Organization Chart	Democratic Republic of the Congo: Process for applying for or renewing a passport
Employment	Research Directorate, Immigration and Refugee Board of Canada, Ottawa
Legal and Policy	Radio Okapi, the United Nations radio station in the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC), interviewed a spokesman for the Department of Foreign Affairs (ministère des Affaires étrangères) by telephone for a 22 October 2009 article.
References	During the interview, the spokesman reportedly indicated that applicants applying for the DRC's new biometric passport must [translation] "bring their voter card, US$150 for the passport and US$20 for the form" (Radio Okapi 22 Oct. 2009). In a telephone interview with the Research Directorate on 16 March 2011, a representative at the Embassy of the DRC in Ottawa explained that the new biometric passport entered circulation in April 2009; he also said that to apply, applicants must provide their current passport or nationality certificate, their residency card or a valid driver's licence, and pay C$250.
