1) Be a national of Honduras (or alien who has no nationality and who last habitually resided in Honduras);
(2) Have continuously resided in the United States since December 30, 1998;
(3) Have been continuously physically present in the United States since January 5, 1999; and
(4) Be both admissible as an immigrant, except as provided under section 244(c)(2)(A) of the Act, and not inadmissible under section 244(c)(2)(B) of the Act.

Additionally, the applicant must be able to demonstrate that during the initial registration period (from January 5, 1999 to August 20, 1999), he or she:

(1) Was a nonimmigrant or had been granted voluntary departure status or any relief from removal;
(2) Had an application for change of status, adjustment of status, asylum, voluntary departure, or any relief from removal or change of status pending or subject to further review or appeal;
(3) Was a parolee or had a pending request for parole; or
(4) Is the spouse or child of an alien currently eligible to be a TPS registrant.

An applicant for late initial registration must file an application for late registration no later than 60 days after the expiration or termination of the conditions described above. 8 CFR 244.2(g). All late initial registration applications for TPS pursuant to the TPS designation of Honduras should be submitted to the Lockbox address in Chicago, Illinois.

What Happens When This Extension of TPS Expires on July 5, 2006?

At least 60 days before this extension of TPS designation of Honduras expires on July 5, 2006, the Secretary of DHS, after consultation with appropriate agencies of the Government, will review conditions in Honduras and determine whether the conditions for TPS designation continue to be met at that time, or whether the TPS designation should be terminated. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(3). Notice of that determination, including the basis for the determination, will be published in the Federal Register.

Notice of Extension of Designation of TPS for Honduras

By the authority vested in DHS under sections 244(b)(1)(B), (b)(2)(A), and (b)(3)(C) of the Act, DHS has determined, after consultation with the appropriate Government agencies, that the conditions that prompted designation of Honduras for TPS continue to be met. Accordingly, DHS orders as follows:

(1) The designation of Honduras under section 244(b)(1)[B] of the Act is extended for an additional 18-month period from January 5, 2005, to July 5, 2006, 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(3)[C].
(2) There are approximately 81,875 nationals of Honduras (or aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Honduras) who have been granted TPS and who are eligible for re-registration.

(3) To maintain TPS, a national of Honduras (or an alien having no nationality who last habitually resided in Honduras) who was granted TPS during the initial designation period and the subsequent extensions of this designation, or who was granted TPS during late initial registration, must re-register for TPS during the 60-day re-registration period from November 3, 2004 until January 3, 2005.

(4) To re-register, the applicant must file the following: (1) Form I–821, Application for Temporary Protected Status; (2) Form I–765, Application for Employment Authorization; and (3) a biometric services fee of seventy dollars ($70) if applicant is age 14 or older, or if applicant is under age 14 and requesting an employment authorization document. Applications submitted without the required fees will be returned to the applicant. If the applicant requests employment authorization, he or she must submit one hundred and seventy-five dollars ($175) or a properly documented fee waiver request, pursuant to 8 CFR 244.20, with Form I–765. An applicant who does not request employment authorization must still file Form I–765 along with Form I–821, but is not required to submit the fee for filing Form I–765. Failure to re-register without good cause will result in the withdrawal of TPS. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(c)(3)(C).

(5) At least 60 days before this extension ends on July 5, 2006, the Secretary of DHS, after consultation with appropriate agencies of the Government, will review the designation Honduras for TPS and determine whether the conditions for designation continue to be met. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(3)(A). Notice of that determination, including the basis for the determination, will be published in the Federal Register. Id.

(6) Information concerning the extension of designation of Honduras for TPS will be available at local USCIS offices upon publication of this notice and on the USCIS Web site at http://uscis.gov.

Tom Ridge,
Secretary of Homeland Security.

Extension of the Designation of Temporary Protected Status for Nicaragua; Automatic Extension of Employment Authorization Documentation for Nicaragua TPS Beneficiaries

AGENCY: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, DHS.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Temporary Protected Status (TPS) designation for Nicaragua will expire on January 5, 2005. This notice extends the designation of Nicaragua for 18 months, until July 5, 2006, and sets forth procedures necessary for nationals of Nicaragua (or aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Nicaragua) with TPS to re-register and to apply for an extension of their employment authorization documents (EADs) for the additional 18-month period. Re-registration is limited to persons who registered under the initial designation (which was announced on January 5, 1999) and also timely re-registered under each subsequent extension of the designation. Eligible aliens must also have maintained continuous physical presence in the United States since January 5, 1999, and continuous residence in the United States since December 30, 1998. Certain nationals of Nicaragua (or aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Nicaragua) who have not previously applied for TPS may be eligible to apply under the late initial registration provisions.

Given the large number of Nicaraguans affected by this notice, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) recognizes that many re-registrants may not receive their new EADs until after their current EADs expire on January 5, 2005. Accordingly, this notice automatically extends the validity of EADs issued under Nicaragua TPS for six months until July 5, 2005, and explains how TPS beneficiaries and their employers may determine which EADs are automatically extended.

DATES: Effective Dates: The extension of TPS for Nicaragua is effective January 5, 2005, and will remain in effect until July 5, 2006. The 60-day re-registration period begins November 3, 2004 and will remain in effect until January 3, 2005.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:
What Authority Does the Secretary of DHS Have To Extend the Designation of TPS for Nicaragua

On March 1, 2003, the functions of the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) transferred from the Department of Justice (DOJ) to DHS pursuant to the Department of Homeland Security Act of 2002, Public Law 107–296. The responsibilities for administering TPS held by INS were transferred to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS).

Under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), 8 U.S.C. 1254a, the Secretary of DHS, after consultation with appropriate agencies of the Government, is authorized to designate a foreign state (or part thereof) for TPS. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(1). The Secretary of DHS may then grant TPS to eligible nationals of that foreign state (or aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in that state). 8 U.S.C. 1254a(a)(1).

Section 244(b)(3)(A) of the Act requires the Secretary of DHS to review, at least 60 days before the expiration of the TPS designation or any extension thereof, the conditions in a foreign state designated for TPS to determine whether the conditions for a TPS designation continue to be met and, if so, the length of an extension of the TPS designation. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(3)(A). If the Secretary of DHS determines that the foreign state no longer meets the conditions for TPS designation, he shall terminate the designation, as provided in section 244(b)(3)(B) of the Act. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(3)(B). Finally, if the Secretary of DHS does not determine that a foreign state (or part thereof) no longer meets the conditions for designation at least 60 days before the designation is due to end, section 244(b)(3)(C) of the Act provides for an automatic extension of TPS for an additional period of 6 months (or, in the discretion of the Secretary of DHS, a period of 12 or 18 months). 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(3)(C).

Why Did the Secretary of DHS Decide To Extend the TPS Designation for Nicaragua?

On January 5, 1999, notice was published in the Federal Register at 64
