

Interim Decision #1803

MATTER OF NORTON
In Visa Petition Proceedings

A-17083591

Decided by Board October 16, 1967

Since the Mexican mail-order divorce dissolving beneficiary's prior marriage contracted in the Philippine Islands (both parties thereto nationals of the Philippines) is not recognized as valid in Michigan, the State in which she married petitioner, a United States citizen, in October 1966 and in which they both reside, the subsequent marriage is not valid and, therefore, does not serve to confer immediate relative status on her.

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER: James L. Elsmar, Esquire
2034 Guardian Building
Detroit, Michigan 48105

The petitioner, a naturalized citizen of the United States, appeals from an order entered by the District Director at Detroit, Michigan on May 16, 1967 denying his petition for immediate relative classification of Victoria J. Norton as his wife. Exceptions have been taken to the finding that the petitioner has failed to establish that a bona fide marriage relationship exists between the petitioner and the beneficiary.

The petitioner is a citizen of the United States, naturalized at Detroit, Michigan on December 20, 1960. He married the beneficiary, a citizen of the Republic of the Philippines, at Plymouth, Wayne County, Michigan on October 28, 1966. The District Director deems the purported marriage to be invalid for immigration purposes for the reason that the divorce granted by the Court of the Judicial District of Hidalgo, State of Tlaxacala, Republic of Mexico is not considered valid in Michigan since the court in Mexico did not have jurisdiction over the parties.

The beneficiary in an affidavit executed on March 9, 1967 concedes that she obtained the divorce through an attorney to whom she had given a power of attorney; that she was not present at the divorce hearing and that to the best of her knowledge her former husband was not present at the proceeding. The record contains a letter from an Assistant Attorney General of the State of Michigan dated July 14, 1967 which states in substance that a Mexican mail-order divorce is not recognized in the State of Michigan when the parties thereto are not within the jurisdiction of the Mexican court.

Counsel for the petitioner maintains that the divorce was valid under Philippine law; that the parties thereto are nationals of the Republic of the Philippines; that the parties consented to said divorce; that the consent conferred jurisdiction on the Mexican court; and that such a divorce has not been adjudicated by any Michigan court as invalid. Counsel cites no authority for his argument.

The generally accepted rule that the validity of a marriage is governed by the law of the place of celebration is applicable in this case.<sup>1</sup> The petitioner and the beneficiary were married in the State of Michigan. There is evidence of record that the marriage is not recognized in that state. Furthermore, Article 97 of the Civil Code of the Republic of the Philippines abolished divorce proceedings in 1949 for nationals of that country.<sup>2</sup>

Both the petitioner and the beneficiary reside in the State of Michigan. A state or country cannot exercise through its courts jurisdiction to dissolve a marriage when neither spouse is within the state.<sup>3</sup> There is evidence before us that the marriage of the petitioner and the beneficiary is not recognized by the State of Michigan. Accordingly, the appeal from the decision of the District Director denying the visa petition will be dismissed.

ORDER: It is directed that the appeal be and the same is hereby dismissed.
