EOIR Announces Latest Disciplinary Actions Under Rules of Professional Conduct Four Attorneys Immediately Suspended; Two Receive Final Orders

FALLS CHURCH, Va. – The Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) has taken disciplinary action against six attorneys after charging them with violations of the Rules of Professional Conduct for immigration practitioners. These rules appear in Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR Parts 1003 and 1292). In most cases, the disciplinary action is initiated as a result of sanctions imposed by other jurisdictions or a criminal conviction.

Although the disciplinary process may vary according to the specific circumstances of each case, generally it includes the following steps:

Disciplinary proceedings begin with a Notice of Intent to Discipline filed with the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) by the Office of the General Counsel of either EOIR or the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). The BIA requires the attorney to respond to the alleged violations. In some cases, a Petition for Immediate Suspension also is filed and the BIA orders the attorney to be suspended immediately from practice before the immigration courts, the BIA, and the DHS. (DHS joins EOIR in taking the disciplinary action.) Disciplined attorneys are directed to notify promptly, in writing, their clients with pending immigration cases that they may no longer represent them before the BIA, the immigration courts, or the DHS. Disciplined attorneys must petition and be reinstated by the BIA before they can resume the practice of law before the BIA, the immigration courts, and the DHS.

Immediate Suspension

The BIA ordered the immediate suspension of the following attorneys:

- Derrick G. Arjune: He was disbarred from the practice of law by the New York Supreme Court, Appellate Division, Second Judicial Department. He was immediately suspended by the BIA on Aug. 11, 2005, based on his disbarment in New York and a criminal conviction.

- Robert M. Kuhnreich: He was suspended from the practice of law for 2 years by the New York Supreme Court, Appellate Division, First Judicial Department, for neglect, failing to return fees, and engaging in conduct that adversely reflected upon his fitness as a lawyer. He was immediately suspended by the BIA on Aug. 11, 2005, based on his 2-year suspension in New York, pending final disposition of his case.
- Regina D. Steele: She was suspended from the practice of law for 30 days by the Supreme Court of California for neglect, failing to communicate, and failing to return unearned fees. She was immediately suspended by the BIA on Aug. 11, 2005, based on her 30-day suspension in California, pending final disposition of her case.
- Drew S. Diehl: He was suspended from the practice of law for 6 months by the Supreme Court of Ohio. He was immediately suspended by the BIA on Aug. 12, 2005, based on his 6-month suspension in Ohio, pending final disposition of his case.

Final Orders of Discipline

The BIA issued Final Orders of Discipline against the following attorneys:

- Roy L. Bischoff: He was disbarred from the practice of law in Utah. He was immediately suspended by the BIA on June 27, 2005, based on his disbarment in Utah, pending final disposition of his case. The final order of July 27, 2005, expels him from practice before immigration tribunals, effective June 27, 2005.
- Oleg Ordinartsev: He was suspended from the practice of law for 2 years by the Supreme Court of Washington. He was immediately suspended by the BIA on June 27, 2005, based on his suspension in Washington State, pending final disposition of his case. The final order of July 27, 2005, suspends him from practice before immigration tribunals for 2 years, effective June 27, 2005.

Background

The Rules of Professional Conduct include provisions specifying grounds for disciplinary action, requirements for receiving and investigating complaints, and procedures for conducting hearings. The rules also authorize the BIA to immediately suspend a practitioner who has been subject to disbarment, suspension, or resignation with an admission of misconduct as imposed by a federal or state court, or who has been convicted of a serious crime, pending a summary proceeding and final sanction. They are available on the EOIR website at http://www.usdoj.gov/eoir/vll/fedreg/2000\_2001/fr27jn00R.pdf.

EOIR announces these disciplinary actions to inform the public about practitioners who are not authorized to represent clients in any matter before an immigration tribunal. EOIR also posts a “List of Disciplined Practitioners” on its website at <http://www.usdoj.gov/eoir/profcond/chart.htm>. In an effort to provide more detailed information about individual attorney discipline cases, every new immediate suspension or final order issued beginning June 27, 2005, can be accessed through this list by clicking on the highlighted “date” link. Links to older orders, issued since July 2000, will be included gradually.

EOIR is responsible for adjudicating immigration cases. Specifically, under delegated authority from the Attorney General, EOIR interprets and administers federal immigration laws by conducting immigration court proceedings, appellate reviews, and administrative hearings. EOIR consists of three components: the Office of the Chief Immigration Judge, which is responsible for managing the numerous immigration courts located throughout the United States where immigration judges adjudicate individual cases; the Board of Immigration Appeals, which primarily conducts appellate reviews of immigration judge decisions; and the Office of the Chief Administrative Hearing Officer, which adjudicates immigration-related employment cases. EOIR is committed to providing fair, expeditious, and uniform application of the nation's immigration laws in all cases.
