    Act.

(5) A member of the Appeal Board shall hold office for a term of three years and shall be eligible for re-appointment for one further term of four years.

(6) The provisions of the First Schedule shall have effect in relation to the Appeal Board.

10. (1) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Commissioner under this Act may, within thirty days of receiving the decision, appeal to the Appeal Board against the decision.

    (2) In any appeal under this Act, the Appeal Board may confirm or set aside the decision of the Commissioner and shall cause the appellant concerned to be notified of its decision in the matter in writing:

        Provided that, before reaching a decision on any such appeal, the Appeal Board may either –
        (a) refer the matter to the Commissioner for further investigation and advice;
            or
        (b) make such further inquiry or investigation into the matter as it deems necessary.
(3) Any person who is aggrieved by the decision of the Appeal Board may within twenty-one days appeal to the High Court.

11. (1) Any person who has entered Kenya, whether lawfully or otherwise and wishes to remain within Kenya as a refugee in terms of this Act shall make his intentions known by appearing in person before the Commissioner immediately upon his entry or, in any case, within thirty days after his entry into Kenya.

(2) In case of a person who is lawfully in Kenya and is subsequently unable to return to his country of origin for any of the reasons specified in section 3 (1), he shall, prior to the expiration of his lawful stay, present himself before an appointed officer and apply for recognition as a refugee in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(3) Without prejudice to the provisions of this section, no person claiming to be a refugee within the meaning of section 3 (1) shall merely, by reason of illegal entry be declared a prohibited immigrant, detained or penalized in any way save that any person, who after entering Kenya, or who is within Kenya fails to comply with subsection (1) commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or both.

(4) Any appointed officer to whom an application is made under subsection (1) shall, if he is not himself the Commissioner, refer the application to the Commissioner.

(5) The Commissioner may consider all applications referred to him under subsection (4) within ninety days, of the application being so referred and may, within ninety days, make such inquiry or investigation as he thinks necessary into any such application and shall call upon the applicant to make an oral presentation.

(6) After considering the application referred to in subsection (4), the Commissioner

   (a) shall either grant refugee status to the applicant or reject the application; and

   (b) shall, within fourteen days, notify the applicant concerned in writing of the decision and in the case of a rejection the applicant shall be informed of the reasons therefore.

12. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, any person who has applied under section 11 for recognition of his status as a refugee and every member of his family, may remain in Kenya –
(a) until such person has been recognized as a refugee in terms of that section;
(b) in the event of the application of such person being rejected, until such person has had an opportunity to exhaust his right of appeal:
(c) where such person has appealed and the appeal has been unsuccessful, he shall be allowed reasonable time, not exceeding ninety days, to seek admission to a country of his choice.

(2) The Commissioner may, on application made to him by the person concerned, extend the ninety days period referred to in subsection (1) (c) if he is satisfied that there is a reasonable likelihood of the person being admitted to a country of his choice within such extended period.

Stay of proceeding Cap.172
Stay of proceeding Cap.173

13. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Immigration Act or the Aliens Restriction Act, no proceedings shall be instituted against any person or any member of his family in respect of his unlawful presence within Kenya –
(a) if such a person has made a bona fide application under section 11 for recognition as a refugee, until a decision has been made on the application and, where appropriate, such person has had an opportunity to exhaust his right of appeal under that section: or
(b) if such person has become a refugee.

14. Every refugee and asylum seeker shall –
(a) be issued with a refugee identity card or pass in the prescribed form; and
(b) be permitted to remain in Kenya in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

15. (1) A member of the family of a refugee who has entered Kenya shall, subject to subsection and (3) and any other provisions of this Act –
(a) be issued with a refugee identity card in the prescribed form on attaining the age of eighteen years:
(b) be issued with a refugee identification pass if below the age of eighteen years: and
(c) subject to subsections (2) and (3), be permitted to remain within Kenya for as long as the refugee concerned is permitted to so remain:

Provided that such member of the family has not been excluded under section 3(3).
The Commissioner may grant permission to a dependent member of the family of a refugee upon application to enter and reside in Kenya and such a member shall be entitled to the rights and privileges specified in section 15 for such period as the refugee is entitled to remain in Kenya.

Upon the death of a refugee or upon the refugee’s divorce or legal separation from the refugee’s spouse, every person who, immediately before such death, divorce or legal separation was within Kenya as a member of the family of such refugee shall be permitted to continue to remain in Kenya in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Nothing in this section shall prevent a member of the family of a refugee or a person who has under subsection (2) been permitted to continue to remain in Kenya from applying for recognition as a refugee under section 11.

16. (1) Subject to this Act, every recognized refugee and every member of his family in Kenya –
(a) shall be entitled to the rights and be subject to the obligations contained in the international conventions to which Kenya is party;
(b) shall be subject to all laws in force in Kenya.

(2) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, in consultation with the host community, designate places and areas in Kenya to be -
(a) transit centres for the purposes of temporarily accommodating persons who have applied for recognition as refugees or members of the refugee’s family while their applications for refugee status are being processed; or
(b) refugee camps.

(3) The designated areas provided for in subsection (2) shall be maintained and managed in an environmentally sound manner.

(4) Subject to this Act, every refugee and member of his family in Kenya shall, in respect of wage-earning employment, be subject to the same restrictions as are imposed on persons who are not citizens of Kenya.

17. There shall be a refugee camp officer, for every refugee camp whose functions shall be to –
(a) manage the refugee camp;
(b) receive and register all asylum seekers and submit to the Committee all applications for the determination of their refugee status;
18. No person shall be refused entry into Kenya, expelled, extradited from Kenya or returned to any other country or to subjected any similar measure if, as a result of such refusal, expulsion, return or other measure, such person is compelled to return to or remain in a country where –

(a) the person may be subject to persecution on account of race, religion, nationality, membership of a particular social group or political opinion; or

(b) the person’s life, physical integrity or liberty would be threatened on account of external aggression, occupation, foreign domination or events seriously disturbing public order in part or the whole of that country.

19. The Commissioner may withdraw the refugee status of any person where there are reasonable grounds for regarding that person as a danger to national security or to any community of that country.

20. (1) If, at any time, the Commissioner considers that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a person who has been recognized as a refugee for the purposes of this Act –

(a) should not have been so recognized; or

(b) has ceased to be a refugee for the purposes of this Act, the Commissioner shall revoke such recognition and shall notify the person concerned in writing of the decision together with the reasons therefor.

(2) Where the Commissioner has under this section withdrawn the recognition of any person as a refugee, that person shall cease to be a refugee and any member of his family shall cease to be so recognized under this Act on the expiration of seven days after the date on which the Commissioner notifies the person concerned that his recognition has been withdrawn:
Provided that nothing in this subsection shall prevent a member of the family of such refugee from applying for recognition under section 11.

Expulsion of refugees and members of their family

21. (1) Subject to 18(1) and subsection (2) of this section, the Minister may, after consultation with the Minister responsible for matters relating to immigration and internal security, order the expulsion from Kenya of any refugee or member of his family if the Minister considers the expulsion to be necessary on the grounds of national security or public order.

(2) Before ordering the expulsion from Kenya of any refugee or member of his family in terms of subsection (1) of this section, the Minister shall act in accordance with the due process of law.

Appointed officers

22. (1) The Minister may by notice in the Gazette appoint officers for the purposes of this Act.

(2) An appointed officer may, for the purposes of exercising his powers and carrying out his duties under this Act-

(a) subject to subsections (3) and (4), search any person or property;

(b) take the finger-prints, foot-prints, photographs, x-rays and other electromagnetic ray photographs of any refugee or member of his family or any person who claims to be a refugee for the purposes of this Act or any member of the family of such person; or

(c) question any refugee or member of his family or any person who claims to be a refugee for the purpose of this Act or any member of the family of such person.

(3) No search of any person or property shall be conducted in terms of subsection (2)(a) unless the appointed officer concerned has reasonable grounds for believing that the search is necessary for the prevention, investigation or detection of –

(a) a contravention of the provisions of this Act; or

(b) a fraudulent statement or concealment by a refugee, member of his family or person claiming to be a refugee for the purpose of this Act or any member of the family of such a person, of any fact relevant to his identity or status.

(4) Whenever it is necessary to cause a refugee to be searched, the search shall be made by an appointed officer of the same sex who, in conducting the search, shall have strict regard to decency.

Provided that where an appointed officer of the same sex as the refugee to be searched cannot be found, the search may be conducted by another person of the same sex not withstanding that the other person is not an appointed officer.
23. (1) The Commissioner shall ensure that specific measures are taken to ensure the safety of refugee women and children in designated areas.

(2) The Commissioner shall ensure that a child who is in need of refugee status or who is considered a refugee shall, whether unaccompanied or accompanied by his parents or by any other person, receive appropriate protection and assistance.

(3) The Commissioner shall, as far as possible, assist such a child to trace the parents or other members of the family of the refugee child in order to obtain information necessary for the reunification of the child with the child’s family.

(4) Where the parents of the child or other members of the child’s family cannot be found, the child shall be accorded the same protection as any other child permanently or temporarily deprived of his family.

24. (1) No member of the Committee, employee or agent of the Department of Refugees shall disclose information acquired under this Act except –

(a) in the course of his duties under this Act; or

(b) with the consent of the Commissioner.

(2) No person who receives information in contravention of subsection (1) shall disclose or publish the information.

(3) A person who contravenes any provision of this section commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or both such fine and imprisonment.

25. Any person who –

(a) is unlawfully in Kenya in contravention of this Act;

(b) makes any false declaration or statement to an appointed officer;

(c) knowingly misleads any appointed officer seeking information material to the exercise of any of his powers under this Act;

(d) having left or been removed from Kenya in consequence of an order made under section 21 of this Act, is found in Kenya while that order is still in force;

(e) not being a refugee and not having a valid refugee identification document, fails to comply with an order of the Minister to leave Kenya; or

(f) resides without authority outside the designated areas specified under section 15(2), commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Regulations 26. The Minister may make Regulations generally for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) regulations made under this section may provide for the –

(a) manner and form in which appeals may be made to the Appeals Board;

(b) assignment to the Commissioner of functions relating to the investigation, inspection and supervision of the reception, treatment and welfare of refugees;

(c) formation of committees and assignment to such committees of functions to be exercised, subject to the direction and control of the Commissioner or any such committee in relation to the reception, treatment and welfare of refugees;

(d) procedure to be followed in applications for recognition of refugee status and the form in which such applications shall be made;

(e) procedure to be followed in the expulsion of refugees;

(f) form and issue of identification and travel documents and to refugees and members of their families;

(g) form and issue of identification documents to persons awaiting determination of their status;

(h) control and regulation of persons who may be required to live within a designated place or area;

(i) form of any order or notice required to be served on any person under section 19 and the manner in which such order or notice may be served; or
